

WOMAN ACCUSED OF MURDER

HE HAD FOUR ACES WOMAN ACCUSED THE TRAINING SCHOOL

Man in Police Court Today Was Charged With Gambling Miss Edmund Resigns Principalship to Accept Position at $3500

Mrs. Richmond of Cambridge Is Charged With Murder She Met With an Accident in New York and Later Contracted a Severe Cold—She Will be at New York University

There was a quiet little game of cards being held on the South common yesterday afternoon when Patrolman Daniel Cogger put in an appearance. He reached the group before any of the members were warned of his approach and though there was a general rush to get away he succeeded in grabbing Joseph Nuno. Joseph denied that he had anything to do with the game, but when taken to the police station and searched four aces were found in one of the pockets of his clothing. In court this morning he pleaded guilty to a complaint charging him with taking part in a game on the Lord's day and was fined $10.

Stole a Milk Bottle

Moise Houle, employed by J. Champagne, a milk dealer, was charged with the larceny of a milk bottle valued at five cents, the property of Theophile Claretmont, another milkman.

Patrolman Joseph Lonsoureux testified that he had received several complaints of milk bottles being taken from the O'Flahavan block in Moody street and this morning marked a bottle. A little later he saw Houle leaving the building and questioned him about bottles being taken from that building. A further investigation resulted in the finding of the marked bottle in Houle's possession.

Milkman Claretmont said that he had missed bottles from the same building every morning for the past several weeks.

Houle said that somebody had been taking his bottles and as both his bottles and the bottle which he took this morning did not bear any mark he thought that the bottle was his.

The court found him guilty and ordered him to pay a fine of $5.

Neglected His Wife

In the case of Philip Snider charged with non-support of his wife, Ida, the court after considering the evidence in the case placed the man on probation.

Sunday Drunks

Alexander Sheriniski, Patrick Keenan, Thomas F. Monahan, Patrick Riley

Hood's Sarsaparilla

By virtue of its unequalled blood-purifying, nerve-strengthening, stomach-toning, appetite-restoring properties, is the one Great Spring Medicine.

Get it today in liquid form or in tablets known as Sarsatabs. 100 doses $1.

PERFECT AFFINITY exists between our patients and ourselves. They have every confidence in our ability to make their teeth last to a good old age when they trust us to keep them in condition. When they come to us for us to save them we will make your mouth perfect by our scientific crown and bridge work, or by inserting natural looking plates at

Dr. Gagnon's
Obtundine System of Dentistry
468 Merrimack St., Opp. Tilden St.

MIDDLESEX COOPERATIVE BANK
Semi-Annual Dividend Just Declared at the Rate of
5% Per Annum
Shares in New Series Now on Sale at Office of the Bank,
88 Central Block
LOWELL, MASS.

DEATHS

FLYNN—John T. Flynn died yesterday at his home, rear of 102 Adams street, aged 38 years. He is survived by his wife, Mary, and four children. He was a well known resident of St. Patrick's parish and was a member of Division I. A. O. H. and of Court Gen. Dimon, A. O. F.

ASHWORTH—Mrs. Julia E. Ashworth, wife of Albin S. Ashworth, died yesterday at her home, 23 South Walker street, aged 53 years and two months. She leaves, besides her husband, one daughter, Mrs. Harold E. Maxson, two grandchildren, Carlotta and Virginia Maxson, one brother, Warren P. Smith and five sisters, Mrs. Charles H. Hanson, Mrs. Clara E. Cain of Springfield, Mrs. Frances M. Blood of Nashua, N. H., Mrs. Bertha Richmond of Springfield, Vt., and Mrs. Lee Grand M. Anway of Los Angeles, Cal.

HEALEY—Miss Catherine Healey died yesterday at the home of her niece, Mrs. Mary Tierney, 3 Dewey avenue, off Coburn street. She was a well known resident of Centralville.

JENNISON'S Tooth Powder
ALL DRUGGISTS

CAMBRIDGE, May 23.—For the first time in seventeen years in the Massachusetts court a woman, Mrs. Elizabeth Richmond of Cambridge, was placed on trial for her life today in the Middlesex county superior court. The indictment charges Mrs. Richmond with the murder on July 23, 1909, of Stewart McTavish, a boarder who was found with his head crushed in a little back bedroom in Hotel Florence in Cambridge, conducted by Mrs. Richmond. The police stated at the time that Mrs. Richmond, who is an unusually large and strong woman became involved in a quarrel with McTavish after both had been drinking; shot him and then beat in his head.

The woman seemed under the influence of liquor when arrested and shortly after her indictment she was placed in a cell within a few feet of the one in which her husband was serving a term for drunkenness.

The murder took place within a stone's throw of the scene of today's trial.

COMMON COUNCIL Will Try to Elect Principal Assessor Tomorrow Night

City Solicitor Engaged on Several Opinions—Committee on Appropriations to Meet Tonight—Order for $600 for Medical Inspection in Private Schools Signed

The board of aldermen will meet in special session and the common council in regular session tomorrow night and during the evening a joint convention will be held on the petition for a hearing on the proposed purchase of the Livingston park land in the Highlands. The petitioners for the purchase of the land are members of the Highland Improvement association and the park board is strongly in favor of the city purchasing it. The price asked for the land is $10,000 which is less than it is assessed for.

Contest for Assessor

The question of choice of principal assessor to take the place of late Assessor Wheeler will also be brought up at tomorrow night's meeting. Warren P. Sanborn has been elected on the part of the aldermen and tomorrow night the common council will take action.

City Solicitor Busy

City Solicitor William W. Duncan is busily engaged preparing opinions for different departments and committees. One of the opinions is the request of the street committee relative to the petition of the Lowell Shoe company and Fred R. Brookings for the acceptance of that portion of Stackpole street between East Merrimack and Brown streets. The committee wants to know what the city's rights are in that portion of the street. That strip was formerly known as the property of the Whittier cotton mills.

There has been a petition for the acceptance of Christian street in Centralville and the committee on streets wants to know if the city can obligate abutters to remove fences which are in the proposed street.

Committee on Appropriations

The committee on appropriations will meet in special session at 7.30 o'clock tonight for the purpose of considering numerous loans which have been recommended.

The committee on the department wants $10,000 to make improvements and alterations in various fire houses, one of the principal items in the list being an amount of money for the improvement of the Warren street house. At the present time, the company having been enlarged, it is necessary for two of the members to sleep in the attic.

The bill of $4000 alleged to be due the Massachusetts Institution for the Deaf and Dumb will also be considered and Solomon Mayberry, former superintendent of the clarity department, committed the matter to the committee on appropriations for further information and it is expected that the committee at tonight's meeting will look into the matter more thoroughly and give the board of aldermen the required information.

Greenleaf Qualifies

Roy W. Greenleaf, who was recently appointed smoke inspector, qualified this morning.

Loan Order Signed

Mayor Meehan this morning signed the joint loan order, providing for $600 for medical inspection—in private schools.

Fireworks for Fourth

The Boston agent of the Paine Fireworks Co. has written the clerk of committees relative to a display of fireworks for the Fourth of July. At the present time there is an order providing for the expenditure of $1500 for the observance of the Fourth lying on the table and there does not seem to be much indication of it being taken off and acted upon.

FUNERALS

WALSH.—The funeral of Mrs. Ellen Walsh took place yesterday afternoon from the rooms of Undertaker C. H. Molloy & Sons. Burial was in the Catholic cemetery, where Rev. Timothy Callahan read the committal prayers. Undertakers C. H. Molloy & Sons had charge.

STACKPOLE.—The funeral of Mrs. Minnie F. Stackpole took place yesterday afternoon from her late residence, 533 Chelmsford street. The services were conducted by Rev. James E. Gregg, pastor of the Kirk Street Congregational church. Appropriate recitations were sung by the First Universalist church choir. The bearers were David Healey, Nelson D. Keables, George W. Tucke and Charles S. Tuttle.

The Mighty Blacksmith

The successful horse-shoer in these days is not the one who does most work, but the one who does the most paying work. Blowing forge fires by hand is not profitable work. Let an electric forge blower do it.

The Lowell Electric Light Corporation
50 CENTRAL STREET

Interest
BEGINS
Wednesday, June 1
SAVINGS DEPT.
Traders National Bank

Hours: 9.30 a. m. to 3 p. m. Saturday, 9.30 a. m. to 12.30 p. m. and 7 to 9 p. m.

Mechanics Savings Bank
202 MERRIMACK ST.

Quarter Day
JUNE 4TH.

Poland Water
For Sale by
F. and E. BAILEY & CO.
GEO. A. WILLSON & CO.

Miss Gertrude Edmund, principal of the training school, has sent to Supt. Whitcomb of the school board a letter, tendering her resignation to take effect at once. Under present arrangements she would be principal during the year 1910-11.

On January 12 of this year, she fell in New York and sustained a severe fracture of the ankle, under which she was confined to a hospital for four months. After leaving the hospital she contracted a cold which developed into pleurisy. She has however received an appointment at the New York university at which she had been studying for a degree and as her subjoined letter will show, at a salary of $3500. Her letter is as follows:

Cohasset, New York, May 14, 1910.

Supt. A. K. Whitcomb, Secretary Lowell School Committee, Lowell, Mass.

My Dear Sir: When the school board

kindly gave me leave of absence last October it was with the understanding that I was to study for a Ph. D. degree in New York University. My plans were upset by an accident which was followed by a long and serious illness, and I find that I must take a longer rest than I anticipated when I left the hospital. I have been offered university and professional school positions in New York for the year 1910-11, with a salary of $3500 and have decided to accept the same.

I had hoped to return to Lowell to present my resignation as principal of the training school in person, but as I am unable to do so, will ask you to present it at the next meeting of the board, the same to take effect at once. Thanking you and the board for the many past favors, I am

Respectfully yours,
Gertrude Edmund.

FUNERAL NOTICES

WALSH.—The funeral of Mrs. Sarah M. C. Holt took place Saturday afternoon from the residence in North Chelmsford. Rev. Mr. Bartlett officiated and there was singing by Mrs. Horace Hansen and Mrs. Duncan. The bearers were Messrs. Hale, Blodgett, Josselyn and Dunn. Burial was in the Riverside cemetery, North Chelmsford, under the direction of Undertaker C. M. Young.

LIQUOR SEIZED

TETREAULT WILL BE CALLED INTO COURT

Sergeant Alexander Duncan and Inspector William H. Grady of the liquor squad paid a visit to the home of Adolphe Tetreault at 9 Fulton place yesterday and seized six cases of beer. Tetreault will be summoned into court during the week to answer to a complaint charging him with illegally keeping liquor.

COOK, TAYLOR & CO.
231-233 Central Street

Special Biggest Bargain in Towels Ever Offered . . .

6c Each

In Basement at Low Prices

Mosquito Netting
For 8 Yard Pile, Any Color
55c

Bed Spreads
Sheetings
Pillow Cases
Sheets
Tickings
Brown Cotton
Table Oil Cloth
Light Percales

Light Outing
Heavy Outing
Drillings
Prints
Ginghams
Crash
Towels
Curtain Muslin
Table Padding
Table Linens
Napkins

COOK, TAYLOR & CO.
231-233 Central Street

REV. DR. BLACKBURN

Greeted by Old Friends at First Baptist Church

Rev. J. M. Craig Back Again in Pulpit—Rev. James Bancroft Begins His Pastorate at St. John's Episcopal Church

Rev. Alexander Blackburn, D. D., former pastor of the First Baptist church, occupied the pulpit of that church yesterday and there was a large attendance of his former congregation to welcome him.

In the morning his subject was "The Incarnation and Prayer." The central thought of the sermon was the deity of Jesus Christ and the power of prayer, which he said were closely linked together. The evening discourse was on the subject of "Life's Overflow." His text was taken from the sayings of Jesus to the woman of Samaria at Jacob's well, and said if present plans are carried out, he expected within three months to stand at the spot where those words were spoken. At the close of a day's labor one man goes towards his home, picks a few flowers, but some fruit and smilingly is welcomed by his children. You would trust such a man with all you have. Another man leaves his work, and grudgingly and dull he pays no attention to flowers and fruit, but does patronize the saloon, and his arrival home is attended by the overflow of his children and wife. The overflow of life shows what he is. The overflow of your life is the index of your character. A rich man in New York, whom I once visited, told me he would cut 60,000 Jacqueminot roses in one season, that would be sent to New York and freely given through the element house district. I found out the overflow of that man's life. Finding it out, I could love and trust him. Not only is it an index, but the overflow makes your character. What you do in your hours of labor has not so much influence upon your character as what you do in your hours of recreation. Let us be sure as you rightly use the "off" hours, you will grow in strength and integrity. Jesus came to fix the overflow of life in the right direction. He came not to take pleasure out of life, but to give joy to life. Pure, sweet pleasure is a blessing. Bear a smile with you into the world. Laugh at the proper time, be sober at the proper time. When we reach the judgment seat of the Master we are not going to be asked how we wove or wrought at our daily labor, but if the overflow of our lives has given cheer and comfort to the sick and poor. The overflow of Helen Gould's life, and of Miss Frick does good to hundreds and thousands of young men and women. Jesus' life has an overflow that gives joy and blessing and salvation to all who accept it.

Rev. Mr. Craig Returns

Rev. J. M. Craig, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, received a warm welcome from his parishioners yesterday after his six weeks' visit in Kansas City. The members of the church turned out in large numbers.

In a prelude to the sermon Rev. Mr. Craig spoke of the changes which occurred since he left this city and mentioned the fact that one member of the church had passed away, another, he said, was stricken down and health to a bed of sickness, reminding us of the uncertainty and brevity of this life, of the need of living the Christian life. Rev. J. M. Craig preached from Gal. 6:14, "God forbid that I should glory in the cross of Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world."

New Pastor Preached

There was a large congregation at St. John's Episcopal church in Gorham yesterday, the occasion being the first time that Rev. James Bancroft occupied the pulpit as rector.

His sermon was based on John 12:1. "The same (the Greeks) came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, 'Sir, we would see Jesus.'"

Rev. Mr. Bancroft spoke of the context and of the Greeks desiring to come into touch with Jesus Christ and his religion. They desired to meet and know those who were so placed as to act as intermediaries between the Christ and themselves.

He likened the action of the Greeks to the attitude of the Christian world today. He said that men today believe in Christ, the son of God, and in his teachings, and they also believe in those men who are of the church as its ministers, its intermediaries. They know them to represent God and his religion, and they have faith in them.

There was a large attendance at the evening service when there was special music by the choir, and when Rev. Mr. Bancroft also spoke.

MURDER SUSPECT

Returns to New York After Nine Years' Absence

NEW YORK, May 23.—Homesick-ness beset him for nine years, during which time he roamed through the west a free and unsuspected man, finally drove, William Whiteway, 36, "wanted" as one of three men who murdered Theodore Johanson here in 1901—back like a homing pigeon to New York, where yesterday into the clutches of the police, who for the nine years have been on the lookout for him.

"Please give me some money. I must eat," he pleaded.

"Hello, Whiteway," he said. It was Detective Hart, who nine years ago looked high and low for the man. A few minutes later Whiteway was a prisoner in the Harlem detective bureau. At first he resolutely denied his identity. Later he broke down and admitted it.

Theodore Johanson was wounded in Leggett's lane, Oak Point, Bronx, in the early morning hours of July 7, 1901. It is charged that Whiteway, John Fisher and Massey Schofield held Johanson up. Fisher, convicted of firing the fatal shot, is serving a life sentence. Schofield confessed and named Whiteway as the third man in the case. Schofield got six years for his part in the crime. In his confession he told how he, Whiteway and Fisher, being "broke," held up Johanson and a man called Haffner, and how Fisher, when Johanson made off, fired twice, bringing his man down. Johanson died three days later.

STEAMER VENUS

Has Gone Back to Bluefields

NEW ORLEANS, May 23.—Representatives of the titular government of Nicaragua stated last night that they had received advice to the effect that the Venus had gone to Bluefields to await orders from Madrid; that such orders had been received and that the steamer then put back to Bluefields Saturday. It is asserted the Venus will attack the steamer Marietta at Bluefields if it can meet the latter at a point where the town of Bluefields will not be threatened or under circumstances which the Madrid government does not construe as a violation of the dictum of Commander Glimmer in charge of the United States gunboats Paluch and Dubuque regarding the safety of American citizens in Bluefields.

AMERICAN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION. BOSTON, May 23.—Morning prayer in King's chapel, Tremont street, conducted by Rev. D. Roy Freeman of Braintree, opened the regular meeting of the 52nd anniversary of the American Unitarian Association today. Two preliminary sessions were held later. Later in the forenoon Rev. J. T. Sutherland of Hartford, Conn., addressed the annual meeting of the Ministerial Union in Channing hall. His subject was "Theodore Parker." Other meetings were held in the afternoon.

Daily sessions will be held during the week and the anniversary is expected to be one of the most memorable ever held by the association. A most elaborate program includes addresses by many noted speakers and ministers, among them Gov. Draper, Lieut. Gov. Frothingham and President Emeritus Charles W. Eliot of Harvard university.

HOMES WRECKED

Cairo, Ill., Visited by a Tornado

CAIRO, Ill., May 23.—A tornado which struck Cairo at 6.40 p. m. yesterday demolished four homes, damaged a dozen more and destroyed several barns, besides tearing large trees up by the roots. No fatalities were reported, but one woman was severely bruised and several persons were slightly injured.

The house occupied by Henry Smith was lifted bodily from its foundation, carried about 50 feet northward and landed bottom side up. Mrs. Smith and three children were in the house and the former was painfully bruised, while the children were slightly injured.

The home of Arthur Linquist was carried by the wind 100 feet away and landed right side up, but badly twisted. The occupants escaped with slight injuries.

While members of the family of William Wie were at supper the storm lifted the roof so suddenly they did not realize what was happening. A large barn was carried 200 feet and landed on a coal shed.

The tornado appeared to be about 100 feet wide.

NORMAL SCHOOL

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION HELD ANNUAL REUNION

The annual reunion and banquet of the Lowell Normal School Alumni Association was held Saturday afternoon at the school. A business meeting preceded the banquet.

The principal business of the meeting was the election of officers for the ensuing year, as follows: Miss Anna McCarron, '05, president; Miss Winifred McEvoy, '05, vice-president; Miss association was held Saturday afternoon at the school. A business meeting preceded the banquet.

The principal business of the meeting was the election of officers for the ensuing year, as follows: Miss Anna McCarron, '05, president; Miss Winifred McEvoy, '05, vice-president; Miss association was held Saturday afternoon at the school. A business meeting preceded the banquet.

The principal business of the meeting was the election of officers for the ensuing year, as follows: Miss Anna McCarron, '05, president; Miss Winifred McEvoy, '05, vice-president; Miss Alice Ramsay, '03, secretary; John E. Barr, '03, treasurer.

After the business meeting luncheon was served. The Germania Ladies' orchestra furnished music.

At the close of the banquet Miss Bessie E. Knappott presided as toast-mistress. The following program was carried out: Address of welcome, toast-

mistress; "The Alumni Association and the 'Future of the School,'" Miss Mabel Hill; extracts from letters written by an L. N. S. alumna; Miss Lillian C. Burbank, '05, remarks; Cyrus A. Dur-

gin, "Just a Word;" Miss Martha R. Taylor, '09, "Our Opportunities Today,"

Miss Mabel F. Laughlin, '04, "An Intangible Factor in Education," by Lyman C. Newell of Boston university.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

A. G. POLLARD CO.

THE STORE FOR THRIFTY PEOPLE

THIS MORNING BEGAN AN UNEX-AMPLED SALE OF LADIES'

Tailored Linen Suits

AT PRICES NEVER BEFORE APPROACHED IN LOWNESS AT THIS SEASON SECURED BY TAKING ADVANTAGE OF PRESENT TOSPY-TURVY MARKET CONDITIONS

LADIES' $11.98 LINEN SUITS - $7.98

LINEN SUITS For Decoration Day

Made of pure natural linen, linen crash, Siberian linen and heavy basket weave linen. Notch and shawl collars, plain or trimmed with black Skinner satin. Sizes 14, 16 and 18 years and 34 to 44. These suits are sold regularly at $11.98.

THE LINEN COATS WOMEN ARE BUYING

For journeys, for automobiling, for general street wear and hot weather. The long linen coat proves such a good friend that it is not surprising people are already buying them. We have a greater variety of such coats than usual in May—prices between $3.98 and $10.00, also mohairs at $5.98 and $7.50. During this sale all linen and motor coats will be altered free.

Cloak Dept.

See Window Display.

Second Floor

SHEETS AND PILLOW CASES

A special selling began this morning of a large purchase made last month, when sheets and pillow cases took a big drop in prices. You'll find each item less than the cotton can be bought for today. A few odd things also very cheap.

PILLOW CASES

Odd Pillow Cases, different widths and different lengths, made of brown and bleached cotton, good heavy quality, worth 12 1-2c, only 9c Each
250 dozen Pillow Cases, sizes 45x36, with 3 inch hem, made of good heavy popular make of cotton, but liable to be a little imperfect, worth 15c, only 11c Each
175 dozen Pillow Cases, made of tubing, no seams to give way, 45x38 1-2, with 3 inch hem, made of soft, heavy, perfect white cotton, worth 22c, only 15c Each

SHEETS

One lot good heavy sheets, full size and well made, with 3 inch hem at top and one at bottom, worth 49c 39c Each
One lot Unbleached Sheets, size 81x90, made of extra heavy cotton; will bleach out soft and white, well made, no center seams, worth 59c, only 49c

Palmer Street

SHEETS

One lot marked A. G. Pollard Co. "Perfection." The way this sheet sold at our last sale influenced us to secure more; we have them at the same prices as before.

Size 72x90, worth 65c, at only 55c Each
Size 72x99, worth 69c, at only 59c Each
Size 81x90, worth 69c, at only 59c Each
Size 81x99, worth 75c, at only 65c Each

Two numbers of celebrated "Dwight Anchor" cotton. Compare these prices with what you have to pay for it by the yard.

Size 63x99, worth 75c, at only 59c Each
Size 81x90, worth 85c, at only 69c Each

If you want to buy sheets for your camp, cottage, bungalow, summer home or city residence, take advantage of this sale.

Left Aisle

IN OUR UNDERPRICE BASEMENT

The most successful of all our Annual 6 1-4c Sales comes to an end tonight. A big majority of the magnificent special values have already been closed out, but the following new offerings should attract prudent shoppers here today.

PLAID GINGHAM—One case of fine Plaid Gingham, nice fine quality, in handsome patterns for summer dresses, but being slightly imperfect on the selvage, we offer them at . . . Sale Price 6 1-4c Yard

BLEACHED COTTON—2000 yards of fine quality bleached cotton, in remnants, good soft finish, 10c value Sale Price 6 1-4c Yard

WHITE MADRAS—One case of fine white madras, full yard wide, nice fine quality, for shirts, shirt waists and dresses, 12 1-2c value Sale Price 6 1-4c Yard

BLACK SATEEN—Heavy black sateen remnants, fast color, good strong quality, for mill aprons, skirts and working shirts, 12 1-2c value Sale Price 6 1-4c Yard

MERCERIZED NAPKINS—50 dozen fine Mercerized Napkins, 20 inches wide, very fine quality, in very handsome design, 10c value Sale Price 6 1-4c Each

WHITE CREPE—32 inches wide, White Crepe, nice and fine quality, for summer dresses, easily washed, 12 1-2c value Sale Price 6 1-4c Yard

Great Bargains in Fine Embroideries Tomorrow at Our Sale of Sample Pieces

13,000 Yards

Fresh from the importers, all new goods, including edgings, insertions and flouncings, in all widths, all hand machine work on fine nainsook and cambrics, at 1-2 to 1-3 less than regular prices.

10v EDGINGS AND INSERTIONS, ONLY 5c a yard

12 1-2c EDGINGS AND INSERTIONS, ONLY 7 1-2c a yard

15c EDGINGS AND INSERTIONS 10c a yard

19c EDGINGS AND INSERTIONS, ONLY 12 1-2c a yard

25c AND 39c EDGINGS AND INSERTIONS, ONLY 19c a yard

50c AND 75c EDGINGS AND INSERTIONS, ONLY 35c a yard

ON SALE TOMORROW, TUESDAY A. M., IN OUR UNDER-PRICE BASEMENT

We Need Two Experienced Dry Goods Salesmen—See Mr. Fortin in Palmer Street Basement

Special Notice

We shall make every effort to deliver promptly, but cannot guarantee delivery inside of one week. Kindly take small parcels with you if possible.

CAPTAIN SCOTT IS ABOUT READY TO START IN SEARCH OF THE SOUTH POLE

LIVES IN PERIL

Women Flee From Fire in Brockton

BROCKTON, May 23.—Fire of mysterious origin, discovered in the attic of a tenement house at 63 East Elm street, near police headquarters, imperiled the lives of four women late yesterday afternoon. The firemen confined the flames to a bedroom occupied by James R. McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Randall McDonald.

McDonald, when questioned by the assistant fire chief, Wm. P. Daley, declared that the fire caught from a lighted cigarette. Miss Gertrude Krickstein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Krickstein, who occupies a room in the house, told the firemen and police that she saw three different fires in an upper bedroom before the flying squadrons were summoned.

Other women who fled from the house when the fire broke out were Miss Ina R. Boyer, a demonstrator, Mrs. Krickstein and Mrs. McDonald. The stairs were choked with smoke when two of the women, who had been asleep, were awakened and succeeded in making their escape to the street. A quantity of furniture was destroyed in the attic, but the damage was not large.

STAR THEATRE

An all new program consisting of talking pictures, motion pictures and illustrated songs, was presented at the Star theatre this afternoon. Large audiences, in which women and children were well represented, witnessed both shows. The illustrated songs are always the latest. A good seat is included with the admission of five cents.

FATALLY SHOT

Three Boys Were "Playing Suicide"

PITTSBURG, May 23.—John Klein, 11 years old, was fatally shot yesterday and John Allen, aged 17, who admits having shot his companion, and another boy who witnessed the shooting, declared that the three were "playing suicide." Allen placed the revolver at Klein's head, instructing him how to commit suicide and the weapon was accidentally discharged. The bullet passed through Klein's head and he died soon after being carried by his mother to their home nearby.

103 YEARS OLD

Mrs. Burnham Passed
Away at Essex

ESSEX, May 23.—Mrs. Zuechus Burnham, aged 103 years, 4 months and 10 days, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sarah A. Lufkin, yesterday. Mrs. Burnham was the oldest resident of this section and one of the oldest women in the state.

Mrs. Burnham up to a very short time before her death enjoyed exceptional health for one so aged, and took great pleasure in the reunions of her family, which were always held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lufkin, with whom Mrs. Burnham made her home for the past 77 years.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

Today at the Academy there will be an entire change of vaudeville, pictures and songs. Heading the vaudeville will be the American cowboy four, considered one of the best quartets in vaudeville, and Whirlwind Green, a dainty singing comedienne.

The latest and best pictures are always to be seen at the Academy and a fine biograph feature picture is always shown. Miss Claudia Bessette will sing the latest illustrated songs and views of the different countries will be shown. Amateurs every Wednesday night.

RAILROAD CASES

Decision Rendered by the Interstate Commerce Commissioners

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Regulation of railroad freight rates ordinarily is a complicated question, involving intricate matters of law, but it becomes even a more serious problem when two regulating authorities clash on a proposition of the reasonableness of rates. Thoughtful observers of freight rate legislation have anticipated that, sooner or later, a conflict of authority would arise between the Interstate commerce commission and one or more of the state railroad commissions concerning the fixing of rates.

Precisely such a conflict has developed over an insignificant case that recently was brought before the Interstate commerce commission. It was that of E. E. Saunders & Co. of Pensacola, Fla., against the Southern Express company. The complainants are fish dealers and shippers at Pensacola. In the ordinary course of their business they operate largely in the state of Alabama, shipping fish in quantities from Pensacola to points of destination in that state by express.

Recently the railroad commission of Alabama fixed an express rate on fish from Mobile, Ala., to other intra-state points that was far below the express rate from Pensacola to the same points of destination. This rate the express company has forced to put in effect, although it protested against it.

The commission's opinion in the case was handed down today. It was preceded by Commissioner Harlan and is the unanimous statement of the commission. It indicates clearly the lines of conflict between the national commission and the various state commissions, in the regulation of freight and express rates; and, in that sense, is one of the most important decisions rendered by the commission for many months. While the case directly involved may be considered as inconsequential, comparatively, the principle enunciated by the commission is of country wide application, as it opens, at once, the question whether the national, or the state, regulating authority is paramount in the fixing of freight rates.

The commission states its position in these terms: "Upon general principles of comity the action of a state commission in fixing rates on state traffic must be treated with all due respect, but this commission has never felt itself bound to accept a state-made rate as a necessary measure of an interstate rate. Without criticizing state commission rates from Mobile, this commission, in the light of the record and its own investigations, finds itself unable to treat the Alabama rate as a fair and reasonable basis for fixing the defendants' rates to the same points from Pensacola."

The situation and the testimony are discussed thoroughly in the opinion. In announcing that it would not close the record in the case, until the defendant had made further efforts to contest the order of the Alabama commission, the Interstate commerce commission says:

"The carriage of traffic by a common carrier for one community or one set of shippers at less than it carries the same traffic for a like distance, and under substantially similar transportation conditions, for another community or another set of shippers is not only in contravention of fundamental right and justice but is essentially inimical to the public interest. Discrimination is practiced by a common carrier as between communities or different sets of shippers, within the same state and on traffic moving only within the state, redress may usually be had under the state laws. On the other hand, if an interstate carrier is guilty of such a discrimination with respect to interstate traffic, redress may be had under the act to regulate commerce.

"But when a carrier, as, in this case, serves two communities similarly situated, by hauling the same traffic under similar conditions from a point of origin to destinations in the same state and also to the same destinations from an interstate point of origin, it is not altogether clear that existing legislation affords redress against a discrimination, as between the two points, when resulting from an order by the state commission. But unless some such power is lodged somewhere under appropriate legislation, it is evident that state-made rates, if established in pursuance of narrow or selfish local policy, may not only hinder and hamper, but burden interstate traffic and interstate interests, but may, if adjusted with that end in view, take from a point in another state a business that naturally belongs to that point or in which it is entitled at least to participate on the basis of equal rates and equal opportunity.

"Whatever may be the explanation, whether it rests in the greater zeal, activity, and ability of the fishing interests at Pensacola or whether it is natural advantage belonging to that port, the fact appears that for years Pensacola has enjoyed a larger business in the distribution of fish throughout the state of Alabama than has Mobile. By a readjustment of the state rates out of Mobile, whether so intended or not, the process of taking from Pensacola the business lower rates made transportation charges, what its superior zeal or its greater natural advantages have given to it has commenced and is now going on.

"On principle it is clear that a carrier operating through two or more states is but one vehicle of commerce, and all traffic moved by it, whether state or interstate, ought, when the general transportation conditions are the same, to bear its just proportion of the cost of operation and ought to yield no more and no less than its just proportion of the revenues of the carrier.

"Any other theory is fundamentally inequitable, illogical, and unreasonable. It may be, but on that point we express no opinion, that the congress may constitutionally protect interstate commerce, as well as the carriers that are engaged in interstate transportation, by requiring that any state traffic moved by such a carrier shall bear its just proportion of the cost of operation and yield its proper proportion of profit to the carrier; and that with such an end in view it may authorize this commission to fix minimum rates, at least, for state traffic when moved by carriers engaged also in interstate transportation; or that it may provide that passengers or property may at the same time carry state traffic at rates that are less than the rates exacted by it for interstate carriage of like distance and under like transportation conditions. It has, however, not attempted any such legislation, and whether such an enactment would stand the test of scrutiny by the courts under the constitution as it now stands, and if so, whether it would be desirable from the standpoint of a broad public policy, are questions that must ultimately be determined by the legislative power and therefore cannot profitably be discussed by the commission in this proceeding."

MAN WAS KILLED

As Result of Companion's Joke

NEW YORK, May 23.—Arthur Devraus of Manhattan was killed Saturday night by a needle used in sewing up a bag, which was suspended by a cord around his neck. The accident occurred in the freight yards at Wabaker.

Devraus and Nicholas Dilecher were sewing up bags holding flour, which had been broken in the course of handling in the transmission of freight. Dilecher was having fun with Devraus and, as the latter stooped to pick up a bag, Dilecher playfully tickled him in the ribs.

Devraus straightened up suddenly and in some manner, as he came in contact with Dilecher, the three-inch packing needle was forced against his body and penetrated through to his heart, the man falling dead instantly.

EMPIRE THEATRE

A new show is given at the Empire today. The two vaudeville numbers are new and clever. Carl Stutzer, the black faced comedian, presents his comedy sketch in fine style and is sure to please. Rahn & Lewis also make up a good team showing a fine travesty entertainment.

The moving pictures are the newest and are sure to please any one who has seen them here at the Empire. Mr. Charles Rogers has another one of these ballads which he can render so finely.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

Commencing this afternoon and for the first three days of the current week, another of the excellent vaudeville and motion picture programs that are being given at this theatre will be seen. The vaudeville part of the program will include Grace LaVelle and company in the singing and dancing novelty sketch entitled "The Electric Trolly," in which Miss LaVelle, who is an operatic soprano of wonderful voice, will be seen as the doll. Miss LaVelle sings high F with ease and is said to have a voice whose notes are as sweet and pure as those of a bird.

STAR Theatre

TALKING PICTURES, MOTION PICTURES AND SONGS

Admission 5c. Seats Free

BELL TERRIER lost, stub tail, all brown, white spot on head. Reward at $5 Bartlett st.

EZRA E. MANSUR, Auctioneer

Room 24, Chaffin Building

PUBLIC AUCTION

By order from the bankruptcy court, will be sold at public auction at the office of Ezra E. Mansur, Room 24, Chaffin Building, Lowell, Mass., on Tuesday, May 24, 1910, at 2 o'clock p. m. the books of accounts of the bankrupt estate of W. A. Stearns of Billerica, Mass.

CHARLES T. HOWLAND, Trustee, Lowell, Mass., May 23, 1910.

MR. MAN

That buys the coal, did it ever occur to you that to be a successful coal man, in the full sense of the word, you must have practical experience? Let us understand one another. The money that started me in the coal business I earned myself screening, shoveling and carrying coal right here in your own city. Today my coal yard and facilities for handling coal are second to none in this city. I know what coal is, and what coal is not; I know what to buy, and what not to buy; that means my customers do not have to suffer for my mistakes. I do not tell my men go and do it, I see, come and do it, that means you hire your own foreman in place of the coal dealer hiring him for you. When you are about to place your coal orders, think this matter over.

Mail and telephone orders will receive immediate attention.

JOHN P. QUINN

Office and Yards, Gorham and Dix Sts. Take any Gorham street car; telephone 1180 and 2480. When one is busy, call the other.

The Bon Marche

Monday Evening Sale

FROM 6 TO 9.30 O'CLOCK ONLY

MEN'S HANDKERCHIEFS (Near Door) Full size, hemmed cambrie handkerchiefs, tape border, red and blue lines. Regularly 5c each.	MONDAY EVENING 2 For 5c
SHIRT WAISTS (Waist Dept.) A sheer muslin waist with colored cross bars of blue, black or lavender, side ruffle, button front, sizes 34 to 44. Regularly 89c.	MONDAY EVENING 49c
CHILDREN'S HOSE (Street Floor) The Athletic brand stocking, a good sturdy serviceable stocking for boys and girls, sizes 6 to 9; fast black, narrow rib. Regularly 15c.	MONDAY EVENING 10c pr.
TOOTH POWDER (Toilet Goods Dept.) Dr. Lyons' Tooth Powder, in glass bottles, sprinkler tops, a standard preparation, always sold at 25c.	MONDAY EVENING 14c
BAREFOOT SANDALS Children's Sandals, sewed soles, leather counters, all sizes 5 to 11. Regularly 49c and 59c.	MONDAY EVENING 39c
MESSALINE SILK. All pure silk, light and dark colors, in lengths of one to four yards. Regularly selling at 49c and 59c.	MONDAY EVENING 29c
CHATELAINE BAGS (Near Elevator) A variety of Chatelaine Bags in black, brown and gray leather. Regular prices are 25c, 50c and $1.00. Your choice on	MONDAY EVENING 10c
COLLAR PINS (Jewelry Dept.) Many patterns, in gilt only. Regularly 10c pair.	MONDAY EVENING 3c Pr.
LINEN CRASH APRONS (Art Dept.) Stamped patterns for embroidery on natural linen, two patterns, all made up, needing only the embroidery to finish. Regularly 25c.	MONDAY EVENING 15c
WRAPPERS AND KIMONOS (Second Floor) Long Chalice Kimonos, floral patterns, faced with band of solid color in contrasting shades, also Peralta Wrappers in indigo blue, cadet and silver gray, full skirt, shirt waist style, sizes to 46. Both regularly $1.00 and $1.25.	MONDAY EVENING 79c
WHITE AND COLORED MUSLINS (Basement) Small lot of Silk Muslins, in plain and fancy weaves also fancy muslins in embroidered dots, stripes and checks. Regularly 25c to 50c.	MONDAY EVENING 15c
MEN'S HOSE (Men's Furnishing) Black and tan hose, our well known Bon Marche's Special—fast color, high spliced heel and toe, absolutely perfect in every way. Regularly 12 1-2c.	MONDAY EVENING 7c

KITCHEN FURNISHINGS.

There never was such a grand chance to buy first quality glassware and enamelware at such low prices as you are having in this week's sale in the Basement.

See our Big Window for samples and prices. It's a snap. Real live bargains in everyday articles.

acrobats; Mora & Richards, clever singers and dancers; Helen Hampton, pleasing vocalist, and a series of the latest and best of motion pictures. Matinees are given every day from 2 to 5 and two full shows at night, starting at 7 and 9.30. Tuesday night will be amateur night and the usual big list of amateurs has been booked. Prices at the Opera House are five and ten cents.

THEATRE VOYONS

Recently the Edison company sent a company of its best actors to Cuba

that the motion picture patrons might be given a greater variety of scenic setting for their pictures. Cuba, one of the most beautiful of lands is especially suitable for motion picture photography and the first picture taken there will be shown at the Theatre Voyons today. "The Princess and the Peasant" is a notable production in many ways, its story is novel and combines both sentiment and adventure and the acting is the equal of any. The accompanying bill will be a strong one with a clever comedy and a beautiful scenic subject as other features. The musical selections are unapproachable.

BUSINESS ESTABLISHED 1828

WM. E. LIVINGSTON CO.

A Good Ton of Good

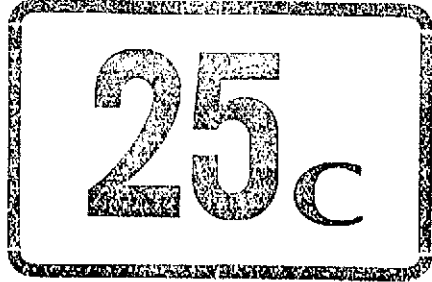

COAL

At Lowest Price

15 THORNDIKE ST.

EVERY PIECE GUARANTEED PERFECT

Take Note of The Large Sizes

Notice The Large Variety of Articles

EVERY PIECE IS FIRST QUALITY PRIME ENAMEL WARE

We do not hesitate to say that these are values that cannot be duplicated anywhere at anything near this price.

OTHER LOTS, EQUALLY AS GOOD VALUES, AT 39c AND 49c.

SEE WINDOW

ACT OF CLEMENCY

Marks Beginning of the Reign of King George

LONDON, May 23.—King George has commenced his reign with an act of clemency, granting remission of other sentences and reduction of other tion of the affection and loving devotion of the nation has shown in the face of a sorrow so sudden and unlooked for that it might well have been overwhelming.

"But the sentiment it has invoked," continues the king, "has made me realize that it is a loss common to me and my people. They share it with me; I do not stand alone. With such thoughts I take courage and hopefully look to the future, strong in my faith in God, trusting my people and cherishing the laws and constitution of my beloved country."

It is announced that King George intends to maintain a royal racing stable at Newmarket and a breeding stud at Sandringham, and that he will patronize racing on the same extensive scale as his father.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

GREATEST CIRCUS

BARNUM & BAILEY'S SHOW ANNOUNCED FOR JUNE 10

The Barnum & Bailey's greatest show on earth is announced for two performances in Lowell on Friday, June 10. The day is awaited with great interest. A new and brilliant street parade, a new menagerie and a large company of European artists are promised.

This circus has stood at the head of the amusement business for more than fifty years. The policy of P. T. Barnum and James A. Bailey is still active in its management. These are the two greatest names in the history of the world's circus affairs. Their show is the source of perfect satisfaction. It is recognized in every country on earth as the leading spirit of amusement enterprises. It has traveled in every land where the sun shines. It has entertained millions upon millions of the

NOW THEN—WHO SAID BISCUITS?

SOUTHERN BISCUITS
NORTHERN BISCUITS
EASTERN BISCUITS
WESTERN BISCUITS

MADE BEST EVERYWHERE WITH

GOLD MEDAL FLOUR

$1 Leather Lined Bags 79c

Gilbride's
MERAMACK & BAYVIEW CORNERS

10c Wash Belts 5c

JOHN S. BACKMAN, Pres. JOHN J. BURNS, Sec'y. PATRICK GILBRIDE, Treas.

NOW FOR THE LAST WEEK OF THE GREATEST Anniversary Sale EVER HELD IN LOWELL

We acknowledge with thanks, the overwhelming response accorded our Second Anniversary Sale Announcement by the public of this city and surrounding towns. Your flattering expression of confidence in our advertising and merchandizing is the best token of your appreciation of our efforts and methods of doing business.

We have nearly doubled our business of a year ago, and if you knew as we know, the great opportunities for saving in the SECOND ANNIVERSARY SALE, you would be one of the first here today.

Last Week of Lowell's Greatest Sale Watch Our Windows Read Our Announcements

LOWELL'S BEST VALUES ARE HERE IN

Women's Summer Dresses

The newest and prettiest fashions and materials.

Gingham Dresses $1.98, $2.98, $3.98 to $5.98
Chambray Dresses $1.98, $2.98, $3.98 to $5.98
Linen Dresses $3.98 to $9.98
Batiste Dresses $2.98, $3.98, $4.98 to $7.98
Crash Suits $5.98 to $12.50

The Prettiest Lingerie Dresses for confirmation and graduation seen in Lowell. We show some very handsome dresses in Point D'Esprit, net and hamburger $3.98 to $25

ANNIVERSARY SALE OF

Muslin Underwear

SAVE MONEY ON THIS CLEAN MERCHANDISE

Women's Drawers, made of good cambric with tucked ruffle, regular price 25c 19c pair
Women's Drawers, made of fine quality cambric with ruffle of deep embroidery, regular price 30c 25c pair
High neck, fitted covers, special 12 1-2c
Fine Nainsook Corset Covers with deep lace yoke and four rows of ribbon run, regular price 29c 19c
Long White Skirts of good cambric, with 18 in. flounce of embroidery, heading and ribbon run, former price $1.50 $1
Low Neck, Short Sleeve Gowns, made of fine Nainsook, handsomely trimmed with three medallions, regular price $1.50, for $1.00

SAVE TODAY

On Useful Notions

THE LAST WEEK OF THE ANNIVERSARY SALE

John J. Clark's Spool Cotton, regular price 5c. Anniversary Sale Price 2c Spool
Basting Cotton, regular price 3c. Anniversary Sale Price 1c Spool
Sewing Silk, all colors, regular price 8c. Anniversary Sale Price 4c Spool
Safety Pins, regular price 5c. Anniversary Sale Price 2c Card
Hooks and Eyes with Peets Eyes, 2 dozen on card, regular price 5c. Anniversary Sale Price 2c
Pins, regular price 3c paper Anniversary Sale Price 1c
Pearl Buttons, regular price 7c. Anniversary Sale Price 4c Doz.
Darning Cotton, regular price 3c. Anniversary Sale Price 1c
Black and White Headed Pins, regular price 5c. Anniversary Sale Price 2c
Tape, regular price 5c Anniversary Sale Price 3c a Roll
Dress Shields, regular price 15c and 19c. Anniversary Sale Price 10c
Spring Ball and Socket Fasteners, regular price 10c. Anniversary Sale Price 7c
Feather Stitched Braid, regular price 7c. Anniversary Sale Price 5c
Collar Supporters, regular price 5c. Anniversary Sale Price 3c

LAST WEEK OF THE ANNIVERSARY SALE OF GLOVES

12-Button Silk Lisle Gloves in black and tan, regular $1.00 and $1.25 quality 49c a Pair
2-Clasp Fine Mercerized Lisle Gloves in tan, brown and black, never sold less than 50c a pair, down to 29c a Pair
Milanese Lisle Gloves in black, white and gray, 25c quality 14c a Pair

ANNIVERSARY SALE OF

HOSIERY

Women's Black Silk Lisle Hose, double heel and toe, "Seconds of the 25c quality" 12 1-2c a Pair
Women's Black Ganzee Lisle Hose, double soles, good elastic tops, 25c quality 17c a Pair
Children's Black Cotton Hose, 1x1 rib, double knee, double soles, 19c quality 12 1-2c a Pair

ROOM SIZE RUGS

Saturday evening we took an inventory of our large rug stock, and we had then just 21 large rugs. In order to make our rug sale during the last week of the anniversary sale the greatest talked of rug values ever offered in this city, we have marked them to make a quick sale at the lowest prices ever quoted for similar goods.

1 only, 8 1-4 ft.x10 1-2 ft. Tapestry Brussels, value $15 $9.50
6 only, 8 1-4 ft.x10 1-2 ft. Royal Axminster, value $17.89
6 only, 9 ft.x12 ft. Royal Axminster, value $27.50 $18.89
1 only, 9 ft.x12 ft. One Piece Rug, value $20 $14.89
3 only, 9 ft.x12 ft. One Piece, no seams Brussels, value $28.50 $18.89

Unmatched and Panel Rugs

1 only, 6 3-4 ft.x13 1-2 ft. Bigelow Axminster, worth $20 $7.95
2 only, 9 ft.x13 1-2 ft. Bigelow Axminster, worth $25 $9.95
1 only, 9 ft.x12 ft. Bigelow Axminster, worth $30 $14.95
Every one of the above rugs guaranteed absolutely perfect.

Small Size Rugs—At Less Than Half Price

36x36 Fibre Rugs 9c Each
36x72 Fibre Rugs 29c Each
18x36 Fibre and Wool Rugs 49c Each
27x54 Fibre and Wool Rugs 59c Each
30x60 Fibre and Wool Rugs 79c Each
36x72 Fibre and Wool Rugs 89c Each
Corset Door Mats with red border 39c Each
1 Lot, 27x72 Bigelow Wilton Rugs $1.98 Each
1 Lot, 30x60 Double Face Smyrna Rugs 79c Each

The prices on Rugs for this last week of our Anniversary Sale are the lowest ever quoted.

Sheets and Pillow Cases Much Cheaper Than the Cotton by the Yard

12 1-2c Armorside, 42x36 Pillow Cases, real good, heavy cotton, 9c Each, $1.00 a Dozen
60c 81x90 Armorside Sheets, slightly damaged, only 39c
60c 81x90 Armorside Sheets, perfect, only 49c
75c 81x90 Armorside Sheets, perfect, only 59c
80c 81x90 Extra Heavy Sampson Sheets, made from 33c sheeting, 2 1-2 yards long, cotton costing in each sheet 82 1-2c, sale price, only 59c Each

Remnants of Table Linen at Less Than Half Price

50c Bleached Table Damask in lengths from 1 3-4 to 3 yards long, extra good and heavy, only 49c
$1.00 to $1.50 Bleached Table Damask in lengths from 1 3-4 to 3 1-4 yards long, extra fine, only 79c

Anniversary Sale of

DRESS GOODS

44 inch German Novelty Suitings.
42 inch Wool Taffeta Suitings.
43 inch Prunella Cloth in navy, brown, green, gray, raisin, wistaria, old rose, reseda and black, regular price $1.00 yard. Anniversary Sale Price 59c Yard

SALE OF SILKS

27 in. All Silk Shantung in all the new shades, regular 79c value, for 59c Yard
27 in. All Silk Shantung, made of selected yarns, strong and desirable, will give splendid wear; we have it in all the latest shades, real value $1.25, sale price, only 79c

earth's peoples. Its world-wide tours have given it many advantages over other tented shows. They have kept it in constant touch with remote corners of the globe whence come all wonders. Nearly all great scenic novelties originate in Europe and Asia. No sooner have they been exploited in foreign audience rooms than they are secured by Barnum & Bailey's agents. Invariably novelties are introduced to America by this circus. When they cease to be novelties they are passed down to other shows and another important budget of wonders enters their places. This year's program is particularly abundant. It is a purely foreign bill. Over 100 startling acts are presented by 400 of the leading artists of the world. The show employs 1,280 men. It has 700 horses. In its menagerie are 102 cages, pens, tanks and dens in which are displayed 1,200 wild and semi-domestic animals. Among them are forty elephants and thirty camels. There are four giraffes. One of them is a baby, just reaching to its mother's knee. It is the first giraffe baby ever born or exhibited in this country.

The main performance is given in three rings, on two stages, on an immense hippodrome track and in a dome 400 feet long. The climax of the program is the death-dive of Desperado. He leaps from the dome of the tent and lands on his chest on a small skid three feet from the ground.

None of the less thrilling is the spectacular act of Juniper. This magnificent horse races up in a balloon and comes down amid a shower of fireworks. These acts reach the utter extreme of sensationalism. Another wonderful feature is added by the performance on one of the stages of an unhumanly human-like chimpanzee, Charlie the First, who is the greatest bicycle rider and juggler on earth. The circus had a newly built equipment. It was devised and executed in the foreign workshops of the show in England. Five long railroad trains are needed to haul it from city to city. It cost the management $350,000. With all these added improvements and excitements, the Barnum & Bailey show now stands in the zenith of glory. Never before in its history of splendid achievements has it been so attractive as now. It opened its spring engagement in Madison Square Garden, New York City, before the most distinguished audience that ever assembled in a circus arena. It made the biggest hit in all its career.

$20,000 DAMAGE

Three Waltham Firemen Were Injured

WALTHAM, May 23.—While fighting a fire that did $20,000 damage to the Lincoln block, Moody street, late last night, three firemen—Assistant Chief George H. Strauch and Hosemen Roy Caswell and Ernest Balcom—fell two stories when the metal ceiling of the third story gave way beneath them, hurling them into perilous proximity to the flames. Chief Strauch had his face and hands severely cut. Caswell's left leg was severely injured and Balcom received multiple lacerations.

The fire, which started from an unknown cause, made its way rapidly up to the upper stories, where it did most of the damage.

Several firemen, among them Chief Johnson and Captain Edward F. Stoley, were overcome by smoke.

ESTRADA FORGES

Lost 14 Killed and Had 24 Wounded

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Two days' fighting near Rema, Nicaragua, has cost the Estrada forces 14 in killed and 24 wounded, according to a report to the state department from Captain Moffat, at Bluefields. The casualties of the Madriz forces, he adds, were not learned. Gen. Madriz retired after the fight to his entrenchments. Large quantities of ammunition and provisions said to be the entire stores of the Madriz forces at Bluefields, he reports, were said to have been captured by Gen. Moffat of the Estrada faction.

GAS COOKING DEMONSTRATION LECTURE TONIGHT

Carolina Putnam Webster will this evening in Fair hall, Germania street, demonstrate a gas will demonstrate a "Meal." What is it? Just enough of food to that with lightning speed and with strength renewed, we turn with willingness to work again. The lecture will begin at 8 o'clock, doors open at 7.30. All are welcome. All is free. Menu:

Baked Bluefish, Fresh Style
Fried Chicken
Casserole
Scalloped Corn
Pick Turnips
Beach Melon
Fruit Cream

THEIR FIRST MASS

Newly Ordained Priests Officiated Yesterday

Rev. John Riordan, who was ordained a priest last Friday, celebrated his first mass yesterday at the church of the Sacred Heart in Moore street. Inasmuch as Father Riordan's parents reside in Moore street, there was a large attendance of parishioners at the high mass yesterday.

Father Riordan was born in Lowell, but when quite young was sent to Ireland to be educated.

He made his classical course in St. Atanach's college, Liverpool, and later entered the Sacred Heart seminary for his philosophical studies. He was subsequently adopted into the Boston diocese and entered the Boston diocesan seminary, where for five years he pursued with honor and distinction the study of theology. He was ordained to the priesthood Friday of last week, coming yesterday to the Sacred Heart to celebrate his first mass.

Rev. E. J. Cornell, O. M. I., preached an eloquent sermon appropriate to the occasion and the solemn Sunday program, as on the previous Sunday, was carried out. Mrs. Adelaide A. Muldoon presiding at the organ.

At St. Michael's

Rev. Thomas Reynolds, a resident of St. Michael's parish, who was ordained at Boston Friday, sang his first high mass at St. Michael's church yesterday. He was assisted by Rev. John J. Shaw, deacon, and Rev. Daniel Desmond, sub-deacon. The sermon was preached by Rev. Francis J. Mullin.

Fr. Chaput Officiates

Rev. Fr. Edouard Chaput, O. M. I., who was ordained Saturday, May 14, sang his first high mass yesterday at St. Joseph's church, where a large congregation, including many of his relatives, was present. Assisting the young priest were Rev. Fr. Baron, O. M. I., rector of St. Joseph's, as deacon, and Rev. Brother Anthony of the Towlebury novitiate, as sub-deacon. Rev. Fr. Watelle, O. M. I., superior of St. Joseph's parish, preached the sermon of the occasion.

Rev. Fr. Chaput said his first mass Sunday, May 15, at Notre-Dame de Lourdes church.

The Y. M. C. I. held quarterly communion yesterday with a large attendance. Breakfast was served in Y. M. C. I. hall after mass.

BOUNDARY LINE

BETWEEN CANADA AND UNITED STATES HAS BEEN FIXED

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The international boundary between the United States and Canada, along the south-east coast of Maine, has been fixed, according to a treaty signed Saturday by Ambassador Bryce and Secretary of State Knox, as running from a point in Passamaquoddy bay between Treat Island and Bear Head and extending through the bay to the middle of Grand Manan channel. The treaty, it is expected, will be submitted to the senate today for approval. The line was located without resort to the arbitration provided for in the treaty of 1905 between Great Britain and the United States.

The true location of the line has been a subject of contention for more than a century. The treaty is expected to be accepted as final.

JOHNNY HAYES DEFEATED

OTTAWA, Ont., May 23.—J. B. Hayes was today beaten by Lunstrom in a five mile race by five yards. The time was 28 minutes. Saturday Lunstrom beat Hayes in a 15 mile race by 120 yards in 1:50.55.

Dr. Thomas Jefferson King
Dr. King's "Natural Gum" sets of teeth absolutely defy detection.
Gold Fillings $1.—Others 50c
Painless Extraction Free
King Dental Parlors,
65 MERAMACK STREET
(over Hall & Lyon's)
Hours: 9 to 8; Sun, 10 to 3.
Tel. 1371-2.

SAW THE COMET

Young Woman Then Fell Dead

TALLADEGA, Ala., May 23.—The appearance of the comet last evening caused intense excitement here. Congregations of several churches left their pews and hundreds of persons stood excited in the square and gazed at the celestial visitor. Miss Ruth Jordan, daughter of a farmer living two miles from here, was called to the door of her home to see the comet and immediately fell dead. Physicians give heart failure as the cause. An unknown negro on the depot platform was shown the comet and instantly dropped dead.

CHILDREN DEAD

As Result of Drinking Tonic Compound

ELIZABETH N. J., May 23.—While playing "house" while their mother went to market, Louise Crouch, six years old, and her brother Johnnie, three years younger, went to the ice chest and drank freely from a bottle of tonic compound which they had seen their elders use. Both died in convulsions yesterday.

For Chaps and Cracked Lips

VASELINE
CAMPHOR ICE

Winter comfort for tender skins. Vaseline Camphor Ice corrects effects of snow and wind. Soothes and heals roughness, irritations, cold-sores, fever blisters. It combines the comfort of Camphor and Vaseline and relieves all but the most serious of skin troubles.

12 REMEDIES each with special uses, all based on Vaseline

On Bottle, Box or Tube the name guarantees highest refinement and protects you against nameless "petroleum jellies" of less purity.
CHESEBROUGH MFG. CO.
Proprietors of Every "Vaseline" Product
New York

NO PAIN

Full Set $5

Our $5 sets are the most lifelike and finest fitting plates that dental science can produce. Unless you require a special plate, $5 is all you need pay in this office for the best set. We have the reputation of making the most natural looking, the finest fitting and the best wearing teeth. No set ever leaves our office until the patron is perfectly satisfied as to fit and appearance. We give our personal guarantee FOR 10 YEARS with each set.

THE NEW SUBSTITUTE FOR TEETH
PAINLESS EXTRACTION FREE
$4 This is the only office in Lowell where gold crowns and teeth without plates (under-attachable from natural ones) are inserted positively with old pain.

THE GILBRIDE CO. On The Corner

PITTSBURG PIRATES AND DETROIT TIGERS LOOK LIKE REPEATERS

By TOMMY CLARK.

ALTHOUGH the baseball season of 1910 is still very young, the fans have been afforded a chance to get a good line on the two strongest teams in the National and American leagues. Judging by present indications in the junior organization, it looks as if Detroit will about cop the banner for the fourth time and equal the record made by Conley way back in the eighties. In the older organization Fred Clarke and his Pittsburgh world's champions are plotting their way through the other teams in a manner that indicates that unless something unforeseen happens the Pirates will carry off the much coveted prize for the second time.

Looking over the Pittsburgh team carefully one can easily see that the Pirates are the ones who will have to be defeated by any team that seeks to win the National league pennant this year, and it is hard to see what team is to accomplish the task.

There appears to be just one point where the Pirates may be weak, and they have shown the ability to carry a weak man in this one. This position is at first base, and it is a notable fact that Fred Clarke has had more trouble keeping a good man on the initial corner than he has at any other point on the team. Abstein did fine work there for the greater part of the season last year, but he fell off badly after that, and the Pirates had to carry him through the world's series.

This year Clarke has a good looking youngster in Flynn at first base, but it is hardly probable that he will measure up to the ability of the other players on the team. On the other hand, he will undoubtedly be able to do his share of the work in at least fairly efficient style. If he does the team will have little trouble in preventing a fatal weakness at first, as Miller, Wagner and Byrne are men who are in the habit of throwing with more than average accuracy and helping the man on first along in fielding.

So far as batting is concerned Pittsburgh has plenty of strength to overcome any weakness caused by the failure of the man covering first to find the ball hard. In fact, it is in the batting end of the game that Pittsburgh has enough the edge to give the Pirates the championship. The combination made up of Leach, Clarke and Wagner is one of the greatest on the attack that the game has ever seen, and Byrne up at the top ahead of this trio in the batting list is working well with it. Gibson is another slashing hitter, and Miller and Wilson are both good batters.

Unless first base is weak there is but one point on the team where the batting is not of the exceptional order, and that is in pitching. Even here several of the Pirates' pitchers are decidedly handy with the stick. With the Pittsburgh attack more than making up for any advantage the Chicago Cubs may have in the pitching line, there appears to be just one thing that can prevent the Pirates from winning the pennant, and that is the enforced absence of Wagner from the game through illness or injuries.

Now for another look at the Tigers. They're Jennings' club seems set for its very best year. Its hitters are going splendidly early in the season, and all pitchers look alike to the Tiger men. Of course a better line will be given on them after they have tackled the strong eastern clubs. With the Boston team rapping the ball like mad and the Philadelphia pitchers by the guns despite old Father Time, there will be a great three cornered battle in the American. But the Tiger one for me. There's more ginger and "pop" in that bunch than enough to make up for the weakness in pitching strength.

Wrong to Bar Picture Men.

There is no use disputing the point made by President Tom Lynch of the National league that the newspaper photographers assigned to obtain action pictures at baseball games mar the landscape somewhat and occasionally, although rarely, interfere with a possible play on a foul fly.

The fact that action pictures of actual incidents of the game can no longer be secured is a direct blow to the patrons of the game who love to read about baseball, and it is also a relief to those who had grown tired of seeing a battery of cameras collected at the home plate, first or third base every time something interesting seemed likely to be about to come off.

There is no doubt that a few particularly nifty photographers have in-

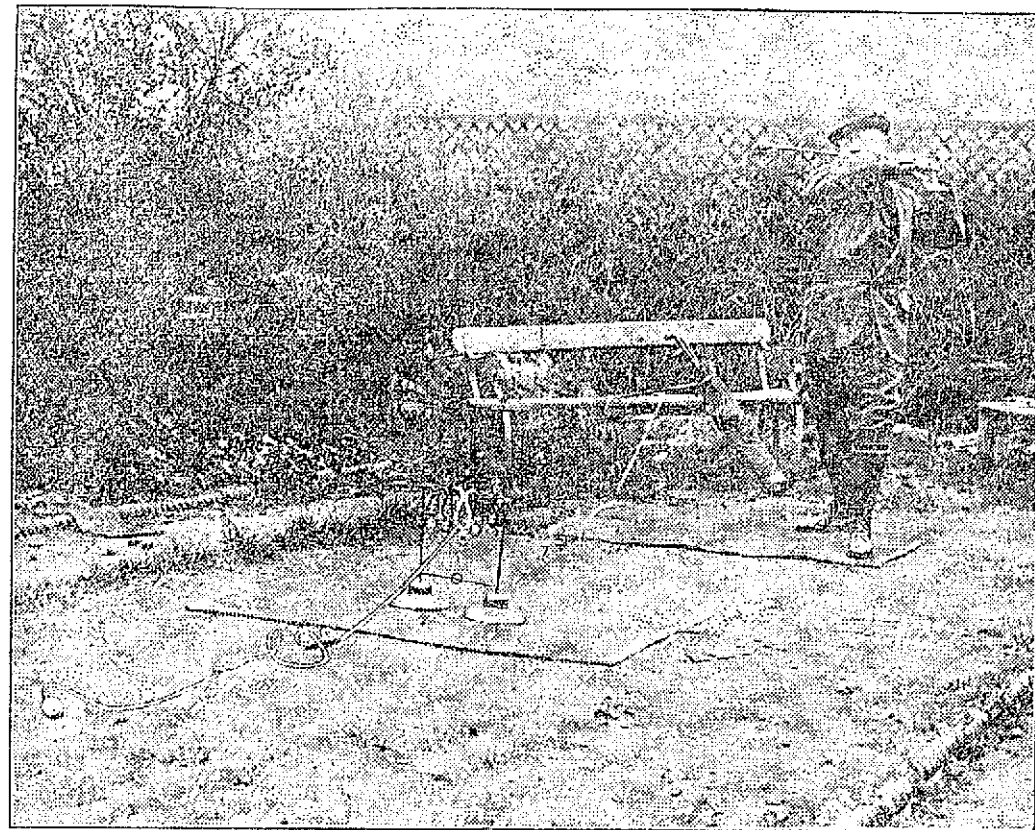

try by friends of Cobb to prove that Tyrus had not spitefully and willfully gone out of his way to injure the Athletics' third baseman, as some reports made it appear. Under the present ruling it will be impossible to take such a photograph except with a telescope camera of a different pattern than any that are now on the market.

While President Lynch is seeing that the photographers are kept off the field

could be disposed of advantageously to spectators willing to pay to see a ball game instead of being paid to do so. President Lynch would not think of issuing orders that no spectators be admitted to the playing field.

That would reduce the revenues of the club owners who pay his annual stipend and might contract the latter. If the newspapers should all discontinue printing pictures of ball players

New Golf Game Called Loop Hits Now Very Popular In England

LOOP-GOLF-HITS is a miniature golf game or device for receiving instruction in and practicing golf, with the object of driving the ball in a straight or direct line. The device consists of an inverted U shaped loop. The hoops are bent or formed into five loops and a crossbar is fitted to the two sides, on which is suspended a ring to which is attached a slip hook. To this hook is connected a cord attached to a spiral spring, and in this case the cord passes through the latter, the cord being slack to allow of stretching, and swiveling connections are also provided to permit of the spinning action of the ball. At the other end of the cord is fixed a golf ball, the cord being of a length sufficient to drive over the surface and engage with the loops. The two outer loops of the device each count one, the second loop counts two and the center loop counts three, and for this purpose the loops are marked with the numbers. Two mats may be employed, one for each side, for the players to stand upon to tee the ball and to play from, thus preventing the cutting up of the lawn, or of carpets or linoleum if for indoor practice or game.

the past overstepped the bounds of decency in taking pictures during the progress of games, and for their misdeeds others must suffer.

Pictures Have Great Value.

It has often happened that newspaper photographers have been of great value in deciding disputed points in regard to plays during the progress of games. A snapshot of the play in which Cobb spiked Baker at Detroit last season was sent all over the country after the game starts, the rule is not being fully enforced. Whenever the stands prove too small to accommodate all the paying patrons, however, it is the practice to herd some out in the enclosure. This overflow seriously interferes with the scenery and also with the work of the players both on fair and foul territory, often deciding the results of games.

The scribes who report the game sometimes, although not always, are assigned space in the stands which

and games their circulations would not be affected seriously, but a strong stimulant to the public's interest in baseball would be withdrawn and would be felt at the gates.

There have been instances where club owners have begrudged baseball reporters the space they are compelled by their occupation to occupy, because each seat might be sold for one bone or possibly more. But the club owner could not buy with the revenue from ten times the space occupied by the press box at any ball park one hundredth part of the free advertising given him by any one of the working occupants of the deadhead seats. It is well to remind baseball men occasionally of what the game owes the publicity it could not possibly get in any other way than gratis.

Boxing Game Claiming Terrible Toll.

The death of Tommy McCarthy, who never regained consciousness after being knocked out by Owen Moran in San Francisco recently, has caused no end of talk. In fact, several clergymen are using this case as a pretext for opposing the Jeffries-Johnson bout. The McCarthy case is a sorrowful one and may hurt the game considerably throughout the country. Still, nature collects tolls from every other sport.

The work, of course, must yield more and often against spirited relaxations. Even golf has its fatalities in addition to numerous mishaps to devotee and patron. Within the last month pugilism was compelled to give up three lives as its debt to nature. This cycle of fatal accidents in the prize ring is most singular, but that's the way matters run. For years despite the fact that hundreds of bouts were held weekly no serious consequences occurred. Then came a spell of deaths in the ring.

Fighting is perilous action, and one must expect a serious outcome now and then. One thing most impressive in the trio of tragic events charged up to fate recently is the absence of a hue and cry from the populace for a stoppage of the sport. In the old days, when a poor fellow went to the door and never recovered consciousness, the authorities at once banned the game. Even powerful fighting clubs credited with being influential in politics and civic manipulations were forced to close their doors. In many cities this ban held for years. In fact, such drastic laws were enacted against boxing in Texas after a fatality that the Lone Star State was a fine place for a fighter to pass around. Local authorities didn't dare wink at boxing bouts. Chances are that none of the three fatal frays will check the mitt art in their respective localities. It's an age of sports. Thousands favor them, and constituted peace officers are not so quick to give ticket of leave to fighters as under the old state of affairs.

Ernest Barry, Who Seeks World's Sculling Title.

Ernest Barry, the champion sculler of England, has been matched to meet Richard Arnest of New Zealand, the world's title holder, for the championship and a purse of £1,000, which is equivalent to $5,000 in Uncle Sam's money. The two hardy athletes will strive for the coveted honor and prize on the Zambesi river, near Victoria falls, in the southern part of Africa.

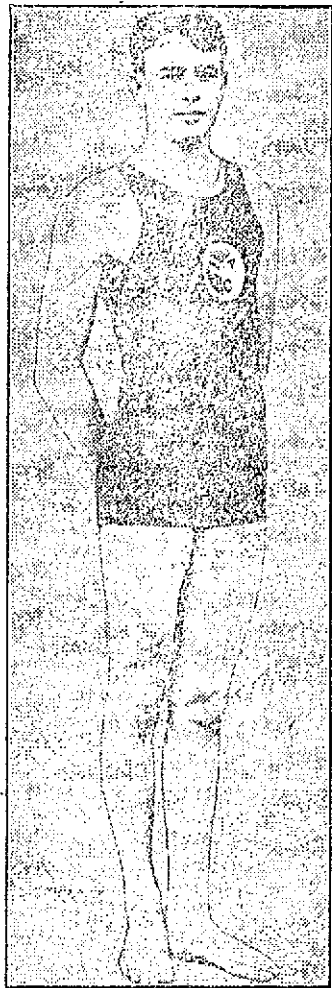

Harry Hebner, New Star Among the Swimmers.

Followers of aquatics rejoiced at the establishment of the world's record of 1 minute 56 2-5 seconds for 150 yards by Harry Hebner of the Illinois Athletic club of Chicago in the national back stroke championship in St. Louis recently. But probably not one in a hundred knew of the peculiar circumstances that led to the occurrence or realized its full significance.

Hebner swam his first 100 yard trial with the back stroke less than one week before the day he broke the world's record. It was the former champion, H. J. Handy, his clubmate, who induced him to do it, for he wanted to use him as a pacesetter while in training. The surprise of every one concerned, including Hebner himself, may well be imagined when at the end of the 100 yard test he found that he had not only beaten Handy, but covered the distance under record figures. Later he went 100 yards in 1 minute 12 seconds, but the greatest surprise of the lot was the boy's time trial in 1 minute 53 seconds for the 150 yard distance.

When it is considered that the world's record by F. Unwin of England stands at 1 minute 57 4-5 seconds it will be seen what wonderful possibilities are before the young westerner, who after a couple of weeks of a new stroke is able to show performances vastly superior to any ever seen in any country. There is absolutely no doubt that Hebner is the fastest back stroke swimmer the world has yet seen.

HARRY HEBNER.

CLEVER TALES ABOUT PEOPLE WHO PLAY FOR A LIVING

By FRANK H. BROOKS.

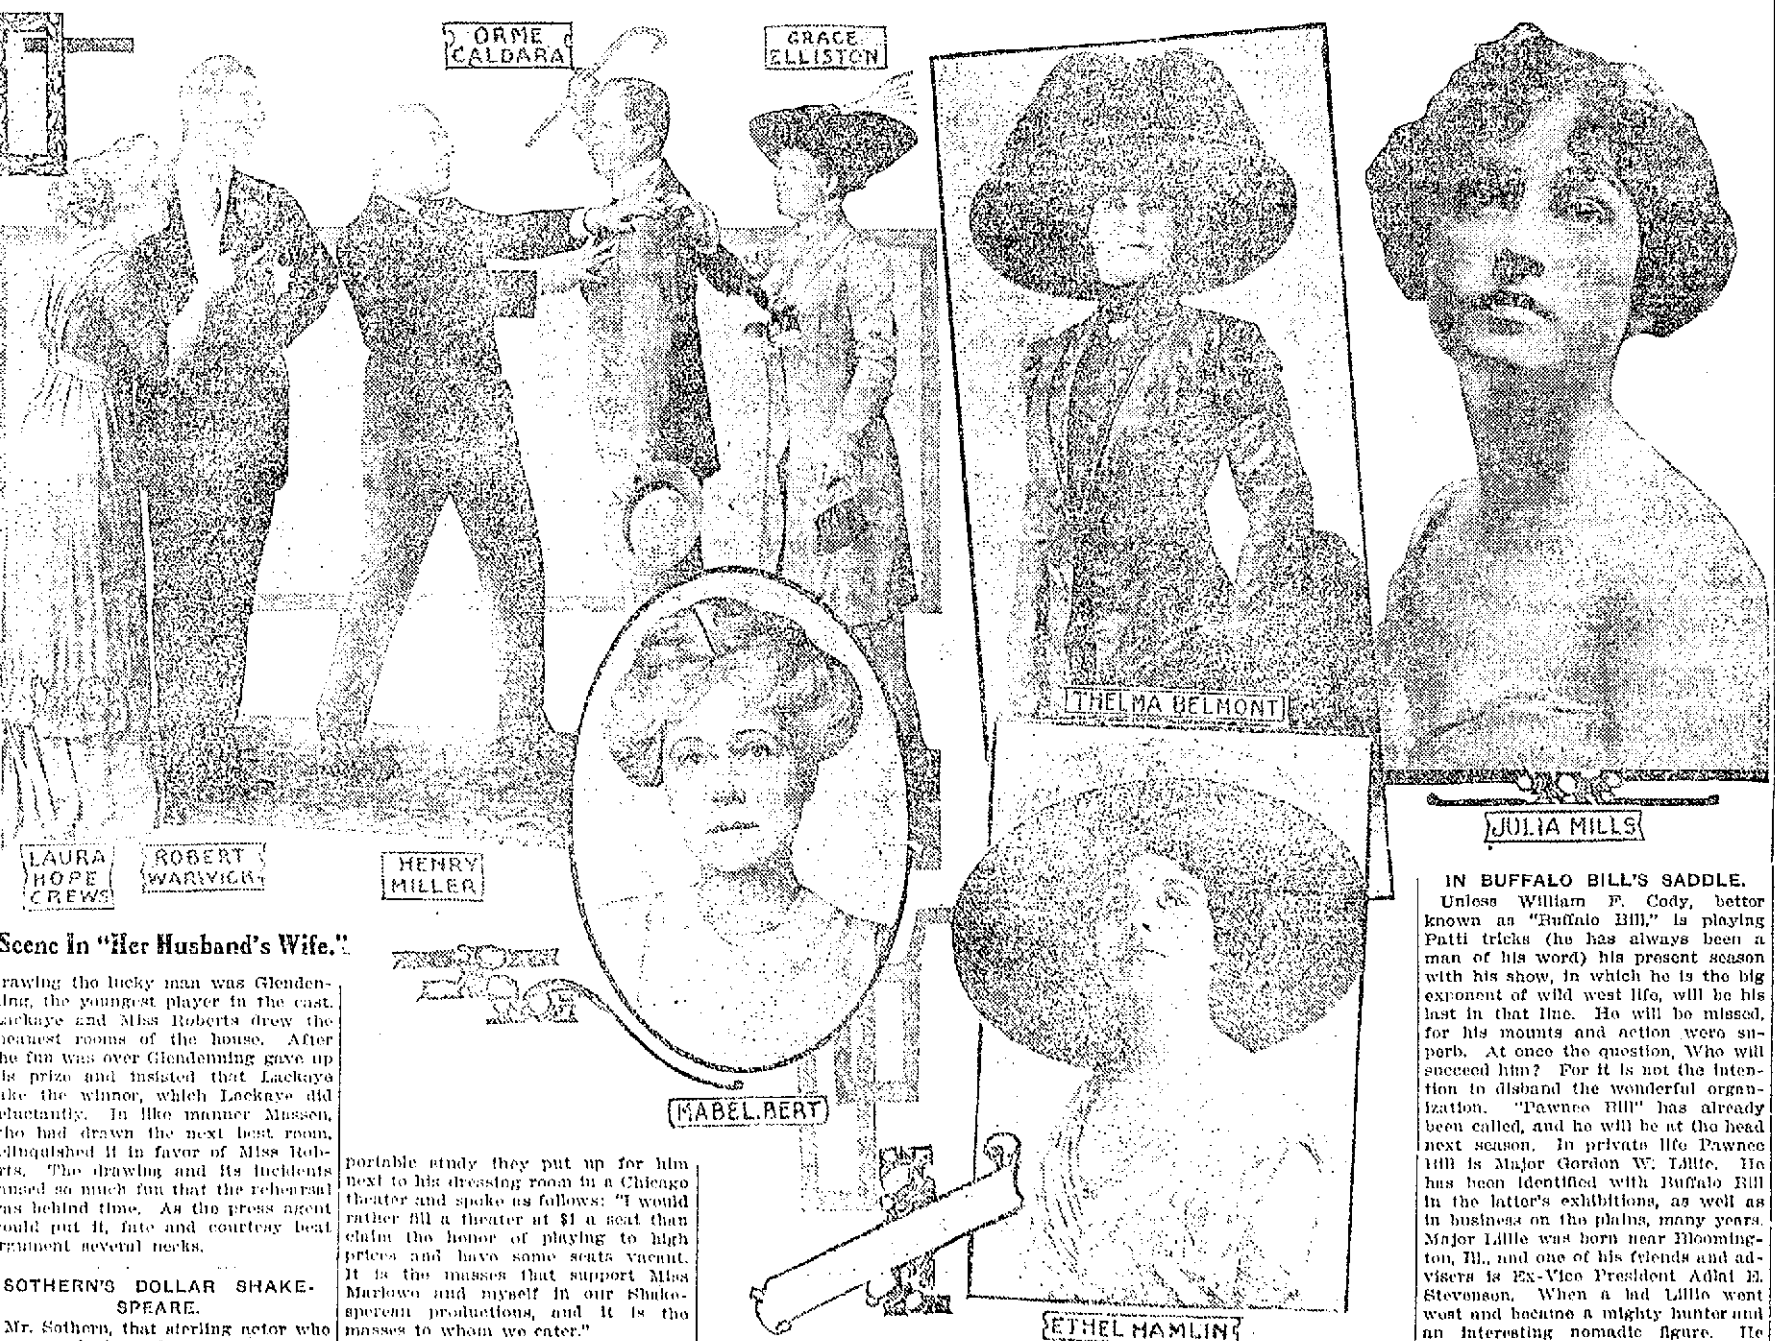

WHAT is so rare as a rattling musical comedy on a roof garden on a night in June? And what is a visit to the city in summer that does not include such an entertainment? One of the first of its kind to open in New York will be Frederic Thompson's, entitled "The Comic Supplement." The site will be the top of the New Amsterdam theater. They say that Mr. Thompson had a hand in writing the book. Be this as it may, Mr. Thompson will manage the show. The company has been trying out the production for several weeks. All roof garden stage girls are "bewitching."

In the Thompson galaxy the word "bewitching" calls for big type. Among those who "bewitch" are Ethel Hamlin, Thelma Belmont and Julia Mills, whose pictures are in the group.

Henry Miller and his players are favorably known from coast to coast. Henry Miller is really a great character actor, in addition to which he is a methodical manager who is as careful of the details of his productions as were Irving and Mansfield, and Mr. Miller could expect no one to say more. His play that is closing the season at the Garrick theater, in New York, under the direction of Klaw & Erlanger, is entitled "Her Husband's Wife." It is the kind of play that one can see more than once, and that is saying a heap.

The people in the play, as pictured in the above cut, are Laura Hope Crews, Robert Warlick, Henry Miller, Orme Caldara, Grace Elliston and Mabel Bert.

Just before the revival by the Shuberts of "Jim the Penman" when Lackey, John Mason, Florence Pauline, George Harnum, Marguerite Clark, Grace Banta and Josephine Lewis drew marked alphas from a hat in the hand of William A. Brady to see which one would occupy the star's dressing room during the engagement, Florence Roberts had not yet arrived—she plays the principal female part—but some one gallantly drew her. It is supposed that a rabbit's foot is secreted in the star's dressing room, so the desire to occupy that room is active. Outdoors need be told that this room is the one most convenient to the stage. At the drawing the lucky man was Glendenning, the youngest player in the cast. Lackey and Miss Roberts drew the meadow room of the house. After the fun was over Glendenning gave up his prize and insisted that Lackey take the winner, which Lackey did reluctantly. In like manner Mussen, who had drawn the next best room, relinquished it in favor of Miss Roberts. The drawing and its incidents caused so much fun that the rehearsal was behind time. As the press agent would put it, fate and courtesy beat argument several necks.

Scene in "Her Husband's Wife."

SOTHERN'S DOLLAR SHAKE-SPARE.

Mr. Sothern, that sterling actor who knows and plays "Thurston" as few, if any, in this country know it or play it, who, in speaking of his repertory, indignantly says "Miss Marlowe and myself" was come upon unaware in the portable study they put up for him next to his dressing room in a Chicago theater and spoke as follows: "I would rather fill a theater at $1 a seat than claim the honor of playing to high prices and have some seats vacant. It is the masses that support Miss Marlowe and myself in our Shakespearean productions, and it is the masses to whom we cater."

One grand stand play for the dollar-that! But if it were not for those "high prices" would "Miss Marlowe and myself" get the high salaries they command (and which they deserve)?

FREDERIC THOMPSON'S ROOF GARDEN BEAUTIES AND HENRY MILLER AND HIS PLAYERS

North, who had become white chief of the Pawnees, died Major Little succeeded him as the white leader of the nation from which he gets his sobriquet. In Oklahoma, Major Little's home, he has been a leading spirit in the erection of public edifices, establishment of schools, including railroad connections, building electric plants, waterworks and the completion of a prosperous municipality. He is president of the Arkansas Valley National bank of Pawnee City, where he has a beautiful country residence. Near by is his buffalo ranch, where he is doing all he can to preserve, through a large band of thoroughbreds, the American bison. Major Little's business qualities make him an example of what can be accomplished by energy and push and also make him a valuable associate and successor in preserving the historic lines of the wild west exhibitions.

COLONEL CODY (TOP) AND PAWNEE BILL, THE WILD WEST HEROES.

IN BUFFALO BILL'S SADDLE.

Unless William F. Cody, better known as "Buffalo Bill," is playing Patti tricks (he has always been a man of his word) his present season with his show, in which he is the big exponent of wild west life, will be his last in that line. He will be missed, for his mounts and action were superb. At once the question, Who will succeed him? For it is not the intention to disband the wonderful organization. "Pawnee Bill" has already been called, and he will be at the head next season. In private life Pawnee Bill is Major Gordon W. Little. He has been identified with Buffalo Bill in the latter's exhibitions, as well as in business on the plains, many years. Major Little was born near Bloomington, Ill., and one of his friends and advisers is Ex-Vice President Adlai B. Stevenson. When a lad Little went west and became a mighty hunter and an interesting nomadic figure. He was also a trusted friend of the Indian when Indian fighting was over. He was a counselor to Buffalo Bill when Cody was in the saddle as a scout and fighter. When Major Frank

TRAINS TO AND FROM BOSTON

SOUTHERN DIV.				WESTERN DIV.
To Boston.	From Boston.	To Boston.	From Boston.	To Boston.	From Boston.	To Boston.	From Boston.
6:46	8:50	6:14	7:18	6:46	7:25	6:00	6:10
6:57	7:11	6:25	6:39	6:56	7:35	6:11	6:21
7:08	7:22	6:36	6:50	7:07	7:46	6:22	6:32
7:19	7:33	6:47	7:01	7:18	7:57	6:33	6:43
7:30	7:44	6:58	7:12	7:29	8:08	6:44	6:54
7:41	7:55	7:09	7:23	7:40	8:19	6:55	7:05
7:52	8:06	7:20	7:34	7:51	8:30	7:06	7:16
8:03	8:17	7:31	7:45	8:02	8:41	7:17	7:27
8:14	8:28	7:42	7:56	8:13	8:52	7:28	7:38
8:25	8:39	7:53	8:07	8:24	9:03	7:39	7:49
8:36	8:50	8:04	8:18	8:35	9:14	7:50	8:00
8:47	9:01	8:15	8:29	8:46	9:25	8:01	8:11
8:58	9:12	8:26	8:40	8:57	9:36	8:12	8:22
9:09	9:23	8:37	8:51	9:08	9:47	8:23	8:33
9:20	9:34	8:48	9:02	9:19	9:58	8:34	8:44
9:31	9:45	8:59	9:13	9:30	10:09	8:45	8:55
9:42	9:56	9:10	9:24	9:41	10:20	8:56	9:06
9:53	10:07	9:21	9:35	9:52	10:31	9:07	9:17
10:04	10:18	9:32	9:46	10:03	10:42	9:18	9:28
10:15	10:29	9:43	9:57	10:14	10:53	9:29	9:39
10:26	10:40	9:54	10:08	10:25	11:04	9:40	9:50
10:37	10:51	10:05	10:19	10:36	11:15	9:51	10:01
10:48	11:02	10:16	10:30	10:47	11:26	10:02	10:12
10:59	11:13	10:27	10:41	10:58	11:37	10:13	10:23
11:10	11:24	10:38	10:52	11:09	11:48	10:24	10:34
11:21	11:35	10:49	11:03	11:20	11:59	10:35	10:45
11:32	11:46	11:00	11:14	11:31	12:10	10:46	10:56
11:43	11:57	11:11	11:25	11:42	12:21	10:57	11:07
11:54	12:08	11:22	11:36	11:53	12:32	11:08	11:18
12:05	12:19	11:33	11:47	12:04	12:43	11:19	11:29
12:16	12:30	11:44	11:58	12:15	12:54	11:30	11:40
12:27	12:41	11:55	12:09	12:26	13:05	11:41	11:51
12:38	12:52	12:06	12:20	12:37	13:16	11:52	12:02
12:49	13:03	12:17	12:31	12:48	13:27	12:03	12:13
12:50	13:14	12:28	12:42	12:59	13:38	12:14	12:24
13:01	13:25	12:39	12:53	13:10	13:49	12:25	12:35
13:12	13:36	12:50	13:04	13:21	14:00	12:36	12:46
13:23	13:47	13:01	13:15	13:32	14:11	12:47	12:57
13:34	13:58	13:12	13:26	13:43	14:22	12:58	13:08
13:45	14:09	13:23	13:37	13:54	14:33	13:09	13:19
13:56	14:20	13:34	13:48	14:05	14:44	13:20	13:30
14:07	14:31	13:45	13:59	14:16	14:55	13:31	13:41
14:18	14:42	13:56	14:10	14:27	15:06	13:42	13:52
14:29	14:53	14:07	14:21	14:38	15:17	13:53	14:03
14:40	15:04	14:18	14:32	14:49	15:28	14:04	14:14
14:51	15:15	14:29	14:43	15:00	15:39	14:15	14:25
15:02	15:26	14:40	14:54	15:11	15:50	14:26	14:36
15:13	15:37	14:51	15:05	15:22	16:01	14:37	14:47
15:24	15:48	15:02	15:16	15:33	16:12	14:48	14:58
15:35	15:59	15:13	15:27	15:44	16:23	14:59	15:09
15:46	16:10	15:24	15:38	15:55	16:34	15:10	15:20
15:57	16:21	15:35	15:49	16:06	16:45	15:21	15:31
16:08	16:32	15:46	16:00	16:17	16:56	15:32	15:42
16:19	16:43	15:57	16:11	16:28	17:07	15:43	15:53
16:30	16:54	16:08	16:22	16:39	17:18	15:54	16:04
16:41	17:05	16:19	16:33	16:50	17:29	16:05	16:15
16:52	17:16	16:30	16:44	17:01	17:40	16:16	16:26
17:03	17:27	16:41	16:55	17:12	17:51	16:27	16:37
17:14	17:38	16:52	17:06	17:23	18:02	16:38	16:48
17:25	17:49	17:03	17:17	17:34	18:13	16:49	16:59
17:36	17:60	17:14	17:28	17:45	18:24	16:60	17:10
17:47	17:71	17:25	17:39	17:56	18:35	16:71	17:21
17:58	17:82	17:36	17:50	18:07	18:46	16:82	17:32
18:09	17:93	17:47	18:01	18:18	18:57	16:93	17:43
18:20	18:04	17:58	18:12	18:29	19:08	16:104	17:54
18:31	18:15	18:09	18:23	18:40	19:19	16:115	18:05
18:42	18:26	18:20	18:34	18:51	19:30	16:126	18:16
18:53	18:37	18:31	18:45	19:02	19:41	16:137	18:27
19:04	18:48	18:42	18:56	19:13	19:52	16:148	18:38
19:15	18:59	18:53	19:07	19:24	20:03	16:159	18:49
19:26	19:10	19:04	19:18	19:35	20:14	16:170	18:60
19:37	19:21	19:15	19:29	19:46	20:25	16:181	18:71
19:48	19:32	19:26	19:40	19:57	20:36	16:192	18:82
19:59	19:43	19:37	19:51	20:08	20:47	16:203	18:93
20:10	19:54	19:48	20:02	20:19	20:58	16:214	19:04
20:21	20:05	19:59	20:13	20:30	21:09	16:225	19:15
20:32	20:16	20:10	20:24	20:41	21:20	16:236	19:26
20:43	20:27	20:21	20:35	20:52	21:31	16:247	19:37
20:54	20:38	20:32	20:46	21:03	21:42	16:258	19:48
21:05	20:49	20:43	20:57	21:14	21:53	16:269	19:59
21:16	21:00	20:54	21:08	21:25	22:04	16:280	20:10
21:27	21:11	21:05	21:19	21:36	22:15	16:291	20:21
21:38	21:22	21:16	21:30	21:47	22:26	16:302	20:32
21:49	21:33	21:27	21:41	21:58	22:37	16:313	20:43
22:00	21:44	21:38	21:52	22:09	22:48	16:324	20:54
22:11	21:55	21:49	22:03	22:20	22:59	16:335	21:05
22:22	22:06	22:00	22:14	22:31	23:10	16:346	21:16
22:33	22:17	22:11	22:25	22:42	23:21	16:357	21:27
22:44	22:28	22:22	22:36	22:53	23:32	16:368	21:38
22:55	22:39	22:33	22:47	23:04	23:43	16:379	21:49
23:06	22:50	22:44	22:58	23:15	23:54	16:390	21:60
23:17	23:01	22:55	23:09	23:26	24:05	16:401	21:71
23:28	23:12	23:06	23:20	23:37	24:16	16:412	21:82
23:39	23:23	23:17	23:31	23:48	24:27	16:423	21:93
23:50	23:34	23:28	23:42	23:59	24:38	16:434	22:04
24:01	23:45	23:39	23:53	24:10	24:49	16:445	22:15
24:12	23:56	23:50	24:04	24:21	25:00	16:456	22:26
24:23	24:07	24:01	24:15	24:32	25:11	16:467	22:37
24:34	24:18	24:12	24:26	24:43	25:22	16:478	22:48
24:45	24:29	24:23	24:37	24:54	25:33	16:489	22:59
24:56	24:40	24:34	24:48	25:05	25:44	16:500	23:10
25:07	24:51	24:45	24:59	25:16	25:55	16:511	23:21
25:18	25:02	24:56	25:10	25:27	26:06	16:522	23:32
25:29	25:13	25:07	25:21	25:38	26:17	16:533	23:43
25:40	25:24	25:18	25:32	25:49	26:28	16:544	23:54
25:51	25:35	25:29	25:43	25:60	26:39	16:555	24:05
26:02	25:46	25:40	25:54	25:71	26:50	16:566	24:16
26:13	25:57	25:51	26:05	25:82	27:01	16:577	24:27
26:24	26:08	26:02	26:16	25:93	27:12	16:588	24:38
26:35	26:19	26:13	26:27	26:04	27:23	16:599	24:49
26:46	26:30	26:24	26:38	26:15	27:34	17:010	24:60
26:57	26:41	26:35	26:49	26:26	27:45	17:021	24:71
27:08	26:52	26:46	26:60	26:37	27:56	17:032	24:82
27:19	27:03	26:57	26:71	26:48	28:07	17:043	24:93
27:30	27:14	27:08	26:82	26:59	28:18	17:054	25:04
27:41	27:25	27:19	26:93	27:10	28:29	17:065	25:15
27:52	27:36	27:30	27:04	27:21	28:40	17:076	25:26
28:03	27:47	27:41	27:15	27:32	28:51	17:087	25:37
28:14	27:58	27:52	27:26	27:43	29:02	17:098	25:48
28:25	28:09	28:03	27:37	27:54	29:13	17:109	25:59
28:36	28:20	28:14	27:48	28:05	29:24	17:120	26:10
28:47	28:31	28:25	27:59	28:16	29:35	17:131	26:21
28:58	28:42	28:36	28:10	28:27	29:46	17:142	26:32
29:09	28:53	28:47	28:21	28:38	29:57	17:153	26:43
29:20	29:04	28:58	28:32	28:49	30:08	17:164	26:54
29:31	29:15	29:09	28:43	29:00	30:19	17:175	27:05
29:42	29:26	29:20	28:54	29:11	30:30	17:186	27:16
29:53	29:37	29:31	29:05	29:22	30:41	17:197	27:27
30:04	29:48	29:42	29:16	29:33	30:52	17:208	27:38
30:15	29:59	29:53	29:27	29:44	31:03	17:219	27:49
30:26	30:10	30:04	29:38	29:55	31:14	17:230	27:60
30:37	30:21	30:15	29:49	30:06	31:25	17:241	27:71
30:48	30:32	30:26	29:60	30:17	31:36	17:252	27:82
30:59	30:43	30:37	29:71	30:28	31:47	17:263	27:93
31:10	30:54	30:48	29:82	30:39	31:58	17:274	28:04
31:21	31:05	30:59	29:93	30:50	32:09	17:285	28:15
31:32	31:16	31:10	30:04	31:01	32:20	17:296	28:26
31:43	31:27	31:21	30:15	31:12	32:31	17:307	28:37
31:54	31:38	31:32	30:26	31:23	32:42	17:318	28:48
32:05	31:49	31:43	30:37	31:34	32:53	17:329	28:59
32:16	32:00	31:54	30:48	31:45	33:04	17:340	29:10
32:27</

LOWELL

MEN ON JURY

NIGHT EDITION

FOUND IN RIVER

Body of Unknown Man Recovered
at No. Chelmsford

The body of an unknown man was taken from the Merrimack river at North Chelmsford this forenoon and was turned over to Undertaker Young of this city. The body was fully dressed and on a card found in the clothing appeared the name, Clarence Dinmore. The body had been in the water for ten days or two weeks. The man, in life, would have weighed in the vicinity of 190 pounds and was about 6 feet 11 inches in height. Because of the mud and dirt it was impossible to describe his clothing. The body was first seen by Mortimer Lane of the Boston Northern and it was taken from the water by a Mr. Connell of North Chelmsford.

CHARGED WITH MURDER

Trial of William T. Segler at May's Landing Today

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 23.—Unwonted bustle and activity about the ancient courthouse at May's Landing, N. J., today denoted important happenings for the usually quiet community. The trial of William T. Segler on the charge of murdering 15-year-old Jane Adams was about to begin and a definite legal solution of the mystery surrounding the circumstances of this city's death was unexpectedly awaited. With its customary swiftness, "Jersey justice" was expected to move speedily through the selection of a jury to try the married man accused of doing to death the girl whom he accompanied to the pier on the ocean front of this city on the night of Feb. 4 last and whose body bruised and frozen came ashore a week later on the beach below. It was indicated by Prosecutor Goldenburg that his outline of the case against Segler would show what he considered a strong chain of circumstantial evidence that the prisoner was directly responsible for the girl's death. He expected to be able to combat successfully the contention of Edmund Gaskill, the prisoner's counsel, that Miss Adams fell accidentally from the story of Alice Adams, sister of the dead girl, show first that Jane and Alice Adams accompanied Segler and his brother Orvis to a concert on the ocean pier. The quartet, according to Alice, watched the dancing and listened to the music for a time and then went to the dimly lighted far end of the pier. Alice and Orvis left the other two there. Jane Adams was not afterward seen alive.

When a search for the girl began and Jane Adams' mother went to the Segler home and demanded to know where her daughter was Segler was reluctant to help and that he left the girl at the pier. The Segler brothers disappeared the next day, but on Feb. 16 were found and arrested in Petersburg, Va. William Segler was held on a charge of murder and Orvis was detained as a witness.

Segler has stoutly maintained that the death was the result of an accident and that the only reason that he ran away was that he became momentarily unnerved when Mrs. Adams accused him of knowing where her daughter was.

JENNISON'S
Tooth Powder
ALL DRUGGISTS

PERFECT AFFINITY
exists between our patients and ourselves. They have every confidence in our ability to make their teeth last to a good old age when they trust us to keep them in condition. When they come too late for us to save them we will make your mouth perfect by our scientific crown and bridgework, or by inserting natural looking plates at

Dr. Gagnon's
Obtundine System of Dentistry
468 Merrimack St., Opp. Tilden St.

MIDDLESEX
COOPERATIVE BANK
Semi-Annual Dividend Just Declared at the Rate of
5% Per Annum
Shares in New Series Now on Sale at Office of the Bank,
88 Central Block
LOWELL, MASS.

FIRE IN DUMP

THE DEPARTMENT WAS CALLED TO FALMOUTH STREET

A portion of the fire department was called to Falmouth street in the rear of the Textile school yesterday afternoon at 4:25 o'clock to extinguish a fire which started in a dump. There was considerable smoke and an obnoxious odor, but no damage was done.

Awning Afire

Saturday night at 5:24 o'clock the members of hose 12 were called to the millinery store of Amedee Caron in lower West Sixth street to extinguish a fire in the awning which was caused by a gas arc lamp. The awning was badly damaged but the building escaped injury.

NORTH CHELMSFORD

The forty hours' devotion opened at the 9:15 o'clock mass yesterday morning in St. John's church. A high mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. Father Schofield, and a special musical program was given, the solos being sustained by Misses Gertrude Quigley and Mary Leary. After the mass a procession in honor of the Most Blessed Sacrament was held, the children of the Sunday school and the flower girls taking part. The forty hours' devotion will close at the 7:45 mass tomorrow morning. Masses were celebrated at 5 and 7:30 o'clock this morning.

TWO LOWELL MEN

Chosen On Jury to Try Mrs. Richmond
Accused of Murder

CAMBRIDGE, May 23.—For the first time in seventeen years in the Massachusetts court a woman, Mrs. Elizabeth Richmond of Cambridge, was placed on trial for her life today in the Middlesex county superior court. The indictment charges Mrs. Richmond with the murder on July 23, 1909, of Stewart McTavish, a boarder who was found with his head crushed in a little back bedroom in Hotel Florence in Cambridge, conducted by Mrs. Richmond. The police stated at the time that Mrs. Richmond, who is an unusually large and strong woman became involved in a quarrel with McTavish after both had been drinking, shot him and then beat in his head.

The woman seemed under the influence of liquor when arrested and shortly after her indictment she was placed in a cell within a few feet of the one in which her husband was serving a term for drunkenness.

The murder took place within a stone's throw of the scene of today's trial.

Lowell Men Chosen

The jury in the trial of Elizabeth J. Richmond of Cambridge, charged

STRIKERS RETURN TO WORK

GLENS FALLS, N. Y., May 23.—As a result of the settlement of the strike at the mills of the International Paper Co. many of the union men returned to work today and others were informed that positions would be given them as soon as there are any vacant. Many of the strike-breakers will continue in the employ of the company. The military guard has been removed from the mills at Fort Edward and Corinth.

Within the past 48 hours nearly 500 strike-breakers have been discharged. The promised increase of five per cent. in wages is nothing more than the fulfillment of its promise of 1908, the company says, when the five per cent. was taken from the wages to be returned in August, 1908.

The chief victory of the union is the elimination of Sunday work. The union men here are not all satisfied with the agreement and some of them say they will not return to work.

THE KAISER LEAVES LONDON

LONDON, May 23.—Emperor William left today for Port Victoria where he was to board the imperial yacht Hohenzollern for his return to Germany.

King George accompanied his royal cousin to the railroad station. To the lord mayor of London, the German monarch sent a message expressing the warm appreciation which he felt for the sincere sympathy exhibited toward him in his sad bereavement by the people of London.

The duke of Cornwall, the duke of Connaught and the members of the German embassy were also at the station to bid his majesty farewell.

Interest

BEGINS

Wednesday, June 1

SAVINGS DEPT.

Traders National Bank

Hours: 8:30 a. m. to 3 p. m., Saturday, 8:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. and 7 to 9 p. m.

Mechanics Savings Bank

202 MERRIMACK ST.

Quarter Day

JUNE 4TH.

Poland Water

For Sale by
F. and E. BAILEY & CO.
GEO. A. WILLSON & CO.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

MOTORBOAT RACE

Loantaka Probably Has
Abandoned Contest

PHILADELPHIA, May 23.—A report from Delaware Breakwater, Del., this morning says the motor boat Loantaka, one of the starters in the Philadelphia-Havana race, is passing up the Delaware river. This would indicate that the owner has abandoned the race on account of the engine trouble which developed soon after the start Saturday and is returning to Philadelphia. This leaves four boats in the race. A tug arriving at the breakwater today reports that when the little racers passed to sea Saturday night the Berneys was leading with the Calph second and the Hyss and Caroline close behind. The boats rounded Cape Hatteras during last night but no report regarding them has been received here. The weather reports indicate that conditions of wind and sea today are favorable to the racers.

MISS SHATTUCK DEAD

BOSTON, May 23.—One of the most notable missionaries of the American board of commissioners for foreign missions within the past few years has been Miss Caroline Shattuck who died at the Cullis home for consumptives yesterday. Two weeks ago she arrived in Boston in an enfeebled condition. She went to Turkey in 1875 and has labored in Asia and of late years at Cotta where she has had no American companion. Though feeble in body her remarkable executive ability and her indomitable will enabled her to accomplish remarkable work. Her heroism at the time of the two massacres in 1905 brought her into conspicuous notice. She withstood a Turkish mob that sought to break up her schools and slaughter her pupils.

with murder, which opened in the superior court at Cambridge today was completed at one o'clock this afternoon after 89 names out of a total list of 97 had been called. There are two Lowell men on the jury, John G. Gordon of this city was the second juror accepted. He was the seventh man called, John J. O'Brien, a slater of Lowell was the third juror being the tenth called. 62 of the list were excused on the ground that they were opposed to capital punishment. The defendant challenged 9, and the government 3.

A THIRD DUEL

Was Fought Between
French Counts

PARIS, May 23.—Count Iemaul De Lesseps and Count Just De Poligny fought their third duel today and this time each received a bullet wound. At the second exchange De Lesseps' bullet struck the barrel on De Poligny's pistol and caused a flesh wound in the latter's arm. At the same moment De Lesseps fell, shot through the thigh. He was removed to a hospital where it was found that the ball had just missed the femoral artery. The wound is not fatal. De Lesseps is a son of Count Ferdinand De Lesseps and an officer of a cavalry regiment. Some weeks ago he quarreled with De Poligny at the circus and blows were exchanged. On May 3 they met in an encounter with swords in the Parc des Princes, the scene of today's duel. De Poligny is lame and after a round of sword play, during which neither was injured, the seconds called a halt. Subsequently pistols were substituted for the swords, and six shots were exchanged. None of the bullets found its mark and the antagonists left the field without a reconciliation.

LUNATIC ESCAPED NOTED PRIESTS

Dangerous Man Got
Away From Danvers

Police authorities all over this part of the state are uniting their efforts to locate and capture Thomas Heffernan, a dangerous lunatic, who escaped from Danvers Saturday morning from the dangerous ward.

Heffernan formerly belonged in South Groveland and was arrested a year and a half ago for killing three men in Haverhill. At that time he was carefully examined by the physicians and adjudged dangerously insane. He was placed in Danvers and has been there up to Saturday morning, when he made his escape.

Following so quickly upon the escape of Ambrose Van Baskirk, the murderer of Mrs. Gray, and James Galloway, on May 3, the escape is quite sensational, as the Danvers authorities have kept the inmates under the strictest surveillance to prevent any more of the patients breaking away.

A strict investigation is sure to follow this latest escape. The police in the cities and towns of Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Vermont have been warned to be on the lookout for Heffernan, as he is a dangerous man. It is not known as yet how Heffernan effected his escape.

The Mighty
Blacksmith

The successful horse-shoer in these days is not the one who does most work, but the one who does the most paying work. Blowing forge fires by hand is not profitable work. Let an electric forge blower do it.

The Lowell
Electric Light
Corporation

50 CENTRAL STREET

THE TRAINING SCHOOL

Miss Edmund Resigns Principalship to Accept Position at $3500

She Met With an Accident in
New York and Later Contracted a Severe Cold—She
Will be at New York University

Miss Gertrude Edmund, principal of the training school, has sent to Superintendent Whitcomb of the school board a letter, tendering her resignation to take effect at once. Under present arrangements she would be principal during the year 1910-11.

On January 12 of this year, she fell in New York and sustained a severe fracture of the ankle, under which she was confined to a hospital for four months. After leaving the hospital she contracted a cold which developed into pleurisy. She has however received an appointment at the New York university at which she has been studying for a degree and as her subjoined letter will show at a salary of $3500. Her letter is as follows:

Cohocton, New York, May 14, 1910.
Supt. A. K. Whitcomb, Secretary Lowell School Committee, Lowell, Mass.
My Dear Sir: When the school board kindly gave me leave of absence last October it was with the understanding that I was to study for a Ph. D. degree in New York University. My plans were upset by an accident which was followed by a long and serious illness, and I find that I must take a longer rest than I anticipated when I left the hospital. I have been offered university and professional school positions in New York for the year 1910-11, with a salary of $3500 and have decided to accept the same.

I had hoped to return to Lowell to present my resignation as principal of the training school in person, but as I am unable to do so, I ask you to present it at the next meeting of the board, the same to take effect at once. Thanking you and the board for the many past favors, I am
Respectfully yours,
Gertrude Edmund.

CASES SETTLED

Business Moves Fast at Superior Court

The regular list on the superior court calendar has been reached as the result of an unexpected number of settlements of cases. This morning four cases were settled, cutting down almost one week's business.

In the case of Coburn vs. Scribner, which was returned to court to consider a case relative to real estate commission returned in a short time with a verdict for the defendant.

The cases of Kunio vs. Boutwell and Canney vs. Boston and Maine are the two next on the short list. Both are from out of town.

MISS COULSON

GAVE LUNCHEON IN HONOR OF
A LOWELL GIRL

A delightful little luncheon was served to a few guests yesterday afternoon by Miss Elizabeth Coulson of 1 Campo Seco street, Lawrence, in honor of Miss Bessie Coughlin of Lowell, who is attending the Boston Conservatory of Music.

Miss Coulson had as her guests the Misses Ruth Riley, Ruth Gay, and Pauline Sweet of Rochester, N. Y., who are classmates of Miss Coughlin at the conservatory, and Messrs. Rowland Dow, and George Riley of Harvard, and Mr. Thomas Riley of Lawrence.

BOARD OF TRADE

Urges Legislature to
Favor Bill

In response to a telegram received this morning by the board of trade from the Boston chamber of commerce, regarding house bill 1660, for constitution of property for taxation, the following telegram was sent to all the Lowell representatives at the state house:

By vote of the directors of the Lowell board of trade passage of house bill 1660, for amendment allowing classification of property for taxation, was strongly urged. Please do what you can to urge passage of the bill.

Signed, William Cogger,
Acting Secretary, state.

A BLACKSMITH

Seeks Place in United States Senate

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., May 23.—John P. Breckenridge, the blacksmith who announces himself a candidate for United States senator from Missouri and whose petition with the required number of names has been filed with the secretary of state at Jefferson City, in his early days followed the "hard" as a cowboy. He runs a horse-shoeing establishment at the stockyards in south St. Joseph. While with the wild west shows as a rope and cattle thrower he visited Europe and every part of the United States. In Brussels ten years ago he saved the lives of five persons in a hotel fire and ago he rescued two persons from suffocation by smoke. As a farrier in Jacksonville, Ill. six years ago he made a strenuous campaign for United States senator, visiting every county in the state.

6 O'CLOCK SECRETARY MEYER

Has Brought About Reorganization of the Navy

WASHINGTON, May 23.—A virtual reorganization of the navy has been made by Secy Meyer in the year during which he has held the portfolio of the navy department. He has brought about a saving of money in many directions, it is said. Many of the changes inaugurated by Secretary Meyer are the result, direct or indirect, of suggestions offered at his request by officers in all parts of the naval service.

Saving of coal has been accomplished by systematic firing, economy of steam, replacing defective joints and journals and stopping leaky valves. On the

DEPT. OF JUSTICE

Takes New Tack On Crusade Against Bucketshops

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The department of justice took a new tack today in its extensive crusade against bucketshops for in addition to the conspiracy charge that was made against 29 men in the cities of New York, Jersey City, Baltimore and Washington last April the department today lodged a charge of a direct violation of section 565 of the district code which forbids bucketshops buckling or setting up a gaming table in the district.

This charge is made against the persons who are said to constitute the Standard Stock & Grain Co. of Jersey City. Four additional persons are ex-

WOMAN ON TRIAL

Is Charged With Murder of William J. Erder

ST. LOUIS, May 23.—Mrs. Dora Elizabeth Doney, who with her husband, Dr. Loren Doney, is under indictment on the charge of murdering William J. Erder, whom it is alleged she married, was placed on trial here today. The defense asked a severance of the trial and the state elected to try the woman first. It is charged that while she was the wife of Erder and also that of Doney she poisoned Erder with arsenic.

Shortly after his death it is charged Mrs. Doney sent Erder's furniture to the home of Doney in Columbus, Neb. She collected Erder's life insurance. Mrs. Doney now admits she married Erder while she was the wife of Doney. She says she was not responsible for her acts as she was under the influence of morphine which her husband sent her. The defense will claim that Erder took patent medicines.

NO INFORMATION SPITZER PARDON

From Balloonists Who Left Pittsfield White House Silent About It

PITTSFIELD, May 23.—Up to a late hour this forenoon no information as to the landing place of the balloon Pittsfield in the heart of the Berkshire shires had been received here. As William F. Whitehouse, who piloted the balloon from Pittsfield Saturday, was in New York yesterday, it is presumed the flight was not a long one. Mr. Whitehouse does not usually notify this city of his landing place.

ELECTRIC LIGHT ASSOCIATION

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 23.—Two thousand delegates to the National Electric Light Association convention which will open tomorrow have arrived in the city today and by tomorrow it is expected that nearly the entire membership of 1000 will be here. President Frank W. Bruce of Denver and New York will deliver his presidential address tomorrow morning. An electrical show at which the latest electrical inventions will be exhibited will follow the convention.

MRS. MARY NILAN

MOTHER OF BISHOP NILAN IS DEAD

HARTFORD, Conn., May 23.—Mrs. Mary Nilan, mother of Right Rev. John J. Nilan, Roman Catholic bishop of Hartford, died here today in her 56th year. She had been confined by age. Mrs. Nilan came here from Amherst, Mass., when her son was consecrated to the bishopric last month. She had made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Joseph H. Coffey. She leaves five children.

FUNERALS

WALSH—The funeral of Mrs. Ellen Walsh took place yesterday afternoon from the rooms of Undertaker C. H. Molloy & Sons. Burial was in the Catholic cemetery, where Rev. Timothy Callahan read the committal prayers. Undertakers C. H. Molloy & Sons had charge.

STACKPOLE—The funeral of Mrs. Minnie F. Stackpole took place yesterday afternoon from her late residence, 835 Chelmsford street. The services were conducted by Rev. James E. Gregg, pastor of the Kirk Street Congregational church. Appropriate selections were sung by the First Universalist church choir. The bearers were David Healey, Nelson D. Keables, George W. Tuohy and Charles S. Tuttle. A delegation was present representing the Women's auxiliary to the Y. M. C. A. in the city. The funeral took place in the Catholic cemetery. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Mr. William A. Mitchell, under the direction of Undertaker George W. Healey.

HOLT—The funeral of Mrs. Sarah M. C. Holt took place Saturday afternoon from the residence in North Chelmsford. Rev. Mr. Bartlett officiated and there was singing by Mrs. Horace Hanson and Mrs. Duran. The bearers were Messrs. Hale, Blodgett, Josselyn and Dunn. Burial was in the Riverside cemetery, North Chelmsford, under the direction of Undertaker C. M. Young.

NEES—Mary Nees, aged 7 months, died Sunday morning at the home of her parents, Ernest and Rose Nees, 103 Charles street. The funeral took place this morning at 9 o'clock from the home of her parents. Burial was in the Catholic cemetery. Undertakers M. H. McDonough & Sons had charge.

DEATHS

FLYNN—John T. Flynn died yesterday at his home, rear of 102 Adams street, aged 38 years. He is survived by his wife, Mary, and four children. He was a well known resident of St. Patrick's parish and was a member of Division 1, A. O. H., and of Court Gen. Dimon. A. O. F.

ASHWORTH—Mrs. Julia E. Ashworth, wife of Albin S. Ashworth, died yesterday at her home, 23 South Walker street, aged 52 years and two months. She leaves, besides her husband, one daughter, Mrs. Harold R. Maxson, two grandchildren, Carlotta and Virginia Maxson, one brother, Warren P. Smith and five sisters, Mrs. Charles H. Hanson, Mrs. Clara E. Cain of Springfield, Mrs. Frances M. Elrod of Nashua, N. H., Mrs. Bertha Richmond of Springfield, Vt., and Mrs. Lee Grand M. Anway of Los Angeles, Cal.

HEALEY—Miss Catherine Healey died yesterday at the home of her niece, Mrs. Mary Tierney, 3 Dewey avenue, off Coburn street. She was a well known resident of Centralville.

WORK—Augustus A. Work died Sunday morning at his home, 12 Middlesex park, aged 71 years, 8 months. He leaves besides his wife, one daughter, Mrs. Annie Davis of this city, and three grandchildren. He was a member of Grand Union lodge, I. O. O. F., and for 30 years was an employee of the Bigelow Carpet Co.

FANNING—Alexander Fanning, age 62 years, private 10th Regt. Mass infantry, died today at his home, 129 Chelmsford street. The body was removed to Saunders' undertaking rooms. He leaves a sister, Mrs. Annie Lamon of Holden, Mass.

PARKER—The death of Willard S. Parker, a lifelong resident of Chelmsford, occurred suddenly at his home on the Boston road, Friday evening, as the result of a shock, aged 51 years. Although not having enjoyed robust health for several years, Mr. Parker was about as usual on Monday of last week, a severe cold contracted on Monday evening resulting in conditions he was unable to withstand. He had for several years been a member of the I. O. O. F., belonging to a Lowell lodge, and of Chelmsford Grange. Besides his wife, he is survived by a son, Leon H. Parker, a daughter, Ethel P. Parker, and a brother, D. Elmer Parker of Salem, Mass., and a sister, Mrs. B. S. Adams of Nantucket.

CHENEY—LaRoy Arthur Cheney, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur A. Cheney, died at the home of his parents on the Lowell road, Saturday, aged 22 years, seven months. Since birth he had been a sufferer from a heart difficulty, but in spite of this handicap was most optimistic and full of courage, entering with a wholeheartedness into whatever came in his way to do, in a manner that won for him the admiration and friendship of all with whom he came in contact. He was born in Lowell August 20, 1887, his parents removing to Chelmsford the following year. He attended the public schools of Chelmsford, graduating from the high school in the class of 1906, of which he was valedictorian and was also president of the class. In the following September he passed the preliminary examinations for the Institute of Technology at Boston, but was prevented by ill health from continuing. In the winter of 1906 he began work in the foreman's office at the Lowell Machine shop, making during his stay an excellent record for himself, and winning many prizes by his cheerfulness. For several years he had been a constant attendant at the Chelmsford Street Baptist church and Sunday school. He was secretary of the tennis club of the school.

HEALEY—Joseph C. Healey, aged 51 years, died yesterday at his home, East Bridgewater, Mass. The deceased was a member of Oberlin lodge, I. O. O. F., and Pilgrim commandery. The remains will be brought to this city for burial Wednesday by Undertaker J. A. Weinbeck.

RECEIVERS APPOINTED

CHICAGO, May 23.—Judge Grosscup in the United States circuit court today appointed receivers for Chicago Railway Co., which operates the west and north side street car line. The company is not financially sound and the receivership is believed to be a legal move in connection with J. P. Ball's recent decision holding the railroad company liable for bonds of the Morland-Consolidated Traction Co. The petition for receivership was filed by the Westinghouse Electric & Mfg. Co., which owns the defendant's cars. It is $50,548, for machinery. Henry Blair and John M. Roche were named as receivers.

BOTH LEGS AMPUTATED PLEADS NOT GUILTY

Man Either Fell or Jumped From Train Lawrence Man is Charged With Conspiracy to Bribe

LYNN, May 23.—When Mrs. Jonathan Eldridge started to leave the train in Boston today she found that her husband, who had boarded a train with her at Lynn and had sat in a seat directly opposite his wife, was missing. After a search through the train and station had proved unsuccessful, she called the Lynn railroad station on the telephone and found that her husband had been picked up on the track a little distance from the station with both legs amputated. He was taken to the Lynn hospital, where he is not expected to live. Eldridge, a former department store owner of this city and lately in business on Summer street, Boston, had been acting queerly but it is not known whether he jumped or fell from the train. He is 56 years old.

NEWBURYPORT, May 23.—"Not guilty" was the plea entered today by Samuel Kres, of Lawrence, when arraigned in the Essex county superior court here on four indictments with a total of 21 counts charging bribery and conspiracy to bribe. Kres' case is one of the many in connection with the alleged bribery of public officials of Lawrence and in which connection Mayor White of Lawrence is under indictment. Kres, who is a manufacturer of Lawrence, gave himself up to the police of this city last night.

AFTER WESTON'S RECORD

NEW YORK, May 23.—John Ennis, the Stamford, Conn., postman, who aspires to break Weston's record of 105 days from New York to San Francisco, left the city hall at 10.15 this morning, armed with letters from Mayor Gaynor to the mayors of Chicago and San Francisco. Ennis will be 66 years old on June 4, about three years younger than Weston.

"I got stirred up by a reported statement from Mr. Weston that no one except a person born in America could do such a walk," said Mr. Ennis. "I've got a pair of good Irish legs and I think they'll turn out as good or better a stunt."

POPULATION OF NEW BEDFORD

NEW BEDFORD, May 23.—Based on the assessors' returns which are complete for all but two of the city's 18 precincts, the population of New Bedford is 106,914. According to the last census figures, a special enumeration made in 1906, the population was 79,078, showing a gain in four years of 27,836.

BANKS INVOLVED

In Alleged Troubles of Big Grain Firm

ALBANY, N. Y., May 23.—Through the alleged manipulation of warehouse receipts the firm of Durant & Elmore, grain merchants, with offices in Albany, Chicago, Buffalo and Boston, has become involved in a financial tangle which promises sensational developments. The National Commercial bank of Albany holds the company's paper for $300,000, the First National bank has $77,200 and many thousands more are said to have been secured from out of town institutions.

According to a statement by Vice President James H. Perkins of the National Commercial bank, his bank is hopelessly involved. "We are indelibly formed," says Mr. Perkins, "that eight or nine banks hold the firm's paper besides grain commission brokers with whom the firm has dealt and a number of individuals."

The exact condition of the firm's affairs is not known, but an examination is under way. Gibson Oliver, the treasurer of its Albany office according to members of the firm, but no statement from him as to the alleged shortage has been forthcoming.

Edwin Elmore, a member of the firm who was summoned from Chicago, is assisting in the examination. The scheme by which the money is alleged to have been secured was a simple one. As soon as a carload of grain was shipped from Chicago for the local firm the manager received a warehouse receipt. This was in the regular course of business. Later on the warehouse receipts are said to have been so manipulated as to make possible the heavy loans from the banks upon the bills as security.

The men whose duty is said to have been to take up the warehouse receipts when the grain was actually delivered by the railroad company, it is alleged, did not do so and hence the genuine bills were used over again.

President Mead of the First National bank said today that his bank holds $77,200 of the Durant & Elmore paper bearing the personal endorsement of Messrs. Durant, Elmore and Oliver and secured by original bill of lading drafts deposited as collateral security for the loans. The company, he said, had been gradually withdrawing its business from the bank for some time past. Careful investigation led him to believe that the bank would be amply protected from any loss.

"I do not believe the banks will lose any money," said Mr. Mead. "They will hold the railroads responsible. We look to the railroad officials to take the initiative."

NO AGENT IN BOSTON

BOSTON, May 23.—The grain firm of Durant & Elmore of Albany, whose accounts are under examination, has no agent in this city, but other grain firms stated today that the Albany merchants had curtailed their business in this part of the country considerably during the past year.

GENERAL DRAPER'S ESTATE

HOPEDALE, May 23.—An estate of $6,358,487 was left by the late General William F. Draper of Hopedale who died at Washington last February. The inventory of the estate was filed in the probate court at Worcester today by the executor under the will, Oliver Lane, the secretary of the deceased, and Attorney W. K. Richardson of Nahant. The inventory shows personal property of the value of $6,234,087 and real estate $21,400.

COOK, TAYLOR & CO.

231-233 Central Street

Special Biggest Bargain in Towels Ever Offered . . .

6c Each

In Basement at Low Prices

Mosquito Netting For 3 Yard Piece, Any Color 55c	Light Outing Heavy Outing Drillings Prints Ginghams Crash Towels Curtain Muslin Table Padding Table Linens Napkins
Bed Spreads Sheetings Pillow Cases Sheets Tickings Brown Cotton Table Oil Cloth Light Percales

COOK, TAYLOR & CO.

231-233 Central Street

FUNERAL NOTICES

WALSH—The funeral of Mrs. Johanna Walsh will take place on Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock from her late home, 6 Watson street. Solemn high mass at the Sacred Heart church at 9 o'clock. Undertakers Higgins Bros. in charge.

ASHWORTH—The funeral of Mrs. Julia E. Ashworth will take place on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock from 23 South Walker street. Friends invited. Undertaker Weinbeck, in charge.

FLYNN—The funeral of John F. Flynn will take place Tuesday morning from his late home, rear 102 Adams street, at 9 o'clock. High mass of requiem at St. Patrick's church at 9.45. Funeral arrangements in charge of Undertaker Peter H. Savage.

HEALEY—The funeral of Miss Catherine Healey will take place Tuesday morning at 8.30 from the home of her niece, Mrs. Mary Tierney, 3 Dewey avenue, off Coburn street. A funeral high mass will be celebrated in St. Michael's church at 9 o'clock. The funeral will be in charge of C. H. Molloy & Sons.

HICKSON—The funeral of the late Thomas Hickson will take place tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock from his home, No. 1 Broadway. At 9 o'clock a mass of requiem will be sung at St. Patrick's church. Undertakers J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

WINTON—Died in this city, May 21, Miss Susan E. Winton, aged 75 years. Funeral services will be held from the residence of her sister, Mrs. Anna M. Shepard, 16 Elliot street, Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. Friends invited. The funeral arrangements are in charge of Undertakers J. B. Currier Co.

LIQUOR SEIZED

TETREAU WILL BE CALLED INTO COURT

Sergeant Alexander Duncan and Inspector William H. Grady of the liquor squad paid a visit to the home of Adolphus Tetreau at 9 Fulton place yesterday and seized six cases of beer. Tetreau will be summoned into court during the week to answer to a complaint charging him with illegally keeping liquor.

PRICE OF LUMBER

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The department of justice is investigating the subject of the price of the lumber in the "Cotton States" with a view of determining whether or not the so-called lumber trust may be prosecuted under the Sherman anti-trust law on the ground that it is a combination in restraint of trade.

COL. ABBOTT

ASSUMED CHARGE OF THE NEW ENGLAND DISTRICT

BOSTON, May 23.—Col. Frederick Abbott of the United States engineers assumed charge today of the New England district in place of Lieut. Col. Edward Burr, who has been in command of the district since June, 1906. In addition to the engineer work, Col. Abbott is also responsible for all light-houses on the New England coast and Lake Champlain.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Discussion was hot today in the world's sixth Sunday school convention over the criticisms which some of the British delegates publicly heaped upon the Washington committee in the churches yesterday for barring the negro delegates of the District of Columbia from the mammoth parade last Friday.

With two exceptions the criticizing sermons were made by white men and in addition to the English speakers two American delegates, W. H. Hartshorn of Boston and Louis Strother of Brooklyn, denounced the drawing of the color line.

The day's work began with eight simultaneous conferences in which teachers assembled in divisions and discussed the special branches of work they follow and then assembled in Convention hall later where the results and recommendations of the conference were presented to the convention and discussed. Marion Lawrence of the North American section was in charge of the big meeting.

GREETINGS TO TAFT

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The Massachusetts delegation to the World's Sunday School convention today presented a letter to President Taft conveying the greetings of their state. The letter follows:

"Washington, D. C., United States.

"Hon. W. H. Taft, President of the United States.

"My Dear President Taft: The Massachusetts delegation to the World's Sixth Sunday School convention, numbering three hundred strong, extend it a pleasure to bring cordial greetings from the residents of the Old Bay State to our most distinguished president resident, the president.

"Bidding you a very cordial welcome to the shores of the commonwealth and wishing for you a fruitful and enjoyable summer, we are,

"Very respectfully yours,

(Signed) "Eben S. Draper."

LATEST

KRESS SURRENDERS

Lawrence Man Charged With Conspiracy to Bribe

LAWRENCE, May 23.—Samuel Kress, who was one of the 12 against whom indictments were found by the grand jury in connection with the so-called "graft" cases and was out of town when capias were served upon the other defendants last week, gave himself up to the police last evening and was released upon bail of $2500, furnished by his father, Herman Kress.

Word reached the police Saturday that Kress was in this vicinity and the conjecture was that he would appear in court at Newburyport today. However, yesterday afternoon word was received that he would come to the station, and he arrived about 6 o'clock. His father had preceded him and Clerk Noyes also being on hand there was no delay in the bail proceedings.

MILL OFFICIALS CHURCH PEOPLE

Refuse to Take Back Want Officials to Prevent Bouts

FRANKLIN, N. H., May 23.—Although the strike of the International Brotherhood of Papermakers was formally declared off Saturday night when the striking union men attempted to return to work at the International Paper company's mill here today they were told that the mill officials here had received no instructions to take them back. The mill has been running in full for some time with the aid of a large crew of strike-breakers. When many of the strikers reported for work this morning, it was stated by the superintendent that he did not require them and would only employ them when needed.

ONE MAN KILLED

AND ANOTHER WAS PROBABLY FATALITY INJURED

PLAINFIELD, Conn., May 23.—Daniel Sullivan, aged 42, was killed at the New Haven railroad crossing yesterday and his father-in-law, Timothy Shea, aged 60, was probably fatally injured. They were driving across the track and were struck by the 7 o'clock train from Wilmington.

Mr. Sullivan was a member of the Plainfield board of education and chairman of the democratic town committee. He leaves a wife and three children in Mossop, where he resided. Mr. Shea is a Plainfield farmer and familiar with the crossing.

The accident cast a gloom over all the town. The crossing is a dangerous one, without signals.

THREE ASLEEP

Boys Were Found in a Freezer

NEW YORK, May 23.—Three sleepy youngsters relieved free lodgings from the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children Saturday night after being found asleep in an ice cream freezer at Coney Island. They accepted their fate stoically, after politely pointing out to Police Constable Cozzine of the Coney Island station that he had interrupted a dream in which they were for once eating all the ice cream they wanted. They gave their names as Charles, Frederick and Joseph Lenahan, aged, respectively, 9, 13 and 12.

In the first place there was a $5 bill, which Charles obtained from his aunt, by telling her that his mother wanted to borrow it. That happened last Wednesday. It was then a loss-up as to whether the three should visit the Wild West show or Coney Island. Coney won, and before long they were floating in an abundance of hot dog, ice cream, scenic railways and other diversions. They ate peanuts and popcorn and drank lemonade to such excess that the $5 had gone in two days.

After wandering about the streets penniless and hungry they found a large empty ice cream freezer in a dark corner, and into its welcoming crevice they crept on Friday night. Policeman Cozzine did the rest. He heard gentle snoring and presently his investigating hand encountered a couple of toasted heads.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT

BOSTON, May 23.—The tennis courts of the Longwood Cricket club were lively with college play today with the opening matches in the New England college championships and the postponed final meet between Harvard and Princeton.

Drawings for the New England intercollegiate in doubles brought Trinity against Williams and Vermont opposed to Bowdoin, while Amherst, Brown and Tufts have been in the top half and Wesleyan and Dartmouth and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology have been in the lower half of the draw.

In the singles, A. J. Young of Brown met R. M. Nelson of Trinity as his opponent in the first round while T. B. Parker of Trinity met I. G. Howe of Bowdoin. Other final round matches were G. Bacon of Wesleyan and F. W. Covell of Technology and C. C. Carpenter of Trinity and C. L. Johnson of Amherst. It is expected that play will continue throughout the week.

The Harvard-Princeton matches which came over from Saturday on account of the rain were run off in the afternoon.

FELL 2000 FEET

Aeronaut Escaped With Broken Leg

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 23.—Five thousand persons saw Oscar Leroy of Percy, Okla., fall two thousand or more feet through the air yesterday at Ellwood, Pa., near here, and escape with his life, his only injury being a broken leg. Leroy, who is an aeronaut, attached to a circus, had made a balloon ascent and when he cut loose his parachute, the latter soaked with the rain of the past 48 hours, refused to open until the aeronaut had almost reached the ground.

An hour later which the performance was in progress the grand stand section of seats collapsed, carrying down women and children. The last, too, fell over the struggling people, while many were thrown into hysterics, none sustained serious injury. The fire department and people of the community with canvasmen and other citizens attacked rescued those buried beneath the water-soaked canvas.

KILLED HIMSELF

After His Bride Had Left Him

SYRACUSE, N. Y., May 23.—John May of Springfield, Mass., committed suicide yesterday morning at a rooming house in this city, where he and his wife had been living. The wife, Mrs. Kittie May, told Coroner George R. Kinne they came from Springfield three weeks ago, and she said it was a runaway marriage. Three days ago the couple quarreled and Mrs. May left her husband. She found employment as a waitress.

Jealousy caused the quarrel and it was because his wife had left him that May drank carbolic acid some time during the night. He was found dead in his room at 10 o'clock. Mrs. May refuses to tell anything concerning her husband or herself. She is making arrangements for the funeral.

JUDGE HARRIS

Had His Yard Planted With Bombs

TIPTONVILLE, Tenn., May 23.—Feeling that his only hope of protection is in fighting his enemies with their own weapons, Judge Harris of Tiptonville has planted bombs about his home here, connected with an electric battery inside the house and which can be exploded by pressing one of many buttons in different parts of the house.

Judge Harris has also appealed to the federal authorities, asking for their assistance against his enemies. The enemies in question are the friends of the eight men convicted of the murder of Capt. Quentin Rankin, who was killed at his summer home at Reel Foot Lake by night riders two years ago. Judge Harris presided at the trial when the eight men were convicted of murder. Later the supreme court of Tennessee reversed his decision and committed the men to jail.

Their friends went various notices to Judge Harris, warning him to take care and saying that they are going to kill him. He returned here from Memphis last evening and found that many outrages had been committed about his home during his short absence. The men who have warned him say that they have bombs which will blow him to eternity.

MAN WAS FINED

BECAUSE OF ARGUMENT WITH TICKET SELLER

NEW YORK, May 23.—Joseph M. Adams, a public accountant, went up to the ticket office of the Third avenue elevated at 42nd street Saturday night and asked for one ticket, offering a $20 bill.

"I can't change that," said the ticket agent.

"Hurry up! I want to get home. Give me change," ordered Adams.

He was again told it could not be changed. The line of purchasers was held up for 15 minutes while he argued with the ticket seller. A policeman was called and Adams was arrested.

"Why didn't you get away and get your bill changed somewhere else?" asked the magistrate.

"I didn't have to. I offered this bill, good legal tender, and he should have changed it according to law."

"That we will change it for you," said the magistrate. "Two dollars fine."

OLD RESIDENT

MRS. JOHANNAH WALSH PASSED AWAY TODAY

Mrs. Johannah Walsh, aged 69 and a resident of Lowell for 50 years, and a prominent member of the Sacred Heart parish since its establishment died today at her home, 5 Watson street. Her death had been expected for several days and she passed away thoroughly resigned and fortified with the last rites of the church of which she had been a faithful and devout attendant throughout her life. She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Michael Carey, and Misses Margaret, Catherine and Maria Walsh; three sons, Anthony, John and Michael Walsh.

AN EARTHQUAKE

AGED, France, May 23.—An earthquake was felt here at dawn. The movement continued for two seconds.

INDIAN LANDED

PHILADELPHIA, May 23.—It took the immigration officers at the Philadelphia port several hours yesterday to decide whether John Genish, a Peonabian Indian of pure blood, should be admitted to the United States. They finally allowed him to land and now Genish is on his way home. The Indian arrived in port as a stow-away on the British steamer Eastport from London. He told the immigration officers that he started out to see the world from St. John, N. B., and London he became stranded and got to the United States and to get back to the United States he hid himself in the coal bunkers of the Eastport.

ONE LIFE LOST HIGH COST OF LIVING

N. Y. Firemen Made Sensational Rescues From Burning Building

NEW YORK, May 23.—Sensational rescues by firemen prevented more than one death in a tenement fire at East 70th street today. As it was, Mrs. Mary Miller died in a fireman's arms from the effects of smoke inhalation after she had been dragged to the roof, while her husband, William Miller, clutching their 11 months old son, unconscious and suffering from burns, was rescued just in time by another fire fighter.

Meanwhile, numbers of tenants were being carried down ladders and dropped into lifeboats. Fully forty persons were taken in this way from the burning structures where members of sixteen families had been trapped.

HE HAD FOUR ACES

Man in Police Court Today Was Charged With Gambling

There was a quiet little game of cards being held on the South common yesterday afternoon when Patrolman Daniel Cogger put in an appearance. He reached the group before any of the members were warned of his approach and though there was a general rush to get away he succeeded in grabbing Joseph Nuno. Joseph denied that he had anything to do with the game, but when taken to the police station and searched four aces were found in one of the pockets of his clothing. In court this morning he pleaded guilty to a complaint charging him with taking part in a game on the Lord's day and was fined $15.

Eight Women in Court

There were eight women who were brought before the court after the majority of the men prisoners had been arraigned. Four of the women were taken out of a house in Fenwick street yesterday afternoon by Patrolmen Ganley and Castles.

Josephine St. Sauveur, Catherine E. Forbes and Mary Gagnon were each fined $5.

Given Another Chance

But for the fact that Judge Hadley's sympathy was with the wife and child of William J. Ryan, who was charged with being drunk, Ryan would have received a full sentence, but the wife put up such a pitiful plea that the court decided to give the young man another chance. Ryan was given a suspended sentence of six months in jail, and placed in the custody of the probation officer for one year.

General Disturbances

Thomas F. Qualey and Michael F. McDermott were arrested yesterday by Patrolmen O'Keefe and Sheridan. The arresting officers informed the court that the two young men frequent the South common and conduct themselves in an offensive manner. Qualey was fined $10, and McDermott was sentenced to two months in jail.

REP. GARDNER

REP. GARDNER SAYS HE DID NOT SIGN AMES' PETITION

WASHINGTON, May 23.—In the course of his second letter to Chairman Payne of the ways and means committee on his Canadian reciprocity resolution, which was read in the house Friday, Representative Ames said that all the republican members of the Massachusetts delegation had signed his petition asking the committee to report the resolution.

Yesterday Representative Longworth received a telegram from Mr. Gardner at Hamilton on the following lines:

"Newspapers here say that Congressmen Ames stated in debate yesterday that every republican member of the Massachusetts delegation signed a petition in favor of Canadian reciprocity."

Please examine original stenographer's notes and notify me at once as to the facts. I flatly refused to sign a petition in question when Ames presented it to me. I have always opposed Canadian reciprocity except in non-compulsive articles."

SENT TO ASYLUM

BLOW TRANSFERRED BOY INTO A THIEF

SOMERVILLE, N. J., May 23.—A Jewell and Hyde at 17 years, through no fault of his own, Willie Miller was taken Saturday from the county jail to the State Insane asylum at Trenton and sorrow was great among the Earlton dwellers, who remembered him as a happy, honest boy before a blow transformed him into a thief. He has a dual personality, it seems clear.

Recently he was caught twice stealing, and that was the first knowledge his neighbors received of the amazing change in his nature, due to an injury at baseball in a Y. M. C. A. camp in Mexico. A commission of three physicians decided last Friday that he was insane, and that the asylum was the best place for him.

GREAT EVENT

IN AID OF ST. MARY'S CHURCH OF COLLINSVILLE

At Associate hall on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings of this week a bazaar and festival will be run under the direction of the Rev. Thomas Walsh and a committee of his parishioners of St. Mary's church, Collinsville. The affair is the first of its kind held in this city for some time, and offering as it does an unusually large number of attractions, it is the confident expectation of its promoters that the bazaar will prove to be a great success. One of the principal features of the festival will be a dance which will be run on each evening. Kittredge's orchestra has been secured to furnish the music. Admission has been fixed at 25 cents, while season tickets for the three evenings of entertainment may be secured for 50 cents.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

By virtue of its unequalled blood-purifying, nerve-strengthening, stomach-toning, appetite-restoring properties, is the one Great Spring Medicine. Get it today in liquid form or in tablets known as Sarsapills. 100 doses $1.

State Commission Says Fires Are Partly Responsible

BOSTON, May 23.—The state commission on the cost of living, pursuing further afield the elusive causes of the prevailing high prices, has fastened on two new ones.

"The excessive waste from fire in the United States," or, legally applied, "a surplusage in the cost of living," is one.

The cost of maintaining the insurance companies, which the commission indicted for not paying back to the insured one-half of the money received in premiums, is the other.

The discussion of these causes forms the basis of a supplementary report the commission issued yesterday.

The report points out that while Boston's fire department is maintained at a cost of $25.10 per capita, those in the seven largest cities of Europe are supported at an average cost of but 20 cents per capita.

Boston's annual fire loss is $3.33 per capita, as compared with the Massachusetts average of $2.50 per capita and the average of the United States of $2.23 per capita.

"In other words," the report sums up, "our fire loss varies from eight to ten times as great as in Europe. Boston has an average annual fire loss of about $2,000,000. Glasgow, with 140,000 population, has a loss of $1,000,000. New York, with 4,000,000 population, has a loss of $325,000,000.

"The belief is not uncommon that the insurance companies pay the loss, if the property is fully insured, which is a false idea.

"The loss from every fire comes back to the people, and they pay for it every cent in rent and taxes, in the food they buy and the clothes they wear."

The remedy the report proposes is wholly with the people themselves.

This is the strict enforcement of the building laws, education on the subject of fire prevention, and the performance of that operation, by which politics may be removed from the fire department.

"Of the cost of maintaining the insurance companies, the report says:

"The insurance companies, the return to policy holders is less than one-half of their income. In March, 1908, the insurance committee of the Boston Merchants association called the attention of the association to what was characterized as an 'unfair' increase of the insurance rates in the business district of Boston and presented figures to substantiate their claim.

"From these figures it appeared that in the ten years prior to this report the premium income of the various companies doing business in Boston on Boston risks was $35,000,000, and that during the time there had been paid in fire losses to Boston risks $10,471,426, leaving $15,000,000 to the companies to be applied to expenses, surplus and dividends.

"The report for the whole number of fire insurance companies doing business in 1908, referred to previously, shows that losses take about half of the receipts.

"The explanation of the insurance companies that losses should be averaged over a long series of years, and that the exceptional losses like those of San Francisco, Baltimore and Chicago, in recent years, must be considered, does not explain.

"The glaring disproportion between what the public pays, and what it receives in return, is 'unnecessary and burdensome.'

COMMON COUNCIL

Will Try to Elect Principal Assessor Tomorrow Night

City Solicitor Engaged on Several Opinions—Committee on Appropriations to Meet Tonight—Order for $600 for Medical Inspection in Private Schools Signed

The board of aldermen will meet in special session and the common council in regular session tomorrow night and during the evening a joint convention will be held on the petition for a hearing on the proposed purchase of the Livingston park land in the Highlands. The petitioners for the purchase of the land are members of the Highland Improvement association and the park board is strongly in favor of the purchase. The price asked for the land is $10,000 which is less than it is assessed for.

Contest for Assessor

The question of choice of principal assessor to take the place of the late Assessor Wheeler will also be brought up at tomorrow night's meeting. Warren P. Sanborn has been elected on the part of the aldermen and tomorrow night the common council will take action.

City Solicitor Busy

City Solicitor William W. Duncan is busily engaged preparing opinions for different departments and committees. One of the opinions is the request of the street committee relative to the petition of the Lowell Shoe company of Fred R. Brookings for the acceptance of the portion of State street between East Merrimack and Brown streets. The committee wants to know what the city's rights are in that portion of the street. That strip was formerly known as the property of the Whittier cotton mills.

Committee on Appropriations

The committee on appropriations will meet in special session at 7:30 o'clock tonight for the purpose of considering numerous loans which have been recommended.

The committee on fire department will meet tomorrow night to make improvements and alterations in various fire houses, one of the principal items in the list being an amount of money for the improvement of the Warren street house. At the present time the company having been enlarged, it is necessary for two of the members to sleep in the attic.

The bill of $4000 alleged to be due the Massachusetts Institution for the Blind will also be considered and Solomon Mayberry, former superintendent of the charity department, and Mayor Meehan will be present to speak on the matter.

There is also a petition from the street department that $4000 be recommended for the street department in order that the pay of the city laborers may be increased.

Recently the water board voted to purchase a new pump for the West main.

Sixth street station, to take the place of the Morris pump. The board petitioned the committee on appropriations for its approval and the latter recommended the loan order to the city council, but the board of aldermen recommended the matter to the committee on appropriations for further information. It is expected that the committee at tonight's meeting will look into the matter more thoroughly and give the board of aldermen the required information.

Greenleaf Qualifies

Roy W. Greenleaf, who was recently appointed smoke inspector, qualified this morning.

Loan Order Signed

Mayor Meehan this morning signed the joint loan order, providing for $600 for medical inspection in private schools.

Fireworks for Fourth

The Boston agent of the Paine-Treavor Co. has written the clerk of committees relative to a display of fireworks for the Fourth of July. At the present time there is an order providing for the expenditure of $1500 for the observance of the Fourth lying on the table and there does not seem to be much indication of it being taken off and acted upon.

FORGERS' GANG

Was Rounded up by the Pinkerton Men

NEW YORK, May 23.—Pinkerton detectives yesterday rounded up all that was left of the "Tough Ocean" gang of forgers who have operated, it is said, all over the United States during the past half-dozen years, getting many thousands of dollars in small amounts from not over-careful banks by a simple method of raising checks stolen from mail boxes.

The gang gets its name from its leader, William Ford, who was nicknamed "Tough Ocean," and who was sentenced to six years in the penitentiary last spring. After his conviction many of its members went into other kinds of work, but a large number arose in the persons of William Bonland, alias William Gordon, alias "Nemo." He chose as his side partner Joseph Davino, alias Joseph Elia, and the two, according to the Pinkerton men, have been "working" banks in New York, Chicago, Syracuse, Boston, Providence, New Haven and Philadelphia to the extent of $10,000 during the past four months.

BROCKTON WON

Tail-Enders Defeated
Lowell on Saturday

Brockton broke her string of five defeats by beating Lowell 6 to 2 Saturday. McLane contributed the feature of the game with a star catch. The score:

BROCKTON		bb	po	a	e
Dulin, 3b	0	1	1	0	0
McGovern, 1b	3	1	1	0	0
Henrikson, cf	1	0	0	0	0
Stankard, rf	1	0	0	0	0
Shannon, lb	1	0	0	0	0
McLane, if	0	2	0	0	0
Jolly, ss	1	3	2	0	0
Lavigne, c	1	0	2	0	0
Warwick, p	1	0	2	0	0
Totals	10	27	10	3

LOWELL		bb	po	a	e
Campbell, 3b	0	2	2	0	0
Boutles, 2b	1	0	0	0	0
Cooney, ss	1	0	0	0	0
Magee, if	0	1	0	0	0
Flaherty, cf	1	0	0	0	0
Jones, rf	1	3	2	0	0
Hornlie, c	1	6	4	1	0
Morse, lb	0	1	0	1	0
Tyler, p	0	1	0	1	0
Totals	5	24	18	4

Brockton 6, Lowell 2. McLane, 3b, 3 runs made, by Dulin 2, McGovern 2, Henrikson, Jolly, Boutles, Magee. Two-base hits, Dulin, Henrikson, Stankard, Jolly, Stolen bases, Standard 2, Henrikson, McGovern, Cooney, Hornlie. Double plays, Jones to Hornlie, Cooney to Jolly, Jolly to Boutles. First base on errors, Lowell 2, Brockton 2. Struck out by Tyler 5, by Warwick 3. Time, 1h. 40m. Umpire, Lannigan.

DIAMOND NOTES

Lawrence today. The ex is being swung on all sides these days as the teams must get down to the limit number of players.

McCrone's 17 putouts without an error, which is touted so loudly, was equalled by Metz in the 16 game at New Bedford, when he also accepted 17 chances without a break. New Bedford Standard. In a nine inning game with Haverhill, Morse of Lowell had 17 putouts without an error. In the 11 inning Haverhill game Morse had 19 putouts with one error, while Foulke of Haverhill had 15 putouts and one assist.

Three games here this week.

Terrible Terry's Tailenders will play here on Friday and Saturday.

Now let's get together and win a few games.

"Hi" Henry Labelle watched the game from the grandstand. On returning home from the Blenheim club where he has been playing, he says that Tony Pastor and Halford were let go by the management—Lynn item.

Jim Warner, with Lowell last season, is to work with the Adrian club of the Southern Michigan league this season, and left for there today. The team is managed by Vandergrift, who also was with Lowell last year.

The clubs are watching each other to see that the rule of having 14 players, which goes into effect today, is strictly observed, says the Lynn item. Manager Flanagan was anxious to learn if Lynn was down to that number. He said that Brockton is down to the limit. Flanagan is the father of the rule and won over Lowell and Haverhill to have it carried at the league meeting last winter. Lynn is today down to 13 men, not counting Manager Hamilton. There are three outfielders, two catchers and four pitchers. McCorry being laid up does not count. Smith, the young southerner, was yesterday traded to Norwich of a semi-professional league in Connecticut for the season.

It is known that several clubs in the league are carrying 16 and even 18 men, and these clubs are nagging at Lynn over the player limit question. They all seem to be afraid that Lynn will get an inch where they are talking a mile. Yet they all like to get big—ney when they came to Lynn and y always get a good slice. In fact

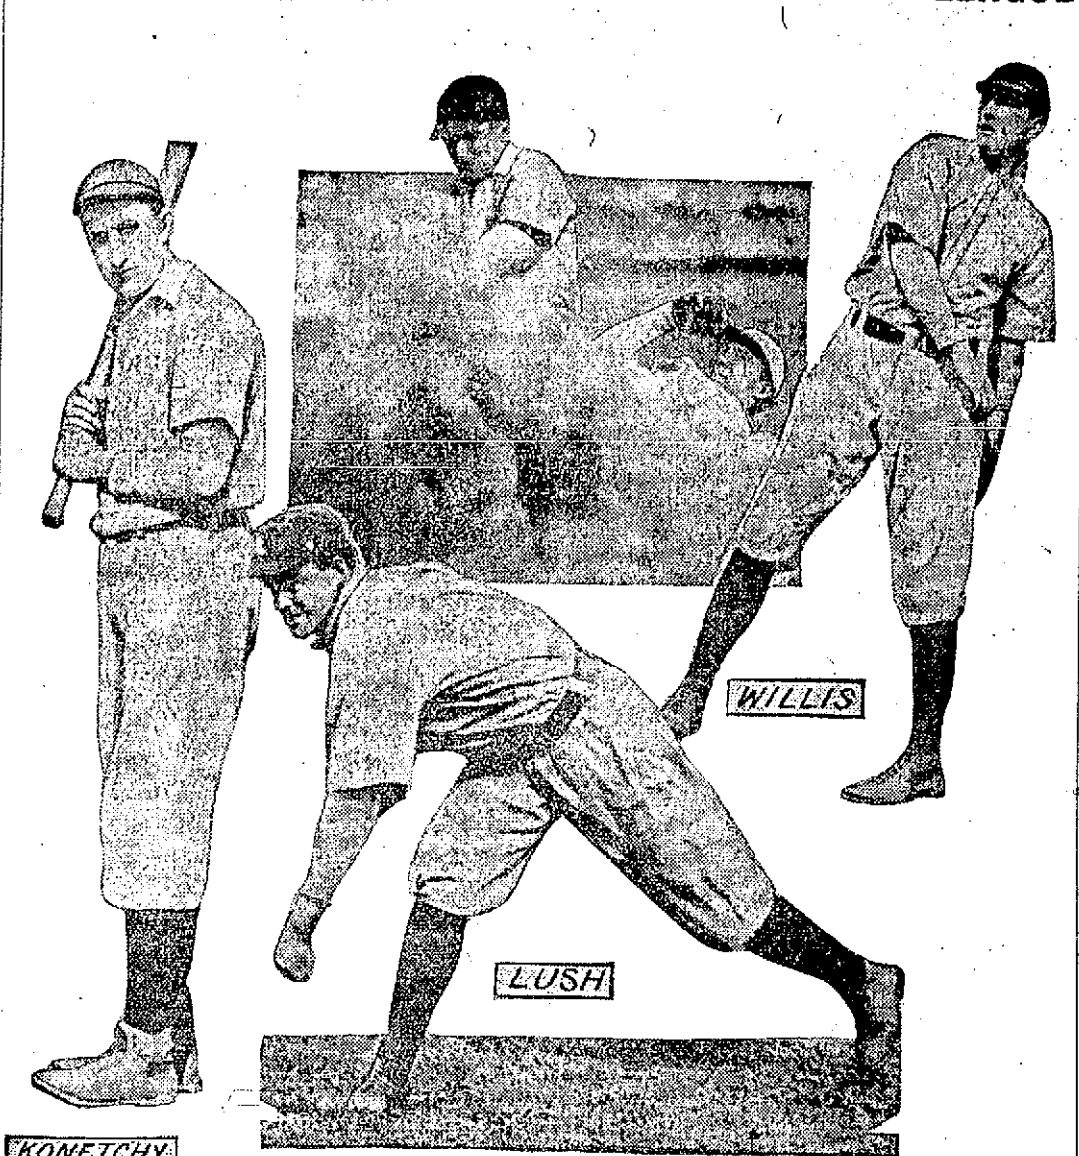

MORE
PINKHAM
CURES

Added to the Long List Due to This Famous Remedy

Oronogo, Mo.—"I was simply a nervous wreck. I could not walk across the floor without my heart fluttering and I could not even receive a letter. Every month I had such a bearing down sensation, as if the lower parts would fall out. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done my nerves a great deal of good and has also relieved the bearing down. I recommended it to some friends and two of them have been greatly benefited by it."—Mrs. MAE McKnight, Oronogo, Mo.

Another Grateful Woman. St. Louis, Mo.—"I was bothered terribly with a female weakness and had backache, bearing down pains and pains in lower parts. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound regularly and used the Sanative Wash and now I have no more troubles that way."—Mrs. A. L. HAZZOG, 6722 Prescott Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

Because your case is a difficult one, doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has cured many cases of female ills, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, indigestion, dizziness, nervous prostration,

SOME OF ST. LOUIS' STARS WHO ARE MAKING THINGS HUM IN NATIONAL LEAGUE

Lynn aided a number of clubs last season and is not squealing on the rule, but takes the position that what is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander, and all should be compelled to observe it. Expressing the satisfaction that he did not prove a hoodoo to Lynn in the game against Brockton at Ocean park, Thursday afternoon, but refraining from making any comment on the article of baseball served up by the Brockton team, Secretary Jacob C. Morse of the New England league watched closely the game yesterday. When Burg and Metz made a double steal in the eighth, Mr. Morse remarked that it was certainly fast ball playing and just as good as could be seen on either of the grounds in the Hub. "Things are moving fine throughout the circuit, according to reports made to me," said Mr. Morse to a reporter. "but the weather is putting us in bad. I don't like to see so many postponed games so early in the season, but I suppose the fans like it, so I've got no kick to make. It's going to be a big season for the New England league." Asked to give an opinion as to the probable winner of the pennant and if he thought Jesse Burkett could repeat, Mr. Morse also refrained from expressing an opinion. He did say, however, that Worcester had a good team, and so has New Bedford, Lynn, Lawrence, Lowell, Fall River, Brockton and Haverhill. Mr. Morse took exceptions to the statement made in the item yesterday that he had probably scored as many games as any newspaper man in New England. He corrected the assertion by saying that he had scored and witnessed more baseball games than any other man in the country, and he would make frequent visits to teams in the New England league circuit this season.—Lynn item.

AMERICAN LEAGUE STANDING

	Won	Lost	P. C.
Philadelphia	20	6	80.0
New York	18	8	69.2
Boston	17	9	65.4
Detroit	16	10	61.5
Cleveland	13	14	48.1
Washington	12	15	44.2
Chicago	8	19	29.4
St. Louis	5	20	20.0

NATIONAL LEAGUE STANDING

	Won	Lost	P. C.
Pittsburgh	16	9	64.0
Chicago	15	10	60.0
Cincinnati	15	11	57.7
New York	14	14	50.0
Philadelphia	13	14	48.1
St. Louis	12	15	44.2
Boston	10	18	35.7
Brooklyn	10	20	33.3

N. E. LEAGUE STANDING

	Won	Lost	P. C.
Lynn	12	6	66.7
New Bedford	12	8	60.0
Worcester	11	7	61.1
Lawrence	10	9	52.6
Lowell	10	11	47.6
Fall River	9	10	47.4
Haverhill	7	13	35.0
Brockton	5	14	26.3

N. E. LEAGUE RESULTS

At Brockton—Brockton 6, Lowell 2. At Lynn—Lynn-New Bedford—Rain. At Lawrence—Lawrence-Fall River—Rain. At Haverhill—Haverhill-Worcester—Rain.

AMERICAN LEAGUE RESULTS

Philadelphia 7, Detroit 4. New York 5, Cleveland 4. (15 innings.) St. Louis 3, Washington 2. Boston-Chicago—Rain.

NATIONAL LEAGUE RESULTS

Cincinnati 6, Boston 3. Pittsburgh 1, New York 10. St. Louis 4, Brooklyn 3. (10 innings.) Chicago-Philadelphia—Rain.

SUNDAY GAMES

National League. At Cincinnati—Cincinnati 4, Boston 3. At Chicago—Chicago 7, Philadelphia 2. At St. Louis—Brooklyn 2, St. Louis 1.

GAMES TODAY

New England League. Lawrence at Lowell. Brockton at Haverhill. Worcester at Lynn. New Bedford at Fall River.

National League

Boston at Cincinnati. Philadelphia at Chicago. Brooklyn at St. Louis. New York at Pittsburgh.

American League

Detroit at Philadelphia. Chicago at Boston. Cleveland at New York. St. Louis at Washington.

THE GAMES THIS WEEK

MONDAY. Lawrence at Lowell. Brockton at Haverhill. Worcester at Lynn. New Bedford at Fall River.

TUESDAY. Lowell at Lawrence. Brockton at Haverhill. Worcester at Lynn. Fall River at New Bedford.

WEDNESDAY. Lowell at Worcester. Lawrence at Brockton. Haverhill at New Bedford. Lynn at Fall River.

THURSDAY. Lowell at Worcester. Lawrence at Brockton. Haverhill at New Bedford. Lynn at Fall River.

FRIDAY. Brockton at Lowell. Lawrence at Worcester. Haverhill at Fall River. Lynn at New Bedford.

SATURDAY. Brockton at Lowell. Lawrence at Worcester. Haverhill at Fall River. Lynn at New Bedford.

Y. M. C. A. AUXILIARY

At the meeting of the Women's Auxiliary to the Y. M. C. A. held a few days ago it was announced that the proceeds from the Easter sale amounted to $702.83. This is to go toward the $6000 subscribed by the auxiliary for the building fund. The devotional service was given by Mrs. D. E. Yarnell on "The Love of God Constrains Us. Each Must Render an Account of His Stewardship." The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. F. K. Stearns; honorary vice-president, Mrs. Arlet Kline; first vice-president, Mrs. E. M. Perkins; second vice-president, Mrs. A. K. White; recording secretary, Mrs. C. O. Wheeler; corresponding secretary, Mrs. B. A. Kline; treasurer, Mrs. Mary E. Woodman.

MRS. TAFT PLANS BRILLIANT
SOCIAL SEASON THIS SUMMER

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Mrs. Taft, wife of the president, is planning to leave the White House by June 1 to open her summer home at Beverly, Mass. Mrs. Taft will be accompanied by her sister, and it has been reported here that the wife of the president promises to make the season at Beverly a lively one from a social standpoint, owing to her continued ill health. Mrs. Taft has done little entertaining, but now that she has recovered a number of brilliant parties are expected this summer. If you want help at home or in your business, try "The Sun" column.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

The weather put baseball out of commission throughout the city on Saturday.

Owing to the unsettled weather conditions of Saturday, the Y. M. C. A. Phillips S. S. game, which was scheduled to be played on the North common, was postponed.

Next Saturday the Y. M. C. A. team will meet the strong O. M. I. Cadets at Faulkner's park, North Billerica. As great rivalry exists between these teams, the players and followers are looking forward to an exciting contest. The Y. M. C. A. team will appear in new uniforms for this game.

On Monday, the 30th, the Y. M. C. A. team will line up against the fast semi-professional team of North Woburn. The North Woburn bunch is one of the fastest in the state, and it's up to the Y. M. C. A. boys to show what they are made of in this coming game. The game is to be played at Pinoburst park, Billerica.

The Grammar School league will meet Wednesday evening at the Y. M. C. A. rooms.

The Crescents of the Stony Brook league would like to arrange a game for the afternoon of May 30th. A. J. Gross, J. B. Caddell, 17 Caddell avenue, this city.

The Spaldings defeated the Gorham A. C. Saturday afternoon to the tune of 11 to 7 in an interesting game.

The South Ends defeated the Lincolns on the South common Saturday by a score of 5 to 4. In spite of the rain in the early innings, a good sized crowd watched the game and were loud in their praise of Neddy, the South End pitcher, who allowed only four hits, struck out 17 men and gave one base on balls. Both teams are members of the newly organized City league, which opens its season next Saturday. Score by innings: South Ends 0 0 1 0 0 4 0 0 * 5 Lincolns 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 2 4

The Centralville Blues will challenge any team under 11 years of age. We would like to hear from the Andrews street stars. Our lineup: R. Campbell, p.; O. Nerney, c.; W. Mullarkey, 1b.; J. O'Hare, 2b.; W. Casey, 3b.; E. Wilson, 4b.; P. Kelly, ss.; Billy Burns, if.; J. Lyons, rf. Send challenges in the Sun or to R. Campbell, 48 Jewett St.

The young Claire street stars would like to play any team under 12 years of age. We would like to play Saturday afternoon. William O'Connor is manager. James O'Keefe is captain. Send all challenges to Wm. O'Connor, 63 Claire street.

The Jumping Jacks. Our lineup: J. Gallagher, c.; A. McVey, p.; J. McVey, 1b.; J. Crow, 2b.; S. Surru, ss.; J. Power, cf.; J. Fitz, rf.; B. Fitz, lf. all round out.

We are ready for any team under 14 years of age. Send all challenges to 153 Cross street to Arthur Eves. J. Scannon being the only butcher in our team, we have no cuts in playing a game. Cy Curtin holds the pitcher's cigar while at bat.

KILLED BY AUTO

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 23.—S. B. Shaw, a stock broker, was killed by an automobile last evening while on his way home from the ball game. The machine was driven by Miss Theodore Burk, aged 19, of Minneapolis, who was accompanied by her mother and sister, and two men, relatives. Miss Burk is held without bail, pending investigation.

Blackstone Cigar isn't imported—but the tobacco is. An all-Havana filler, Boston-made, it has all the real qualities of cigar-goodness that could be found in any 15c. imported brand.

Blackstone Cigar is absolutely hand-made by union labor. This is a guarantee against slipshod workmanship.

Men are more vain about their "smoke" than women are about their "styles"

Blackstone Cigar (10c)

Quality Counts

Tell a woman—"This is an imported gown and costs $100"—and she will buy.

Don't underestimate it because of price—try it.

Tell a man—"This is an imported cigar and costs 25c."—and he will bite.

If your dealer can't supply you, write to us.

WAITT & BOND, Inc., BOSTON, MASS.

BILLERICA NEWS

TREE WARDEN REFUSES TO BE FIRED

Tree Warden Francis J. Dolan has sent a communication to the board of selectmen in which he states that he intends to continue to perform his duties in charge of the moth extermination despite the fact that he has been notified by the secretary of the board that he would not be recognized as having any authority to expend money for the moth suppression after May 21.

The following is the letter which Mr. Dolan sent to the secretary of the board:

Billerica, Mass., May 21, '10. Harry G. Sheldon, Esq., Secretary Board of Selectmen, Billerica, Mass. Dear Sir: Your letter of May 19, 1910, was received in hand from Constable Livingstone. I have carefully noted the contents thereof. As duly elected tree warden of the town of Billerica for 1910, I understand and have been advised that I am empowered and bound to carry on the gypsy and brownish moth work under the direction and supervision of the state forester until my successor has been duly qualified and legally appointed. Since at this season of the year this work must be conscientiously performed to hold in check the spreading of the caterpillar, I shall continue to perform my duties with town employees as heretofore.

Yours respectfully, Francis J. Dolan.

A military whist party was held in Odd Fellows hall Saturday night for the benefit of the newly formed Poland school cauld. There were about 150 present during the evening and 25 tables were kept busy.

The affair was given under the direction of the following ladies: Mrs. John A. Richardson, general manager; Mrs. Herbert J. Patterson, Mrs. H. C. Lamprell, Mrs. Edward F. Jenkins.

The honors were won by Mrs. Edward Luke, Miss F. M. Jenkins, Miss Anna Gilman, Mrs. George Berry, Warren Stearns, Mr. Newell and Mr. Hopkins.

The candy table was in charge of Lt. Lyons, assisted by Capt. Maxwell, Lieutenant Lamprell, Sergeant Lyons, American flag, were distributed to the players by Lieut. Lamprell, Sergeant Richardson, Misses Esther Cole, Margaret Lamprell. Refreshments were served.

ANNUAL PILGRIMAGE

The pilgrimage of the Holy Family sodality of St. Joseph's parish, yesterday, to Notre-Dame de Lourdes church was made by nearly 200 members of the sodality. They marched to the church with their director, Rev. Fr. Arthur Bernache, O. M. I., and were met at the station by 100 men from the Sacred Heart league, headed by their director, Rev. Fr. Vland, O. M. I. The men of the league escorted the pilgrims to the church, standing as a guard of honor on the steps as the visitors entered. All of the men then re-celved communion together at the mass which followed at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. Fr. Lamothe, O. M. I., the rector, preached the sermon of the occasion, taking as his subject "The Catholic Church." There was singing by the choir and congregation together, concluding with the "Magnificat," after which the men marched back to St. Joseph's church. An assembly of the council of the Sacred Heart league will take place tomorrow night in the school hall of Notre-Dame de Lourdes parish, and June 2 there will be a reception of new members into the league.

MISS TOWNSEND

To Become Bride of P. G. Gerry

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The marriage of Miss Mathilde T. Townsend to Peter Goelet Gerry will be the fashionable event of the season in Washington. Miss Katherine Elkins will be the bride's only attendant, the ceremony being at noon of May 26. While the wedding is to be a simple one, diplomatic Washington has been invited to attend. The bride is one of the wealthiest young girls in the United States, while the groom is a millionaire. At one time Miss Townsend was said to have been engaged to Duke d'Alba.

POTMEND

WILL FIX IT

Mends everything—any material. Any broken article put together with Potmend is stronger than when new.

15 Cents Invested

in Potmend saves you as many dollars.

Stops The Holes

in your kitchen ware—iron pots, tin pans or agate ware—and saves plumbers' bills.

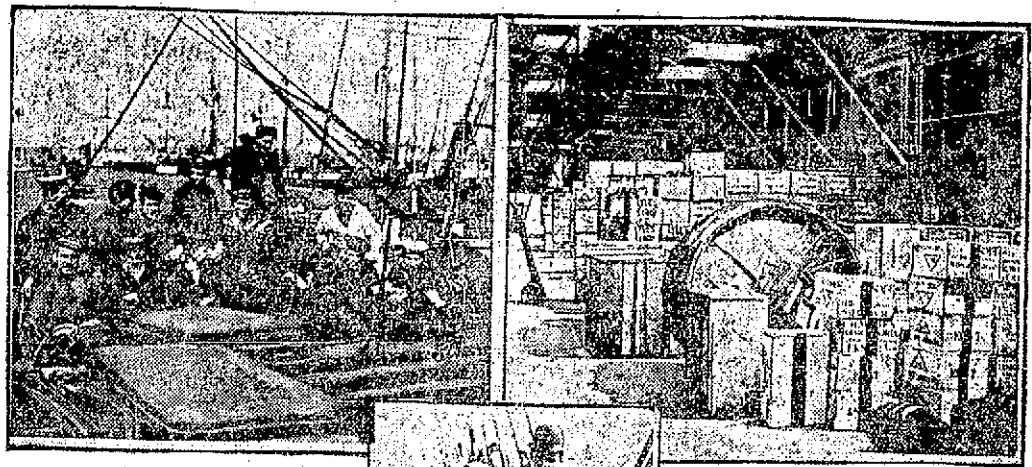

Mends Anything

you cannot tell where the broken parts are put together, and they stay put.

Not Affected by Fire, Water or Acids

15 CENTS
SOLD EVERYWHERE

CAPTAIN SCOTT IS ABOUT READY TO START IN SEARCH OF THE SOUTH POLE

LIVES IN PERIL

Women Flee From Fire in Brockton

BROCKTON, May 23.—Fire of mysterious origin, discovered in the attic of a tenement house at 63 East Elm street, near police headquarters, imperiled the lives of four women late yesterday afternoon. The firemen confined the flames to a bedroom occupied by James R. McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Randall McDonald.

McDonald, when questioned by the assistant fire chief, Wm. F. Daley, declared that the fire caught from a lighted cigarette. Miss Gertrude Krickstein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Krickstein, who occupies a room in the house, told the firemen and police that she saw three different fires in an upper bedroom before the flying squadron was summoned.

Other women who fled from the house when the fire broke out were Miss I. E. Boyer, a demonstrator, Mrs. Krickstein and Mrs. McDonald. The stairs were choked with smoke when two of the women, who had been asleep, were awakened and succeeded in making their escape to the street. A quantity of furniture was destroyed in the attic, but the damage was not large.

STAR THEATRE

An all new program consisting of talking pictures, motion pictures and illustrated songs, was presented at the Star theatre this afternoon. Large audiences, in which women and children were well represented, witnessed both shows. The illustrated songs are always the latest. A good seat is included with the admission of five cents.

LONDON, May 23.—Captain Scott's expedition is about ready to sail for the south pole. The work of loading the Terra Nova has been completed, and the launch vessel is only waiting for some new instruments before starting on the long voyage. Lieutenant Campbell, first mate of the Terra Nova, has been in charge of loading the ship.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

Today at the Academy there will be an entire change of vaudeville, pictures and songs. Heading the vaudeville will be the American comedy four, considered one of the best quartets in vaudeville, and Winifred Green, a dainty singing comedienne.

The latest and best pictures are always to be seen at the Academy and a fine biograph feature picture is always shown. Miss Claudia Bessette will sing the latest illustrated songs and views of the different countries will be shown.

Amateurs every Wednesday night.

FATALLY SHOT

Three Boys Were "Playing Suicide"

PITTSBURGH, May 23.—John Klein, 11 years old, was fatally shot yesterday and John Allen, aged 17, who admits having shot his companion, and another boy who witnessed the shooting, declare that the three were "playing suicide." Allen placed the revolver at Klein's head, instructing him how to commit suicide and the weapon was accidentally discharged. The bullet passed through Klein's head and he died soon after being carried by his mother to their home nearby.

103 YEARS OLD

Mrs. Burnham Passed Away at Essex

ESSEX, May 23.—Mrs. Zachariah Burnham, aged 103 years, 4 months and 15 days, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sarah A. Lufkin, yesterday. Mrs. Burnham was the oldest resident of this section and one of the oldest women in the state.

Mrs. Burnham up to a very short time before her death enjoyed exceptional health for one so aged, and took great pleasure in the reunions of her family, which were always held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lufkin, with whom Mrs. Burnham made her home for the past 77 years.

RAILROAD CASES

Decision Rendered by the Interstate Commissioners

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Regulation of railroad freight rates ordinarily is a complicated question, involving intricate matters of law, but it becomes even a more serious problem when two regulating authorities clash on a proposition of the reasonableness of rates. Thoughtful observers of freight rate legislation have anticipated that, sooner or later, a conflict of authority would arise between the interstate commerce commission and one or more of the state railroad commissions concerning the fixing of rates.

Precisely such a conflict has developed over an insignificant case that recently was brought before the interstate commerce commission. It was that of E. E. Saunders & Co., Pensacola, Fla., against the Southern Express company. The complainants are fish dealers and shippers at Pensacola. In the ordinary course of their business they operate largely in the state of Alabama, shipping fish in quantities from Pensacola to points of destination in that state by express.

Recently the railroad commission of Alabama fixed an express rate on fish from Mobile, Ala., to other intra-state points that was far below the express rate from Pensacola to the same points of destination. This rate the express company has forced to put in effect, although it protested against it. Mobile fish shippers, by reason of this rate, were given an advantage over the fish shippers of Pensacola to points within Alabama. Although, in many instances, the distance from Pensacola to points of destination was less than from Mobile.

The Southern Express company refused to make the same rates from Pensacola to points in Alabama as it was required to make from Mobile. Its refusal resulting in a complaint filed against it with the interstate commerce commission.

The commission's opinion in the case was handed down today. It was prepared by Commissioner Harlan and is the unanimous judgment of the commission. It indicates clearly the lines of conflict between the national commission and the various state commissions, in the regulation of freight and express rates; and, in that sense, is one of the most important decisions rendered by the commission for many months. While the case directly involved may be considered as inconsequential, comparatively, the principle enunciated by the commission is of country wide application, as it opens, at once, the question whether the national, or the state, regulating authority is to be paramount in the fixing of freight rates.

The commission states its position in these terms:

"Upon general principles of comity the action of a state commission in fixing rates on state traffic must be treated with all due respect, but this commission has never felt itself bound to accept a state rate as a necessary measure of an interstate rate. Without criticizing state commission rates from Mobile, this commission, in the light of the record and its own investigations, finds itself unable to accept the Alabama rates as a fair and reasonable basis for fixing the defendant's rates to the same points from Pensacola."

The situation and the testimony are discussed thoroughly in the opinion. In announcing that it would not close the record in the case until the defendant had made further efforts to contest the order of the Alabama commission, the interstate commerce commission says:

"The carriage of traffic by a common carrier for one community or one set of shippers at less than it carries the same traffic for a like distance, and under substantially similar transportation conditions, for another community or another set of shippers is not only in contravention of fundamental right and justice but is essentially inequitable. If such a discrimination is practiced by a common carrier as between communities or different sets of shippers, within the same state and on traffic moving only within the state, redress, may usually be had under the state laws. On the other hand, if an interstate carrier is guilty of such a discrimination with respect to interstate traffic, redress may be had under the act to regulate commerce."

"But when a carrier, as, in this case, serves two communities similarly situated, by hauling the same traffic under similar conditions from a point of origin to destinations in the same state and also to the same destinations from an interstate point of origin, it is not altogether clear that existing legislation affords redress against a discrimination, as between the two points, when resulting from an order by the state commission. But unless some such power is lodged somewhere under appropriate legislation, it is evident that state-made rates, if established in pursuance of a narrow or selfish local policy, may not only hinder and harm, and burden interstate traffic and interstate interests, but may, if adjusted with that end in view, take from a point in another state a business that naturally belongs to that point or in which it is entitled at least to participate on the basis of equal rates and equal opportunity."

"Whatever may be the explanation, whether it rests in the greater zeal, activity, and ability of the fishing interest at Pensacola or whether it is a natural advantage belonging to that port, the fact appears that for years Pensacola has enjoyed a larger business in the distribution of fish throughout the state of Alabama than has Mobile. By a readjustment of the state rates out of Mobile, whether so intended or not, the process of taking from Pensacola, through lower state-made transportation charges, what its superior zeal or its greater natural advantages have given to it has commenced and is now going on."

"On principle it is clear that a carrier operating through two or more states is but one vehicle of commerce, and all traffic moved by it, whether state or interstate, ought, when the general transportation conditions are the same, to bear its just proportion of the cost of operation and ought to yield no more and no less than its just proportion of the revenues of the carrier."

"Any other theory is fundamentally inequitable, illogical, and unworkable. It may be, but on that point we express no opinion, that the congress may constitutionally protect interstate commerce, as well as the carriers that are engaged in interstate transportation, by requiring that any state traffic moved by such a carrier shall bear its just proportion of the cost of operation and yield its proper proportion of profit to the carrier; and that with such an end in view it may authorize this commission to fix minimum rates, at least, for state traffic when moved by carriers engaged also in interstate transportation; or that it may provide that passengers or property may at the same time carry state traffic at rates that are less than the rates exacted by it for interstate carriage of like distance and under like transportation conditions. It has, however, not attempted any such legislation, and whether such an enactment would stand the test of scrutiny by the courts under the constitution, it now stands, and if so, whether it would be desirable from the standpoint of a broad public policy, are questions that must ultimately be determined by the legislative power and therefore cannot profitably be discussed by the commission in this proceeding."

MAN WAS KILLED

As Result of Companion's Joke

NEW YORK, May 23.—Arthur Devraus of Manhattan was killed Saturday night by a needle used in sewing up four bags, which was suspended by a cord around his neck. The accident occurred in the freight yards at Westchester.

Devraus and Nicholas Dichter were sewing up bags holding flour, which had been broken in the course of handling in the transmission of freight. Dichter was having fun with Devraus and, as the latter stooped to pick up a bag, Dichter playfully tickled him in the ribs. Devraus straightened up suddenly and in some manner, as he came in contact with Dichter, the three-inch packing needle was forced against his body and penetrated through to his heart, the man falling dead instantly.

EMPIRE THEATRE

A new show is given at the Empire today. The two vaudeville numbers are new and clever. Carl Statzer, the black faced comedian, presents his comedy sketch in line style and is sure to please. Bud & Lewis also make up a good team showing a fine travesty entertainment.

The moving pictures are the newest and are sure to please as have so many programs heretofore seen at the Empire.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

Commencing this afternoon and for the first three days of the current week, another of the excellent vaudeville and motion picture programs that are being given at this theatre will be shown. The vaudeville part of the program will include the "Lucky" and company in the singing and dancing novelty sketch entitled "The Electric Bell," in which Miss LaVigne, who is an operatic soprano of wonderful voice, will be seen as the bell. Miss LaVigne sings high F with ease and is said to have a voice whose notes are as sweet and pure as those of a bird. A number of Miss LaVigne's company is the well known Lowell comedian, James A. Callahan. Others on the bill are Germain and Langley, sensational

The Bon Marche

Monday Evening Sale

FROM 6 TO 9.30 O'CLOCK ONLY

MEN'S HANDKERCHIEFS (Near Door) Full size, hemmed cambric handkerchiefs, tape border, red and blue lines. Regularly 50 each.	MONDAY EVENING 2 For 5c
SHIRT WAISTS (Waist Dept.) A sheer muslin waist with colored cross bars of blue, black or lavender, side ruffle, button front, sizes 34 to 44. Regularly 98c.	MONDAY EVENING 49c
CHILDREN'S HOSE (Street Floor) The Athletic brand stocking, a good sturdy serviceable stocking for boys and girls, sizes 6 to 9; fast black, narrow rib. Regularly 15c.	MONDAY EVENING 10c pr.
TOOTH POWDER (Toilet Goods Dept.) Dr. Lyons' Tooth Powder, in glass bottles, sprinkler tops, a standard preparation, always sold at 25c.	MONDAY EVENING 14c
BAREFOOT SANDALS Children's Sandals, sewed soles, leather counters, all sizes 5 to 11. Regularly 49c and 59c.	MONDAY EVENING 39c
MESSALINE SILK. All pure silk, light and dark colors, in lengths of one to four yards. Regularly selling at 49c and 59c.	MONDAY EVENING 29c
CHATELAIN BAGS (Near Elevator) A variety of Chatelaine Bags in black, brown and gray leather. Regular prices are 25c, 50c and $1.00. Your choice on	MONDAY EVENING 10c
COLLAR PINS (Jewelry Dept.) Many patterns, in gift only. Regularly 10c pair.	MONDAY EVENING 3c Pr.
LINEN CRASH APRONS (Art Dept.) Stamped patterns for embroidery on natural linen, two patterns, all made up, needing only the embroidery to finish. Regularly 25c.	MONDAY EVENING 15c
WRAPPERS AND KIMONAS (Second Floor) Long Chatelaine Kimonas, floral patterns, faced with band of solid color in contrasting shades, also Percale Wrappers in indigo blue, cadet and silver gray, full skirt, shirt waist style, sizes to 40. Both regularly $1.00 and $1.25.	MONDAY EVENING 79c
WHITE AND COLORED MUSLINS (Basement) Small lot of Silk Muslins, in plain and fancy weaves, also fancy muslins in embroidered dots, stripes and checks. Regularly 25c to 50c.	MONDAY EVENING 15c
MEN'S HOSE (Men's Furnishing) Black and tan hose, our well known Bon Marche's Special—fast color, high spliced heel and toe, absolutely perfect in every way. Regularly 12 1-2c.	MONDAY EVENING 7c

KITCHEN FURNISHINGS.

There never was such a grand chance to buy first quality glassware and enamelware at such low prices as you are having in this week's sale in the Basement.

See our Big Window for samples and prices. It's a snap. Real live bargains in everyday articles.

Artists: Mora & Richards, clever singers and dancers; Helen Hampton, pleasing vocalist, and a series of the latest and best of motion pictures. Matinees are given every day from 2 to 5 and two full shows at night, starting at 7 and 9.30. Tuesday night will be an amateur night and the usual list of amateurs has been booked. Prices at the Opera House are five and ten cents.

THEATRE VOYONS

Recently the Edison company sent a company of its best actors to Cuba musical selections are unsurpassable.

BUSINESS ESTABLISHED 1828

WM. E. LIVINGSTON CO.

A Good Ton of Good

COAL

At Lowest Price

15 THORNDIKE ST.

The Bon Marche

NEW BUYER'S INTRODUCTORY SALE OF Kitchen Furnishings

Our new buyer in again calling attention to his Introductory Sale of Kitchen Furnishings wishes to state that after Saturday's extraordinary selling all the different lots as advertised have been replenished and the same remarkable and attractive values in Enamel Ware, Tinware and Glassware will be found on the counters today and all through the week. We are making this an occasion of great saving, which thrifty housewives will certainly appreciate.

Particular Attention Is Called to the Counter of 25c Enameled Ware for . . .

Today and This Evening

EVERY PIECE GUARANTEED PERFECT

Take Note of The Large Sizes

25c

Notice The Large Variety of Articles

EVERY PIECE IS FIRST QUALITY PRIME ENAMEL WARE

We do not hesitate to say that these are values that cannot be duplicated anywhere at anything near this price.

OTHER LOTS, EQUALLY AS GOOD VALUES, AT 39c AND 49c.

SEE WINDOW

STAR Theatre

TALKING PICTURES, MOTION PICTURES AND SONGS

Admission 5c. Seats Free

HOLD TREASURE lost, steel rail, all brown, white spot on head. Reward at 88 Bartlett st.

EZRA E. MANSUR, Auctioneer Room 24, Chaffin Building

PUBLIC AUCTION

By order from bankruptcy court, will be sold at public auction at the office of Ezra E. Mansur, Room 24, No. 22 Central street, Lowell, Mass., on Tuesday, May 24, 1910, at 2 o'clock P. M., the books of accounts of the bankrupt estate of W. A. Stearns of Billerica, Mass.

CHARLES T. ROWLAND, Trustee Lowell, Mass., May 23, 1910.

MR. MAN

That buys the coal, did it ever occur to you that to be a successful coal man, in the full sense of the word, you must have practical experience? Let us understand. The money that started me in the coal business, I earned myself screening, shoveling and teaming coal right here in your own city. Today my coal yard and facilities for handling coal are second to none in this city. I know what coal is, and what coal is not. I know what to buy, and what not to buy. That means my customers do not have to suffer for my mistakes. I do not tell my men, go and do it. I say, come and do it; that means you hire your own foreman in place of the coal dealer hiring him for you. When you are about to place your coal orders, think this matter over.

Mail and telephone orders will receive immediate attention.

JOHN P. QUINN

Office and Yards, Gorham and Dix Sts. Take any Gorham street car; telephone 1180 and 2480. When one is busy, call the other.

THE LOWELL SUN

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Proprietor

SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.

Member of the Associated Press

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1909 was 16,828

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilote, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1910. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

The tone of the auto "honk" is the bone of contention between the Massachusetts senate and house. There is opposition to the horns known as the "siren" and the "elephant cough."

GIFT TO THE CITY.

No citizen can have a better monument than a liberal gift to the city whether in the shape of a public park, a public hall or a system of public baths. Lowell has not been so favored with such gifts as some other cities. There is a splendid opportunity for patriotic citizens to leave a monument that will remain as proof of their benevolence to future ages.

A LESSON IN SMUGGLING

The lesson which Ex-Governor Rollins of New Hampshire has learned will probably prevent others from attempting anything of the kind. The sum of $2000 in a fine and $1500 additional in duties, will probably take all the profit out of the purchases abroad, said to amount in all to $4736.14, only $800 of which was acknowledged to the customs inspector. It is strange that the ex-governor would attempt anything of the kind.

HAVERHILL GETS CHEAPER GAS

After a fight of eleven years the city of Haverhill has succeeded in getting better terms from the gas company of that city. The company has conditionally agreed to give 80 cent gas in the near future. Companies in other places have long ago given 80 cent gas without any "ifs" or "buts" of any kind.

THE AUTOS ARE HERE TO STAY

Automobiles are becoming so very numerous that greater precautions against accidents are necessary. The autoists should be more careful in passing through the public streets and they probably will be so for some time, on account of the recent enforcement of the law by the police. It is equally incumbent upon the drivers of other vehicles also to exercise greater care to avoid collisions. The auto craze is on; the people are bound to have autos and the new conditions must be met without a murmur.

THE HOMESTEAD BILL

The house of representatives is apparently determined to push the Homestead bill, the object of which is to purchase land in the vicinity of cities and build houses thereon to be sold on easy terms to people from the congested districts.

A movement of this kind has great possibilities for good if properly conducted. It will help to utilize some of the vacant land, to enable more of the people to own their houses and to relieve congestion. Each and all of these aims are calculated to do good, to give the purchasers of the houses an incentive to work and to make them better citizens. It will show a good many people how to help themselves and cannot fail to benefit the cities in which the new buildings are located. It is to be hoped the senate will not kill the measure as it is accustomed to do with many bills calculated to benefit the people.

THE SOUTHBRIDGE BANK CASE.

Treasurer Hall of the Southbridge bank has been sentenced to from twelve to fifteen years in prison for embezzling hundreds of thousands of dollars from the bank funds.

There has been no punishment meted out to the negligent trustees, to the kindly bank inspectors who took so much for granted in regard to this bank and the supposed honesty of the treasurer. Bank Commissioner Chapin, no doubt, assumes that the ends of justice have been met by the conviction of Treasurer Hall; but this does not restore to the depositors the money stolen and for which the system directed by Mr. Chapin is directly responsible. Had the inspectors done their duty on their visits to the bank, had they shown even average ability, they would have detected the fraud soon after its beginning. Commissioner Chapin, apparently with a view to exonerating himself, has suggested a lot of new remedies, some of them quite expensive to the banks. Had he used the forces placed at his command with tact and discretion no officer of the bank could have successfully carried on systematic robbery for a number of years. Until the punishment for crimes of this kind reach men higher up there will not be real security for the depositors in savings banks.

ABOLISH THE SUPPLY DEPARTMENT

It is a common complaint from city departments that the purchasing department pays more than is necessary for supplies purchased, and in order to put a stop to such objections, the opinion of the city solicitor is sought in order to ascertain what can be done about it. The answer is in effect "nothing." The departments have no right to kick. Neither the water board nor the charity board has any right to object if supplies be purchased at a price far above what the departments would have to pay for them.

This is a nice state of affairs. The city solicitor is called upon apparently to show that it is entirely legal to buy supplies at an excessive price. Yet it is neither new nor strange. Anybody conversant with the workings of the supply department can easily see that economy is a stranger there. The department was established to reduce expenses, to prevent grafting in the purchase of supplies and to buy everything needed at the lowest market prices. Several departments have protested at the high prices paid, but it is of no use; they must accept the goods and the city must pay. Thus a city department like the water board is compelled to pay two prices for any consignment of goods if the purchasing agent says it is all right. That may be law but it is certainly not justice either to the departments or the taxpayers. As the department has been run for some time past, it is a source of expense and extravagance rather than of saving and economy.

SEEN AND HEARD

The open-work season will soon be extended from porous plasters to shirt-waists.

Always make sure that there isn't a hole in the toe of your stocking. Madam, when you go down to the cobbler's to get your shoe stretched while you wait.

In ordinary times it is hard enough for the average man to make both ends meet. At the present cost of living, it is hard enough for him to make one end vegetable.

In another month or two most of us will be earning our bread by the sweat of our brows, no matter how cold we were last winter.

The reason some men work so hard that they can't get home to dinner is that they talk so much in business hours.

A great many people who know perfectly well that it is wrong to gamble are inconsistent enough to plant congressional garden seeds.

People who have bad dispositions are sure to do great injustice to the weather.

A SILENT CALL

"Oh, do not wait till in the earth I lie. Before thou givest me my rightful meed; Oh, do not now in coldness pass me by. And then cry praises which I cannot heed. If I have helped thee on thy weary way, Or lightened in the least thy burden's weary weight, Haste with love's token, ere another day Shall pierce thee with the fatal words, 'Too late.' The present moment is thy time to live. The past is gone, the future may not give. If thou hast treasure of thy heart to give To hungry souls, bestow it speedily; For sweet love's sake let not to-morrow's sun Tempt thee to wait before thou see it done."

Probably it is true that most of the things we worry about never come to pass, as the optimistic philosophers

NOTICE!

There will be a meeting of Div. 1, A. O. U. tonight, to take action on the death of our late brother John P. Flynn. Per order.

MICHAEL McMILLAN, Pres. JAMES SHEEHAN, Fin. Sec'y.

What we have done one who follows

The place we are filling another can fill!

Death cuts off the man and takes him out of view.

But the work he was doing is carried on still.

And so as we journey along and press on.

Performing the tasks that are ours, day by day.

Let none of us think that when he shall have gone

The world will suffer. That isn't God's way.

MEDICAL BOARD

SAYS COLORED UNDERCLOTHING ADDS TO BURDEN OF HEAT

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Fantastic theories regarding the use of colored underclothing to repel the heat in the tropics have been dispelled by a report made by the army board for the study of tropical diseases in the Philippines. About 18 months ago five thousand suits of orange red underclothes and a corresponding number of orange red hats were sent to the Philippines. These were distributed so that one-half of the men should be clad in the new garments and the other half in the ordinary white underclothes. The army surgeons kept close watch upon the men, but they failed to find that the colored underclothes brought any relief from the tropical heat, although British army officers in India reported that such clothing was much more comfortable in hot weather than white.

The medical board found that the colored underclothing, which by the way was unpopular, added materially to the burden of heat upon the system, which is a great cause of tropical deterioration. It is admitted that the orange red is a protective against the chemical rays of the sun, but the same result is obtained by the khaki uniform and the tan-colored campaign hat of the American soldier.

The experiments were conducted with the greatest care, frequent records being made of blood pressure, loss of weight and of general condition. The results were the same in the case of either the white American or brown Philippine.

Domestic industries are steadily increasing their consumption of imported cotton. From 1880 to 1870 the annual importations of raw cotton into the United States were valued at $182,666,000. In 1870 the imports aggregated 1,695,133 pounds; in 1880, 3,517,792 pounds; in 1890, 8,606,049 pounds; in 1900, 17,395,521 pounds; and in the 10 months of the current year the figures are available, 78,720,375 pounds, indicating for the full fiscal year a total importation of approximately 100,000,000 pounds. The import value of the foreign cotton brought into the United States in the last twenty years was $186,252,355. Nineteen the consumption of domestic cotton has grown from 513 million yards to 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the last months of 1910 amounted to 2,135,130 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,197 pounds via Germany. Brazil's contribution of 1,454,508 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,238,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,482,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, 1,586,000 pounds were shipped via England and 37,063 pounds via Germany

ACT OF CLEMENCY

Marks Beginning of the Reign of King George

LONDON, May 22.—King George has commenced his reign with an act of clemency, granting remission of short sentences and reduction of others throughout the kingdom, these including the army and navy. He has also issued a touching letter "to my people," expressing grateful appreciation of the affection and loving devotion the nation has shown in the face of "a sorrow so sudden and unlooked for that it might well have been overwhelming."

"But the sentiment it has invoked," continues the king, "has made me realize that it is a loss common to me and my people. They share it with me; I do not stand alone. With such thoughts I take courage and hopefully look to the future, strong in my faith in God, trusting my people and cherishing the laws and constitution of my beloved country."

It is announced that King George intends to maintain a royal racing stable at Sandringham, and that he will patronize racing on the same extensive scale as his father.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

GREATEST CIRCUS

BARNUM & BAILEY'S SHOW ANNOUNCED FOR JUNE 10

The Barnum & Bailey greatest show on earth is announced for two performances in Lowell on Friday, June 10. The day is awaited with great interest. A new and brilliant street parade, a new menagerie and a large company of European artists are promised.

This circus has stood at the head of the amusement business for more than fifty years. The policy of P. T. Barnum and James A. Bailey is still active in its management. These are the two greatest names in the history of the world's circus affairs. Their show is the source of perfect satisfaction. It is recognized in every country on earth as the leading spirit of amusement enterprises. It has traveled in every land where the sun shines. It has entertained millions upon millions of the

NOW THEN—WHO SAID BISCUITS?

SOUTHERN BISCUITS
NORTHERN BISCUITS
EASTERN BISCUITS
WESTERN BISCUITS

MADE BEST EVERYWHERE WITH

GOLD MEDAL FLOUR

WASHBURN-CROSBY CO.

$1 Leather Lined Bags 79c

Gilbride's

10c Wash Belts 5c

JOHN S. BACKMAN, Pres.

JOHN J. BURNS, Sec'y.

PATRICK GILBRIDE, Treas.

NOW FOR THE LAST WEEK OF THE GREATEST Anniversary Sale EVER HELD IN LOWELL

We acknowledge with thanks, the overwhelming response accorded our Second Anniversary Sale Announcement by the public of this city and surrounding towns. Your flattering expression of confidence in our advertising and merchandizing is the best token of your appreciation of our efforts and methods of doing business.

We have nearly doubled our business of a year ago, and if you knew as we know, the great opportunities for saving in the SECOND ANNIVERSARY SALE, you would be one of the first here today.

Last Week of Lowell's Greatest Sale Watch Our Windows Read Our Announcements

LOWELL'S BEST VALUES ARE HERE IN

Women's Summer Dresses

The newest and prettiest fashions and materials.

Gingham Dresses	$1.98, $2.98, $3.98 to $5.98
Chambray Dresses	$1.98, $2.98, $3.98 to $5.98
Linen Dresses	$3.98 to $9.98
Batiste Dresses	$2.98, $3.98, $4.98 to $7.98
Crash Suits	$5.98 to $12.50

The Prettiest Lingerie Dresses for confirmation and graduation seen in Lowell. We show some very handsome dresses in Point D'Esprit, net and hampburg $3.98 to $25

ANNIVERSARY SALE OF

Muslin Underwear

SAVE MONEY ON THIS CLEAN MERCHANDISE

Women's Drawers, made of good cambric with tucked ruffle, regular price 25c 19c pair

Women's Drawers, made of fine quality cambric with ruffle of deep embroidery, regular price 30c 25c pair

High neck, fitted covers, special 12 1-2c

Fine Nainsook Corset Covers with deep lace yoke and four rows of ribbon run, regular price 29c 19c

Long White Skirts of good cambric, with 18 in. flounce of embroidery, beading and ribbon run, former price $1.50 $1

Low Neck, Short Sleeve Gowns, made of fine Nainsook, handsomely trimmed with three medallions, regular price $1.50, for $1.00

SAVE TODAY

On Useful Notions

THE LAST WEEK OF THE ANNIVERSARY SALE

John J. Clark's Spool Cotton, regular price 5c. Anniversary Sale Price 2c Spool

Basting Cotton, regular price 3c. Anniversary Sale Price 1c Spool

Sewing Silk, all colors, regular price 8c. Anniversary Sale Price 4c Spool

Safety Pins, regular price 5c. Anniversary Sale Price 2c Card

Hooks and Eyes with Peets Eyes, 2 dozen on card, regular price 5c. Anniversary Sale Price 2c Card

Pins, regular price 3c paper Anniversary Sale Price 1c

Pearl Buttons, regular price 7c. Anniversary Sale Price 4c Doz.

Darning Cotton, regular price 3c. Anniversary Sale Price 1c

Black and White Threaded Pins, regular price 5c. Sale Price 2c

Tape, regular price 5c Sale Price 3c a Roll

Dress Shields, regular price 15c and 19c. Sale Price 10c

Spying Ball and Socket Fasteners, regular price 10c. Sale Price 7c

Feather Stitched Braid, regular price 7c. Sale Price 5c

Collar Supporters, regular price 5c. Sale Price 3c

LAST WEEK OF THE ANNIVERSARY SALE OF

GLOVES

12-Button Silk Lisle Gloves in black and tans, regular $1.00 and $1.25 quality 49c a Pair

2-Clasp Fine Mercerized Lisle Gloves in tan, brown and black, never sold less than 50c a pair, down to 29c a Pair

Milanes Lisle Gloves in black, white and gray, 25c quality, 14c a Pair

ANNIVERSARY SALE OF

HOSIERY

Women's Black Silk Lisle Hose, double heel and toe, "Seconds of the 25c quality" 12 1-2c a Pair

Women's Black Gauze Lisle Hose, double soles, good elastic tops, 25c quality 17c a Pair

Children's Black Cotton Hose, 1x1 rib, double knee, double soles, 19c quality 12 1-2c a Pair

ROOM SIZE RUGS

Saturday evening we took an inventory of our large rug stock, and we had then just 21 large rugs. In order to make our rug sale during the last week of the anniversary sale the greatest talked of rug values ever offered in this city, we have marked them to make a quick sale at the lowest prices ever quoted for similar goods.

1 only, 8 1-4 ft.x10 1-2 ft. Tapestry Brussels, value $15.00	$9.50
6 only, 8 1-4 ft.x10 1-2 ft. Royal Axminster, value $17.89	$17.89
5 only, 9 ft.x12 ft. Royal Axminster, value $27.50	$18.89
1 only, 9 ft.x12 ft. One Piece Rug, value $20.00	$14.89
3 only, 9 ft.x12 ft. One Piece, no seams Brussels, value $28.50	$18.89

Unmatched and Panel Rugs

1 only, 6 3-4 ft.x13 1-2 ft. Bigelow Axminster, worth $20.00	$7.95
2 only, 6 ft.x13 1-2 ft. Bigelow Axminster, worth $25.00	$9.95
1 only, 9 ft.x12 ft. Bigelow Axminster, worth $30.00	$14.95

Every one of the above rugs guaranteed absolutely perfect.

Small Size Rugs—At Less Than Half Price

36x36 Fibre Rugs	9c Each
36x72 Fibre Rugs	29c Each
18x36 Fibre and Wool Rugs	49c Each
27x54 Fibre and Wool Rugs	59c Each
30x60 Fibre and Wool Rugs	79c Each
36x72 Fibre and Wool Rugs	89c Each
Cocoon Door Mats with red border	39c Each
1 Lot, 27x72 Bigelow Wilton Rugs	$1.98 Each
1 Lot, 30x60 Double Face Smyrna Rugs	79c Each

The prices on Rugs for this last week of our Anniversary Sale are the lowest ever quoted.

Sheets and Pillow Cases Much Cheaper Than the Cotton by the Yard

12 1-2c Armorside, 42x36 Pillow Cases, real good, heavy cotton. 9c Each, $1.00 a Dozen

69c 81x90 Armorside Sheets, slightly damaged, only 39c

69c 81x90 Armorside Sheets, perfect, only 49c

75c 81x90 Armorside Sheets, perfect, only 59c

89c 81x90 Extra Heavy Sampson Sheets, made from 33c sheeting, 2 1-2 yards long, cotton costing in each sheet $2 1-2c, sale price, only 59c Each

Remnants of Table Linen at Less Than Half Price

80c Bleached Table Damask in lengths from 1 3-4 to 3 yards long, extra good and heavy, only 49c

$1.00 to $1.50 Bleached Table Damask in lengths from 1 3-4 to 3 1-4 yards long, extra fine, only 79c

Anniversary Sale of

DRESS GOODS

42 inch German Novelty Suitings. 42 inch Wool Taffeta Suitings. 43 inch Prunella Cloth in navy, brown, green, gray, raisin, wistaria, old rose, reseda and black, regular price $1.00 yard. Anniversary Sale Price 59c Yard

SALE OF SILKS

27 in. All Silk Shamtuang in all the new shades, regular 79c value, for 59c Yard

27 in. All Silk Shamtuang, made of selected yarns, strong and desirable, will give splendid wear; we have it in all the latest shades, real value $1.25, sale price, only 79c

earth's peoples. Its world-wide tours have given it many advantages over other tented shows. They have kept it in constant touch with remote corners of the globe whence come all wonders. Nearly all great arctic novelties originate in Europe and Asia. No foreign audience knows them as they are secured by Barnum & Bailey's agents. Invariably novelties are introduced to America by this circus. When they cease to be novelties, they are passed down to other shows and another important budget of wonders takes their place. This year's program is particularly abundant. It is a purely foreign bill. Over 100 starting acts are presented by 400 of the leading artists of the world. The show employs 1,250 people. It has 700 horses. In its menagerie are 102 cages, pens, tanks and dens in which are displayed 1,200 wild and semi-domestic animals. Among them are forty elephants and thirty camels. There are four giraffes. One of them is a baby, just reaching to its mother's knee. It is the first giraffe baby ever born or exhibited in this country.

The main performance is given in three rings, on two stages, on an immense hippodrome track and in a dome 400 feet long. The climax of the program is the death-dive of Desperado. He leaps from the dome of the skid three feet from the ground. None of the less thrilling is the spectacular act of Jupiter. This magnificent horse goes up in a balloon and comes down amid a shower of fireworks. These acts reach the utter extreme of sensationalism. Another wonderful feat is aided by the performance on one of the stages of an uncannily human-like chimpanzee, Charlie the First, who is the greatest bicycle rider and juggler on earth.

The circus has a newly built equipment. It was devised and executed in the workshop of the splendidly equipped. Five long railroad trains are needed to haul it from city to city. It cost the management $5,000,000. With all these added improvements and expenses, the Barnum & Bailey show now stands in the zenith of glory. Never before in its history of splendid achievements has it been so attractive as now. It opened its spring engagement in Madison Square Garden, New York City, before the most distinguished audience that ever assembled in a circus arena. It made the biggest hit in all its career.

$20,000 DAMAGE

Three Waltham Firemen Were Injured

WALTHAM, May 23.—While fighting a fire that did $20,000 damage to the Lincoln block, Moody street, late last night, three firemen—Assistant Chief George H. Strauch and Hosemen Roy Caswell and Ernest Ralcom—fell two stories when the metal ceiling of the third story gave way beneath them, hurling them into perilous proximity to the flames. Chief Strauch had his face and hands severely cut. Caswell's left leg was severely injured and Ralcom received multiple contusions.

The fire, which started from an unknown cause, made its way rapidly up to the upper stories, where it did most of the damage.

Several firemen, among them Chief Johnson and Captain Edward F. Sibley, were overcome by smoke.

ESTRADA FORCES

Lost 14 Killed and Had 24 Wounded

WASHINGTON, May 22.—Two days' fighting near Rama, Nicaragua, cost the Estrada forces 14 in killed and 24 wounded, according to a report to the state department from Consul Moffat, at Bluefields. The casualties of the Madrid forces, he adds, were not learned. Gen. Mora retired after the fight to his entrenchments. Large quantities of ammunition and provisions said to be the entire stores of the Madrid forces at Bluefields, he reports, were said to have been captured by Gen. Moncada of the Estrada faction.

GAS COOKING DEMONSTRATION LECTURE TONIGHT

Carolyn Putnam Webber will this evening in Fair hall, Gorham street, demonstrate. She will demonstrate a "Meal." What is it? "Just enough of food so that with lightened spirits and with strength renewed, we turn with willingness to work again." The lecture will begin at 8 o'clock, doors open at 7.30. All are welcome. Ad is free.

Menu: Baked Bluefish, Brethin Style, Pan-fried Chicken, Clover Rolls, Scalloped Corn, Egg Timbales, Peach Meringue, Tapioca Cream.

THEIR FIRST MASS SAW THE COMET

Newly Ordained Priests Officiated Yesterday

Rev. John Riordan, who was ordained a priest last Friday, celebrated his first mass yesterday at the church of the Sacred Heart in Moore street. Inasmuch as Father Riordan's parents reside in Moore street, there was a large attendance of parishioners at the high mass yesterday.

Father Riordan was born in Lowell, but when quite young was sent to Ireland to be educated.

He made his classical course in St. Michael's college, Limerick, and later entered the Sacred Heart seminary, where he was subsequently adopted into the Boston diocese and entered the Boston diocesan seminary, where for five years he pursued with honor and distinction the study of theology. He was ordained to the priesthood Friday of last week, coming yesterday to the Sacred Heart to celebrate his first mass.

Rev. E. J. Cornell, O. M. L., preached an eloquent sermon appropriate to the occasion and the same musical program as on the previous Sunday was carried out. Mrs. Adelaide A. Muldon presiding at the organ.

At St. Michael's

Rev. Thomas Reynolds, a resident of St. Michael's parish, who was ordained at Boston Friday, sang his first high mass at St. Michael's church, yesterday. He was assisted by Rev. John J. Shaw, deacon, and Rev. Daniel Desmond, sub-deacon. The sermon was preached by Rev. Francis J. Mullin.

Fr. Chaput Officiated

Rev. Fr. Edouard Chaput, O. M. L., who was ordained Saturday, May 14, sang his first high mass yesterday at St. Joseph's church, where a large congregation, including many of his relatives, was present. Assisting the young priest were Rev. Fr. Baron, O. M. L., pastor of St. Joseph's, as deacon, and Rev. Brother Anthony of the Tewksbury novitiate, as sub-deacon. Rev. Fr. Watelle, O. M. L., superior of St. Joseph's parish, preached the sermon of the occasion.

Rev. Fr. Chaput said his first mass Sunday, May 15, at Notre-Dame de Lourdes church.

The Y. M. C. I. held quarterly communion yesterday with a large attendance. Breakfast was served in Y. M. C. I. hall after mass.

BOUNDARY LINE

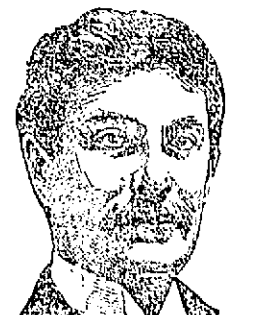

BETWEEN CANADA AND UNITED STATES HAS BEEN FIXED

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The international boundary between the United States and Canada, along the southeast coast of Maine, has been fixed, according to a treaty signed Saturday by Ambassador Bryce and Secretary of State Knox, as running from a point in Passamaquoddy bay between Treat Island and Frar Head and extending through the bay to the middle of Grand Manan channel. The treaty, it is expected, will be submitted to the senate today for approval. The line was located without resort to the arbitration provided for in the treaty of 1908 between Great Britain and the United States.

The true location of the line has been a subject of contention for more than a century. The treaty is expected to be accepted as final.

JOHNNY HAYES DEFEATED

OTTAWA, Ont., May 22.—J. B. Hayes was today beaten by Lunstrom, in a five mile race by five yards. The time was 25 minutes. Saturday Lunstrom beat Hayes in a 15 mile race by 120 yards in 1:30.55.

Dr. Thomas Jefferson King
Dr. King's "Natural Gum" sets of teeth absolutely defy detection.
Gold Fillings—$1—Others 50c
Painless Extraction Free
King Dental Parlors,
65 MEURIMACK STREET
(Over Hall & Lyon's)
Hours: 9 to 8; Sun. 10 to 3.
Tel. 1374-2.

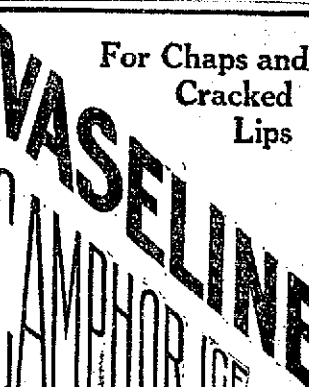

Young Woman Then Fell Dead

FALLADEGA, Ala., May 22.—The appearance of the comet last evening caused intense excitement here. Congregations of several churches left their pews and hundreds of persons stood excited in the square and gazed at the celestial visitor. Miss Ruth Jordan, daughter of a farmer living two miles from here, was called to the door of her home to see the comet and immediately fell dead. Physicians give heart failure as the cause. An unknown negro on the depot platform was shown the comet and instantly dropped dead.

CHILDREN DEAD

As Result of Drinking Tonic Compound

ELIZABETH, N. J., May 23.—While playing "house" while their mother went to market, Louise Crouch, six years old, and her brother Johnnie, three years younger, went to the ice chest and drank freely from a bottle of tonic compound which they had seen their elders use. Both died in convulsions yesterday.

For Chaps and Cracked Lips
Vaseline Camphor Ice
Winter comfort for tender skins. Vaseline Camphor Ice corrects effects of snow and wind. Soothes and heals roughness, irritations, cold-sores, fever blisters. It combines the comfort of Camphor and Vaseline and relieves all but the most serious of skin troubles.

12 REMEDIES each with special uses, all based on

On Bottle, Box or Tube the name guarantees highest refinement and protects you against nameless "petroleum jellies" of less purity.
CHESEBROUGH MFG. CO.
Proprietors of Every "Vaseline" Product
New York

NO PAIN

Full Set $5

Our $5 sets are the most life-like and most fitting plates that dental science can produce. Unless you require a special plate, $5 is all you need pay in this office for the best set. We have the reputation of making the most natural looking, the most fitting and the most wearing teeth. No set ever leaves our office until the patient is perfectly satisfied as to fit and appearance. We give our personal guarantee FOR 10 YEARS with each set.
Lulu Attendant—French Spoken
$4 This is the only office in Lowell where gold crowns and a teeth without plates (unpleasant natural ones) are inserted positively without pain.
THE NEW SUBSTITUTE TEETH
PAINLESS EXTRACTION FREE

THE GILBRIDE CO. On The Corner

PITTSBURG PIRATES AND DETROIT TIGERS LOOK LIKE REPEATERS

By TOMMY CLARK.

ALTHOUGH the baseball season of 1910 is still very young, the fans have been afforded a chance to get a good line on the two strongest teams in the National and American leagues. Judging by present indications in the Junior organization, it looks as if Detroit will about cop the banner for the fourth time and equal the record made by Comiskey way back in the eighties. In the older organization Fred Clarke and his Pittsburgh world's champions are showing their way through the other teams in a manner that indicates that unless something unforeseen happens the Pirates will carry off the much coveted prize for the second time.

Looking over the Pittsburgh team carefully one can easily see that the Pirates are the ones who will have to be defeated by any team that seeks to win the National league pennant this year, and it is hard to see what team is to accomplish the task. There appears to be just one point where the Pirates may be weak, and they have shown the ability to carry a weak man in this one. This position is at first base, and it is a notable fact that Fred Clarke has had more trouble keeping a good man on the initial corner than he has at any other point on the team. Abstein did fine work there for the greater part of the season last year, but he fell off badly after that, and the Pirates had to carry him through the world's series.

This year Clarke has a good looking youngster in Flynn at first base, but it is hardly probable that he will measure up to the ability of the other players on the team. On the other hand, he will undoubtedly be able to do his share of the work in at least fairly efficient style. If he does the team will have little trouble in preventing a fatal weakness at first, as Miller, Wagner and Byrne are men who are in the habit of throwing with more than average accuracy and helping the man on first along in holding.

So far as batting is concerned Pittsburgh has plenty of strength to overcome any weakness caused by the failure of the man covering first to find the ball hard. In fact, it is in the batting end of the game that Pittsburgh has enough the edge to give the Pirates the championship. The combination made up of Leach, Clarke and Wagner is one of the greatest on the attack that the game has ever seen, and Byrne up at the top ahead of this trio in the batting list is working well with it. Gibson is another slashing hitter, and Miller and Wilson are both good batters.

Unless first base is weak there is but one point on the team where the batting is not of the exceptional order, and that is in pitching. Even here several of the Pirates' twirlers are decidedly handy with the stick. With the Pittsburgh attack more than making up for any advantage the Chicago Cubs may have in the pitching line, there appears to be just one thing that can prevent the Pirates from winning the pennant, and that is the enforced absence of Wagner from the game through illness or injuries.

Now for another look at the Tigers. Hugh Jennings' club seems set for its very best year. Its hitters are going splendidly early in the season, and all pitchers look alike to the Tiger men. Of course a better line will be given on them after they have tackled the strong eastern clubs. With the Boston team rapping the ball like mad and the Philadelphia pitchers by the guns despite old Father Time, there will be a great three cornered battle in the American. But the Tiger one for me. There's more ginger and "pep" in that bunch than enough to make up for the weakness in pitching strength.

Wrong to Bar Picture Men.

There is no use disputing the point made by President Tom Lynch of the National league that the newspaper photographers assigned to obtain action pictures at baseball games mar the landscape somewhat and occasionally, although rarely, interfere with a possible play on a foul fly.

The fact that action pictures of actual incidents of the game can no longer be secured is a direct blow to the patrons of the game who love to read about baseball, and it is also a relief to those who had grown tired of seeing a battery of cameras collected at the home plate, first or third base every time something interesting seemed likely to be about to come off.

There is no doubt that a few particularly nifty photographers have in-

try by friends of Cobb to prove that Tyrus had not spitefully and willfully gone out of his way to injure the Athletics' third baseman, as some reports made it appear. Under the present ruling it will be impossible to take such a photograph except with a telescope camera of a different pattern than any that are now on the market.

While President Lynch is seeing that the photographers are kept off the field

could be disposed of advantageously to spectators willing to pay to see a ball game instead of being paid to do so. President Lynch would not think of issuing orders that no spectators be admitted to the playing field.

That would reduce the revenues of the club owners who pay his annual stipend and might contract the latter. If the newspapers should all discontinue printing pictures of ball players press box at any ball park one hundredth part of the free advertising given him by any one of the working occupants of the dead-end seats. It is well to remind baseball men occasionally of what the game owes the publicity it could not possibly get in any other way than gratis.

Boxing Game Claiming Terrible Toll.

The death of Tommy McCarthy, who never regained consciousness after being knocked out by Owen Moran in San Francisco recently, has caused no end of talk. In fact, several clergymen are using this case as a pretext for opposing the Jeffries-Johnson bout. The McCarthy case is a sorrowful one and may hurt the game considerably throughout the country. Still, nature collects tolls from every other sport.

The weak, of course, must yield more and often against spirited relaxations. Even golf has its fatalities in addition to numerous mishaps to devotee and patron. Within the last month pugilism was compelled to give up three lives as its debt to nature. This cycle of fatal accidents in the prize ring is most singular, but that's the way matters run. For years despite the fact that hundreds of bouts were held weekly no serious consequences occurred. Then came a spell of deaths in the ring.

Fighting is perilous action, and one must expect a serious outcome now and then. One thing most impressive in the trio of tragic events charged up to fistiana recently is the absence of a hue and cry from the populace for a stoppage of the sport. In the old days, when a poor fellow went to the floor and never recovered consciousness, the authorities at once banned the game. Even powerful fighting clubs credited with being influential in politics and civic manipulations were forced to close their doors. In fact, such drastic laws were enacted against boxing in Texas after a fatality that the Lone Star State was a fine place for a fight-or to pass around. Local authorities didn't dare wink at boxing bouts. Chances are that none of the three fatal frays will check the mitt art in their respective localities. It's an age of sports. Thousands favor them, and constituted peace officers are not so quick to give tickets to fighters as under the old state of affairs.

Ernest Barry, Who Seeks World's Sculling Title.

Ernest Barry, the champion sculler of England, has been matched to meet Richard Armit of New Zealand, the world's title holder, for the championship and a purse of £1,000, which is equivalent to $5,000 in Uncle Sam's money. The two hardy athletes will strive for the coveted honor and prize on the Zambezi river, near Victoria falls, in the southern part of Africa.

Harry Hebner, New Star Among the Swimmers.

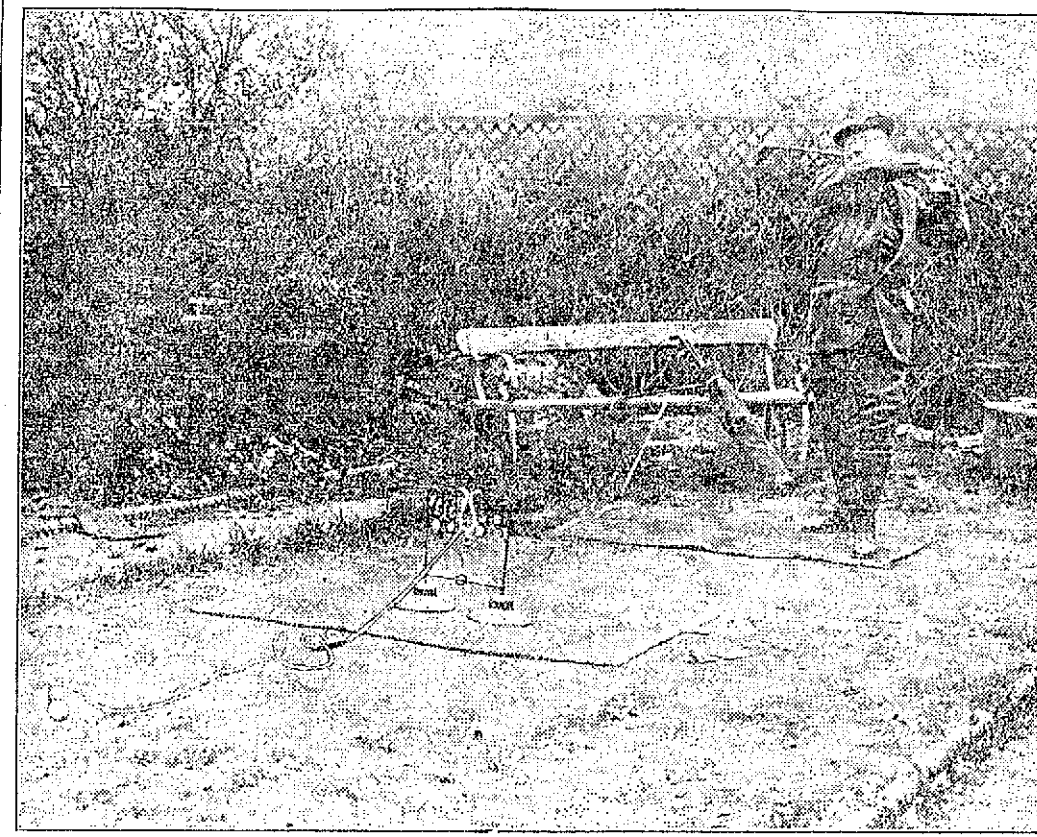

Followers of aquatics rejoiced at the establishment of the world's record of 1 minute 56 2-5 seconds for 150 yards by Harry Hebner of the Illinois Athletic club of Chicago in the national half stroke championship in St. Louis recently. But probably not one in a hundred knew of the peculiar circumstances that led to the occurrence or realized its full significance.

Hebner swam his first 100 yard trial with the back stroke less than one week before the day he broke the world's record. It was the former champion, H. J. Handy, his clubmate, who induced him to do it, for he wanted to use him as a pacesetter while in training. The surprise of every one concerned, including Hebner himself, may well be imagined when at the end of the 100 yard test he found that he had not only beaten Handy, but covered the distance under record figures. Later he went 100 yards in 1 minute 12 seconds, but the greatest surprise of the lot was the boy's time trial in 1 minute 53 seconds for the 150 yard distance.

When it is considered that the world's record by F. Unwin of England stands at 1 minute 57 4-5 seconds it will be seen what wonderful possibilities are before the young westerner, who after a couple of weeks of a new stroke is able to show performances vastly superior to any ever seen in any country. There is absolutely no doubt that Hebner is the fastest back stroke swimmer the world has yet seen.

New Golf Game Called Loop Hits Now Very Popular In England

LOOP-GOLF-HITS is a miniature golf game or device for receiving instruction in and practicing golf, with the object of driving the ball in a straight or direct line. The device consists of an inverted U shaped hoop, to which is attached a slip hook. To this hook is connected a cord attached to a spiral spring, and in this case the cord passes through the latter, the cord being slack to allow of stretching, and swiveling connections are also provided to permit of the spinning action of the ball. At the other end of the cord is fixed a golf ball, the cord being of a length sufficient to drive over the surface and engage with the loops. The two outer loops of the device each count one, the second loops count two and the center loop counts three, and for this purpose the loops are marked with the numbers. Two mats may be employed, one for each side, for the players to stand upon to tee the ball and to play from, thus preventing the cutting up of the lawn, or of carpets or linoleum if for indoor practice or game.

the past overstepped the bounds of decency in taking pictures during the progress of games, and for their misdeeds others must suffer.

Pictures Have Great Value.

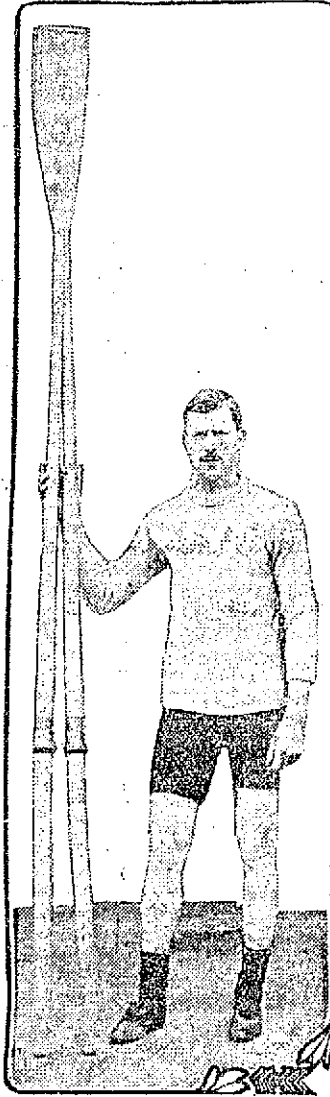

It has often happened that newspaper photographs have been of great value in deciding disputed points in regard to plays during the progress of games. A snapshot of the play in which Cobb spiked Baker at Detroit last season was sent all over the coun-

after the game starts, the rule is not being fully enforced. Whenever the stands prove too small to accommodate all the paying patrons, however, it is the practice to herd some out in the inclosure. This overlooks serious interiors with the scenery and also with the work of the players both on fair and foul territory, often deciding the results of games.

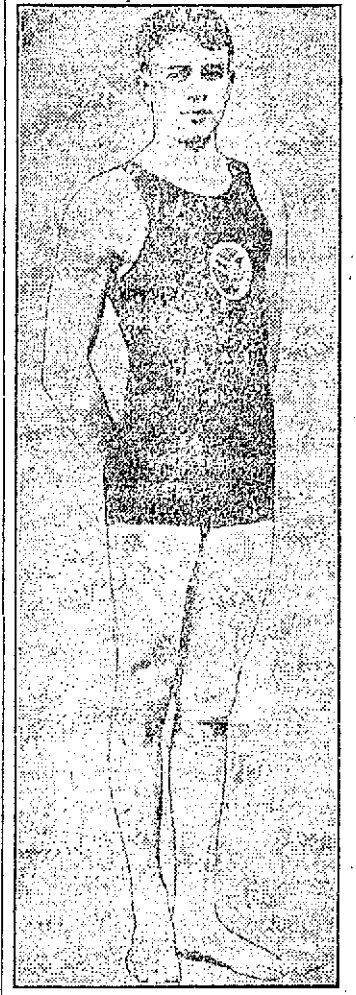

The scribes who report the game sometimes, although not always, are assigned space in the stands which

and games their circulations would not be affected seriously, but a strong stimulant to the public's interest in baseball would be withdrawn and would be felt at the gates.

There have been instances where club owners have begrudged baseball reporters the space they are compelled by their occupation to occupy, because each seat might be sold for one bone or possibly more. But the club owner could not buy with the revenue from ten times the space occupied by the

ERNEST BARRY.

HARRY HEBNER.

CLEVER TALES ABOUT PEOPLE WHO PLAY FOR A LIVING

By FRANK H. BROOKS.

WHAT is so rare as a rattling musical comedy on a roof garden on a night in June? And what is a visit to the city in summer that does not include such an entertainment? One of the first of its kind to open in New York will be Frederic Thompson's, entitled "The Comic Supplement." The star will be the top of the New Amsterdam theater. They say that Mr. Thompson had a hand in writing the book. Be this as it may, Mr. Thompson will manage the show. The company has been trying out the production for several weeks. All roof garden stage girls are "bewitching." In the Thompson galaxy the word "bewitching" calls for big type. Among those who "bewitch" are Ethel Hamlin, Thelma Belmont and Julia Mills, whose pictures are in the group.

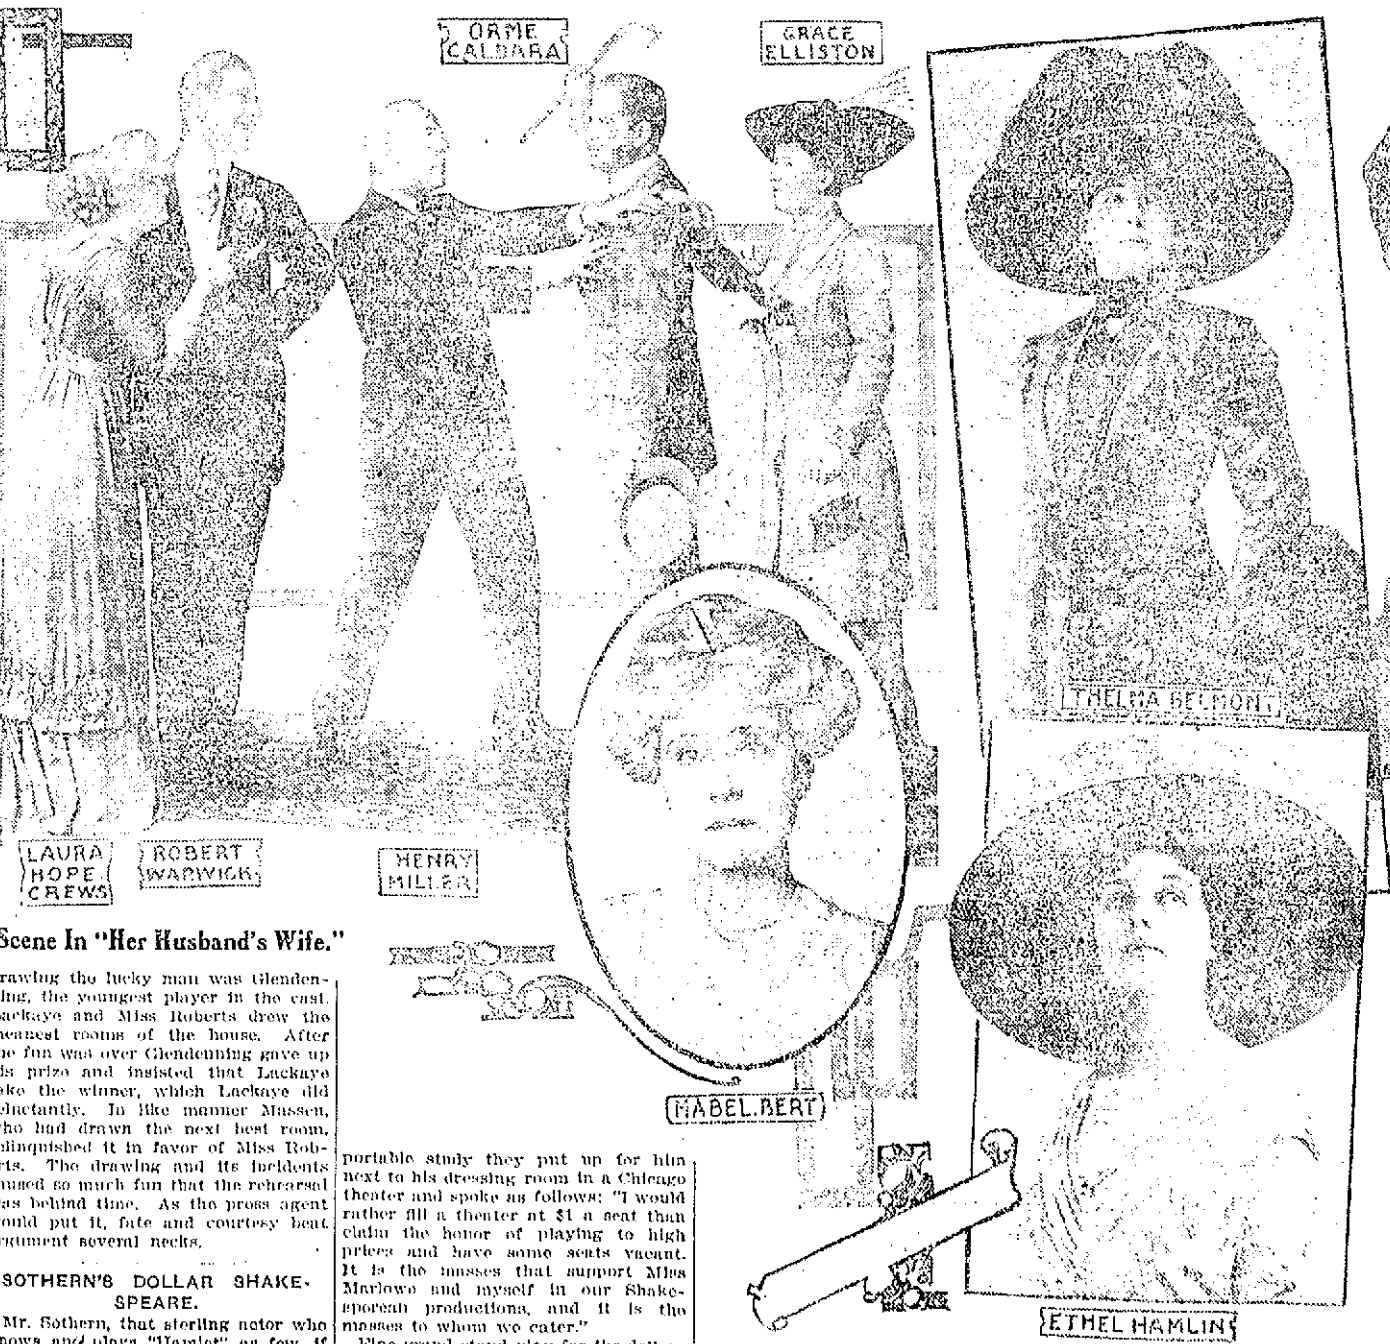

Henry Miller and his players are favorably known from coast to coast. Henry Miller is really a great character actor, in addition to which he is a methodical manager who is as careful of the details of his productions as were Irving and Mansfield, and Mr. Miller could expect no one to say more. His play that is closing the season at the Garrick theater, in New York, under the direction of Klaw & Erlanger, is entitled "Her Husband's Wife." It is the kind of play that one can see more than once, and that is saying a heap. The people in the play, as pictured in the above cut, are Laura Hope Crews, Robert Warwick, Henry Miller, Orme Caldara, Grace Elliston and Mabel Bert.

DRAWING FOR THE STAR'S ROOM.

We are not all alone unhappy.—One of Bill's plays.

In the days when rollers for a hand press were molded out of a combination of glue and molasses printers had a pastime which they called "jelling." It was a species of harmless gaming. Even now there are men who match for various things where the cost of the article is comparatively trifling. Some throw dice. Boys pitch pennies. Actors draw cuts.

Just before the revival by the Shuberts of "The Pennant" William Lackaye, John Mason, Theodore Pautling, George Barnum, Frederic Pautling, Louis Mussen, Markovitch Clark, Grace Reels and Jeffreys Lewis drew marked silks from a hat in the hand of William A. Brady to see which one would occupy the star's dressing room during the engagement. Florence Roberts had not yet arrived—she plays the principal female part—but some one gallantly drew for her. It is supposed that a rabbit's foot is secreted in the star's dressing room, so the desire to occupy that room is active. Outsiders need be told that this room is the one most convenient to the stage. At the drawing the lucky man was Glendinning, the youngest player in the cast. Lackaye and Miss Roberts drew the nearest room of the house. After the fun was over Glendinning gave up his prize and insisted that Lackaye take the winner, which Lackaye did reluctantly. In like manner Mussen, who had drawn the next best room, relinquished it in favor of Miss Roberts. The drawing and its incidents caused so much fun that the rehearsal was behind time. As the press agent would put it, fate and courtesy bent around several necks.

Scene In "Her Husband's Wife."

SOTHERN'S DOLLAR SHAKE-SPEARE.

Mr. Sothern, that sterling actor who knows and plays "Hamlet" as few, if any, in this country know it or play it, who, in speaking of his repertory, gallantly says "Miss Marlowe and myself," was come upon unawares in the portable study they put up for him next to his dressing room in a Chicago theater and spoke as follows: "I would rather fill a theater at $1 a seat than claim the honor of playing to high prices and have some seats vacant. It is the masses that support Miss Marlowe and myself in our Shakespearean productions, and it is the masses to whom we cater."

One would stand play for the dollar-seat. But if it were not for those "high prices" would "Miss Marlowe and myself" get the high salaries they command (and which they deserve)?

FREDERIC THOMPSON'S ROOF GARDEN BEAUTIES AND HENRY MILLER AND HIS PLAYERS

North, who had become white chief of the Pawnees, died Major Lillie succeeded him as the white leader of the nation from which he gets his sobriquet. In Oklahoma, Major Lillie's home, he has been a leading spirit in the erection of public edifices, establishment of schools, including railroad connections, building electric plants, waterworks and the completion of a prosperous municipality. He is president of the Arkansas Valley National bank of Pawnee City, where he has a beautiful country residence. Near by

COLONEL CODY (TOP) AND PAWNEE BILL, THE WILD WEST HEROES.

IN BUFFALO BILL'S SADDLE.

Unless William F. Cody, better known as "Buffalo Bill," is playing Patricks (he has always been a man of his word) his present season with his show, in which he is the big exponent of wild west life, will be his last in that line. He will be missed, for his mounts and action were superb. At once the question, Who will succeed him? For it is not the intention to disband the wonderful organization. "Pawnee Bill" has already been called, and he will be at the head next season. In private life Pawnee Bill is Major Gordon W. Lillie. He has been identified with Buffalo Bill in the latter's exhibitions, as well as in business on the plains, many years. Major Lillie was born near Hoonington, Ill., and one of his friends and advisors is Ex-Vice President Adlai E. Stevenson. When a lad Lillie went west and became a mighty hunter and an interesting nomadic figure. He was also a trusted friend of the Indian when Indian fighting was over. He was a counselor to Buffalo Bill when Cody was in the saddle as a scout and fighter. When Major Frank is his buffalo ranch, where he is doing all he can to preserve, through a large band of thoroughly bred, the American lion. Major Lillie's business qualities make him an example of what can be accomplished by energy and push and also make him a valuable associate and successor in preserving the historic times of the wild west exhibitions.

BEAUTIFUL PAGEANT A. G. THOMPSON ANNUAL REUNION

Annual May Procession at St. Michael's Church

Outshone in Splendor All of Its Predecessors—Over 1200 in Line—The Procession Attracted Over 10,000 People

The annual May procession of the societies and sodalities of St. Michael's church was held in the open yesterday afternoon and in splendor and magnificence outshone all of its beautiful predecessors.

In years gone by, thousands annually made pilgrimages to Lawrence to witness the May procession in that city. The Lawrence procession was also held yesterday but the crowd that went down to the other city was by no means as large as in former years for the procession at St. Michael's now equals if not eclipses the other in size and beauty, and hence it was not surprising to find the streets along the line of march in Centralville literally choked with people, over 10,000

STOPS ITCHING AT ONCE

Quite recently a chemist formulated a compound which possesses such soothing and curative properties that when applied, it stops the itching of eczema and similar diseases immediately. Sufferers who use it are amazed at the rapidity of the relief which follows its use. The skin heals in an astonishingly short time, and all traces of the disease are eradicated. The name of this new remedy is Cadum, and it is sold by all druggists for 10c and 25c a box. It is also remarkably effective when used for acne, herpes, pimples, blackheads, psoriasis, itching piles, tetter, salt rheum, and skin diseases generally. A 10c box will verify all these statements.

HEARING

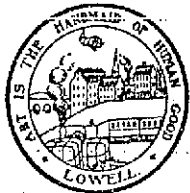

Boston & Northern Street Railway

To the Honorable the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the City of Lowell, Massachusetts: Respectfully represents your petitioner, the Boston & Northern Street Railway Company, that by the terms of a franchise granted in Middlesex, Branch and Merrimack streets in the City of Lowell, the space between the inner rails of the two tracks is fixed at not less than three feet six inches, nor more than four feet, and that public convenience and necessity require that such space should be fixed at four feet, six inches, and distance at connecting and other curves.

Wherefore we respectfully petition that the requirements as to space between the inner rails of the two tracks shall be four feet, six inches, with such additional width as may be required, and to the satisfaction of the City Engineer and Superintendent of Streets, and approval of the Board of Railroad Commissioners; all substantially as shown on plan filed at the hearing to be had hereon.

By P. F. SULLIVAN, President.

Lowell, Mass., May 12, 1910.

CITY OF LOWELL

In Board of Aldermen, May 17, 1910. Read and adopted.

GIRARD P. DADMAN, City Clerk.

Approved, May 18, 1910.

JOHN F. MEDHAN, Mayor.

A true copy.

ALBERT.

GIRARD P. DADMAN, City Clerk.

Lowell, Mass., May 21, 1910.

SMALL STORE wanted with tenement in good locality. Address T. S. Sun Office.

DRUG CLERK, 10 years' experience, unregistered, desires position. All references. Address R. D. Sun Office.

TWO LARGE AIRY ROOMS to let at 351 Middle St. Use of bath and telephone. Inquire after 5 p. m.

Postmaster Guest of Of the Richardson Light Infantry

A testimonial banquet and entertainment was tendered to A. G. Thompson by the postal employees at Elks hall on Saturday evening on his fourth anniversary as postmaster of Lowell, an honor which very few postmasters of the country have ever received. The affair was in every way the most successful and largest ever held by the postal employees.

At 9 o'clock a reception was held in the parlor, the postmaster being assisted by Assistant Postmaster Edwards Cheney. Ex-Postmaster Gardner W. Pearson, Supt. of Mailing Division Edwin A. Cooke, State Treasurer of Lowell, George L. Adams, and President John J. Dillon of Lowell Letter Carriers. At the conclusion of the reception, all were escorted to the banquet hall to the strains of "Hall to the Chief," by the Calumet orchestra, which also rendered selections during the dinner. A splendid dinner was provided by the committee in charge.

Handsome menu cards with a true likeness of the postmaster on the Latin inscription, "Ad Multos Annos," were distributed.

During the dinner the boys all sang topical songs with great enthusiasm. After the cigars were lighted, Joseph J. Ward, chairman of the committee, read a telegram from Congressman Butler Ames, who was unable to be present. He then introduced Joseph J. Dillon, president of Lowell Letter Carriers, who made a few brief remarks. President Dillon then called on Postmaster A. G. Thompson. The mere mention of his name was the signal for the entire assemblage to rise and greet him with cheers and applause which were long continued and ended by the singing of "Hall to Our Chief." The postmaster spoke in his usual happy vein, after expressing his thanks for the co-operation of all his

The 36th annual reunion and banquet of the Richardson Light Infantry was held at the New American house Saturday night. There were 22 members, members' sons and guests present and the affair proved to be one of the most enjoyable ever conducted by the well known organization.

The business meeting was held at five o'clock and the banquet at 6.30 o'clock. The feature of the business meeting was the re-election of the old officers for the ensuing year. They were: President, George P. Richardson, of Lowell; vice-president, Francis T. Wilson, of Lowell; secretary and treasurer, Charles R. Brigham of Lowell, and board of government, W. N. Goodell, Lowell; Morton N. Peabody, Lowell; and S. W. Benson of Charleston. Next year, the 50th anniversary of the organization of the company will be observed with exercises of a more formal character than heretofore.

Twenty-two persons sat down to the banquet table at 6.30 o'clock. They were: W. E. Farrar, Lowell; W. H. Worcester, Lowell; C. H. Filicetti, Boston; James W. Benson, Somerville; Charles H. Frost, Lowell; H. C. Gardner, Springfield; M. N. Peabody, Lowell; James Schofield, North Grafton; Z. B. Stewart, Manchester, N. H.; George N. Thibault, Methuen; N. W. Storer, Dorchester; and Francis T. Wilson, Lowell. Members of the association, Hamilton Gardner, Lowell; W. A. Bason, Lawrence; and Mr. Hodges, Boston, guests and W. N. Goodell, Lowell; N. F. Wilson, Boston; Forrest H. Peabody, Lowell; E. W. Brigham, Lowell; Charles R. Brigham, Lowell and A. G. McCurdy, Lowell, sons of members.

Handsome bouquets of flowers were sent for the banquet and occupied prominent places on the table. They were the gifts of Mrs. Mary E. Jefferson, of this city, who was known as "the daughter of the company"; Mrs. Belle Chase Johnson, George E. Edwards, and family and Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Goodell of this city.

The Richardson Light Infantry was recruited principally from this city and was mustered into the United States service on May 21, 1861.

During the past year one member of the association has died. He was Elias Coville, of Chelmsford. There are 38 members of the Richardson Light Infantry still living, 32 of whom are members of the association.

BOXING GOSSIP

MONDAY

Al Delmont vs. Bobby Tinkle, New Bedford.
Morris Harris vs. Jim Johnson, Joe Heffernan vs. Kid Tracy, Philadelphia.
Kid Henry vs. J. Stein, Watervliet, N. Y.
Billy Ryan vs. Bunt Dorsey, Syracuse.
Charley Griffin vs. K. O. Brown, New York.
Dixie Kid vs. Bill Hurley, Glens Falls, N. Y.
Johnny Daly vs. Tom Houck, Albany.
Bat Downey vs. Pat Moriarty and Al Graves vs. J. Kennedy, North Adams.

TUESDAY

Joe Jeannette vs. Andrew Morris, Eddie Carr vs. Kid Betts, Henry Hall vs. Tim Sullivan and Tony Lorenzo vs. Tom Flanagan, Armory A. A. Sammy Keller vs. Monte Attell and Young McDonough vs. Joe Hyland, New York.
Adam Ryan vs. Johnny Willets, Philadelphia.

WEDNESDAY

Pal Moore vs. Jim Driscoll, Philadelphia.
Tommy Murphy vs. Leach Cross, New York.
Johnny Glover vs. Bunny Ford and Jeff Dolerty vs. Paddy Sullivan, New Haven.
Maurice Sayers vs. J. Murphy and Hugh McGinn vs. O. Breedlove, Indianapolis.
Al Schumacher vs. Kid Dobert, Baltimore.

THURSDAY

Jimmy Moriarty vs. unknown, Lowell.
Eddie Walsh vs. Joe Hyland, New York.
Kid Henry vs. Bill Hurley, Montreal.
Kid Young vs. Young O'Neill and four preliminaries, American A. A.
Eddie Doyle vs. J. Toland and Charley Harvey vs. Louisiana, Philadelphia.

FRIDAY

Stanley Ketchel vs. Willie Lewis, New York.

SATURDAY

Billy Rolfe vs. Tom Sawyer, Portland, Me.
Young Erne vs. Joe Hirst, Reading, Pa.
Young Erne vs. Tommy O'Keefe.

Is a perfectly safe and harmless remedy, which has been carefully and scientifically compounded by the great American Druggists Syndicate of 12,000 responsible druggists for the purpose of enabling those people who cannot see a physician to get the next best treatment for the kidneys and take it at home.

Its action is quick, pleasant and thorough, and you should take it in preference to experimenting with patent medicines, which neither you nor your druggist know anything about. Get it at any A. D. & S. drug store.

Look for this Sign in the Druggist's Window

Frank J. Campbell, 255 Central St.; Falls & Burkinshaw, 418 Middlesex St.; Houle's Pharmacy, 462 Moody St.; J. Lang & Co., 374 Merrimack St.; Wm. H. Noonan & Co., 305 Bridge St.; John H. O'Neill, Lawrence St. cor. Wamest; Routhier & Dolis, 632 Merrimack St.; Charles W. Tremblay, 415 Bridge St.; Fred Howard, 197 Central St.; John T. Sparks & Co., 747 Lakeview Ave.

EZRA E. MANSUR, Auctioneer
Room 24, Chaffinch Building
PUBLIC AUCTION

By order from the bankruptcy court, will be sold at public auction at the office of Ezra E. Mansur, Room 24, No. 22 Central street, Lowell, Mass., Tuesday, May 31, 1910, at 2 o'clock p. m., the books of accounts of the bankrupt estate of CHARLES T. HOWLAND, Trustee. Lowell, Mass., May 23, 1910.

Banner Bargains

FOR

Today and Tomorrow

TOO MANY COATS

We Will Offer 50 at

$5.95 Each

Navy, black, gray. Long and short length coats. We must reduce the coat stock.

See the Beautiful Silk Coats.....$10.00

See the Long Serge Coats.....$12.75

See the Snappy Mixture.....$9.75

We Are Going to Sell

100 Tailored Suits

Today and tomorrow. You never have had such values offered you before.

Skinner Satin Lined Suits at $13.75	40 Suits selling at $15.00 and $18.00. Monday and Tuesday $9.67	$5 Odd Suits, stripes and plain goods.....$7.97
Navy, black, tan and green. $22.50 values.....$13.75	A good assortment.	Here is a chance for 25 lucky people.

Every Suit In Stock Reduced. Come Today and Tomorrow.

400 Voile, Panama and Serge SKIRTS

At less than cost to make. A manufacturer retiring from business on account of ill health.

$10.50 VOILE SKIRTS AT $5.95

In heavy all wool voile, new scarf flounce effect, trimmed with silk and braid.

$7.50 Chiffon Panama at $3.98

Navy and black in handsome styles, bottom plaited effects. Labor alone on this skirt for price asked.

VERY SPECIAL $3.95

We are going to sell 200 Gingham and Wash Dresses. New dresses that sell to $6.00. All colors and sizes, at one price.....$3.95

75 Skirts in Seidman and Panama, $4 skirts $2.95

New York Cloak and Suit Co.

12-18 JOHN STREET

WEAK BATTLING

Has Caused Slump of the Lowell Team

No Pinch Hitters on the Team—Manager Gray Gets Busy and Signs Three More Players

Never before in history has there been such a general interest and enthusiasm over baseball in Lowell than is evident this year. Men, women and children have caught the "bug" and all they talk about is the great national game. In the shops, mills and on the street corners it is baseball from morn till eve and even after bedtime.

In order to meet that great enthusiasm and profit by it Lowell must of necessity produce a winning team. The fans don't look for a pennant winner, nor do they demand one; all they desire is a team that will hold its end up and make the first division. Give them that kind of a team and they will flock to Spaulding park whenever there is a home game.

Lowell started out like the traditional race horse, but after a week's play or more turned around and started downward. The men who appeared to be heavy hitters began to slump, and defeat followed defeat. Time after time with three on base and none or one on Lowell has failed to score, or with a man on third and one out, they have been blanked, for the next home men couldn't even hit a fly to the outfield. When none is on base they would come up and crack out the ball, but invariably when a hit meant a run the ball couldn't get by the infield. And it isn't poor management or direction that is responsible either, for cut, who will play third base today; Blackley, an outfielder from the Brooklyn Nationals, and Cy McDonald, an infielder.

The Baseball Magazine says of Cy McDonald: "A boy named Cy McDonald, who lives at Winchester, Va., and incidentally can hit 'em a few, threw a great scare into Dartmouth, when the New Hampshire collegians were in Washington on their southern trip. Cy McDonald entered Georgetown in 1908, and was a terror with the stick from the word go. He made first base in a walk, and could have made most anything else he wanted on account of his hitting."

"When Dartmouth and Georgetown met he pulled off a stunt that was not equaled by another player all season. In the first inning the Georgetown lads batted around the batting order, and McDonald, out of two appearances at bat, hit out two home runs. The Catholic lads beat the Dartmouth bunch easily, and to this day the baseballists from New Hampshire have not recovered from those two long drives in the very first spasm of play."

STRUCK BY TRAIN

BOSTON, May 23.—Just before 5 o'clock yesterday morning Leo Darrington, a sailor on the U. S. S. Dixie, is said to have attempted suicide at the Beach street elevated station. Just as a train came in he is said to have tried to jump to the track. The first car of the train struck him and knocked him back to the platform.

Special Officer Ular of the elevated company ran to his assistance. Darrington sustained a cut on the chin and one on the left temple. He was not seriously hurt.

The division 4 police were called and Darrington, who is only 18 years old, was sent to the Lawrence street station in the patrol wagon. Deputy Supt. Cain then sent him in the wagon to the Charlestown navy yard.

Darrington's parents live at 44 Malbet street, Dorchester.

VERIFICATION OF SAVINGS BANK BOOK

To Depositors In Savings Banks:

Acting under the provisions of the public statutes, section 43, chapter 500, acts of 1908, the banks whose names appear below request their respective depositors to bring in their bank books for verification during the month of June, 1910.

Central Savings Bank, City Institution for Savings, Lowell Five Cent Savings Bank, (July and August.)

Lowell Institution for Savings, Mechanics Savings Bank, Merrimack River Savings Bank, Washington Savings Institution.

25c Wall Papers, Tonight Only - 10c Roll

In Big May Reduction Sale of Spring Wall Papers

NELSON'S COLONIAL DEPT. STORE

SEE WINDOWS TONIGHT

"Biggest Distributors of Wall Papers in Lowell"

REV. DR. BLACKBURN

Greeted by Old Friends at First Baptist Church

Rev. J. M. Craig Back Again in Pulpit—Rev. James Bancroft Begins His Pastorate at St. John's Episcopal Church

Rev. Alexander Blackburn, D. D., former pastor of the First Baptist church, occupied the pulpit of that church yesterday and there was a large attendance of his former congregation to welcome him.

In the morning his subject was "The Incarnation and Prayer." The central thought of the sermon was the deity of Jesus Christ and the power of prayer which he said were closely linked together. The evening discourse was on the subject of "Life's Overflow." His text was taken from the sayings of Jesus to the woman of Samaria at Jacob's well, and said if present plans are carried out, he expected within three months to stand at the spot where those words were spoken. At the close of a day's labor one man goes towards his home, picks a few flowers, buys some fruit and smilingly is welcomed by his children. You would trust such a man with all you have. Another man leaves his work, and grumpy and dull he pays no attention to flowers and fruit, but does patronize the saloon, and his arrival home is attended by dread in his children and wife. The overflow of his life shows what he is. The overflow of your life is the index of your character. A rich man in New York, whom I once visited, told me he would cut $60,000 in diamonds in one season, that would be sent to New York and freely given through the tenement house district. I found out the overflow of that man's life. Finding it out, I could love and trust him. Not only is an index, but the overflow makes your character. What you do in your hours of labor has not so much influence upon your character as what you do in your hours of recreation. Just so sure as you rightly use the "off" hours, you will grow in strength and in spirit. Jesus came to fix the overflow of life in the right direction. He came not to take pleasure out of life, but to give joy to life. Pure, sweet pleasure is a blessing. Dear a smile with you into the world. Laugh at the proper time, be sober at the proper time. When we reach the interior seat of the minister, we are not going to be asked how we weave or wrought at our daily labor, but if the overflow of our lives has given cheer and comfort to the sick

MURDER SUSPECT

Returns to New York After Nine Years' Absence

NEW YORK, May 23.—Homelessness haunting him for nine years, during which time he roamed about the west a free and unsuspected man, finally drove William Whiteaway, 36, "wanted" as one of three men who murdered Theodore Johanson here in 1901—back like a homing pigeon to New York, to fall yesterday into the clutches of the police, who for the nine years have been on the lookout for him.

"Please give me some money. I must eat," he pleaded.

"Hello, Whiteaway," he said. "I am Detective Hart, who nine years ago looked high and low for the man. A few minutes later Whiteaway was a prisoner in the Harlem detective bureau. At first he resolutely denied his

STEAMER VENUS

Has Gone Back to Bluefields

NEW ORLEANS, May 23.—Representatives of the United States government of Nicaragua stated last night that they had received advice to the effect that the Venus had gone to Bluefields to await orders from Madrid; that such orders had been received and that the steamer then put back to Bluefields Saturday. It is asserted the Venus will attack the steamer Marietta of Gioiello if it can meet the latter at a point where the town of Bluefields will not be threatened or under circumstances which the Madrid government does not consider as a violation of the dictum of Commander Gilmer in charge of the United States gunboats Palanca and Imogene regarding the safety of American citizens in Bluefields.

AMERICAN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION

BOSTON, May 23.—Morning prayer in King's chapel, Tremont street, conducted by Rev. H. Roy Freeman of Braintree, opened the regular meeting of the 123rd anniversary of the American Unitarian Association today. Two preliminary sessions were held later. Later in the forenoon Rev. J. T. Sutherland of Hartford, Conn., addressed the annual meeting of the Ministerial Union in Channing hall. 100 subject was "Theodore Parker." Other meetings will be held in the afternoon and the anniversary is expected to be one of the most memorable ever held by the association. A most elaborate program includes addresses by many noted speakers and ministers, among them Gov. Draper, Lieut. Gov. Frothingham and President Emeritus Charles W. Eliot of Harvard university.

HOMES WRECKED

Cairo, Ill., Visited by a Tornado

CAIRO, Ill., May 23.—A tornado which struck Cairo at 6.40 p. m. yesterday demolished four homes, damaged a dozen more and destroyed several barns, besides tearing large trees up by the roots. No fatalities were reported, but one woman was severely injured and several persons were slightly injured.

The house occupied by Henry Smith was lifted bodily from its foundation, carried about 50 feet northward and landed but a few feet from Mr. Smith and three children were in the house and the former was painfully bruised, while the children were slightly injured.

The home of Arthur Linguest was lifted by the wind 100 feet away and landed right side up, but badly twisted. The occupants escaped with slight injuries.

While members of the family of William Wise were at supper the storm lifted the roof so suddenly they did not realize what was happening. A large barn was carried 200 feet and landed on a coal shed.

The tornado appeared to be about 100 feet wide.

NORMAL SCHOOL

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION HELD ANNUAL REUNION

The annual reunion and banquet of the Lowell Normal School Alumni association was held Saturday afternoon at the school. A business meeting preceded the banquet. The principal business of the meeting was the election of officers for the ensuing year, as follows: Miss Anna McCarron, '05, president; Miss Winifred McEvoy, '05, vice-president; Miss Alice Ramsey, '05, secretary; John E. Barr, '05, treasurer. After the business meeting, luncheon was served. The German Ladies' orchestra furnished music. At the close of the banquet Miss Beale E. Knapp presided as toast mistress. The following program was carried out: Address of welcome, read by the principal; "The Alumni Association and the 'Future of the School,'" Miss Mabel Hill; extracts from letters written by an L. N. S. alumna, Miss Lillian C. Burbank, '09; remarks, Cyrus A. Durbin; "Just a Word," Miss Martha R. Taylor, '09; "Our Opportunities Today,"

Miss Mabel F. Laughton, '04; "The Intangible Factor in Education," Dr. Lyman C. Newell of Boston university. If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

A. G. POLLARD CO.

THE STORE FOR THRIFTY PEOPLE

THIS MORNING BEGAN AN UNEX-AMPLED SALE OF LADIES'

Tailored Linen Suits

AT PRICES NEVER BEFORE APPROACHED IN LOWNESS AT THIS SEASON SECURED BY TAKING ADVANTAGE OF PRESENT TOPSY-TURVY MARKET CONDITIONS

LADIES' $11.98 LINEN SUITS - $7.98

LINEN SUITS For Decoration Day

Made of pure natural linen, linen crash, Siberian linen and heavy basket weave linen. Notch and shawl collars, plain or trimmed with black Skinner satin. Sizes 14, 16 and 18 years and 34 to 44. These suits are sold regularly at $11.98.

THE LINEN COATS WOMEN ARE BUYING

For journeys, for automobiling, for general street wear and hot weather. The long linen coat proves such a good friend that it is not surprising people are already buying them. We have a greater variety of such coats than usual in May—prices between $3.98 and $10.00, also mohairs at $5.98 and $7.50. During this sale all linen and motor coats will be altered free.

Cloak Dept.

See Window Display.

Second Floor

SHEETS AND PILLOW CASES

A special selling began this morning of a large purchase made last month, when sheets and pillow cases took a big drop in prices. You'll find each item less than the cotton can be bought for today. A few odd things also very cheap.

PILLOW CASES

Odd Pillow Cases, different widths and different lengths, made of brown and bleached cotton, good heavy quality, worth 12 1-2c, only 9c Each
250 dozen Pillow Cases, sizes 45x36, with 3 inch hem, made of good heavy popular make of cotton, but liable to be a little imperfect, worth 11c, only 11c Each
175 dozen Pillow Cases, made of tubing, no seams to give way, 45x38 1-2, with 3 inch hem, made of soft, heavy, perfect white cotton, worth 22c, only 15c Each

SHEETS

One lot good heavy sheets, full size and well made, with 3 inch hem at top and one at bottom, worth 40c 39c Each
One lot Unbleached Sheets, size 81x90, made of extra heavy cotton; will bleach out soft and white, well made, no center seams, worth 59c, only 49c

Palmer Street

SHEETS

One lot marked A. G. Pollard Co. "Perfection." The way this sheet sold at our last sale influenced us to secure more; we have them at the same prices as before.

Size 72x90, worth 65c, at only 55c Each
Size 72x90, worth 69c, at only 59c Each
Size 81x90, worth 69c, at only 59c Each
Size 81x90, worth 75c, at only 65c Each
Two numbers of celebrated "Dwight Anchor" cotton. Compare these prices with what you have to pay for it by the yard.

Size 63x99, worth 75c, at only 59c Each
Size 81x90, worth 85c, at only 69c Each

If you want to buy sheets for your camp, cottage, bungalow, summer home or city residence, take advantage of this sale.

Left Aisle

IN OUR UNDERPRICE BASEMENT

The most successful of all our Annual 6 1-4c Sales comes to an end tonight. A big majority of the magnificent special values have already been closed out, but the following new offerings should attract prudent shoppers here today.

PLAID GINGHAM—One case of fine Plaid Gingham, nice fine quality, in handsome patterns for summer dresses, but being slightly imperfect on the selvage, we offer them at Sale Price 6 1-4c Yard

BLEACHED COTTON—2000 yards of fine quality bleached cotton, in remnants, good soft finish, 10c value Sale Price 6 1-4c Yard

WHITE MADRAS—One case of fine white madras, full yard wide, nice fine quality, for shirts, shirt waists and dresses, 12 1-2c value Sale Price 6 1-4c Yard

BLACK SATEEN—Heavy black sateen remnants, fast color, good strong quality, for mill aprons, skirts and working shirts, 12 1-2c value Sale Price 6 1-4c Yard

MERCERIZED NAPKINS—50 dozen fine Mercerized Napkins, 20 inches wide, very fine quality, in very handsome design, 10c value Sale Price 6 1-4c Each

WHITE CREPE—32 inches wide, White Crepe, nice and fine quality, for summer dresses, easily washed, 12 1-2c value Sale Price 6 1-4c Yard

Great Bargains in Fine Embroideries Tomorrow at Our Sale of Sample Pieces

13,000 Yards

Fresh from the importers, all new goods, including edgings, insertions and flouncings, in all widths, all hand machine work on fine nainsook and cambrics, at 1-2 to 1-3 less than regular prices.

10v EDGINGS AND INSERTIONS, ONLY 5c a yard

19c EDGINGS AND INSERTIONS, ONLY 12 1-2c a yard

12 1-2c EDGINGS AND INSERTIONS, ONLY 7 1-2c a yard

25c AND 39c EDGINGS AND INSERTIONS, ONLY 19c a yard

15c EDGINGS AND INSERTIONS 10c a yard

50c AND 75c EDGINGS AND INSERTIONS, ONLY 35c a yard

ON SALE TOMORROW, TUESDAY A. M., IN OUR UNDER-PRICE BASEMENT

We Need Two Experienced Dry Goods Salesmen—See Mr. Fortin in Palmer Street Basement

Our Semi-Annual Sale of Every Day

Kitchen Utensils and Crockery at 29 Cents

OPENED THIS MORNING

Here will be found better values than ever before offered. Read every item carefully. Make out your list and come to this great sale. Note the big values we offer in this sale. Gas Lights complete,

Glass Wash Boards, Old Dutch Cleanser, Galvanized Wash Tubs, Clothes Baskets, Garbage Can, Bread Raisers, Dish Pans, Bread Boxes, Sleeve Board and Iron, Dust Pan and Brush, Umbrella Stands, Fry Pans, Toilet Paper, etc., etc., 40c to 50c values for 29c.

BREAD RAISER—10 qt. size, with dome cover, side handles and strong foot—cover has good handle, a 45c value, for 29c

CLOTHES BASKETS—Large size, round in shape, with strong side handles. Regular 40c value. Sale price 29c

FOOT TUBS—Painted green outside, white inside. Sale price 29c

WASH TUBS—Regular 50c size—heavily galvanized, have strong side handles. Sale price 29c

YELLOW MIXING BOWLS—Nest of 6—sizes 4 1-2 to 9 1-4 inches. Sale price per nest 29c

RICE BOILERS—Agate enameled ware, capacity 1 quart, value 80c. Sale price 29c

OLD DUTCH CLEANSER—Universally known as a cleaner for enameled ware, tinware, copper, brass, wood, etc., etc. Regular price 10c a can. Sale price 4 Cans for 29c

FRY PANS—In nests of four, assorted sizes—sheet steel with patent cold handles, worth 42c. Sale price 29c

TOILET PAPER—Good grade, put up in packages, with wire loop. Regular 5c style. Sale price 10 for 29c

UMBRELLA STANDS—Japanese, with handsome floral decorations, worth 50c. Sale price 29c

CUSTARD OR BAKE CUPS—Imported Luxemburg Bake Cups, white lined. Regular price 8c each. Sale price 6 for 29c

LIPPED KETTLES—Agate enameled ware, capacity 10 qts., value 75c. Sale price 29c

GLASS WASH BOARDS—Hard wood frames with water protector and heavy ribbed glass rubbing surface, always sold at 45c. Sale price 29c

SLEEVE IRON AND SLEEVE BOARD—Nickel plated, polished Sleeve Irons, with a Hard Wood Sleeve Board. A 40c value, for 29c

DINNER PAILS—Gray enameled, oval in shape; value 75c. Sale price 29c

YACHT MOPS—Well made from good grade twine, nothing better for hard wood floors; value 45c. Sale price 29c

COAT HANGERS—Wood Coat Hangers, nicely varnished; value 5c each 12 for 29c

DISH PANS—14 qt. size, heavy, retinned, with side handles. Sale price 29c

DUST PAN AND BRUSH—A heavy Dust Pan with braced handle, and a good bristle Dust Brush. A 40c value for 29c

GARBAGE CANS—Regular 50c size, heavy galvanized; has bail handle and fit over cover. Sale price 29c

BREAD AND CAKE BOXES—Well made—Japanese and galvanized finish. Regular price 45c. Sale price 29c

GAS LIGHTS—Inverted Lights, with good mantle and globe, a 60c value. Sale price 29c

YELLOW PUDDING DISHES—Nests of four—sizes 6, 7, 8 and 9 inches. Sale price per nest 29c

BERLIN KETTLES—Gray enameled ware—10 qt. size, with covers; value 55c. Sale price 29c

Special Notice

We shall make every effort to deliver promptly, but cannot guarantee delivery inside of one week. Kindly take small parcels with you if possible.

MANSLAUGHTER CHARGED

EXTRA

TWO MEN IN COURT

Charged With Causing Death of
Fall River Man

FALL RIVER, May 22.—In the district court today a hearing was given in the cases of Wilfred St. Martin and Louis Gibeau on the charge of manslaughter. They are accused of having been responsible for the death of Henry Bonney on the morning of May 17, as the outcome of a quarrel in which the three men were involved after having been participants in the festivities of a wedding. Judge McDonough after hearing the evidence bound them both over in the sum of $2500 to the June term of the superior court to await the action of the grand jury.

FOUND IN RIVER

Body of Unknown Man Recovered
at No. Chelmsford

The body of an unknown man was taken from the Merrimack river at North Chelmsford this forenoon and was turned over to Undertaker Young of this city. The body was fully dressed and on a card found in the clothing appeared the name, Clarence Dinsmore. The body had been in the water for ten days or two weeks. The man, in life,

SNELL FOUND DEAD

Was Son of Millionaire Who
Was Murdered

CHICAGO, May 23.—Albert J. Snell, son of the millionaire, Amos J. Snell, whose murder here in 1893 by a burglar created a sensation, was found dead in bed of a cheap rooming house here today. He was 60 years old. He inherited a fortune from his father and

BELMONT PARK RACES
BELMONT PARK, N. Y., May 23.—First race: Lochel, 100, Snilling, 3 to 1, even, out, first; Feather Duster, 111, Butwell, 2 to 1, 7 to 10, out, second; Towton Field, 112, Natter, 5 to 2, even, out, third. Time 58.

PERFECT AFFINITY

exists between our patients and ourselves. They have every confidence in our ability to make their teeth in to a good old age when they trust us to keep them in condition. When they come too late for us to save them we will make your mouth perfect by our scientific crown and bridge work, or by inserting natural looking plates at

Dr. Gagnon's
Obtundine System of Dentistry
468 Merrimack St., Opp. Tilden St.

REV. DR. CLARK

The third annual convention of the Lowell Christian Endeavor union was held Saturday afternoon and evening in the Paige Street F. B. church. The speaker was Rev. Francis E. Clark, D. D., founder and president of the United Society of Christian Endeavor. The societies of Lowell and suburban churches were well represented. The decorations were in the C. E. colors, red and white, and at the top of an arch was spelled the topic of the day, "Success."

"The Secret of Worldwide Success in Christian Endeavor" was the subject of Dr. Clark's address, and he was given a great ovation when he arose to speak. Dr. Clark said that coming to Lowell was like coming home, because here his mother was born and his grandfather lived all of his life, and here he used to come back to the ancestral home for Thanksgiving. And 26 years ago next month was held in Kirk Street church the third convention of the Christian Endeavor society. The officers of the Lowell Christian Endeavor society are as follows: Herbert J. Bull, vice president; Miss Ella M. Penn, secretary; Walter A. Chase, treasurer; James A. Grant, auditor; Miss Mildred M. McKnight, junior superintendent; Miss Anna M. Wylie, junior secretary; Rev. A. P. Wedge, counselor.

The following had charge of the arrangements for the convention: Reception, Walter A. Chase; registration, Miss Winifred L. Davis; supper committee, Mrs. W. O. Brown, Mrs. M. O. Batchelder, Mrs. W. H. Upham; director of music, Charles R. Thomas,

TWO LOWELL MEN

Chosen On Jury to Try Mrs. Richmond
Accused of Murder

CAMBRIDGE, May 23.—For the first time in seventeen years in the Massachusetts court a woman, Mrs. Elizabeth Richmond of Cambridge, was placed on trial for her life today in the Middlesex county superior court. The indictment charges Mrs. Richmond with the murder on July 23, 1908, of Stewart McTavish, a boarder who was found with his head crushed in a little back bedroom in Hotel Florence in Cambridge, conducted by Mrs. Richmond. The police stated at the time that Mrs. Richmond, who is an unusually large and strong woman became involved in a quarrel with McTavish after both had been drinking, shot him and then beat in his head. The woman seemed under the influence of liquor when arrested and shortly after her indictment, she was placed in a cell within a few feet of the one in which her husband was serving a term for drunkenness. The murder took place within a stone's throw of the scene of today's trial.

Lowell Men Chosen
The jury in the trial of Elizabeth J. Richmond of Cambridge, charged with murder, which opened in the superior court at Cambridge today was completed at one o'clock this afternoon after 83 names out of a total list of 97 had been called. There are two Lowell men on the jury, John G. Gordon of this city was the second juror accepted. He was the seventh man called, John J. O'Brien, a sister of Lowell was the third juror being the tenth called, 52 of the list were excused on the ground that they were accused on capital punishment. The defendant challenged 9, and the government 3.

STRIKERS RETURN TO WORK

GLENS FALLS, N. Y., May 23.—As a result of the settlement of the strike at the mills of the International Paper Co. many of the union men returned to work today and others were informed that positions would be given them as soon as there are any vacant. Many of the strike-breakers will continue in the employ of the company. The military guard has been removed from the mills at Fort Edward and Corinth.

Within the past 48 hours nearly 500 strike-breakers have been discharged. The promised increase of five per cent. in wages is nothing more than the fulfillment of its promise of 1908, the company says, when the five per cent. was taken from the wages to be returned in August, 1908.

The chief victory of the union is the elimination of Sunday work. The union men here are not all satisfied with the agreement and some of them say they will not return to work.

THE KAISER LEAVES LONDON

LONDON, May 23.—Emperor William left today for Port Victoria where he was to board the imperial yacht Hohenzollern for his return to Germany.

King George accompanied his royal cousin to the railroad station. To the lord mayor of London, the German monarch sent a message expressing the warm appreciation which he felt for the sincere sympathy exhibited toward him in his sad bereavement by the people of London.

The duke of Cornwall, the duke of Connaught and the members of the Germany embassy were also at the station to bid his majesty farewell.

Interest

BEGINS
Wednesday, June 1
SAVINGS DEPT.

Traders National Bank

Hours: 8:30 a. m. to 3 p. m. Saturday, 8:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. and 7 to 9 p. m.

Mechanics Savings Bank

202 MERRIMACK ST.

Quarter Day
JUNE 4TH.Poland Water
For Sale by
F. and E. BAILEY & CO.
GEO. A. WILLSON & CO.JENNISON'S
Tooth Powder
ALL DRUGGISTS

MOTORBOAT RACE

Loantaka Probably Has
Abandoned Contest

PHILADELPHIA, May 23.—A report from Delaware Breakwater, Del., this morning says the motor boat Loantaka, one of the starters in the Philadelphia-Havanna race, is passing up the Delaware river. This would indicate that the owner has abandoned the race on account of the engine trouble which developed soon after the start Saturday and is returning to Philadelphia. This leaves four boats in the race. A tug arriving at the breakwater today reports that when the little racers passed a sea Saturday night the Bernevo was leading with the Caliph second and the Hysse and Caroline close behind. The boats rounded Cape Hatteras during last night but no report regarding them has been received here. The weather reports indicate that conditions of wind and sea today are favorable to the racers.

MIDDLESEX
COOPERATIVE BANK

Semi-Annual Dividend Just Declared at the Rate of

5% Per Annum

Shares in New Series Now on Sale at Office of the Bank, 88 Central Block, LOWELL, MASS.

A THIRD DUEL

Was Fought Between
French Counts

PARIS, May 23.—Count Ismeel De Lesseps and Count Just De Poligny fought their third duel today and this time each received a bullet wound. At the second exchange De Lesseps' bullet struck the barrel on De Poligny's pistol and caused a flesh wound in the latter's arm. At the same moment De Lesseps fell, shot through the thigh. He was removed to a hospital where it was found that the ball had just missed the femoral artery. The wound is not fatal. De Lesseps is a son of Count Ferdinand De Lesseps and an officer of a cavalry regiment. Some weeks ago he quarreled with De Poligny at the circus and blows were exchanged. On May 3 they met in an encounter with swords in the Parc des Princes, the scene of today's duel. De Poligny is lame and after a round of sword play, during which neither was injured, the seconds called a halt. Subsequently pistols were substituted for the swords, and six shots were exchanged. None of the bullets found its mark and the antagonists left the field without a reconciliation.

The Mighty
Blacksmith

The successful horse-shoer in these days is not the one who does most work, but the one who does the most paying work. Blowing forge fires by hand is not profitable work. Let an electric forge blower do it.

The Lowell
Electric Light
Corporation

60 CENTRAL STREET

THE TRAINING SCHOOL

Miss Edmund Resigns Principals-ship to Accept Position at $3500She Met With an Accident in New York and Later Contracted a Severe Cold—She
Will be at New York University

Miss Gertrude Edmund, principal of the training school, has sent to Supt. Whitecomb of the school board a letter, tendering her resignation to take effect at once. Under present arrangements she would be principal during the year 1910-11. On January 12 of this year, she fell in New York and sustained a severe fracture of the ankle, under which she was confined to a hospital for four months. After leaving the hospital she contracted a cold which developed into pleurisy. She has however received an appointment at the New York university at which she had been studying for a degree and as her subjoined letter will show at a salary of $3500. Her letter is as follows: "Cohasset, New York, May 14, 1910. Supt. A. K. Whitecomb, Secretary Lowell School Committee, Lowell, Mass. My Dear Sir: When the school board kindly gave me leave of absence last October it was with the understanding that I was to study for a Ph. D. degree in New York University. My plans were upset by an accident which was followed by a long and serious illness, and I find that I must take a longer rest than I anticipated when I left the hospital. I have been offered university and professional school positions in New York for the year 1910-11, with a salary of $3500 and have decided to accept the same. I had hoped to return to Lowell to present my resignation as principal of the training school in person, but as I am unable to do so, will ask you to present it at the next meeting of the board, the same to take effect at once. Thanking you and the board for the many past favors, I am, Respectfully yours, Gertrude Edmund."

LUNATIC ESCAPED NOTED PRIESTS

Dangerous Man Got
Away From Danvers
Coming to St. Peter's
This Week

Police authorities all over this part of the state are uniting their efforts to locate and capture Thomas Heffernan, a dangerous lunatic, who escaped from Danvers Saturday morning from the dangerous ward. Heffernan formerly belonged in South Groveland and was arrested a year and a half ago for killing three men in Haverhill. At that time he was carefully examined by the physicians and adjudged dangerously insane. He was placed in Danvers and has been there up to Saturday morning, when he made his escape. Following so quickly upon the escape of Ambrose Van Dusen, the murderer of Mrs. Gray, and James Galway, on May 3, the escape is quite sensational, as the Danvers authorities have kept the inmates under the strictest surveillance to prevent any more of the patients breaking away.

A strict investigation is sure to follow this latest escape. The police in the cities and towns of Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Vermont have been warned to be on the lookout for Heffernan, as he is a dangerous man. It is not known as yet how Heffernan effected his escape.

MISS COULSON
GAVE LUNCHEON IN HONOR OF
A LOWELL GIRL

A delightful little luncheon was served to a few guests yesterday afternoon by Miss Elizabeth Coulson of 1 Campo Seco street, Lawrence, in honor of Miss Bessie Coughlin of Lowell, who is attending the Boston Conservatory of Music. Miss Coulson had as her guests the Misses Ruth Riley, Ruth Gay, and Pauline Sweet of Rochester, N. Y., who are classmates of Miss Coughlin at the conservatory, and Messrs. Rowland Dow, and George Riley of Harvard, and Mr. Thomas Riley of Lawrence.

BOARD OF TRADE

Urges Legislature to Favor Bill

In response to a telegram received this morning by the board of trade from the Boston chamber of commerce, regarding house bill 1660, for constitutional amendment allowing classification of property for taxation, the following telegram was sent to all the Lowell representatives at the state house: "By vote of the directors of the Lowell board of trade passage of house bill 1660, for amendment allowing classification of property for taxation, was strongly urged. Please do what you can to urge passage of the bill. Signed, William Cogger, Acting Secretary."

Two of New England's most foremost Catholic orators will be heard at St. Peter's church this week at a triduum which will begin next Thursday evening and continue until Sunday morning. The triduum is to be held under the auspices of the immaculate conception sodality and will be conducted by Rev. Fr. Conway, S. J., vice-president of Boston college. He will preach the opening sermon. On Friday evening the sermon will be preached by Rev. Fr. Gasson, S. J., president of Boston college, and a foremost orator and educator, and a close friend of Rev. Dr. Keleher, of St. Peter's. Saturday will be devoted to confessions and on Sunday the closing exercises will be held with Fr. Conway again the preacher and there will be a reception into the sodality.

PASSED TO THIRD READING
BOSTON, May 23.—The bill permitting the New York, New Haven & Hartford to acquire direct control of the Berkshire St. Ry. Co. was passed to a third reading in the senate today without arousing comment.LONGEST AEROPLANE FLIGHT
NEWBURYPORT, May 23.—The longest aeroplane flight thus far held in New England was made today by William Hilliard of Boston, who went a distance of a third of a mile at Plum Island. In another flight today Hilliard flew a distance of 700 feet. The machine worked smoothly and no mishap occurred.HARVARD DEFEATED PRINCETON
BOSTON, May 23.—Harvard defeated Princeton at tennis at the Longwood Cricket club today, taking four out of six matches in singles and two out of three matches in doubles.

A BLACKSMITH

Seeks Place in United States Senate

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., May 23.—John F. Breckenridge, the blacksmith who announces himself a candidate for United States senator from Missouri and whose petition with the required number of names has been filed with the secretary of state at Jefferson City, in his early days followed the "craze" as a cowboy. He runs a horse-shoeing establishment at the stockyards in south St. Joseph. White with the wild west shows as a rope and cattle thrower he visited Europe and every part of the United States. In his early years ago he saved the lives of five persons in a hotel fire and again at Jacksonville, Fla. seven years ago he rescued two persons from suffocation by smoke. As a farrier he strongly urged. Please do what you can to urge passage of the bill. Signed, William Cogger, Acting Secretary.

6 O'CLOCK SECRETARY MEYER

Has Brought About Reorganization of the Navy

WASHINGTON, May 23.—A virtual reorganization of the navy has been made by Secretary Meyer in the year during which he has held the portfolio of the navy department. He has brought about a saving of money in many directions, it is said. Many of the changes inaugurated by Secretary Meyer are the result, direct or indirect, of suggestions offered at his request by officers in all parts of the naval service.

Saving of coal has been accomplished by systematic firing, economy of steam, replacing defective joints and journals and stopping leaky valves. On the

DEPT. OF JUSTICE

Takes New Tack On Crusade Against Bucketshops

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The department of justice took a new tack today in its extensive crusade against bucketshops for in addition to the conspiracy charge that was made against 29 men in the cities of New York, Jersey City, Baltimore and Washington last April the department today lodged a charge of a direct violation of section 855 of the district code which forbids bucketting or setting up a gaming table in the district.

This charge is made against the persons who are said to constitute the Standard Stock & Grain Co. of Jersey City. Four additional persons are expected to be caught in the dragnet who were not mentioned in the previous indictment. These are Sam Alder and C. Lillis, known among his associates as "Cat" Lillis of New York and W. Fox and E. M. Browning of Baltimore.

Two indictments were returned today charging conspiracy on the setting up of a gaming table against those four men in addition to Edward Altman of Jersey City, Louis and Angelo Cella of St. Louis, Robert Hall, Samuel Raymond, Oscar Rappell of Philadelphia, Henry Stumpf of Philadelphia, Henry Duryea and Charles Alley of Washington.

WOMAN ON TRIAL

Is Charged With Murder of William J. Erder

ST. LOUIS, May 23.—Mrs. Dora Elizabeth Dosey, who with her husband, Dr. Loren Dosey, is under indictment on the charge of murdering William J. Erder, whom it is alleged she married, was placed on trial here today. The defense asked a severance of the trials and the state elected to try the woman first. It is charged that while she was the wife of Erder and also that Dr. Dosey she poisoned Erder with arsenic.

Shortly after his death it is charged Mrs. Dosey sent Erder's furniture to the home of Dosey in Columbus, Neb. She collected Erder's life insurance. Mrs. Dosey now admits he married Erder while she was the wife of Dosey. She says she was not responsible for her acts as she was under the influence of morphine which her husband sent her.

The defense will claim that Erder took patent medicines.

NO INFORMATION SPITZER PARDON

From Balloonists Who White House Silent Left Pittsfield About It

PITTSFIELD, May 23.—Up to a late hour this forenoon no information as to the landing place of the balloon Pittsfield in the heart of the Berkshires had been received here. As William F. Whitehouse, who piloted the balloon from Pittsfield Saturday, was in New York yesterday, it is presumed the flight was not a long one. Mr. Whitehouse does not usually notify this city of his landing place.

ELECTRIC LIGHT ASSOCIATION

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 23.—Two thousand delegates to the National Electric Light Association convention which will open tomorrow have arrived in the city today and by tomorrow it is expected that nearly the entire membership of 5000 will be here. President Frank W. Farnsworth of Denver and New York will deliver his presidential address tomorrow morning. An electrical show at which the latest electrical inventions will be exhibited will follow the convention.

MRS. MARY NILAN

MOTHER OF BISHOP NILAN IS DEAD

HARTFORD, Conn., May 23.—Mrs. Mary Nilan, mother of Right Rev. John J. Nilan, Roman Catholic bishop of Hartford, died here today in her 86th year. She had become infirm by age. Mrs. Nilan came here from Andover, Mass., when her son was consecrated to the bishopric last month. She had made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Jeremiah H. Coffey. She leaves five children.

FUNERALS

WALSH—The funeral of Mrs. Ellen Walsh took place yesterday afternoon from the rooms of Undertaker C. H. Molloy & Sons. Burial was in the Catholic cemetery, where Rev. Timothy Callahan read the committal prayers. Undertakers C. H. Molloy & Sons had charge.

STACKPOLE—The funeral of Mrs. Minnie P. Stackpole took place yesterday afternoon from her late residence, 835 Chelmsford street. The services were conducted by Rev. James E. Gregg, pastor of the Kirk Street Congregational church. Appropriate selections were sung by the First Universalist church choir. The bearers were David Hensley, Nelson D. Keables, George W. Tucke and Charles S. Tuttle. A delegation was present representing the Women's auxiliary to the Y. M. C. A. Burial was in the lot in the Edison cemetery. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Mr. William A. Mitchell, under the direction of Undertaker George W. Healey.

HOLT—The funeral of Mrs. Sarah M. C. Holt took place Saturday afternoon from the residence in North Chelmsford. Rev. Mr. Eddies officiated and the services were singing by Mrs. Horace Hanson and Mrs. Duncan. The bearers were Messrs. Hale, Blodgett, Josselyn and Dunn. Burial was in the Riverside cemetery, North Chelmsford, under the direction of Undertaker C. M. Lyng.

NEBS—Mrs. Nebs, aged 7 months, died Sunday morning at the home of her parents, Ernest and Rose Nebs, 109 Charles street. The funeral took place this morning at 9 o'clock from the home of her parents. Burial was in the Catholic cemetery. Undertakers M. H. McDonough & Sons had charge.

DEATHS

FLYNN—John T. Flynn died yesterday at his home, rear of 103 Adams street, aged 38 years. He is survived by his wife, Mary, and four children. He was a well known resident of St. Patrick's parish and was a member of Division 1, A. O. H., and of Court Gen. Dimon, A. O. F.

ASHWORTH—Mrs. Julia E. Ashworth, wife of Albion S. Ashworth, died yesterday at her home, 23 South Walker street, aged 53 years and two months. She leaves, besides her husband, one daughter, Mrs. Harold R. Maxson, two grandchildren, Carlotta and Virginia Maxson, one brother, Warren P. Smith and five sisters, Mrs. Charles H. Hanson, Mrs. Clara E. Cain of Springfield, Mrs. Frances M. Blood of Nashua, N. H., Mrs. Bertha Richmond of Springfield, Vt., and Mrs. Lee Grand M. Anway of Los Angeles, Cal.

HEALEY—Miss Catherine Healey died yesterday at the home of her niece, Mrs. Mary Tierney, 3 Dewey avenue, off Coburn street. She was a well known resident of Centralville.

WORK—Augustus A. Work died Sunday morning at his home, 12 Middlesex park, aged 71 years, 9 months. He leaves besides his wife, one daughter, Mrs. Annie Davis of this city, and three grandchildren. He was a member of Grand Union lodge, I. O. O. F., and for 20 years was an employee of the Bigelow Carpet Co.

FANNING—Alexander Fanning, age 62 years, private 15th Regt. Mass. infantry, died today at his home, 129 Colburn street. The body was removed to Saunders' undertaking rooms. He leaves a sister, Mrs. Annie Lamon of Holden, Mass.

PARKER—The death of Willard S. Parker, a lifelong resident of Chelmsford, occurred suddenly at his home on the Boston road, Friday evening, as the result of a shock, aged 51 years. Although not having enjoyed robust health for several years, Mr. Parker was about as usual on Monday last week, a severe cold contracted on Monday evening resulting in conditions he was unable to withstand. He had for several years been a member of the I. O. O. F., belonging to a Lowell lodge, and was at the time of his death a member of Chelmsford lodge. He is survived by a son, Leon H. Parker; a daughter, Ethel P. Parker, and a brother, D. Elmer Parker of Salem, Mass., and a sister, Mrs. B. S. Adams of Nantucket.

CHENEY—LaRoy Arthur Cheney, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur A. Cheney, died at the home of his parents on the Lowell road, Saturday, aged 22 years, seven months. Since birth he had been a sufferer from a heart difficulty, but in spite of this handicap was most optimistic and full of courage, entering with a wholeheartedness into whatever came in his way to do, in a manner that won for him the admiration and friendship of all with whom he came in contact. He was born in Lowell August 26, 1887, his parents residing in Chelmsford the following year. He attended the public schools of Chelmsford, graduating from the high school in the class of 1908, of which he was valedictorian and was also president of the class. In the following September he passed the preliminary examinations to the Institute of Technology, Boston, but was prevented by ill health from continuing. In the winter of 1908 he began work in the foreman's office at the Lowell Machine shop, making during his stay an excellent record for himself, and winning many friends by his cheerfulness. For several years he had been a constant attendant at the Chelmsford Street Baptist church and Sunday school. He was secretary of the tennis club of the school.

HEALEY—Joseph C. Healey, aged 51 years, died yesterday at his home, East Bridgeover, Mass. The deceased was a member of Oberlin lodge, I. O. O. F., and Piliroin commandery. The remains will be brought to this city for burial Wednesday by Undertaker J. A. Weinbeck.

RECEIVERS APPOINTED

CHICAGO, May 23.—Judge Grosscup in the United States circuit court today appointed receivers for the Chicago Railway Co., which operates the west and north side street car lines. The company is not insolvent and the receivership is being established by a legal move in connection with the railroad's recent decision holding the railroad company liable for bonds of the Moribund Consolidated Traction Co. The petition for receivers was filed by the Western Electric & Mfg. Co., which owns the independent lines, $500,000 for machinery. Henry Blair and John M. Roche were named as receivers.

BOTH LEGS AMPUTATED

Man Either Fell or Jumped From Train

LYNN, May 23.—When Mrs. Jonathan Eldredge started to leave the train in Boston today she found that her husband, who had boarded the train with her at Lynn and had sat in a seat directly opposite his wife, was missing. After a search through the train and station had proved unsuccessful, she called the Lynn railroad station on the telephone and found that her husband had been picked up on the track a little distance from the station with both legs amputated. He was taken to the Lynn hospital, where he is not expected to live. Eldredge, a former department store owner of this city and lately in business on Summer street, Boston, had been acting queerly but it is not known whether he jumped or fell from the train. He is 56 years old.

POPULATION OF NEW BEDFORD

NEW BEDFORD, May 23.—Based on the assessors' returns which are complete for all but two of the city's 18 precincts, the population of New Bedford is 108,914. According to the last census figures, a special enumeration made in 1906, the population was 79,078, showing a gain in four years of 27,836.

BANKS INVOLVED

In Alleged Troubles of Big Grain Firm

ALBANY, N. Y., May 23.—Through the alleged manipulation of warehouse receipts the firm of Durant & Elmore, grain merchants, with offices in Albany, Chicago, Buffalo and Boston, has become involved in a financial tangle which promises sensational developments. The National Commercial bank of Albany holds the company's paper for $300,000. The First National bank has $77,200 and many thousands more are said to have been secured from out of town institutions.

According to a statement by Vice President James H. Perkins of the National Commercial bank, his bank is hopelessly involved. "We are informed," says Mr. Perkins, "that eight or nine banks hold the firm's paper besides grain commission brokers with whom the firm has dealt and a number of individuals."

The exact condition of the firm's affairs is not known, but an examination is under way. Gibson Oliver, treasurer of the company, had charge of the affairs of its Albany office according to members of the firm, but no statement from him as to the alleged shortage has been forthcoming.

Edwin Elmore, a member of the firm who was summoned from Chicago, is assisting in the examination.

The scheme by which the money is alleged to have been secured was a simple one. As soon as a carload of grain was shipped from Chicago for the local firm the manager received a warehouse receipt. This was in the regular course of business. Later on the warehouse receipts as to make possible the heavy loans from the banks upon the bills as security. The men whose duty is said to have been to take up the warehouse receipts when the grain was actually delivered by the railroad company, it is alleged, did not do so and hence the genuine bills were used over again.

President Mead of the First National bank said today that his bank holds $77,200 of the Durant & Elmore paper bearing the personal endorsement of Messrs. Durant, Elmore and Oliver and secured by collateral security for the loans. The company, he said, had been gradually withdrawing its business from the bank for some time past. Careful investigation led him to believe that the bank would be amply protected from any loss.

"I do not believe the banks will lose any money," said Mr. Mead. "They hold the railroads responsible. We look to the railroad officials to take the initiative."

NO AGENT IN BOSTON

BOSTON, May 23.—The grain firm of Durant & Elmore of Albany whose accounts are under examination, has no agent in this city, but other grain firms stated today that the Albany merchants had curtailed their business in this part of the country considerably during the past year.

FUNERAL NOTICES

WALSH—The funeral of Mrs. Jeanne Walsh will take place on Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock from her late home, 5 Watson street. Solemn high mass at the Sacred Heart church at 9 o'clock. Undertakers Higgins Bros. in charge.

ASHWORTH—Died, in this city, May 23, at 23 South Walker street, Mrs. Julia E. Ashworth, aged 53 years, 2 months. Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from 23 South Walker street. Friends invited. Undertaker Weinbeck, in charge.

FLYNN—The funeral of John F. Flynn will take place Tuesday morning from his late home, rear 103 Adams street, at 9 o'clock. High mass of requiem at St. Patrick's church at 9.15. Funeral arrangements in charge of Undertaker Peter H. Savage.

HEALEY—The funeral of Miss Catherine Healey will take place Tuesday morning at 8.30 from the home of her niece, Mrs. Mary Tierney, 3 Dewey avenue, off Coburn street. A funeral high mass will be celebrated in St. Michael's church at 9 o'clock. The funeral will be in charge of C. H. Molloy & Sons.

HICKSON—The funeral of the late Thomas Hickson will take place tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock from his home, No. 785 Broadway. At 9 o'clock a mass of requiem will be sung at St. Patrick's church. Undertakers J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

WINTON—Died in this city, May 21, Miss Susan E. Winton, aged 75 years. Funeral services will be held from the residence of her sister, Mrs. Anna M. Shepard, 10 Elliot street, on Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. Friends invited. The funeral arrangements are in charge of Undertakers J. B. Currier Co.

LIQUOR SEIZED

TETREAU WILL BE CALLED INTO COURT

Sergeant Alexander Duncan and Inspector William H. Grady of the liquor squad paid a visit to the home of Adolphus Tetreault at 9 Fulton place yesterday and seized six cases of beer. Tetreault will be summoned into court during the week to answer to a complaint charging him with illegally keeping liquor.

PRICE OF LUMBER

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The department of justice is investigating the subject of the price of the lumber in the United States with a view of determining whether or not the so-called lumber trust may be prosecuted under the Sherman anti-trust law on the ground that it is a combination in restraint of trade.

BOTH LEGS AMPUTATED

PLEADS NOT GUILTY

Lawrence Man is Charged With Conspiracy to Bribe

NEWBURYPORT, May 23.—"Not guilty," was the plea entered today by Samuel Kres, of Lawrence, when arraigned in the Essex county superior court here on four indictments with a total of 21 counts charging bribery and conspiracy to bribe. Kres' case is one of the many in connection with the alleged bribery of public officials of Lawrence, and in which connection May White of Lawrence is under indictment. Kres, who is a manufacturer of Lawrence, gave himself up to the police of this city last night.

AFTER WESTON'S RECORD

NEW YORK, May 23.—John Ennis, the Stamford, Conn., pedestrian, who aspires to break Weston's record of 105 days from New York to San Francisco, left the city hall at 10.15 this morning, armed with letters from Mayor Gaynor to the mayors of Chicago and San Francisco. Ennis will be 68 years old on June 4, about three years younger than Weston.

"I got stirred up by a reported statement from Mr. Weston that no one except a person born in America could do such a walk," said Mr. Ennis. "I've got a pair of good Irish legs and I think they'll turn out as good or better a stunt."

$25,000 ESTATE

Goes to a Man Was Thought to be Dead

WORCESTER, May 23.—Although he had not seen his sister, who supposed him dead, for 38 years, William Venna, a hostler of San Mateo, Cal., was able to prove himself the only heir of her $25,000 estate and today Judge William T. Forbes of the probate court New York, where he last saw her, allowed his claim. The sister was Mrs. Jennie S. Miller of Athol, who died on July 2, 1908, leaving no known heirs. She told her friends in Athol that as the court appointed a public administrator to take charge of the estate at for many years she supposed he was the time but recently Venna appeared and entered a claim to the property. Venna and his sister were born in Ireland and both came to this country before the Civil war. Venna was a hostler in Boston until the war when he enlisted and his sister later went to New York, where he last saw her in 1872. Venna removed to California and the sister married an Athol man. She told her friends in Athol that as the court appointed a public administrator to take charge of the estate at for many years she supposed he was the time but recently Venna appeared and entered a claim to the property.

MEN HAD NARROW ESCAPE

CRANSTON, R. I., May 23.—The hissing of steam probably saved the lives of three men who were in the engine room of the Charles Brickley Novelty Works in this city a few moments before the boiler exploded, wrecking that portion of the factory and entailing a loss estimated at $3000. One of the men heard the noise of the escaping steam and fearing that something was wrong related his fears to his companions who retreated from the building in time. No one was injured as the explosion occurred before the factory help had arrived.

GENERAL DRAPER'S ESTATE

HOPEDALE, May 23.—An estate of $63,587 was left by the late General William F. Draper of Hopedale who died at Washington last February. The inventory of the estate was filed in the probate court at Worcester today by the executors under the will, Oliver Lane, the secretary of the deceased, and Attorney W. K. Richardson of Nahant. The inventory shows personal property of the value of $6,334,087 and real estate $24,400.

COOK, TAYLOR & CO.

231-233 Central Street

Special Biggest Bargain in Towels Ever Offered . . .

6c Each

In Basement at Low Prices

Mosquito Netting For 5 Yard Piece, Any Color 55c	Light Outing Heavy Outing Drillings Prints Ginghams Crash Towels Curtain Muslin Table Padding Table Linens Napkins
Bed Spreads Sheetings Pillow Cases Sheets Tickings Brown Cotton Table Oil Cloth Light Percales

COOK, TAYLOR & CO.

231-233 Central Street

LATEST

KRESS SURRENDERS

Lawrence Man Charged With Conspiracy to Bribe

LAWRENCE, May 23.—Samuel Kress, who was one of the 12 against whom indictments were found by the grand jury in connection with the so-called municipal "graft" cases and was out of town when capias were served upon the other defendants last week, gave himself up to the police last evening and was released upon bail of $2500, furnished by his father, Herman Kress.

Word reached the police Saturday that Kress was in this vicinity and the conjecture was that he would appear in court at Newburyport today. However, yesterday afternoon word was received that he would come to the station, and he arrived about 6 o'clock. His father had preceded him and Clerk Moyes also being on hand there was no delay in the bail proceedings.

Kress is charged with conspiracy to bribe. It is alleged that he was involved with Mayor White, George B. Smart, ex-Aldermen Burns and Legendre, Ernest Dube and Thomas A. Kegan in an alleged conspiracy to effect the removal of James A. Hamilton as chief engineer of the fire department by offering a bribe to ex-Alderman Moss.

When the charge of ex-Alderman Legendre gained circulation that he had been offered a bribe of $1000 if he would absent himself from the meeting of the aldermen at which it was proposed to have Hamilton removed, Kress' name was connected with the report and he was a prominent witness at the grand jury session. He will appear before the superior court in Newburyport tomorrow.

MILL OFFICIALS CHURCH PEOPLE

Refuse to Take Back Want Officials to Prevent Bouts

FRANKLIN, N. H., May 23.—Although the strike of the International Brotherhood of Papermakers was formally declared off Saturday night when the striking union men attempted to return to work at the International Paper company's mill here today they were told that the mill officials here had received no instructions to take them back. The mill has been running in full for some time with the aid of a large crew of strike-breakers. When many of the strikers reported for work this morning, it was stated by the superintendent that he did not require them and would only employ them when needed.

ONE MAN KILLED AND ANOTHER WAS PROBABLY FATALY INJURED

PLAINFIELD, Conn., May 23.—Daniel Sullivan, aged 42, was killed at the New Haven railroad crossing yesterday and his father-in-law, Timothy Shea, aged 80, was probably fatally injured. They were driving across the track and were struck by the 7 o'clock train from Willimantic.

Mr. Sullivan was a member of the Plainfield board of education and chairman of the democratic town committee. He leaves a wife and three children in Moosup, where he resided. Mr. Shea is a Plainfield farmer and familiar with the crossing.

The accident cost a gloom over all the town. The crossing is a dangerous one, without signals.

THREE ASLEEP

Boys Were Found in a Freezer

NEW YORK, May 23.—Three sleepy youngsters received a longings from the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children Saturday night after being found asleep in an ice cream freezer at Coney Island. They accepted their fate stoically, after politely pointing out to Policeman Cozine of the Coney Island station that he had interrupted a dream in which they were for once eating all the ice cream they wanted. They gave their names as Charles, Frederick and Joseph Lahan, aged, respectively, 9, 13 and 12.

In the first place there was a $5 bill, which Charles obtained from his aunt, by telling her that his mother wanted to borrow it. This happened last Wednesday. It was then a toss-up as to whether the three should visit the Wild West show or Coney Island. Coney won, and before long they were rioting in an abundance of hot dog, ice cream, scenic railways and other diversions. They ate peanuts and popcorn and drank lemonade to such excess that the $5 had gone in two days.

After wandering about the streets penniless and hungry they found a large empty ice cream freezer in a dark corner, and into its welcoming mouth they crept on Friday night. Policeman Cozine did the rest. He heard gentle snores and presently his investigating hand encountered a couple of loused heads.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT

BOSTON, May 23.—The tennis courts of the Longwood Cricket club were lively with collegians today with the opening matches in the New England college championships and the postponed dual meet between Harvard and Princeton.

Drawings for the New England intercollegiate in doubles brought Trinity against Williams and Vermont opposed to Bowdoin while Amherst, Harvard and Dartmouth and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology have byes in the lower half of the draw.

In the singles, A. J. Young of Brown drew R. M. Nelson of Trinity as his opponent in the first round while T. D. Parker of Trinity met H. G. Davies of Bowdoin. Other first round matches were C. Bacon of Wesleyan and F. W. Covill of Technology and C. C. Carpenter of Trinity and C. L. Johnson of Amherst. It is expected that play will continue throughout the week.

The Harvard-Princeton matches which came over from Saturday on account of the rain were run off in the forenoon.

TERMS SERVED

But Prisoners Are Still Detained

ALFRED, Me., May 23.—Four prisoners at the York county jail here, whose terms have expired, are still barred from freedom by a quarantine put on the jail on account of the illness of Sheriff Charles O. Emery, who has a mild attack of diphtheria. Despite their anguished wails the four prisoners, whose time is up, must remain in confinement until the quarantine is lifted.

The young son of Sheriff Emery died on his 13th birthday a few weeks ago, and it is supposed that it was infection. The sheriff's case is said to be mild, and he was reported last night as making normal progress. Diphtheria became so prevalent in Alfred recently that the schools were closed. The quarantining of the jail has left York county without any place to confine prisoners who may be sentenced during the time the quarantine lasts. It is probable that the Cumberland county jail in Portland will have to be used.

SEEKS DIVORCE

MAN CHARGES HIS WIFE WITH CRUELTY

RENO, Nev., May 23.—Declaring that his wife, Margaret T. Boyden, continued harsh and tyrannical abuse toward him until he could endure it no longer, George I. Boyden, a business man of Attleboro, Mass., has filed a suit for divorce here in which he makes startling accusations against her.

He says that two years after their marriage in Foxboro his wife, who is, he says, of an extremely jealous disposition, accused him falsely of infidelity. He alleged that she abused him, striking him with her fists, flinging dishes at him and finally threatening to kill him.

They were married in February, 1905, and for fourteen years he says he stood her cruelty until on New Year's day, 1909, he was finally compelled to leave.

FELL 2000 FEET

Aeronaut Escaped With Broken Leg

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 23.—Five thousand persons saw Oscar Leroy of Percy, Okla., fall two thousand or more feet through the air yesterday at Ellwood, Pa., near here, and escape with his life, his only injury being a broken leg. Leroy, who is an aeronaut, attached to a circus, had made a balloon ascent and when he cut loose his parachute, the latter, soaked with the rain of the past 48 hours, refused to open until the aeronaut had almost reached the ground.

An hour later which the performance was in progress the grand stand section of seats collapsed, carrying down women and children. The tent, too, fell over the struggling people, but while many were thrown into hysterics, none sustained serious injury. The fire department and people of the community with canvasmen and other circus attaches rescued those buried beneath the water-soaked canvas.

KILLED HIMSELF

After His Bride Had Left Him

SYRACUSE, N. Y., May 23.—John May of Springfield, Mass., committed suicide yesterday morning at a rooming house in this city, where he and his wife had been living. The wife, Mrs. May, told Coroner George R. Kinney they came from Springfield three weeks ago, and she said it was a runaway marriage. Three days ago the couple quarreled and Mrs. May left her husband. She found employment as a waitress.

Jealousy caused the quarrel and it was because his wife left him that May drank carbolic acid some time during the night. He was found dead in his room yesterday morning. Mrs. May refuses to tell anything concerning her husband or herself. She is making arrangements for the funeral.

JUDGE HARRIS

Had His Yard Planted With Bombs

TIPTONVILLE, Tenn., May 23.—Feeling that his only hope of protection is in fighting his enemies with their own weapons, Judge Harris of Tiptonville has planted bombs about his home here, connected with an electric battery inside the house and which can be exploded by pressing one of many buttons in different parts of the house.

Judge Harris has also appealed to the federal authorities, asking for their assistance against his enemies. The enemies in question are the friends of the eight men convicted of the murder of Capt. Quentin Rankin, who was killed at his summer home at Reel Foot Lake by night riders two years ago. Judge Harris presided at the trial when the eight men were convicted of murder. Later the supreme court of Tennessee reversed his decision and committed them to jail.

Their friends have sent various notices to Judge Harris, warning him to take care and saying that they are going to kill him. He returned here from Memphis last evening and found that many outrages had been committed about his home during his short absence. The men who have warned him say that they have bombs which will blow him to eternity.

MAN WAS FINED

BECAUSE OF ARGUMENT WITH TICKET SELLER

NEW YORK, May 23.—Joseph M. Adams, a public accountant, went up to the ticket office of the Third avenue elevated at 42nd street Saturday night and asked for one ticket, offering a $20 bill.

"I can't change that," said the ticket agent.

"Hurry up! I want to get home. Give me change," ordered Adams.

He was again told it could not be changed. The time of purchasers was held up for 15 minutes while he argued with the ticket seller. A policeman was called and Adams was arrested.

"Why didn't you get away and get your bill changed somewhere else?" asked the magistrate.

"I didn't have to. I offered this bill, good legal tender, and he should have changed it according to law."

"But we will change it for you," said the magistrate. "Two dollars fine."

OLD RESIDENT

MRS. JOHANNAN WALSH PASSED AWAY TODAY

Mrs. Johannan Walsh, aged 69 and a resident of Lowell for 50 years, and a prominent member of the Sacred Heart parish since its establishment died today at her home, 5 Watson street. Her death had been expected for several days and she passed away thoroughly resigned and fortified with the last rites of the church of which she had been a faithful and devout attendant throughout her life. She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Michael Carey, and Misses Margaret, Catherine and Maria Walsh; three sons, Anthony, John and Michael Walsh.

AN EARTHQUAKE

AGRED, France, May 23.—An earthquake was felt here at dawn. The movement continued for two seconds.

INDIAN LANDED

PHILADELPHIA, May 23.—It took the immigration officers at the Philadelphia port several hours yesterday to decide whether John Gensh, a Polish-Indian of pure blood, should be admitted to the United States. They finally allowed him to land and now Gensh is on his way home.

The Indian arrived in port as a stow-away on the British steamer Eastport from London. He told the immigration officers that he started out to see the world from St. John, N. B., as a stow-away on a steamer. When he reached London he became stranded and to get back to the United States he hid himself in the coal bunkers of the Eastport.

ONE LIFE LOST

N. Y. Firemen Made Sensational Rescues From Burning Building

NEW YORK, May 23.—Sensational rescues by firemen prevented more than one death in a tenement fire on East 70th street today. As it was, Mrs. Mary Miller died in a fireman's arms from the effects of smoke inhalation after she had been dragged to the roof, while her husband, William Miller, clutching their 11 months old son, unconscious and suffering from burns, was rescued just in time by another fire fighter.

Meanwhile, numbers of tenants were being carried down ladders and dropped into lifelines. Fully forty persons were taken in this way from the burning structures where members of sixteen families had been trapped.

HE HAD FOUR ACES

Man in Police Court Today Was Charged With Gambling

There was a quiet little game of cards being held on the South common yesterday afternoon when Patrolman Daniel Cogger put in an appearance. He reached the group before any of the members were warned of his approach and though there was a general rush to get away he succeeded in grabbing Joseph Nuno. Joseph denied that he had anything to do with the game, but when taken to the police station and searched four aces were found in one of the pockets of his clothing. In court this morning he pleaded guilty to a complaint charging him with taking part in a game on the Lord's day and was fined $15.

Eight Women in Court

There were eight women who were brought before the court after the majority of the men prisoners had been arraigned. Four of the women were taken out of a house in Fenwick street yesterday afternoon by Patrolmen Gault and Cantley. Josephine St. Sauveur, Catherine E. Forbes and Mary Gagnon were each fined $5.

Sadie Reay was sentenced to Sherborn, appealed and was held under $200 for her appearance before the superior court.

Ellen Haddon, Catherine Barnes and Mary Ellen Gibbons were each fined $5.

Stole a Milk Bottle

Moses Houle, employed by J. Champagne, a milk dealer, was charged with the larceny of a milk bottle valued at five cents, the property of Theophile Clarendon, another milkman.

Patrolman Joseph Lamoureux testified that he had received numerous complaints of milk bottles being taken from the O'Mahavan block in Moosup street and this morning marked a bottle. A little later he saw Houle leaving the building and questioned him about bottles being taken from that building. A further investigation resulted in the finding of the marked bottle in Houle's possession.

Neglected His Wife

In the case of Philip Snider charged with non-support of his wife, Ida, the court after considering the evidence in the case placed the man on probation.

Sunday Drunks

Alexander Shierinski, Patrick Keenan, Thomas F. Monahan, Patrick Riley and Louis Stearns, Sunday drunks, were each fined $5.

Other Offenders

Frank J. Hersey, Charles Tessier, Henry Trepanier, Stephen R. Richard, George Stephenson and Henry Cranberry, charged with being drunk, were fined $5 each.

Assault and Battery

Thomas Goullas was charged with assault and battery on John V. Mahan, a special officer of the Tremont & Suffolk mills, but at the request of Major Noyes, corporation officer, the case went over until tomorrow morning.

Visitor From Bedford

Frank P. Clifford, who claimed Bedford, N. H., as his home, entered a plea of not guilty when asked to plead to a complaint of drunkenness. He said that he had not drunk a drop of liquor for a year. Patrolman Francis H. Alcott said that the man entered the police station about 4:30 o'clock Saturday night and asked for lodging and would have been refused a night's lodging but for the fact that he was staggering drunk. Clifford said that if he were given a chance he would go right back to the little burgh above Manchester and never come to Lowell again, and Judge Hadley decided to give the man the chance to make his "get away."

Direct Sentences

John J. Lenton, charged with drunkenness, was sentenced to three months in jail, and Thomas Keating was given a four months' sentence to the same place. Prior Lane's condition warranted his being sent away for a while and he will spend the next 20 days in jail.

Daniel Shea and John J. Linehan were each sentenced to the state farm.

GREAT EVENT

IN AID OF ST. MARY'S CHURCH OF COLLINSVILLE

At Associate hall on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings of this week a bazaar and festival will be held under the direction of the Rev. Thomas Walsh and a committee of his parishioners of St. Mary's church, Collinsville. The affair is the first of its kind held in this city for some time, and offering as it does an unusually large number of attractions, it is the confident expectation of its promoters that the bazaar will prove to be a great success. One of the principal features of the festival will be a dance which will be run on each evening. Kilduff's orchestra has been secured to furnish the music. Admission has been fixed at 25 cents, while season tickets for the three evenings of entertainment may be secured for 50 cents.

HIGH COST OF LIVING

State Commission Says Fires Are Partly Responsible

BOSTON, May 23.—The state commission on the cost of living, pursuing further afield its elusive cause of the prevailing high prices, has fastened on two new ones.

"The excessive waste from fire in the United States," or, locally applied, "the fire department cost in Boston of $25.10 per capita," is one.

The cost of maintaining the insurance companies, which the commission indicts for not paying back to the insured one-half of the money received in premiums, is the other.

The discussion of these causes forms the basis of supplementary report the commission issued yesterday.

The report points out that while Boston's fire department is maintained at a cost of $25.10 per capita, those in the seven largest cities of Europe are supported at an average cost of but 20 cents per capita.

Boston's annual fire loss is $3.33 per capita, as compared with the Massachusetts average of $2.60 per capita and the average of the United States of $2.23 per capita.

"In other words," the report sums up, "our fire loss varies from eight to ten times as great as in Europe. Boston has an average annual fire loss of about $2,600,000. Glasgow, with 140,000 more population than Boston, had in 1908 a fire loss of $325,000.

"The belief is not uncommon that the insurance companies pay the loss, if happily the loser is fully insured, which is a false idea.

"The loss from every fire comes back to the people, and they pay for it every cent in rent and taxes, and they food they buy and the clothes they wear."

The remedy the report proposes is wholly with the people themselves.

This is the strict enforcement of the building laws, education on the subject of fire prevention, and the performance of that operation by which politics may be removed from the fire department.

"Of the cost of maintaining the insurance companies, the report says: "If the total income of insurance companies is considered, the return to policy holders is less than one-half of their income. In March, 1909, the insurance committee of the Boston merchants association called the attention of the association to what was characterized as an 'unfair' increase of the insurance rates in the business district of Boston, and presented figures to substantiate their claim.

"From these figures it appeared that in the ten years prior to this report the premium income of the various companies doing business in Boston on Boston risks was $35,000,000, and that during this time there had been paid in fire losses to Boston risks $16,471,426, leaving $18,528,574 to the companies to be applied to expenses, surplus and dividends.

"The report for the whole number of fire insurance companies doing business in 1909, referred to previously, shows that losses take about half of the receipts.

"The explanation of the insurance companies that losses should be averaged over a long series of years, and that the exceptional losses like those of San Francisco, Baltimore and Chelsea in recent years must be considered, does not explain.

"The glaring disproportion between what the public pays, and what it receives in return, is unnecessary and burdensome."

COMMON COUNCIL

Will Try to Elect Principal Assessor Tomorrow Night

The board of aldermen will meet in special session and the common council in regular session tomorrow night and during the evening a joint convention will be held on the petition for a hearing on the proposed purchase of the Livingston park land in the Highlands. The petitioners for the purchase of the land are members of the Highland Improvement association and the park board is strongly in favor of the city purchasing it. The price asked for the land is $10,000, which is less than it is assessed for.

City Solicitor Engaged on Several Opinions—Committee on Appropriations to Meet Tonight—Order for $600 for Medical Inspection in Private Schools Signed

Sixth street station, to take the place of the Morris pump. The board petitioned the committee on appropriations for its approval and the latter recommended the loan order to the city council, but the board of aldermen recommended the matter to the committee on appropriations for further information and it is expected that the committee at tonight's meeting will look into the matter more thoroughly and give the board of aldermen the required information.

Greenleaf Qualifies

Roy W. Greenleaf, who was recently appointed smoke inspector, qualified this morning.

Loan Order Signed

Mayor Meehan this morning signed the joint loan order, providing for $600 for medical inspection in private schools.

Fireworks for Fourth

The Boston agent of the Paine Fireworks Co. has written the clerk of committees relative to a display of fireworks for the Fourth of July. At the present time there is an order providing for the expenditure of $1500 for the observance of the Fourth lying on the table and there does not seem to be much indication of it being taken off and acted upon.

FORGERS' GANG

Was Rounded up by the Pinkerton Men

NEW YORK, May 23.—Pinkerton detectives yesterday rounded up all that was left of the "Rough Ocean" gang of forgers who have operated, it is said, all over the United States during the past half-dozen years, getting many thousands of dollars in small amounts from not over-cautious banks by a simple method of raising checks stolen from mail boxes.

The gang gets its name from its leader, William Ford, who was nicknamed "Rough Ocean." After his conviction many of the gang went into other kinds of work, but a new leader arose in the persons of William Holland, alias William Gordon, alias "Boss" Gordon, alias Joseph E. Hott, and the two, according to the Pinkertons and the police, into the "worked" banks in New York, Chicago, Syracuse, Boston, Providence, New Haven and Philadelphia, to the extent of $10,000 during the past four months.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

By virtue of its unequalled blood-purifying, nerve-strengthening, stomach-toning, appetite-restoring properties, is the one Great Spring Medicine.

Get it today in liquid form or in tablets known as Sarsaballs. 100 doses $1.

CAPTAIN SCOTT IS ABOUT READY TO START IN SEARCH OF THE SOUTH POLE

LIVES IN PERIL

Women Flee From Fire in Brockton

BROCKTON, May 23.—Fire of mysterious origin, discovered in the attic of a tenement house at 63 East Elm street, near police headquarters, imperiled the lives of four women late yesterday afternoon. The firemen confined the flames to a bedroom occupied by James R. McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Randall McDonald.

McDonald, when questioned by the assistant fire chief, Wm. F. Daley, declared that the fire "caught from a lighted cigarette." Miss Gertrude Krickstein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Krickstein, who occupies a room in the house, told the firemen and police that she saw three different fires in an upper bedroom before the flying squadrons were summoned.

Other women who fled from the house when the fire broke out were Miss Ina H. Boyer, a demonstrator, Mrs. Krickstein and Mrs. McDonald. The stairs were choked with smoke when two of the women, who had been asleep, were awakened and succeeded in making their escape to the street. A quantity of furniture was destroyed in the attic, but the damage was not large.

STAR THEATRE

An all new program consisting of talking pictures, motion pictures and illustrated songs, was presented at the Star theatre this afternoon. Large audiences, in which women and children were well represented, witnessed both shows. The illustrated songs are always the latest. A good seat is included with the admission of five cents.

LONDON, May 23.—Captain Scott's expedition is about ready to sail for the south pole. The work of loading the Terra Nova has been completed, and the staunch vessel is only waiting for some new instruments before starting on the long voyage. Lieutenant Campbell, first mate of the Terra Nova, has been in charge of loading the ship.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

Today at the Academy there will be an entire change of vaudeville, pictures and songs. Heading the vaudeville will be the American cowboy four, considered one of the best quartets in vaudeville, and Winifred Green, a dainty singing comedienne.

The latest and best pictures are always to be seen at the Academy and a fine biograph feature picture is always shown. Miss Claudia Bessette will sing the latest illustrated songs and views of the different countries will be shown. Amateurs every Wednesday night.

FATALLY SHOT

Three Boys Were "Playing Suicide"

PITTSBURGH, May 23.—John Klein, 11 years old, was fatally shot yesterday and John Allen, aged 17, who admits having shot his companion, and another boy who witnessed the shooting, declare that the three were "playing suicide." Allen placed the revolver at Klein's head, instructing him how to commit suicide and the weapon was accidentally discharged. The bullet passed through Klein's head and he died soon after being carried by his mother to their home nearby.

103 YEARS OLD

Mrs. Burnham Passed Away at Essex

ESSEX, May 23.—Mrs. Zachariah Burnham, aged 103 years, 4 months and 15 days, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sarah A. Lufkin, yesterday. Mrs. Burnham was the oldest resident of this section and one of the oldest women in the state.

Mrs. Burnham up to a very short time before her death enjoyed exceptional health for one so aged, and took great pleasure in the reunions of her family, which were always held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lufkin, with whom Mrs. Burnham made her home for the past 77 years.

RAILROAD CASES

Decision Rendered by the Interstate Commissioners

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Regulation of railroad freight rates ordinarily is a complicated question, involving intricate matters of law, but it becomes even a more serious problem when two regulating authorities clash, on a proposition of the reasonableness of rates. Thoughtful observers of freight rate legislation have anticipated that, sooner or later, a conflict of authority would arise between the interstate commerce commission and one or more of the state railroad commissions concerning the fixing of rates.

Precisely such a conflict has developed over an insignificant case that recently was brought before the interstate commerce commission. It was that of E. E. Saunders & Co. of Pensacola, Fla., against the Southern Express company. The complainants are fish dealers and shippers at Pensacola. In the ordinary course of their business, they operate largely in the state of Alabama, shipping fish in quantities from Pensacola to points of destination in that state by express.

The Southern Express company refused to make the same rates from Pensacola to points in Alabama as it was required to make from Mobile, its refusal resulting in a complaint filed against it with the interstate commerce commission.

The commission's opinion in the case was handed down today. It was prepared by Commissioner Harlan and is the unanimous judgment of the commission. It indicates clearly the lines of conflict between the national commission and the various state commissions, in the regulation of freight and express rates; and, in that sense, is one of the most important decisions rendered by the commission for many months. The case directly involved may be considered, however, as a question, comparatively, the principle enunciated by the commission is of country wide application, as it opens, at once, the question whether the national, or the state, regulating authority is to be paramount in the fixing of rates.

"The commission states its position in these terms: 'Upon general principles of comity the action of a state commission in fixing rates on state traffic must be treated with all due respect, but this commission has never felt itself bound to accept a state-made rate as a necessary measure of an interstate rate. Without criticizing state commission rates from Mobile, this commission, in the light of the record and its own investigations, finds itself unable to accept the Alabama rates as a fair and reasonable basis for fixing defendants' rates to the same points from Pensacola.'

The situation and the testimony are discussed thoroughly in the opinion. In announcing that it would not close the record in the case until the defendant had made further efforts to contest the order of the Alabama commission, the interstate commerce commission says: 'The carriage of traffic by a common carrier for one community or one set of shippers at less than it carries the same traffic for a like distance, and under substantially similar transportation conditions, for another community or another set of shippers is not only in contravention of fundamental right and justice but is essentially injurious. If such a discrimination is practiced by a common carrier as between communities or between different sets of shippers, within the same state and on traffic moving only within the state, redress may usually be had under the state laws. On the other hand, if an interstate carrier is guilty of such a discrimination with respect to interstate traffic, redress may be had under the act to regulate commerce.

"But when a carrier, as, in this case, serves two communities similarly situated, by hauling the same traffic under similar conditions from a point of origin to destinations in the same state and also to the same destinations from an interstate point of origin, it is not altogether clear that existing legislation affords redress against a discrimination, as between the two points, when resulting from an order by the state commission. But unless some such power is lodged somewhere under appropriate legislation, it is evident that state-made rates, if established in pursuance of rates, if established in pursuance of narrow or selfish local policy, may not only hinder and harm, and burden interstate traffic and interstate interests, but may, if adjusted with that end in view, take from a point in another state a business that naturally belongs to that point or in which it is entitled at least to participate, on the basis of equal rates and equal opportunity.

"Whatever may be the explanation, whether it rests in the greater zeal, activity, and ability of the Alabama legislature at Pensacola or whether it is a natural advantage belonging to that point, the fact appears that for years Pensacola has enjoyed a larger business in the distribution of fish throughout the state of Alabama than has Mobile. By a readjustment of the state rates out of Mobile, whether so intended or not, the process of taking from Pensacola, through lower state-made transportation charges, what its superior zeal or its greater natural advantages have given to it has commenced and is now going on.

"On principle it is clear that a carrier operating through two or more states is but one vehicle of commerce, and all traffic moved by it, whether state or interstate, ought, when the general transportation conditions are the same, to bear its just proportion of the cost of operation and ought to yield no more and no less than its just proportion of the revenues of the carrier.

"Any other theory is fundamentally inequitable, illogical, and unreasonable. It may be, but on that point we express no opinion, that the congress may constitutionally protect interstate commerce, as well as the carriers that are engaged in interstate transportation, by requiring that any state traffic moved by such a carrier shall bear its just proportion of the cost of operation and yield its proper proportion of profit to the carrier; and that with such an end in view it may authorize this commission to fix minimum rates, at least for state traffic in interstate commerce, which, when moved by carriers engaged also in interstate transportation, shall be such as may provide that passengers properly may at the same time carry state traffic at rates that are less than the rates exacted by it for interstate carriage of the like distance and under like transportation conditions. It has, however, not attempted any such legislation, and whether such an enactment would stand the test of scrutiny by the courts under the constitution as it now stands, and if so, whether it would be desirable from the standpoint of a broad public policy, are questions that must ultimately be determined by the legislative power and therefore cannot properly be discussed by the commission in this proceeding."

MAN WAS KILLED

As Result of Companion's Joke

NEW YORK, May 23.—Arthur Devraus of Manhattan was killed Saturday night by a needle used in sewing up flour bags, which was suspended by a cord around his neck. The accident occurred in the freight yards at Westchester.

Devraus and Nicholas Dileher were sewing up large flour bags, which had been broken in the course of handling in the transmission of freight. Dileher was having fun with Devraus and, as the latter stooped to pick up a bag, Dileher playfully thrust him in the ribs.

Devraus straightened up suddenly and in some manner as he came in contact with Dileher, the three-inch packing needle was forced against his body and penetrated through to his heart, the man falling dead instantly.

EMPIRE THEATRE

A new show is given at the Empire today. The two vaudeville numbers are new and clever. Carl Stutzer, the black-faced comedian, presents his comedy sketch in line style and is sure to please. Rahn & Lewis also make up a good team showing a fine travesty entertainment.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

Commencing this afternoon and for the first three days of the current week, another of the excellent vaudeville and motion picture programs that are being given at this theatre will be shown. The vaudeville part of the program will include Grace LaVillie and company in the singy and dancing novelty sketch entitled "The Electric Doll," in which Miss LaVillie, who is an operatic soprano of wonderful voice, will be seen as the doll. Miss LaVillie sings high, with voice and is said to have a voice whose notes are as sweet and pure as those of a bird. A member of Miss LaVillie's company is the well known Lowell comedian, James A. Callahan. Others on the bill are Germain and Langley, sensational

The Bon Marche

Monday Evening Sale

FROM 6 TO 9.30 O'CLOCK ONLY

MEN'S HANDKERCHIEFS (Near Door) Full size, hemmed catbrock handkerchiefs, tape border, red and blue lines. Regularly 50c each.	MONDAY EVENING 2 For 5c
SHIRT WAISTS (Waist Dept.) A sheer muslin waist with colored cross bars of blue, black or lavender, side ruffle, button front, sizes 34 to 44. Regularly 98c.	MONDAY EVENING 49c
CHILDREN'S HOSE (Street Floor) The Athletic brand stocking, a good sturdy serviceable stocking for boys and girls, sizes 6 to 9; fast black, narrow rib. Regularly 15c.	MONDAY EVENING 10c pr.
TOOTH POWDER (Toilet Goods Dept.) Dr. Lyons' Tooth Powder, in glass bottles, sprinkler tops, a standard preparation, always sold at 25c.	MONDAY EVENING 14c
BAREFOOT SANDALS Children's Sandals, sewed soles, leather counters, all sizes 5 to 11. Regularly 49c and 59c.	MONDAY EVENING 39c
MESSALINE SILK All pure silk, light and dark colors, in lengths of one to four yards. Regularly selling at 49c and 59c.	MONDAY EVENING 29c
CHATELAINE BAGS (Near Elevator) A variety of Chatelaine Bags in black, brown and gray leather. Regular prices are 25c, 50c and $1.00. Your choice on	MONDAY EVENING 10c
COLLAR PINS (Jewelry Dept.) Many patterns, in gilt only. Regularly 10c pair.	MONDAY EVENING 3c Pr.
LINEN CRASH APRONS (Art Dept.) Stamped patterns for embroidery on natural linen, two patterns, all made up, needing only the embroidery to finish. Regularly 25c.	MONDAY EVENING 15c
WRAPPERS AND KIMONAS (Second Floor) Long Challie Kimonas, floral patterns, faced with band of solid color in contrasting shades, also Percale Wrappers in indigo blue, endel and silver gray, full skirt, shirt waist style, sizes to 46. Both regularly $1.00 and $1.25.	MONDAY EVENING 79c
WHITE AND COLORED MUSLINS (Basement) Small lot of Silk Muslins, in plain and fancy weaves also fancy muslins in embroidered dots, stripes and checks. Regularly 25c to 50c.	MONDAY EVENING 15c
MEN'S HOSE (Men's Furnishing) Black and tan hose, our well known Bon Marche's Special—fast color, high spliced heel and toe, absolutely perfect in every way. Regularly 12 1-2c.	MONDAY EVENING 7c

KITCHEN FURNISHINGS.

There never was such a grand chance to buy first quality glassware and enamelware at such low prices as you are having in this week's sale in the Basement.

See our Big Window for samples and prices. It's a snap. Real live bargains in everyday articles.

serialists; Mora & Richards, clever singers and dancers; Helen Hampton, pleasing vocalist, and a series of the latest and best of motion pictures. Matinees are given every day from 2 to 5 and two full shows at night, starting at 7 and 8.30. Tuesday night will be amateur night and the usual list of amateurs has been booked. Prices at the Opera House are five and ten cents.

THEATRE VOYONS

Recently the Edison company sent a company of its best actors to Cuba

BUSINESS ESTABLISHED 1828

WM. E. LIVINGSTON CO.

A Good Ton of Good

COAL

At Lowest Price

15 THORNDIKE ST.

The Bon Marche

DRY GOODS CO.

NEW BUYER'S INTRODUCTORY SALE OF

Kitchen Furnishings

Our new buyer in again calling attention to his Introductory Sale of Kitchen Furnishings wishes to state that after Saturday's extraordinary selling all the different lots as advertised have been replenished and the same remarkable and attractive values in Enamel Ware, Tinware and Glassware will be found on the counters today and all through the week. We are making this an occasion of great saving, which thrifty housewives will certainly appreciate.

Particular Attention Is Called to the Counter of 25c Enameled Ware for . . .

Today and This Evening

EVERY PIECE GUARANTEED PERFECT

Take Note of The Large Sizes

25c

Notice The Large Variety of Articles

EVERY PIECE IS FIRST QUALITY PRIME ENAMEL WARE

We do not hesitate to say that these are values that cannot be duplicated anywhere at anything near this price.

OTHER LOTS, EQUALLY AS GOOD VALUES, AT 39c AND 49c.

SEE WINDOW

STAR Theatre

TALKING PICTURES, MOTION PICTURES AND SONGS

Admission 5c. Seats Free

BULL TERRIER lost, stub tail, all brown, white spot on head. Reward at 25 Bartlett st.

EZRA E. MANSUR, Auctioneer Room 24, Chaffin Building

PUBLIC AUCTION

By order from the bankruptcy court, will be sold at public auction at the office of Ezra E. Mansur, Room 24, No. 22 Central street, Lowell, Mass., on Tuesday, May 31, 1910, at 2 o'clock P. M., the books of accounts of the bankrupt estate of W. A. Stearns of Billerica, Mass.

CHARLES T. ROWLAND, Trustee, Lowell, Mass., May 23, 1910.

MR. MAN

That buys the coal, did it ever occur to you that to be a successful coal man, in the full sense of the word, you must have practical experience? Let us understand one another. The money that started me in the coal business I earned myself screening, shoveling and learning coal right here in your own city. Today my coal yard and facilities for handling coal are second to none in this city. I know what coal is, and what coal is not; I know what to buy, and what not to buy; that means my customers do not have to suffer for my mistakes. I do not tell my men, go and do it, I say, come and do it; that means you hire your own foreman in place of the coal dealer hiring him for you. When you are about to place your coal orders, think this matter over.

Mail and telephone orders will receive immediate attention.

JOHN P. QUINN
Office and Yard, Gorham and Dix Sts.
Take any Gorham street car; telephone 1180 and 2480. When one is busy, call the other.

THE LOWELL SUN

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Proprietor.

SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.

Member of the Associated Press

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1909 was 16,828

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilote, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1910. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

The tone of the auto "bonk" is the bone of contention between the Massachusetts senate and house. There is opposition to the horns known as the "siren" and the "elephant cough."

GIFT TO THE CITY.

No citizen can have a better monument than a liberal gift to the city whether in the shape of a public park, a public hall or a system of public baths. Lowell has not been so favored with such gifts as some other cities. There is a splendid opportunity for patriotic citizens to leave a monument that will remain as proof of their benevolence to future ages.

A LESSON IN SMUGGLING

The lesson which Ex-Governor Rollins of New Hampshire has learned will probably prevent others from attempting anything of the kind. The sum of $2000 in a fine and $1500 additional in duties, will probably take all the profit out of the purchases abroad, said to amount in all to $4736.14, only $800 of which was acknowledged to the customs inspector. It is strange that the ex-governor would attempt anything of the kind.

HAVERHILL GETS CHEAPER GAS

After a fight of eleven years the city of Haverhill has succeeded in getting better terms from the gas company of that city. The company has conditionally agreed to give 80 cent gas in the near future. Companies in other places have long ago given 80 cent gas without any "ifs" or "buts" of any kind.

THE AUTOS ARE HERE TO STAY

Automobiles are becoming so very numerous that greater precautions against accidents are necessary. The autoists should be more careful in passing through the public streets and they probably will be so for some time, on account of the recent enforcement of the law by the police. It is equally incumbent upon the drivers of other vehicles also to exercise greater care to avoid collisions. The auto craze is on; the people are bound to have autos and the new conditions must be met without a murmur.

THE HOMESTEAD BILL

The house of representatives is apparently determined to push the Homestead bill, the object of which is to purchase land in the vicinity of cities and build houses thereon to be sold on easy terms to people from the congested districts.

A movement of this kind has great possibilities for good if properly conducted. It will help to utilize some of the vacant land, to enable more of the people to own their houses and to relieve congestion. Each and all of these aims are calculated to do good, to give the purchasers of the houses an incentive to work and to make them better citizens. It will show a good many people how to help themselves and cannot fail to benefit the cities in which the new buildings are located. It is to be hoped the senate will not kill the measure as it is accustomed to do with many bills calculated to benefit the people.

THE SOUTHBRIDGE BANK CASE.

Treasurer Hall of the Southbridge bank has been sentenced to from twelve to fifteen years in prison for embezzling hundreds of thousands of dollars from the bank funds.

There has been no punishment meted out to the negligent trustees, to the kindly bank inspectors who took so much for granted in regard to this bank and the supposed honesty of the treasurer. Bank Commissioner Chapin, no doubt, assumes that the ends of justice have been met by the conviction of Treasurer Hall; but this does not restore to the depositors the money stolen and for which the system directed by Mr. Chapin is directly responsible. Had the inspectors done their duty on their visits to the bank, had they shown even average ability, they would have detected the fraud soon after its beginning. Commissioner Chapin, apparently with a view to exonerating himself, has suggested a lot of new remedies, some of them quite expensive to the banks. Had he used the forces placed at his command with tact and discretion no officer of the bank could have successfully carried on systematic robbery for a number of years. Until the punishment for crimes of this kind reach men higher up there will not be real security for the depositors in savings banks.

ABOLISH THE SUPPLY DEPARTMENT

It is a common complaint from city departments that the purchasing department pays more than is necessary for supplies purchased, and in order to put a stop to such objections, the opinion of the city solicitor is sought in order to ascertain what can be done about it. The answer is in effect "nothing." The departments have no right to kick. Neither the water board nor the charity board has any right to object if supplies be purchased at a price far above what the departments would have to pay for them.

This is a nice state of affairs. The city solicitor is called upon apparently to show that it is entirely legal to buy supplies at an excessive price. Yet it is neither new nor strange. Anybody conversant with the workings of the supply department can easily see that economy is a stranger there. The department was established to reduce expenses, to prevent grafting in the purchase of supplies and to buy everything needed at the lowest market prices. Several departments have protested at the high prices paid, but it is of no use; they must accept the goods and the city must pay. Thus a city department like the water board is compelled to pay two prices for any consignment of goods if the purchasing agent says it is all right. That may be low but it is certainly not justice either to the departments or the taxpayers. As the department has been run for some time past, it is a source of expense and extravagance rather than of saving and economy.

SEEN AND HEARD

The open-work season will soon be extended from porous plasters to shift-waists.

Always make sure that there isn't a hole in the toe of your stocking. Madam, when you go down to the cobbler's to get your shoes stretched while you wait.

In ordinary times it is hard enough for the average man to make both ends meet. At the present cost of living, it is hard enough for him to make one end vegetable.

In another month or two most of us will be earning our bread by the sweat of our brows, no matter how cold we were last winter.

The reason some men work so hard that they can't get home to dinner is that they talk so much in business hours.

A great many people who know perfectly well that it is wrong to gamble are inconsistent enough to plant congressional garden seeds.

People who have bad dispositions, are sure to do great injustice to the weather.

A SILENT CALL

"Oh, do not wait till in the earth I lie Before thou givest me my rightful meed; Oh, do not now in coldness pass me by, And then cry praises which I cannot heed."

If I have helped thee on thy weary way,

Or lightened in the least thy burden's weary weight,

Haste with love's token, ere another day Shall pierce thee with the fatal words, "Too late!"

The present moment is thy time to live; The past is gone, the future may not be.

If thou hast treasure of thy heart to give

To hungry souls, bestow it speedily; For sweeter love's sake let not tomorrow's sun Tempt thee to wait before thou see it die.

Probably it is true that most of the things we worry about never come to pass, as the optimistic philosophers

NOTICE!

There will be a meeting of Div. 1, A. O. U. E., tonight, to take action on the death of our late brother John P. Flynn. Per order.

MICHAEL McMULLEN, Pres. JAMES SHEEHAN, Fin. Sec'y.

Perfect Time All Your Life For $30

Every one wants perfect time nowadays. You can't expect it from the ordinary watch costing a few dollars.

We are offering a watch that will give perfect time at a price within your reach. If you don't want a fancy case you can sell you a good silver watch case fitted with a Hamilton railroad grade 21 jeweled movement for $30, or in a neat plain 20-year filled case for $35. These watches are carried on every railroad in the country and must run with a variation not to exceed 15 seconds a month, and most of them run much closer.

Call and see these great watches and let us explain them fully to you.

"The Home of Quality."

Frank Ricard

636-638 MERRIMACK ST.

WHY WRITE TO BOSTON For Catalogues of Eddy Refrigerators

Don't You Know That

A. E. O'HEIR & CO. MERRIMACK SQUARE

are the local agents for the Eddy, and you can get catalogue and see the refrigerators there?

COAL

Bright, Clear and Clean

COAL

COAL

HORNE COAL CO.

keep telling us, but enough of them do to keep us in a pickle.

The girl of twenty-seven almost invariably begins to wonder how the girl of thirty-seven feels.

The man who takes pride in being an expert at carving is foolish to boast of it when he sits down to a nicely-roasted turkey with thirteen at the table.

It is not judicious for a woman to blame her husband for being short-sighted, for fear that he may work a little repartee on her at being that when he got married.

There appeared in this column a day or two ago the story of a complaint that had to do with babies and roosters. The man responsible for the story said there was a baby in his house and that a neighbor complained because the baby cried as early as three o'clock in the morning.

The man with the baby said that the baby would postpone its vocal efforts but for the fact that they were inspired at an early hour by the crowing of the complainant's roosters. Now, the man with roosters has been heard from.

This is what he says: "In referring to the item in the Seen and Heard column of The Sun the complainant says that the yells of one baby would not be so bad, but when the twins start a duet at 2 o'clock (not 3 o'clock) the only relief is the baritone voice of the father singing 'Hiddle-diddle, the cat and the fiddle, the cow jumper over the moon, etc., and it so disturbs the old rooster that he starts scolding.'"

THE WORLD GOES ON

We can do but a part of the work to be done.

We can cheer but a few of the souls that are sad.

We can win but a few of the fights to be won.

And make but a few of the troubled hearts glad.

We may toil as we will, by night and by day.

We may study and delve into science and art.

But when the end comes and friends lay us away.

Another will follow and take up our part.

We can learn but a few of the things to be learned.

And solve but a few of the problems of earth;

And the world will go on when the roadway we've turned.

As it did in the days before we came to our birth.

We can make ourselves great, but not greater than all.

And be of some service to our fellowmen.

But the moment Death carries us out through the hall

The world moves along just as bravely again.

What we have done one who follows can do.

The place we are filling another can fill.

Death cuts off the man and takes him out of view.

But the work he was doing is carried on still.

And so as we journey along and press on,

Performing the tasks that are ours, day by day.

Let none of us think that when he shall have died

The world will suffer. That isn't God's way.

—Edgar A. Guest.

Detroit Free Press.

MEDICAL BOARD

SAYS COLORED UNDERCLOTHING ADDS TO BURDEN OF HEAT

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Fantastic theories regarding the use of colored underclothing to repel the heat in the tropics have been dispelled by a report made by the army board for the study of tropical diseases in the Philippines. About 18 months ago five thousand suits of orange red underclothes and a corresponding number of orange red hats were sent to the Philippines. These were distributed so that one-half of the men should be clad in the ordinary white underclothes. The army surgeons kept close watch upon the men, but they failed to find that the colored underclothes brought any relief from the tropical heat. Although British army officers in India reported that such clothing was much more comfortable in hot weather than white.

The medical board found that the colored underclothing, which by its color, was supposed to materially relieve the burden of heat upon the system, which is a great cause of tropical deterioration. It is admitted that the orange red is a protective against the chemical rays of the sun, but the same result is obtained by the khaki uniform and the tan-colored campaign hat of the American soldier.

The experiments were conducted with the greatest care, frequent records being made of blood pressure, of loss of weight and of general condition. The results were the same in the case of either the white American or brown Filipino.

60,000 PILGRIMS

ATTENDED SERVICE AT WHICH CROWN WAS CONSECRATED

WARSAW, May 23.—Sixty thousand pilgrims from Russian and Austrian Poland attended the services yesterday in connection with the consecration of the jeweled crown presented to the Pauline Fathers by the pope, to replace the crown which was stolen from the chapel of the Pauline convent on Oct. 22 last. Special trains brought pilgrims from Warsaw and various other points, but the majority of the pilgrims came on foot. The day was observed as a general holiday throughout Poland.

FIVE CHAMPIONS

Defeated at Vendome

Club Games

NEW YORK, May 23.—Five athletic champions went down to defeat yesterday in the games of the Vendome Athletic club at Newark, N. J. Robert Edgren of the New York A. C. hurled the discus 2 inches farther than the best Martin Sheppard finished fourth in a 300 yard handicap, and Harry Gishling, his rival, fifth.

John Flanagan hurled the hammer more than 160 feet, but was beaten by Simon Gibbs of the New York A. C. Jack Eller was third in the hurdles.

IMPORTED COTTON

THE COUNTRIES WHERE IT ORIGINATES

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The cotton manufacturers of the United States are drawing upon every part of the world for raw material for use in their domestic industries. Notwithstanding the fact that the United States produces three-fourths of the world's cotton, her manufacturers have drawn raw cotton from every grand division and nearly a score of countries and islands during the current fiscal year. Asia, Africa and the islands of the Pacific; South America, North America, and the islands of the Caribbean have contributed from their cotton fields, while Europe has forwarded further contributions imported from various parts of the world and re-exported thence to the United States. India, Java, China, Ecuador, Peru, Brazil, Venezuela, Panama, Mexico, British West Africa, British East Africa, Egypt, Porto Rico, Haiti, Santo Domingo, and the British West Indies have contributed from the product of their own cotton fields in greater or less quantities, while England, Germany and Canada have sent large quantities drawn to their own markets from Africa and South America and thence re-shipped to the United States.

Of the 42 million pounds of cotton of foreign production imported into the United States in the first four months of the current year, 30 million, or about three-fourths, came from Egypt, 5 million from India, 2 million from China, 2 million from Peru, and 342,548 pounds from Haiti; while smaller quantities were imported from other countries thus: Mexico, 73,330 lbs.; Ecuador, 72,495 lbs.; the Dutch East Indies, 25,447 pounds; the British West Indies, 14,147 pounds; Venezuela, 6,650 pounds; Brazil, 533 pounds; Panama, 233 pounds; and Santo Domingo, 615 pounds. In addition to this, 14,501 pounds of sea island cotton was brought into the country from Porto Rico, where the growing of sea island cotton is a recently established industry. When these countries in fact produced the foreign grown cotton imported during the period named, other countries appear as sources of supply in the monthly statements received by the bureau of statistics of the department of commerce. Thus, of the 20,238,426 pounds of cotton imported in the first four months of 1910 amounted to 2,153,190 pounds, of which 19,565 pounds came via England and 11,457 pounds via Germany. Brazil's 5584 pounds all went first to England whence it was re-shipped to the United States. All the cotton entering the country from Mexico, the British West Indies, Venezuela, Panama, Ecuador and the Dutch East Indies entered the United States direct from the countries named.

The cotton imported into the United States from the various countries differs greatly in quality and price. The industrial workers are killed every year that originates in Egypt was valued at 30c per pound; Peru, 18c; Haiti, 17c; Ecuador, 14c; the Dutch East Indies and China, each about 12c and India 9c. The higher value of the Egyptian cotton is due to the fact that it is of unusually long and fine staple, making it especially useful in the manufacture of cotton and silk mixed goods, as well as cotton goods of a superior grade. The cotton entering the country from Porto Rico is of the grade known as sea island and the price of that brought into the United States since January 1, 1910, has averaged 30c per pound, compared with 25c per pound for the sea island cotton exported from the United States during the current year.

The higher value of the Egyptian cotton is due to the fact that it is of unusually long and fine staple, making it especially useful in the manufacture of cotton and silk mixed goods, as well as cotton goods of a superior grade. The cotton entering the country from Porto Rico is of the grade known as sea island and the price of that brought into the United States since January 1, 1910, has averaged 30c per pound, compared with 25c per pound for the sea island cotton exported from the United States during the current year.

The higher value of the Egyptian cotton is due to the fact that it is of unusually long and fine staple, making it especially useful in the manufacture of cotton and silk mixed goods, as well as cotton goods of a superior grade. The cotton entering the country from Porto Rico is of the grade known as sea island and the price of that brought into the United States since January 1, 1910, has averaged 30c per pound, compared with 25c per pound for the sea island cotton exported from the United States during the current year.

The higher value of the Egyptian cotton is due to the fact that it is of unusually long and fine staple, making it especially useful in the manufacture of cotton and silk mixed goods, as well as cotton goods of a superior grade. The cotton entering the country from Porto Rico is of the grade known as sea island and the price of that brought into the United States since January 1, 1910, has averaged 30c per pound, compared with 25c per pound for the sea island cotton exported from the United States during the current year.

"THINK OF WORMS FIRST"

This is sound advice, when children are sick. Three-fourths of childhood sickness comes from worms in stomach or bowels.

Fessenden's Worm Expeller

Is the medicine to give children who seem to be troubled with worms. The price is only 25c. Would you deny your little one the sunshine of health, for so small a sum?

SAVE TIME AND MUSCLE

Goodale's Wash Clean

Will do it. We have customers who have used it for years and say it does a better job and costs less than 90 per cent of the labor on wash day.

GOODALE'S DRUG STORE, 217 CENTRAL STREET

PUTNAM & SON CO.

166 CENTRAL STREET

Ready Today

A Full Supply of

Grass Hats

For Women

19c

TWO LIVES LOST

Bopp Tried to Rescue

Drowning Man

LAKEVILLE, May 23.—Locked in the friendly hold of John J. Gallagher, a Boston telegrapher, whom he had carried to the surface, Adam Bopp, a Middleboro shoemaker, was drowned with Gallagher in his work of rescue yesterday when he was unable to free himself from the "death grasp" of the man he tried to save. The double drowning occurred off Staples shore on Lake Assawampset. The use of dynamite was necessary to recover the bodies.

Gallagher, who was slightly crippled and whose home was on Carson street, Dorchester, came to Lakeville yesterday for an outing. He went out in a row boat yesterday afternoon, intending to be picked up by a sail boat. For some reason he stood up in the boat when about 200 yards from shore and called loudly for help. Little attention was paid him as it was thought he was fooling. Those in the sail boat headed for him, however. When the craft was still some distance from the shore Gallagher jumped, falling short and landing in the water. Those on the sail boat made unsuccessful efforts to reach him.

On shore, Adam Bopp, who was 19 years old, saw the accident and started for the scene in his boat. Reaching the spot he dove and recovered Gallagher, who then was under water. Immediately he got fresh air and revived and in a frenzy asked his rescuer by the throat. Bopp, his strength waning, was forced down with Gallagher, although not without an effort to save himself, during which Bopp, in a panic, had grasped both men only to lose them when he turned to shut off the power. Thereafter Bopp and Gallagher were seen no more until their bodies were recovered last evening.

THE THIMBLE CLUB

At a recent entertainment of the Thimble club at the home of Mrs. August Sarre, in Merrimack street, the subject was "Current Events." The discussion was animated and interesting. There was an entertainment consisting of vocal and instrumental selections by the club. A daily lunch was served and each lady received a bunch of violets. It was voted to make the next meeting "gentlemen's night," when there will be a banquet at the American house.

BODY OF BROKER

BOSTON, May 22.—A body taken from the Charles river basin last yesterday was partially identified as that of Herbert Littlefield, aged about 45 years, a stock broker, who made his home at the Copley Square hotel. Around the man's waist was tied a bag which contained two bricks and a pair of dumb bells. Littlefield was reported missing to a police officer in a pawn shop, and it was thought that he had been despondent over financial troubles.

J. W. GRADY

Eyeglass Specialist.

$3.00 Glasses for $1.00

Dizziness, Nervous, Sick and Chronic Headaches cured. Spectacles fitted satisfactorily when others have failed. Difficult cases a specialty. Optical parlors in Wyman's Exchange Bldg., Cor. Central and Merrimack streets.

FURNITURE MOVING

You may be thinking about moving. If so, just call or telephone to the honest and reliable WILLIAM RIGG, at 10 Prescott st. All orders promptly attended to and handled with the greatest care. The best in the cheapest and there is none better than Rigg's packers. Our specialty is piano moving.

ST. THOMAS' SALVE

—FOR—

Piles, Old Sores and Skin Diseases

—FOR SALE—

At All Up-to-Date Drug Stores

THIRTY-FIVE CENTS

SPECIALS

Lobster salad, 35c; plain lobster, 50c; steamed clams, 20c; fried oysters and French fries, 25c; fried clams and French fries, 25c. Call and see us. Lowell Inn. Best place on Central street.

ACT OF CLEMENCY

Marks Beginning of the Reign of King George

LONDON, May 23.—King George has commenced his reign with an act of clemency, granting remission of short sentences and reduction of other

tion of the affection and loving devotion the nation has shown in the face of "a sorrow so sudden and unlooked for that it might well have been overwhelming."

"But the sentiment it has invoked," continues the king, "has made me realize that it is a loss common to me and my people. They share it with me; I do not stand alone. With such thoughts I take courage and hopefully look to the future, strong in my faith in God, trusting my people and cherishing the laws and constitution of my beloved country."

It is announced that King George intends to maintain a royal racing stable at Newmarket and a breeding stud at Sandringham, and that he will patronize racing on the same extensive scale as his father.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

GREATEST CIRCUS

BARNUM & BAILEY'S SHOW ANNOUNCED FOR JUNE 10

The Barnum & Bailey greatest show on earth is announced for two performances in Lowell on Friday, June 10. The day is awaited with great interest. A new and brilliant street parade, a new manager and a large company of European artists are promised. This circus has stood at the head of the amusement business for more than fifty years. The policy of P. T. Barnum and James A. Bailey is still active in its management. These are the two greatest names in the history of the world's circus affairs. Their show is recognized in every country on earth as the leading spirit of amusement, and it has traveled in every land where the sun shines. It has entertained millions upon millions of the

NOW THEN—WHO SAID BISCUITS?

SOUTHERN BISCUITS
NORTHERN BISCUITS
EASTERN BISCUITS
WESTERN BISCUITS

MADE BEST EVERYWHERE WITH

GOLD MEDAL FLOUR

WASHBURN-CROSBY CO.

COPYRIGHT 1910 WASHBURN-CROSBY CO. MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.

$1 Leather Lined Bags 79c

10c Wash Belts 5c

JOHN S. BACKMAN, Pres.

JOHN J. BURNS, Sec'y.

PATRICK GILBRIDE, Treas.

NOW FOR THE LAST WEEK OF THE GREATEST Anniversary Sale EVER HELD IN LOWELL

We acknowledge with thanks, the overwhelming response accorded our Second Anniversary Sale Announcement by the public of this city and surrounding towns. Your flattering expression of confidence in our advertising and merchandizing is the best token of your appreciation of our efforts and methods of doing business.

We have nearly doubled our business of a year ago, and if you knew as we know, the great opportunities for saving in the SECOND ANNIVERSARY SALE, you would be one of the first here today.

Last Week of Lowell's Greatest Sale Watch Our Windows Read Our Announcements

LOWELL'S BEST VALUES ARE HERE IN

Women's Summer Dresses

The newest and prettiest fashions and materials.

Gingham Dresses	$1.98, $2.98, $3.98 to $5.98
Chambray Dresses	$1.98, $2.98, $3.98 to $5.98
Linen Dresses	$3.98 to $9.98
Batiste Dresses	$2.98, $3.98, $4.98 to $7.98
Crash Suits	$5.98 to $12.50
The Prettiest Lingerie Dresses for confirmation and graduation seen in Lowell. We show some very handsome dresses in Point D'Esprit, net and hainburg	$3.98 to $25

ANNIVERSARY SALE OF

Muslin Underwear

SAVE MONEY ON THIS CLEAN MERCHANDISE

Women's Drawers, made of good cambric with tucked ruffle, regular price 25c	19c pair
Women's Drawers, made of fine quality cambric with ruffle of deep embroidery, regular price 30c	25c pair
High neck, fitted covers, special	12 1-2c
Fine Nainsook Corset Covers with deep lace yoke and four rows of ribbon run, regular price 20c	19c
Long White Skirts of good cambric, with 18 in. flounce of embroidery, beading and ribbon run, former price $1.50	$1
Low Neck, Short Sleeve Gowns, made of fine Nainsook, handsomely trimmed with three medallions, regular price $1.50, for	$1.00

SAVE TODAY

On Useful Notions

THE LAST WEEK OF THE ANNIVERSARY SALE

John J. Clark's Spool Cotton, regular price 5c	Anniversary Sale Price 2c Spool
Basting Cotton, regular price 3c	Anniversary Sale Price 1c Spool
Sewing Silk, all colors, regular price 8c	Anniversary Sale Price 4c Spool
Safety Pins, regular price 5c	Anniversary Sale Price 2c Card
Hooks and Eyes with Peels Eyes, 2 dozen on card, regular price 5c	Anniversary Sale Price 2c
Pins, regular price 3c paper	Anniversary Sale Price 1c
Pearl Buttons, regular price 7c	Anniversary Sale Price 4c Doz.
Darning Cotton, regular price 3c	Anniversary Sale Price 1c
Black and White Headed Pins, regular price 5c	Sale Price 2c
Tape, regular price 5c	Sale Price 3c a Roll
Dress Shields, regular price 15c and 19c	Sale Price 10c
Spring Ball and Socket Fasteners, regular price 10c	Sale Price 7c
Feather Stiffened Braid, regular price 7c	Sale Price 5c
Collar Supporters, regular price 5c	Sale Price 3c

LAST WEEK OF THE ANNIVERSARY SALE OF

GLOVES

12-Button Silk Lisle Gloves in black and tans, regular $1.00 and $1.25 quality	49c a Pair
2-Clasp Fine Mercerized Lisle Gloves in tan, brown and black, never sold less than 50c a pair, down to	29c a Pair
Milanes Lisle Gloves in black, white and gray, 25c quality	14c a Pair

ANNIVERSARY SALE OF

HOSIERY

Women's Black Silk Lisle Hose, double heel and toe, "Seconds of the 25c quality"	12 1-2c a Pair
Women's Black Gauze Lisle Hose, double soles, good elastic tops, 25c quality	17c a Pair
Children's Black Cotton Hose, 1x1 rib, double knee, double soles, 19c quality	12 1-2c a Pair

ROOM SIZE RUGS

Saturday evening we took an inventory of our large rug stock, and we had then just 21 large rugs. In order to make our rug sale during the last week of the anniversary sale the greatest talked of rug values ever offered in this city, we have marked them to make a quick sale at the lowest prices ever quoted for similar goods.

1 only, 8 1-4 ft.x10 1-2 ft. Tapestry Brussels, value $15	$9.50
6 only, 8 1-4 ft.x10 1-2 ft. Royal Axminster, value	$17.89
5 only, 9 ft.x12 ft. Royal Axminster, value $27.50	$18.89
1 only, 9 ft.x12 ft. One Piece Rug, value $20	$14.89
3 only, 9 ft.x12 ft. One Piece, no seams Brussels, value $28.50	$18.89

Unmatched and Panel Rugs

1 only, 6 3-4 ft.x13 1-2 ft. Bigelow Axminster, worth $20	$7.95
2 only, 9 ft.x13 1-2 ft. Bigelow Axminster, worth $25	$9.95
1 only, 9 ft.x12 ft. Bigelow Axminster, worth $30	$14.95

Every one of the above rugs guaranteed absolutely perfect.

Small Size Rugs—At Less Than Half Price

36x36 Fibre Rugs	9c Each
36x72 Fibre Rugs	29c Each
18x36 Fibre and Wool Rugs	49c Each
27x54 Fibre and Wool Rugs	59c Each
30x60 Fibre and Wool Rugs	79c Each
36x72 Fibre and Wool Rugs	89c Each
Cocoa Door Mats with red border	39c Each
1 Lot, 27x72 Bigelow Wilton Rugs	$1.98 Each
1 Lot, 30x60 Double Face Smyrna Rugs	79c Each

The prices on Rugs for this last week of our Anniversary Sale are the lowest ever quoted.

Sheets and Pillow Cases Much Cheaper Than the Cotton by the Yard

12 1-2c Armorside, 42x36 Pillow Cases, real good, heavy cotton	9c Each, $1.00 a Dozen
69c 81x90 Armorside Sheets, slightly damaged, only	39c
69c 81x90 Armorside Sheets, perfect, only	49c
75c 81x90 Armorside Sheets, perfect, only	59c
80c 81x90 Extra Heavy Sampson Sheets, made from 33c sheeting, 2 1-2 yards long, cotton costing in each sheet 82 1-2c, sale price, only	59c Each

Remnants of Table Linen at Less Than Half Price

69c Bleached Table Damask in lengths from 1 3-4 to 3 yards long, extra good and heavy, only	49c
$1.00 to $1.50 Bleached Table Damask in lengths from 1 3-4 to 3 1-4 yards long, extra fine, only	79c

Anniversary Sale of

DRESS GOODS

44 inch German Novelty Suitings
42 inch Wool Taffeta Suitings
43 inch Prunella Cloth in navy, brown, green, gray, raisin, wistaria, old rose, roseda and black, regular price $1.00 yard

Anniversary Sale Price 59c Yard

SALE OF SILKS

27 in. All Silk Shantung in all the new shades, regular 70c value, for	59c Yard
27 in. All Silk Shantung, made of selected yarns, strong and desirable, will give splendid wear; we have it in all the latest shades, real value $1.25, sale price, only	79c

earth's peoples. Its world-wide tours have given it many advantages over other tented shows. They have kept it in constant touch with remote corners of the globe whence come all wonders. Nearly all great acrobatic novelties originate in Europe and Asia. No sooner have they been exploited in foreign audience rooms than they are secured by Barnum & Bailey's agents. Invariably novelties are introduced to America by this circus. When they cease to be novelties, they are passed down to other shows and another imported budget of wonders takes their places. This year's program is particularly abundant. It is a purely foreign bill. Over 100 startling acts are presented by 400 of the leading artists of the world. The show employs 1,250 people. It has 700 horses. In its menagerie are 102 cages, pens, tanks and dens in which are displayed 1,200 wild and semi-domestic animals. Among them are forty elephants and thirty camels. There are four giraffes. One of them is a baby, just reaching to its mother's knee. It is the first giraffe baby ever born or exhibited in this country.

The main performance is given in three rings, on two stages, on an immense hippodrome track and in a dome 400 feet long. The climax of the program is the death-dive of Desperado. He leaps from the dome of the tent and lands on his chest on a small skid three feet from the ground.

None of the less thrilling is the spectacular act of Jupiter. This magnificent horse goes up in a balloon and comes down amid a shower of fireworks. These acts reach the utter extreme of sensationalism. (Another wonderful feature is added by the performance on one of the stages of an uncannily human-like chimpanzee, Charlie the First, who is the greatest bicycle rider and juggler on earth.)

The circus has recently built equipment. It was devised and executed in the foreign workshops of the show in England. Five long railroad trains are needed to haul it from city to city. It cost the management $3,500,000. With these added improvements and expenses, the Barnum and Bailey show now stands in the zenith of glory. Never before in its history of splendid achievements has it been so attractive as now. It opened its spring engagement in Madison Square Garden, New York City, before the most distinguished audience that ever assembled in a circus arena. It made the biggest hit in all its career.

$20,000 DAMAGE

Three Waltham Firemen Were Injured

WALTHAM, May 22.—While fighting a fire that did $20,000 damage to the Lincoln block, Moody street, late last night, three firemen—Assistant Chief George H. Strauch and Hosemen Roy Caswell and Ernest Balcom—fell two stories when the metal ceiling of the third story gave way beneath them, hurling them into perilous proximity to the flames. Chief Strauch had his face and hands severely cut, Caswell's left leg was severely injured and Balcom received minor contusions.

The fire, which started from an unknown cause, made its way rapidly up to the upper stories, where it did most of the damage.

Several firemen, among them Chief Johnson and Captain Edward F. Sibley, were overcome by smoke.

ESTRADA FORCES

Lost 14 Killed and Had 24 Wounded

WASHINGTON, May 22.—Two days' fighting near Rama, Nicaragua, has cost the Estrada forces 14 in killed and 24 wounded, according to a report to the state department from Consul Moffat, at Bluefields. The usual losses of the Madriz forces, he adds, were not learned. Gen. Mena retired after the fight to his entrenchments. Large quantities of ammunition and provisions said to be the entire stores of the Madriz forces at Bluefields, he reports, were said to have been captured by Gen. Moncada of the Estrada faction.

GAS COOKING DEMONSTRATION LECTURE TONIGHT

Carolyn Putnam Webber will this evening in Fair hall, Gorham street, demonstrate. She will demonstrate a "Mien" "What is it?" "Just enough of" so that with lightened spirits and with strength renewed, we turn with willingness to work again. The lecture will begin at 8 o'clock, doors open at 7.30. All are welcome. All is free.

Menu—
Baked Bluefish, Breshin Style
Fried Chicken
Clover Relish
Scalloped Corn
Egg Timbales
Peach Meringue
Zaploca Cream.

THEIR FIRST MASS SAW THE COMET

Newly Ordained Priests Officiated Yesterday

Rev. John Riordan, who was ordained a priest last Friday, celebrated his first mass yesterday at the church of the Sacred Heart in Moore street. Inasmuch as Father Riordan's parents reside in Moore street, there was a large attendance of parishioners at the high mass yesterday.

Father Riordan was born in Lowell, but when quite young was sent to Ireland to be educated.

He studied his classical course in St. Michael's college, Elmbridge, and later entered Thurles Ecclesiastical seminary for his philosophical studies. He was subsequently adopted into the Boston diocese and entered the Boston diocesan seminary, where for five years he pursued with honor and distinction the study of theology. He was ordained to the priesthood Friday of last week, coming yesterday to the Sacred Heart to celebrate his first mass.

Rev. R. J. Corneli, O. M. I., preached an eloquent sermon appropriate to the occasion and the same musical program as on the previous Sunday was carried out. Mrs. Adelaide A. Muldoon presided at the organ.

At St. Michael's

Rev. Thomas Reynolds, a resident of St. Michael's parish, who was ordained at Boston Friday, sang his first high mass at St. Michael's church yesterday. He was assisted by Rev. John J. Shaw, deacon, and Rev. Daniel Desmond, sub-deacon. The sermon was preached by Rev. Francis J. Mullin.

Fr. Chaput Officiates

Rev. Fr. Edouard Chaput, O. M. I., who was ordained Saturday, May 14, sang his first high mass yesterday at St. Joseph's church, where a large congregation, including many of his relatives, was present. Assisting the young priest were Rev. Fr. Baron, O. M. I., rector of St. Joseph's, as deacon, and Rev. Brother Anthony of the Tewksbury novitiate, as sub-deacon. Rev. Fr. Watelle, O. M. I., superior of St. Joseph's parish, preached the sermon of the occasion.

Rev. Fr. Chaput said his first mass Sunday, May 15, at Notre-Dame de Lourdes church.

The Y. M. C. I. held quarterly communion yesterday with a large attendance. Breakfast was served in Y. M. C. I. hall after mass.

BOUNDARY LINE

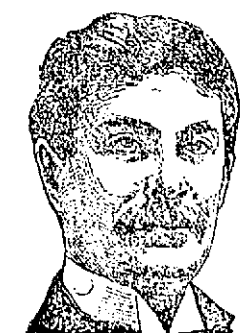

BETWEEN CANADA AND UNITED STATES HAS BEEN FIXED

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The international boundary between the United States and Canada, along the southeast coast of Maine, has been fixed, according to a treaty signed Saturday by Ambassador Bryce and Secretary of State Knox, as running from a point in Passamaquoddy bay between Treat Island and Fisher Head and extending through the bay to the middle of Grand Manan channel. The treaty, it is expected, will be submitted to the senate today for approval. The line was located without resort to the arbitration provided for in the treaty of 1908 between Great Britain and the United States.

The true location of the line has been a subject of contention for more than a century. The treaty is expected to be accepted as final.

JOHNNY HAYES DEFEATED

OTTAWA, Ont., May 22.—J. B. Hayes was today beaten by Lunstrom, in a five mile race by five yards. The time was 25 minutes. Saturday Lunstrom beat Hayes in a 15 mile race by 129 yards in 1:50.55.

Dr. Thomas Jefferson King
Dr. King's "Natural Gum" acts of teeth absolutely defy detection.
Gold Fillings $1—Others 50c
Painless Extraction Free
King Dental Parlors,
45 MERRIMACK STREET
(Over Holt & Lyons)
Hours: 9 to 5, Sun. 10 to 3.
Tel. 1374-2.

Young Woman Then Fell Dead

TALLADEGA, Ala., May 23.—The appearance of the comet last evening caused intense excitement here. Congregations of several churches left their pews and hundreds of persons stood excited in the square and gazed at the celestial visitor. Miss Ruth Jordan, daughter of a farmer living two miles from here, was called to the door of her home to see the comet and immediately fell dead. Physicians give heart failure as the cause. An unknown negro on the depot platform was shown the comet and instantly dropped dead.

CHILDREN DEAD

As Result of Drinking Tonic Compound

ELIZABETH, N. J., May 23.—While playing "house" while their mother went to market, Louise Crouch, six years old, and her brother Johnnie, three years younger, went to the ice chest and drank freely from a bottle of tonic compound which they had seen their elders use. Both died in convulsions yesterday.

VASELINE

For Chaps and Cracked Lips

Winter comfort for tender skins. Vaseline Camphor Ice corrects effects of snow and wind. Soothes and heals roughness, irritations, cold-sores, fever blisters. It combines the comfort of Camphor and Vaseline and relieves all but the most serious of skin troubles.

VASELINE

12 REMEDIES each with special uses, all based on

VASELINE

On Bottle, Box or Tube the name guarantees highest refinement and protects you against nameless "petroleum jellies" of less purity.

VASELINE

CHESBROUGH MFG. CO. Proprietors of Every "Vaseline" Product New York

VASELINE

NO PAIN

Full Set $5

THE NEW SUBSTITUTE FOR TEETH

NO PAIN

Full Set $5

THE NEW SUBSTITUTE FOR TEETH

NO PAIN

Full Set $5

THE NEW SUBSTITUTE FOR TEETH

THE GILBRIDE CO.

On The Corner

PITTSBURG PIRATES AND DETROIT TIGERS LOOK LIKE REPEATERS

By TOMMY CLARK.

ALTHOUGH the baseball season of 1910 is still very young, the fans have been afforded a chance to get a good line on the two strongest teams in the National and American leagues. Judging by present indications in the fan organization, it looks as if Detroit will about cop the banner for the fourth time and equal the record made by Comiskey way back in the eighties. In the other organization Fred Clarke and his Pittsburgh world's champions are plowing their way through the other teams in a manner that indicates that unless something unforeseen happens the Pirates will carry off the much coveted prize for the second time.

Looking over the Pittsburgh team carefully one can easily see that the Pirates are the ones who will have to be defeated by any team that seeks to win the National league pennant this year, and it is hard to see what team is to accomplish the task.

There appears to be just one point where the Pirates may be weak, and they have shown the ability to carry a weak man in this one. This position is at first base, and it is a notable fact that Fred Clarke has had more trouble keeping a good man on the initial corner than he has at any other point on the team. Abstein did fine work there for the greater part of the season last year, but he fell off badly after that, and the Pirates had to carry him through the world's series.

This year Clarke has a good looking youngster in Flynn at first base, but it is hardly probable that he will measure up to the ability of the other players on the team. On the other hand, he will undoubtedly be able to do his share of the work in at least fairly efficient style. If he does the team will have little trouble in preventing a fatal weakness at first, as Miller, Wagner and Byrne are men who are in the habit of throwing with more than average accuracy and helping the man on first along in fielding.

So far as batting is concerned Pittsburgh has plenty of strength to overcome any weakness caused by the failure of the man covering first to find the ball hard. In fact, it is in the batting end of the game that the Pirates has enough the edge to give the Pirates the championship. The combination made up of Lench, Clarke and Wagner is one of the greatest on the attack that the game has ever seen, and Flynn up at the top ahead of this trio in the batting list is working well with it. Gibson is another slashing hitter, and Miller and Wilson are both good batters.

Unless first base is weak there is but one point on the team where the batting is not of the exceptional order, and that is in pitching. Even here several of the Pirates' twirlers are decidedly handy with the stick. With the Pittsburgh attack more than making up for any advantage the Chicago Cubs may have in the pitching line, there appears to be just one thing that can prevent the Pirates from winning the pennant, and that is the enforced absence of Wagner from the game through illness or injuries.

Now for another look at the Tigers. Hughey Jennings' club seems set for its very best year. Its hitters are going splendidly early in the season, and all pitchers look alike to the Tiger men. Of course a better line will be given on them after they have tackled the strong eastern clubs. With the Boston team supplying the ball like mad and the Philadelphia pitchers by the guns despite old Father Time, there will be a great three cornered battle in the American. But the Tiger one for me. There's more glister and "pep" in that bunch than enough to make up for the weakness in pitching strength.

Wrong to Bar Picture Men.

There is no use disputing the point made by President Tom Lynch of the National league that the newspaper photographers assigned to obtain action pictures at baseball games mar the landscape somewhat and occasionally, although rarely, interfere with a possible play on a foul fly.

The fact that action pictures of actual incidents of the game can no longer be secured is a direct blow to the patrons of the game who love to read about baseball, and it is also a relief to those who had grown tired of seeing a battery of cameras collected at the home plate, first or third base every time something interesting seemed likely to be about to come off.

There is no doubt that a few particularly nifty photographers have in-

try by friends of Cobb to prove that Tyrus had not spitefully and willfully gone out of his way to injure the Athletics' third baseman, as some reports made it appear. Under the present ruling it will be impossible to take such a photograph except with a telescope camera of a different pattern than any that are now on the market.

While President Lynch is seeing that the photographers are kept off the field

could be disposed of advantageously to spectators willing to pay to see a ball game instead of being paid to do so. President Lynch would not think of issuing orders that no spectators be admitted to the playing field.

That would reduce the revenues of the club owners who pay his annual stipend and might contract the latter. If the newspapers should all discontinue printing pictures of ball players press-box at any ball park one hundredth part of the free advertising given him by any one of the working occupants of the deadhead seats. It is well to remind baseball men occasionally of what the game owes the publicity it could not possibly get in any other way than gratis.

Boxing Game Claiming Terrible Toll.

The death of Tommy McCarthy, who never regained consciousness after being knocked out by Owen Moran in San Francisco recently, has caused no end of talk. In fact, several clergymen are using this case as a pretext for opposing the Jeffries-Johnson bout. The McCarthy case is a sorrowful one and may hurt the game considerably throughout the country. Still, nature collects tolls from every other sport.

The weak, of course, must yield more and often against spirited relaxations. Even golf has its fatalities in addition to numerous mishaps to devotees and patrons. Within the last month pugilism was compelled to give up three lives as its debt to nature. This cycle of fatal accidents in the prize ring is most singular, but that's the way matters run. For years despite the fact that hundreds of bouts were held weekly no serious consequences occurred. Then came a spell of deaths in the ring.

Fighting is perilous action, and one must expect a serious outcome now and then. One thing most impressive in the trio of tragic events charged up to fistiana recently is the absence of a hue and cry from the populace for a stoppage of the sport. In the old days, when a poor fellow went to the floor and never recovered consciousness, the authorities at once banned the game. Even powerful fighting clubs credited with being influential in politics and civic manipulations were forced to close their doors. In many cities this ban held for years. In fact, such drastic laws were enacted against boxing in Texas after a fatality that the Lone Star State was a fine place for a fighter to pass around. Local authorities didn't dare wink at boxing bouts. Chances are that none of the three fatal frays will check the mild art in their respective localities. It's an age of sports. Thousands favor them, and constituted peace officers are not so quick to give ticket of leave to fighters as under the old state of affairs.

Ernest Barry, Who Seeks World's Sculling Title.

Ernest Barry, the champion sculler of England, has been matched to meet Richard Arnest of New Zealand, the world's title holder, for the championship and a purse of £1,000, which is equivalent to $5,000 in Uncle Sam's money. The two hardy athletes will strive for the coveted honor and prize on the Zambezi river, near Victoria falls, in the southern part of Africa.

Harry Hebner, New Star Among the Swimmers.

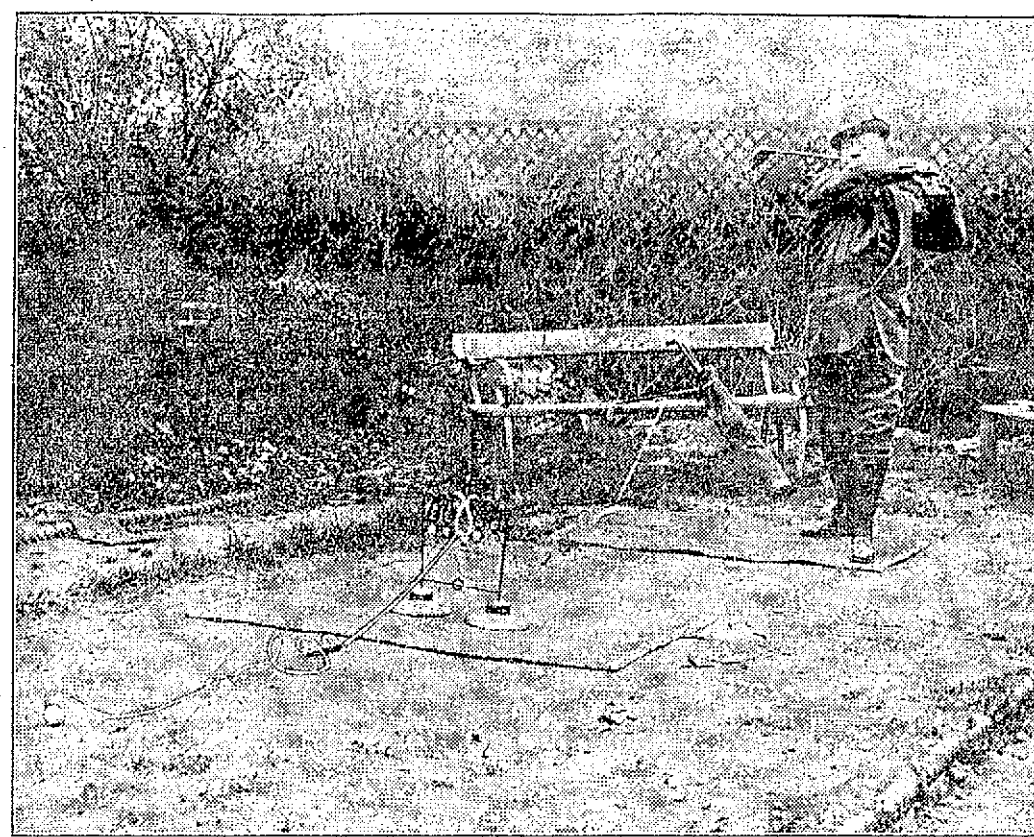

Followers of aquatics rejoiced at the establishment of the world's record of 1 minute 56 2-5 seconds for 160 yards by Harry Hebner of the Illinois Athletic club of Chicago in the national balk stroke championship in St. Louis recently. But probably not one in a hundred knew of the peculiar circumstances that led to the occurrence or realized its full significance.

Hebner swam his first 100 yard-trial with the balk stroke less than one week before the day he broke the world's record. It was the former champion, H. J. Handy, his clubmate, who induced him to do it, for he wanted to use him as a pacemaker while in training. The surprise of every one concerned, including Hebner himself, may well be imagined when at the end of the 100 yard test he found that he had not only beaten Handy, but covered the distance under record figures. Later he went 100 yards in 1 minute 12 seconds, but the greatest surprise of the lot was the boy's time trial in 1 minute 53 seconds for the 160 yard distance.

When it is considered that the world's record by F. Unwin of England stands at 1 minute 57 4-5 seconds it will be seen what wonderful possibilities are before the young westerner, who after a couple of weeks of a new stroke is able to show performances vastly superior to any ever seen in any country. There is absolutely no doubt that Hebner is the fastest balk stroke swimmer the world has yet seen.

New Golf Game Called Loop Hits Now Very Popular In England

LOOP-GOLF-HITS is a miniature golf game or device for receiving instruction in and practicing golf, with the object of driving the ball in a straight or direct line. The device consists of an inverted U shaped hoop. The hoops are bent or formed into five loops and a crossbar is fitted to the two sides, on which is suspended a ring to which is attached a slip hook. To this hook is connected a cord attached to a spiral spring, and in this case the cord passes through the latter, the cord being slack to allow of stretching, and swiveling connections are also provided to permit of the spinning action of the ball. At the other end of the cord is fixed a golf ball, the cord being of a length sufficient to drive over the surface and engage with the loops. The two outer loops of the device each count one, the second loops count two and the center loop counts three, and for this purpose the loops are marked with the numbers. Two mats may be employed, one for each side, for the players to stand upon to tee the ball and to play from, thus preventing the cutting up of the lawn, or of carpets or linoleum if for indoor practice or game.

the past overstepped the bounds of decency in taking pictures during the progress of games, and for their misdeeds others must suffer.

Pictures Have Great Value. It has often happened that newspaper photographs have been of great value in deciding disputed points in regard to plays during the progress of games. A snapshot of the play in which Cobb spiked Baker at Detroit last season was sent all over the country and games their circulations would not be affected seriously, but a strong stimulant to the public's interest in baseball would be withdrawn and would be felt at the gates.

There have been instances where club owners have begrudged baseball reporters the space they are compelled by their occupation to occupy, because each seat might be sold for one bone or possibly more. But the club owner could not buy with the revenue from ten times the space occupied by the

and games their circulations would not be affected seriously, but a strong stimulant to the public's interest in baseball would be withdrawn and would be felt at the gates.

ERNEST BARRY.

HARRY HEBNER.

CLEVER TALES ABOUT PEOPLE WHO PLAY FOR A LIVING

By FRANK H. BROOKS.

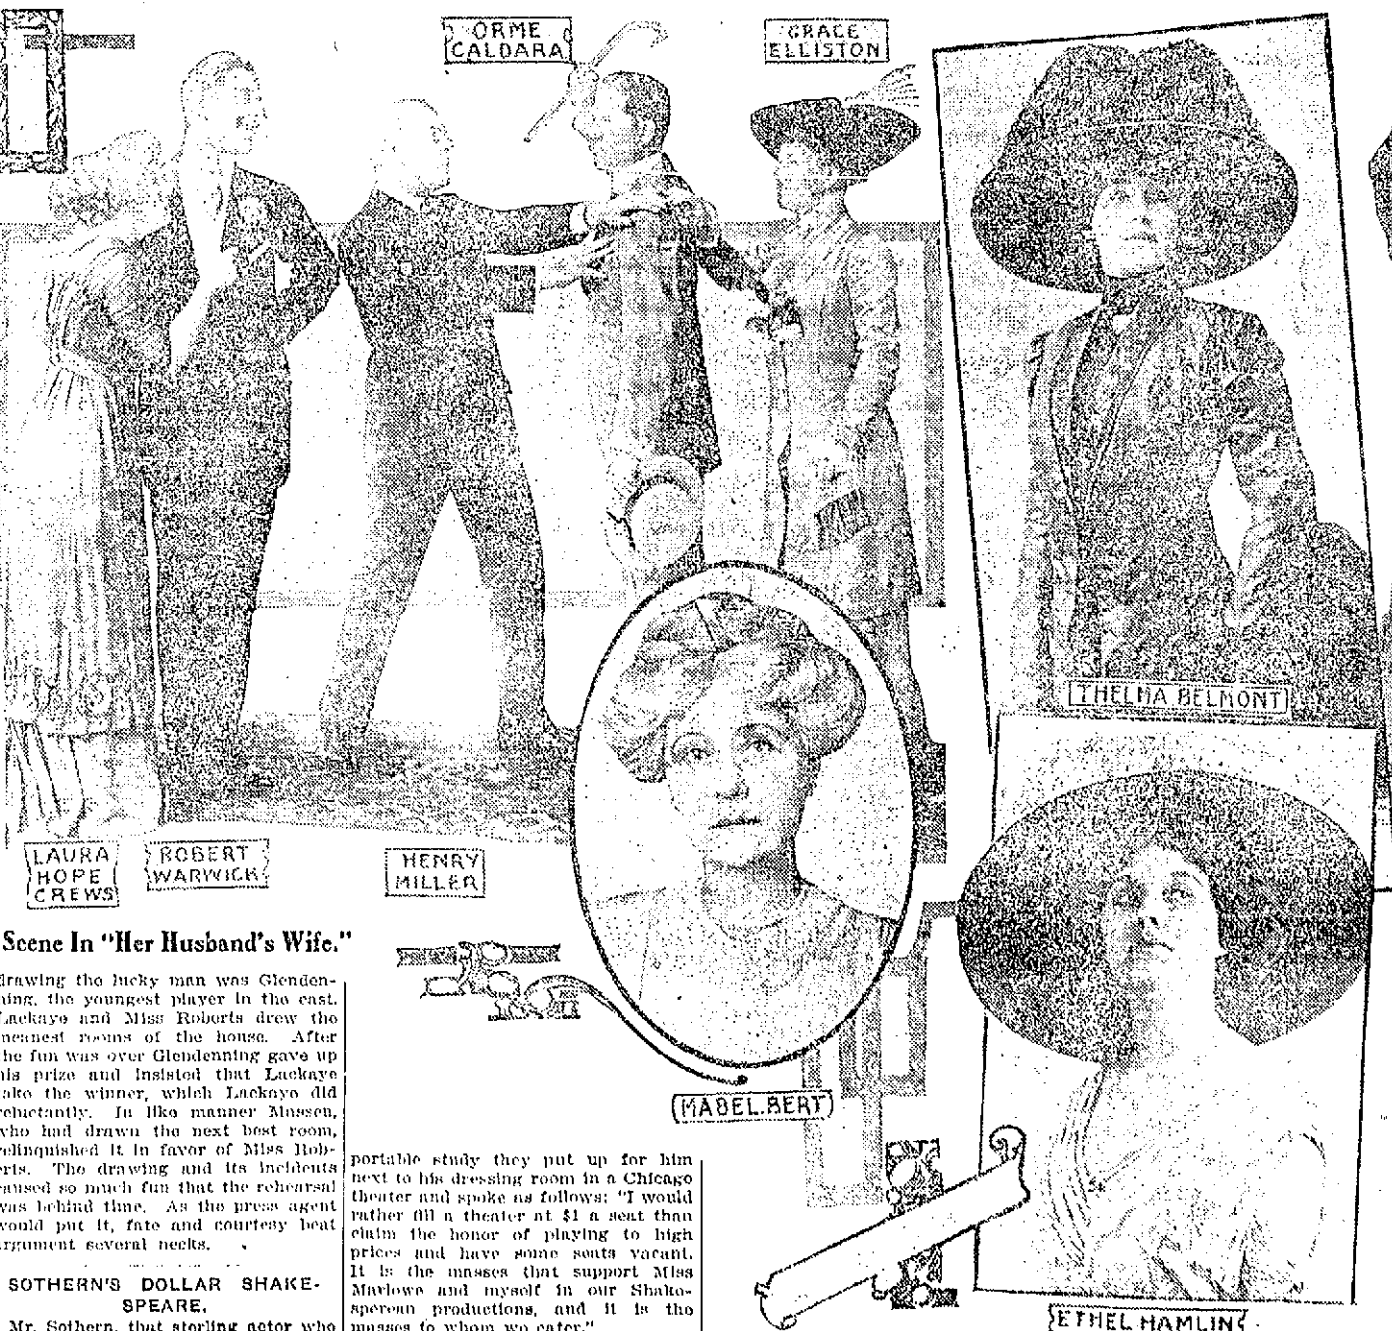

WHAT is so rare as a rattling musical comedy on a roof garden on a night in June? And what is a visit to the city in summer that does not include such an entertainment? One of the first of its kind to open in New York will be Frederic Thompson's, entitled "The Comto Supplement." The title will be the top of the New Amsterdam theater. They say that Mr. Thompson had a hand in writing the book. Be this as it may, Mr. Thompson will manage the show. The company has been trying out the production for several weeks. All roof garden stage girls are "bewitching." In the Thompson galaxy the word "bewitching" calls for big type. Among those who "bewitch" are Ethel Hamlin, Thelma Belmont and Julia Mills, whose pictures are in the group.

Henry Miller and his players are favorably known from coast to coast. Henry Miller is really a great character actor, in addition to which he is a methodical manager who is as careful of the details of his productions as were Irving and Mansfield, and Mr. Miller could expect no one to say more. His play that is closing the season at the Garrick theater, in New York, under the direction of Klaw & Frelanger, is entitled "Her Husband's Wife." It is the kind of play that one can see more than once and that is saying a heap. The people in the play, as pictured in the above cut, are Laura Hope Crews, Robert Warwick, Henry Miller, Orme Caldara, Grace Elliston, and Mabel Bert.

DRAWING FOR THE STAR'S ROOM. We are not all alone unhappy.—One of Bill's plays.

In the days when rollers for a hand press were molded out of a combination of glue and molasses printers had a pastime which they called "jelling." It was a species of harmless gaming. Even now there are men who match for various things where the root of the article is comparatively trifling. Some throw dice. Boys pitch pennies. Actors draw cuts.

Just before the revival by the Shuberts of "Jim the Penman" William Lackaye, John Mason, Florence Roberts, George Burman, Frederic Partridge, Lonla Masson, Marguerite Clark, Grace Leeds and Jeffreys Lewis drew marked slips from a hat in the hand of William A. Brady to see which one would occupy the star's dressing room during the engagement. Florence Roberts had not yet arrived—she plays the principal female part—but some one gallantly drew for her. It is supposed that a rabbit's foot is secreted in the star's dressing room, so the desire to occupy that room is active. Outsiders need be told that this room is the one most convenient to the stage. At the drawing the lucky man was Glendenning, the youngest player in the cast. Lackaye and Miss Roberts drew the meaneast rooms of the house. After the fun was over Glendenning gave up his prize and insisted that Lackaye take the winner, which Lackaye did reluctantly. In like manner Masson, who had drawn the next best room, relinquished it in favor of Miss Roberts. The drawing and its incidents caused so much fun that the rehearsal was behind time. As the press agent would put it, fate and courtesy beat argument several needs.

Scene In "Her Husband's Wife."

SOTHERN'S DOLLAR SHAKE-SPARE.

Mr. Sothern, that storing actor who knows and plays "Hamlet" as few, if any, in this country know it or play it, who, in speaking of his repertory, gallantly says "Miss Marlowe and myself," was come upon unaware in the portable study they put up for him next to his dressing room in a Chicago theater and spoke as follows: "I would rather fill a theater at $1 a seat than claim the honor of playing to high prices and have some seats vacant. It is the masses that support Miss Marlowe and myself in our Shakespearian productions, and it is the masses to whom we cater."

This grand stand play for the dollar-fied. But if it were not for those "high prices" would "Miss Marlowe and myself" get the high salaries they command (and which they deserve)?

FREDERIC THOMPSON'S ROOF GARDEN BEAUTIES AND HENRY MILLER AND HIS PLAYERS

IN BUFFALO BILL'S SADDLE.

Unless William F. Cody, better known as "Buffalo Bill," is playing Patti tricks (he has always been a man of his word) his present season with his show, in which he is the big exponent of wild west life, will be his last in that line. He will be missed, for his mounts and action were superb. At once the question, Who will succeed him? For it is not the intention to disband the wonderful organization. "Pawnee Bill" has already been called, and he will be at the head next season. In private life Pawnee Bill is Major Gordon W. Lillie. He has been identified with Buffalo Bill in the latter's exhibitions, as well as in business on the plains, many years. Major Lillie was born near Bloomington, Ill., and one of his friends and advisers is Ex-Vice President Adlai E. Stevenson. When a lad Lillie went west and became a mighty hunter and an interesting nomadic figure. He was also a trusted friend of the Indian when Indian fighting was over. He was a counselor to Buffalo Bill when Cody was in the saddle as a scout and fighter. When Major Frank

North, who had become white chief of the Pawnees, died Major Lillie succeeded him as the white leader of the nation from which he gets his sobriquet. In Oklahoma, Major Lillie's home, he has been a leading spirit in the erection of public edifices, establishment of schools, including railroad connections, building electric plants, waterworks and the completion of a prosperous municipality. He is president of the Arkansas Valley National bank of Pawnee City, where he has a beautiful country residence. Near by

COLONEL CODY (TOP) AND PAWNEE BILL, THE WILD WEST HEROES.

BEAUTIFUL PAGEANT

Annual May Procession at St. Michael's Church

Outshone in Splendor All of Its Predecessors—Over 1200 in Line—The Procession Attracted Over 10,000 People

The annual May procession of the societies and sodalities of St. Michael's church was held in the open yesterday afternoon and in splendor and magnificence outshone all of its beautiful predecessors.

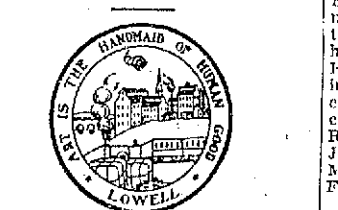

In years gone by, thousands annually made pilgrimages to Lawrence to witness the May procession in that city. The Lawrence procession was also held yesterday but the crowd that went down to the city was by no means as large as in former years for the procession at St. Michael's now equals if not eclipses the other in size and beauty and hence it was not surprising to find the streets along the line of march in Centralville literally choked with people, over 10,000

STOPS ITCHING AT ONCE
Quite recently a chemist formulated a compound which possesses such soothing and curative properties that when applied, it stops the itching of eczema and similar diseases immediately. Sufferers who use it are amazed at the rapidity of the relief which follows its use. The skin heals in an astonishingly short time, and all traces of the disease are eradicated. The name of this new remedy is, Cadum, and it is sold by all druggists for 10c and 25c a box. It is also remarkably effective when used for acne, herpes, pimples, blackheads, psoriasis, itching piles, tetter, salt rheum, and skin diseases generally. A 10c box will verify all these statements.

HEARING

Boston & Northern Street Railway

To the Honorable the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the City of Lowell.
Respectfully represents your petitioner, the Boston & Northern Street Railway Company, that by the terms of the franchise granted to it in 1888, it is required to maintain the tracks between the Merrimack and Middlesex streets in the City of Lowell, the space between the inner rails of the two tracks is fixed at not less than three feet six inches, nor more than four feet, and that public convenience and necessity require that such space should be fixed at four feet, six inches, and a greater distance at connecting and other curves.
Wherefore we respectfully petition that the requirements be changed so that the space between the inner rails of the two tracks shall be four feet, six inches, with such additional width in connecting and other curves as the Board of Railroad Commissioners, in the name of the City Engineer and Superintendent of Streets, and approval of the Board of Aldermen, and commissioners, all substantially as shown on plan filed at the hearing to be had hereon.

Boston & Northern St. Ry. Co.
By P. F. SULLIVAN, President.
Lowell, Mass., May 12, 1910.

In Board of Aldermen.
On Order for hearing on petition of the Boston & Northern Street Railway Company that the requirements as to space between inner rails of tracks in locations granted in Middlesex, Branch and Merrimack streets be changed.
Ordered by the Board of Aldermen of the City of Lowell, assembled, as follows:
That on the petition of the Boston & Northern Street Railway Company that the requirements as to space between the inner rails of tracks in locations granted in Middlesex, Branch and Merrimack streets be changed, a hearing be given by the Board of Aldermen at their room, City Hall, Tuesday evening, June 7, 1910, at eight o'clock. And that all persons may have due notice of said hearing, that they may be heard, a copy of said petition and of this order thereon be published in the Lowell Courier-Citizen and The Lowell Sun, newspapers published in said Lowell, said publication to be fourteen days before said hearing.
In Board of Aldermen, May 17, 1910.
Read and adopted.
GIRARD P. DADMAN, City Clerk.
Approved, May 18, 1910.
JOHN F. MEEHAN, Mayor.
A true copy.
Attest:
GIRARD P. DADMAN, City Clerk.
Lowell, Mass., May 21, 1910.

REST AND HEALTH TO MOTHER AND CHILD.
Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used over SIXTY YEARS BY MILLIONS OF MOTHERS FOR THEIR CHILDREN IN ALL THE WORLD. IT SOOTHES THE GUMS, CURES COLIC, CURES WIND COLIC, and is the best remedy for DIARRHOEA. It is absolutely harmless. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

25c Wall Papers, 10c Roll
In Big May Reduction Sale of Spring Wall Papers
NELSON'S COLONIAL DEPT. STORE
SEE WINDOWS TONIGHT
"Biggest Distributors of Wall Papers in Lowell!"

A. G. THOMPSON ANNUAL REUNION

Postmaster Guest of Of the Richardson Light Infantry Postal Employees Infantry

A testimonial banquet and entertainment was tendered to A. G. Thompson by the postal employees at Elks hall on Saturday evening on his fourth appointment as postmaster of Lowell, an honor which very few postmasters of the country have ever received. The affair was in every way the most successful and largest ever held by the postal employees.

At 9 o'clock a reception was held in the parlor, the postmaster being assisted by Assistant Postmaster Edwards Cheney. Ex-Postmaster Gardner W. Pearson, Supt. of Mailing Division Edwin A. Cooke, State Treasurer of Lowell, George L. Adams, and President John J. Dillon of Lowell Letter Carriers. At the conclusion of the reception, all were escorted to the banquet hall to the strains of "Hail to the Chief" by the Calumet orchestra, which also rendered selections during the dinner. A splendid dinner was provided by the committee in charge.

Handsome menu cards with a true likeness of the postmaster and the Latin inscription, "Ad Multos Annos," were distributed.

MR. A. G. THOMPSON, Postmaster.

During the dinner the boys all sang topical songs with great enthusiasm. After the cigars were lighted, Joseph J. Ward, chairman of the committee, read a telegram from Congressman Butler Ames, who was unable to be present. He then introduced Joseph J. Dillon, president of Lowell Letter Carriers, who made a few brief remarks. President Dillon then called on Postmaster A. G. Thompson. The mere mention of his name was the signal for the entire assemblage to rise and greet him with cheers and applause, which were long continued and ended by the singing of "Hail to Our Chief." The postmaster spoke in his usual happy vein, after expressing his thanks for the co-operation of all his

The 36th annual reunion and banquet of the Richardson Light Infantry was held at the New American house Saturday night. There were 22 members, members' sons and guests present and the affair proved to be one of the most enjoyable ever conducted by the well known organization.

The business meeting was held at five o'clock and the banquet at 6.30 o'clock. The feature of the business meeting was the re-election of the old officers for the ensuing year. They were: President, George F. Richardson, of Lowell; vice-president, Francis T. Wilson, of Lowell; secretary and treasurer, Charles R. Brigham of Lowell, and board of government, W. N. Goodell, Lowell; Morton N. Peabody, Lowell, and S. W. Benson of Charleston. Next year the 50th anniversary of the organization of the company will be observed with exercises of a more formal character than heretofore.

Twenty-two persons sat down to the banquet table at 6.30 o'clock. They were: W. E. Parrar, Lowell; W. H. Worcester, Lowell; C. H. Ellis, Boston; James W. Bean, Somerville; Charles H. Frost, Lowell; H. C. Gardner, Springfield; M. N. Peabody, Lowell; James Schofield, North Grafton; Z. R. Stewart, Manchester, N. H.; George N. Russell, Methuen; N. W. Storer, Dorchester and Francis T. Wilson, Lowell, members of the association; Hamilton Gardner, Lowell; W. A. Eaton, Lawrence, and Mr. Dodge, Boston, guests, and W. N. Goodell, Lowell; N. F. Wilson, Boston; Forrest H. Peabody, Lowell; E. W. Brigham, Lowell; Charles R. Brigham, Lowell and A. G. McCurdy, Lowell, sons of members.

Handsome bouquets of flowers were sent for the banquet and occupied prominent places on the table. They were the gifts of Mrs. Mary E. Jefferson, of this city, who was known as "the daughter of the company." Mrs. Belle Chase Johnson, George E. Edwards and family and Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Goodell of this city.

The Richardson Light Infantry was recruited principally from this city and was mustered into the United States service on May 21, 1861.

During the past year one member of the association has died. He was Elias Cowdrey of Chelmsford. There are 33 members in the Richardson Light Infantry still living, 22 of whom are members of the association.

BOXING GOSSIP

MONDAY
Al DeMont vs. Bobby Tickle, New Bedford.
Morris Harris vs. Jim Johnson, Joe Heffernan vs. Kid Tracy, Philadelphia.
Kid Henry vs. J. Stein, Watervliet, N. Y.
Billy Ryan vs. Bant Dorsey, Syracuse.
Charles Griffin vs. K. O. Brown, New York.
Dixie Kid vs. Bill Hurley, Glens Falls, N. Y.
Johnny Daly vs. Tom Houck, Albany.
Bat Downey vs. Pat Moriarty and Al Groves vs. J. Kennedy, North Adams.

TUESDAY
Joe Jeannette vs. Andrew Morris, Eddie Carr vs. Kid Betts, Henry Hall vs. Tim Sullivan and Tony Lorenzo vs. Tom Flanagan, Albany.
Sammy Keller vs. Monte Attell and Young McDonough vs. Joe Hyland, New York.
Adam Ryan vs. Johnny Willets, Philadelphia.

WEDNESDAY
Pat Moore vs. Jim Driscoll, Philadelphia.
Tommy Murphy vs. Leach Cross, New York.
Johnny Glover vs. Bunny Ford and Jeff Doherty vs. Paddy Sullivan, New Haven.
Morris Sayers vs. J. Murphy and Hugh McGann vs. O. Breedlove, Indianapolis.
Al Schumacher vs. Kid Doherty, Baltimore.

THURSDAY
Jimmy Moriarty vs. unknown, Lowell.
Eddie Walsh vs. Joe Hyland, New York.
Kid Henry vs. Bill Hurley, Montreal.
Ted Young vs. Young O'Neill and four preliminaries, American A. A.
Eddie Doyle vs. Jim Toland and Charley Harvey vs. Louisiana, Philadelphia.

FRIDAY
Stanley Ketchel vs. Willie Lewis, New York.
SATURDAY
Billy Rolfe vs. Tom Sawyer, Portland, Me.
Young Erne vs. Joe Hirst, Reading, Pa.
Young Erne vs. Tommy O'Keefe.

ADS KIDNEY REMEDY
Is a perfectly safe and harmless remedy, which has been carefully and scientifically compounded by the great American Druggists Syndicate for the purpose of enabling those people who cannot see a physician to get the next best treatment for the kidneys and take it at home.
Its action is quick, pleasant and thorough, and you should take it in preference to experimenting with patent medicines, which neither you nor your druggist know anything about. Get it at any A. D. S. drug store.
Look for this Sign in the Druggist's Window
MEMBER ASSOCIATION With 12,000 Other Druggists
Frank J. Campbell, 255 Central St.; Falls & Burkinshaw, 418 Middlesex St.; Houle's Pharmacy, 462 Moody St.; R. J. Lang & Co., 374 Merrimack St.; Wm. H. Noonan & Co., 305 Bridge St.; John H. O'Neill, Lawrence St. cor. Wamsitt; Routhier & Delisle, 632 Merrimack St.; Charles W. Trembley, 415 Bridge St.; Fred Howard, 197 Central St.; John T. Sparks & Co., 747 Lakeview Ave.

Banner Bargains
FOR
Today and Tomorrow
TOO MANY COATS
We Will Offer 50 at
$5.95 Each
Navy, black, gray. Long and short length coats.
We must reduce the coat stock.
See the Beautiful Silk Coats..... $10.00
See the Long Serge Coats..... $12.75
See the Snappy Mixture..... $9.75

We Are Going to Sell 100 Tailored Suits
Today and tomorrow. You never have had such values offered you before.
Skinner Satin Lined Suits at $13.75
Navy, black, tan and green. $22.50 values..... $13.75
40 Suits selling at $15.00 and $18.00. Monday and Tuesday..... $9.67
25 Odd Suits, stripes and plain goods..... $7.97
Here is a chance for 25 lucky people.
Every Suit in Stock Reduced. Come Today and Tomorrow.

400 Voile, Panama and Serge SKIRTS
At less than cost to make. A manufacturer retiring from business on account of ill health.
$10.50 VOILE SKIRTS AT $5.95
In heavy all wool voile, new scarf flounce effect, trimmed with silk and braid.
$7.50 Chiffon Panama at $3.98
Navy and black in handsome styles, bottom plaited effects. Labor alone on this skirt for price asked.
VERY SPECIAL $3.95
We are going to sell 200 Gingham and Wash Dresses. Now dresses that sell to $6.00. All colors and sizes, at one price.
75 Skirts in Seiban and Panama, $4 skirts $2.95

New York Cloak and Suit Co.

12-18 JOHN STREET

WEAK BATTLING
Has Caused Slump of the Lowell Team
No Pinch Hitters on the Team—Manager Gray Gets Busy and Signs Three More Players
Never before in history has there been such a general interest and enthusiasm over baseball in Lowell than is evident this year. Men, women and children have caught the "bug" and all they talk about is the great national game. In the shops, mills and on the street corners it is heard from morning till eve and even after bedtime.
In order to meet that great enthusiasm and profit by it Lowell must of necessity produce a winning team. The fans don't look for a pennant winner, nor do they demand one; all they desire is a team that will hold its end up and make the first division. Give them that kind of a team and they will flock to Spalding park whenever there is a home game.
Lowell started out like the traditional race horse, but after a week's play or so, it turned around and started downward. The men who appeared to be heavy hitters began to slump, and defeat followed defeat. Time after time with three on base and none out Lowell has failed to score, or with a man on third and one out, they have been marked for the next batter. When none is out, base they would come up and crack out the ball, but invariably when a hit meant a run the ball couldn't get by the infield.
And it didn't poor management or direction that is responsible either, for

VERIFICATION OF SAVINGS BANK BOOK
To Depositors In Savings Banks:
Acting under the provisions of the public statute, section 42, chapter 590, acts of 1905, the banks whose names appear below request their respective depositors to bring in their bank books for verification during the month of June, 1910.
Central Savings Bank.
City Institution for Savings.
Lowell Five Cent Savings Bank.
(July and August.)
Lowell Institution for Savings.
Mechanics Savings Bank.
Merrimack River Savings Bank.
Washington Savings Institution.

REV. DR. BLACKBURN

Greeted by Old Friends at First Baptist Church

Rev. J. M. Craig Back Again in Pulpit—Rev. James Bancroft Begins His Pastorate at St. John's Episcopal Church

Rev. Alexander Blackburn, D. D., former pastor of the First Baptist church, occupied the pulpit of that church yesterday and there was a large attendance of his former congregation to welcome him.

In the morning his subject was "The Incarnation and Prayer." The central thought of the sermon was the deity of Jesus Christ and the power of prayer, which he said were closely linked together. The evening discourse was on the subject of "The Overflow." His text was taken from the sayings of Jesus to the woman of Samaria at Jacob's well, and said if present plans are carried out, he expected within three months to stand at the spot where those words were spoken. At the close of a day's labor one man goes towards his home, picks a few flowers, buys some fruit and smilingly is welcomed by his children. You would trust such a man with all you have. Another man leaves his work, and grumpy and dull he pays no attention to flowers and fruit, but does patronize the saloon and his arrival home is attended by dread in his children and wife. The overflow of his life shows what he is. The overflow of your life is the index of your character. A rich man in New York, whom I once visited, told me he would cut $5,000 from his income in one season, that would be sent to New York and freely given through the tenement house district. I found out the overflow of that man's life. Finding it out, I could love and trust him. Not only is it an index, but the overflow makes your character. What you do in your hours of labor has not so much influence upon your character as what you do in your hours of recreation. Just so sure as you rightly use the "off" hours, you will grow in strength and integrity. Jesus came to fix the overflow of life in the right direction. He came not to take pleasure out of life, but to give joy to life. Pure, sweet pleasure is a blessing. Bear a smile with you into the world. Laugh at the proper time, be sober at the proper time. When we reach the judgment seat of the Master we are not going to be asked how we wept or wept at our day's labor, but if the overflow of our lives has given cheer and comfort to the sick and poor. The overflow of Helen Gould's life, and of Miss Frick does good to hundreds and thousands of young men and women. Jesus' life has an overflow that gives joy and blessing and salvation to all who accept it.

Rev. Mr. Craig Returns

Rev. J. M. Craig, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, received a warm welcome from his parishioners yesterday after his six weeks' visit in Kansas City. The members of the church turned out in large numbers.

In a prelude to the sermon Rev. Mr. Craig spoke of the changes which occurred since he left this city and mentioned the fact that one member of the church had passed away. Another, he said, was stricken down from health to a bed of sickness, reminding us of the uncertainty and briefness of the life, of the need of living the Christian life. Rev. J. M. Craig preached from Gal. 6:14, "God forbid that I should glory in the cross of Jesus Christ by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world."

Mr. Bancroft spoke of the context and of the Greeks desiring to come into touch with Jesus Christ and his religion. They desired to meet and know those who were so placed as to act as intermediaries between the Christ and themselves.

He likened the action of the Greeks to the attitude of the Christian world today. He said that men today believe in Christ, the son of God, and in his teachings, and they also believe in those men who are of the church as its ministers, its intermediaries. They know them to represent God and his religion, and they have faith in them. There was a large attendance at the evening service when there was special music by the choir, and when Rev. Mr. Bancroft also spoke.

NORMAL SCHOOL

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION HELD ANNUAL REUNION

The annual reunion and banquet of the Lowell Normal School Alumni association was held Saturday afternoon at the school. A business meeting preceded the banquet.

The principal business of the meeting was the election of officers for the ensuing year, as follows: Miss Anna McCarron, '05, president; Miss Winifred McEvoy, '05, vice-president; Miss Alice Ramsay, '05, secretary; John E. Barr, '09, treasurer.

After the business meeting luncheon was served. The Germania Ladies' orchestra furnished music. At the close of the banquet Miss Bessie E. Knapp presided as toast-

mistress. The following program was carried out: Address of welcome, toast-

mistress: "The Alumni Association and the Future of the School," Miss Mabel Hill; extracts from letters, written by an L. N. S. alumna, Miss Lillian C. Burbank, '09; remarks, Cyrus A. Dur-

gin; "Just a Word," Miss Martha R. Taylor, '09; "Our Opportunities Today,"

Miss Mabel F. Loughton, '04; "The Intangible Factor in Education," Dr. Lyman C. Newell of Boston University.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

A. G. POLLARD CO.

THE STORE FOR THRIFTY PEOPLE

THIS MORNING BEGAN AN UNEX-AMPLED SALE OF LADIES'

Tailored Linen Suits

AT PRICES NEVER BEFORE APPROACHED IN LOWNESS AT THIS SEASON SECURED BY TAKING ADVANTAGE OF PRESENT TOSPY-TURVY MARKET CONDITIONS

LADIES' $11.98 LINEN SUITS - $7.98

LINEN SUITS For Decoration Day

Made of pure natural linen, linen crash, Siberian linen and heavy basket weave linen. Neck and shawl collars, plain or trimmed with black Skinner satin. Sizes 14, 16 and 18 years and 34 to 44. These suits are sold regularly at $11.98.

THE LINEN COATS WOMEN ARE BUYING

For journeys, for automobiling, for general street wear and hot weather. The long linen coat proves such a good friend that it is not surprising people are already buying them. We have a greater variety of such coats than usual in May—prices between $3.98 and $10.00, also mobairs at $5.98 and $7.50. During this sale all linen and motor coats will be altered free.

Cloak Dept.

See Window Display.

Second Floor

SHEETS AND PILLOW CASES

A special selling began this morning of a large purchase made last month, when sheets and pillow cases took a big drop in prices. You'll find each item less than the cotton can be bought for today. A few odd things also very cheap.

PILLOW CASES

Odd Pillow Cases, different widths and different lengths, made of brown and bleached cotton, good heavy quality, worth 12 1-2c, only 9c Each
250 dozen Pillow Cases, sizes 45x36, with 3 inch hem, made of good heavy popular make of cotton, but liable to be a little imperfect, worth 15c, only 11c Each
175 dozen Pillow Cases, made of tubing, no seams to give away, 45x38 1-2, with 3 inch hem, made of soft, heavy, perfect white cotton, worth 22c, only 15c Each

SHEETS

One lot good heavy sheets, full size and well made, with 3 inch hem at top and one at bottom, worth 49c 39c Each
One lot Unbleached Sheets, size 81x90, made of extra heavy cotton; will bleach out soft and white, well made, no center seams, worth 59c, only 49c

SHEETS

One lot marked A. G. Pollard Co. "Perfection." The way this sheet sold at our last sale influenced us to secure more; we have them at the same prices as before.

Size 72x90, worth 65c, at only 55c Each
Size 72x99, worth 69c, at only 59c Each
Size 81x90, worth 69c, at only 59c Each
Size 81x99, worth 75c, at only 65c Each

Two numbers of celebrated "Dwight Anchor" cotton. Compare these prices with what you have to pay for it by the yard.

Size 63x90, worth 75c, at only 59c Each
Size 81x90, worth 85c, at only 69c Each

If you want to buy sheets for your camp, cottage, bungalow, summer home or city residence, take advantage of this sale.

Palmer Street

Left Aisle

IN OUR UNDERPRICE BASEMENT

The most successful of all our Annual 6 1-4c Sales comes to an end tonight. A big majority of the magnificent special values have already been closed out, but the following new offerings should attract prudent shoppers here today.

PLAID GINGHAM—One case of fine Plaid Gingham, nice fine quality, in handsome patterns for summer dresses, but being slightly imperfect on the selvedge, we offer them at Sale Price 6 1-4c Yard

BLEACHED COTTON—2000 yards of fine quality bleached cotton, in remnants, good soft finish, 10c value Sale Price 6 1-4c Yard

WHITE MADRAS—One case of fine white madras, full yard wide, nice fine quality, for shirts, shirt waists and dresses, 12 1-2c value Sale Price 6 1-4c Yard

BLACK SATEEN—Heavy black sateen remnants, fast color, good strong quality, for mill aprons, skirts and working shirts, 12 1-2c value Sale Price 6 1-4c Yard

MERCERIZED NAPKINS—50 dozen fine Mercerized Napkins, 20 inches wide, very fine quality, in very handsome design, 10c value Sale Price 6 1-4c Each

WHITE CREPE—32 inches wide, White Crepe, nice and fine quality, for summer dresses, easily washed, 12 1-2c value Sale Price 6 1-4c Yard

Great Bargains in Fine Embroideries Tomorrow at Our Sale of Sample Pieces

13,000 Yards

Fresh from the Importers, all new goods, including edgings, insertions and flouncings, in all widths, all hand machine work on fine nainsook and cambrics, at 1-2 to 1-3 less than regular prices.

10c EDGINGS AND INSERTIONS, ONLY 5c a yard

19c EDGINGS AND INSERTIONS, ONLY 12 1-2c a yard

12 1-2c EDGINGS AND INSERTIONS, ONLY 7 1-2c a yard

25c AND 39c EDGINGS AND INSERTIONS, ONLY 19c a yard

15c EDGINGS AND INSERTIONS 10c a yard

50c AND 75c EDGINGS AND INSERTIONS, ONLY 35c a yard

ON SALE TOMORROW, TUESDAY A. M. IN OUR UNDER-PRICE BASEMENT

We Need Two Experienced Dry Goods Salesmen—See Mr. Fortin in Palmer Street Basement

MURDER SUSPECT

Returns to New York After Nine Years' Absence

NEW YORK, May 23.—Homesickness besetting him for nine years, during which time he roamed through the west a free and unsuspended man, finally drove William Whiteway, 36, "wanted" as one of three men who murdered Theodore Johanson hero in 1901—back like a homing pigeon to New York, to fall yesterday into the clutches of the police, who for the nine years have been on the lookout for him.

"Please give me some money. I must eat," he pleaded.

"Hello, Whiteway," he said. It was Detective Hart, who nine years ago looked high and low for the man. A few minutes later Whiteway was a prisoner in the Harlem detective bureau. At first he resolutely denied his identity. Later he broke down and admitted it.

Theodore Johanson was wounded in Leggett's lane, Oak Point, Bronx, in the early morning hours of July 7, 1901. It is charged that Whiteway, John Fisher and Massey Schofield fired the fatal shot, is serving a life sentence. Schofield confessed and named Whiteway as the third man in the case. Schofield got six years for his part in the crime. In his confession he told how he, Whiteway and Fisher, being "broke," held up Johanson and a man called Haffner, and how Fisher, when Johanson made out, fired twice, bringing his man down. Johanson died three days later.

STEAMER VENUS

Has Gone Back to Bluefields

NEW ORLEANS, May 23.—Representatives of the titular government of Nicaragua stated last night that they had received advice to the effect that the Venus had gone to Bluefields to await orders from Madrid; that such orders had been received and that the steamer then put back to Bluefields Saturday. It is asserted the Venus will attack the steamer Marietta di Giorgio if it can meet the latter at a point where the town of Bluefields will not be threatened or under circumstances which the Madrid government does not construe as a violation of the dictum of Commander Gilmer in charge of the United States gunboats Palmetto and Pubente regarding the safety of American citizens in Bluefields.

AMERICAN ENTERTAINMENT ASSOCIATION

BOSTON, May 23.—Moving prayer in King's chapel, Tremont street, conducted by Rev. D. Roy Freeman of Braintree, opened the regular meeting of the 53rd anniversary of the American Entertainment Association today. Two preliminary sessions were held later. Later in the forenoon Rev. J. T. Sutcliffe of Hartford, Conn., addressed the annual meeting of the Ministerial Union in Chauncy hall. His subject was "Theodore Parker." Other meetings were held in the afternoon.

Daily sessions will be held during the week and the anniversary is expected to be one of the most memorable

HOMES WRECKED

Cairo, Ill., Visited by a Tornado

CAIRO, Ill., May 23.—A tornado which struck Cairo at 6.40 p.m. yesterday demolished four homes, damaged a dozen more and destroyed several barns, besides tearing large trees up by the roots. No fatalities were reported, but one woman was severely bruised and several persons were slightly injured.

The house occupied by Henry Smith was lifted bodily from its foundation, carried about 50 feet northward and landed bottom side up. Mrs. Smith and three children were in the house and the former was painfully bruised, while the children were slightly injured.

The home of Arthur Linquist was carried by the wind 100 feet away and landed right side up, but badly twisted. The occupants escaped with slight injuries.

While members of the family of William Wick were at supper the storm lifted the roof so suddenly they did not realize what was happening. A large barn was carried 200 feet and landed on a coal shed.

The tornado appeared to be about 100 feet wide.

Auctioneer as soon as struck off. Other
 AUCTIONEER

Lowell 7 --- Lawrence 6

TWO MEN IN COURT
Charged With Causing Death of
Fall River Man

FALL RIVER, May 23.—In the district court today a hearing was given in the cases of Wilfred St. Martin and Louis Gibeau on the charge of manslaughter. They are accused of having been responsible for the death of Henry Bonnoyer on the morning of May 17, as the outcome of a quarrel in which the three men were involved after having been participants in the festivities of a wedding. Judge McDougherty after hearing the evidence bound them both over in the sum of $2500 to the June term of the superior court to await the action of the grand jury.

FOUND IN RIVER
Body of Unknown Man Recovered
at No. Chelmsford

The body of an unknown man was taken from the Merrimack river at North Chelmsford this forenoon and was turned over to Undertaker Young of this city. The body was fully dressed and on a card found in the clothing appeared the name, Clarence Dismore. The body had been in the water for ten days or two weeks. The man, in life, would have weighed in the vicinity of 130 pounds and was about 5 feet 11 inches in height. Because of the mud and dirt it was impossible to describe his clothing. The body was first seen by Motorman Lane of the Boston and Northern and it was taken from the water by a Mr. Connell of North Chelmsford.

SNELL FOUND DEAD
Was Son of Millionaire Who
Was Murdered

CHICAGO, May 23.—Albert J. Snell, son of the millionaire, Amos J. Snell, whose murder here in 1888 by a burglar created a sensation, was found dead in bed at a cheap rooming house here today. He was 50 years old. He inherited a fortune from his father and is said to have set a fast pace while the money lasted. For several years he had made a hand to mouth living running errands on the docks. "Willie" Tascotti, who was accused of the murder of the elder Snell, was never found by the police.

PERFECT AFFINITY

exists between our patients and ourselves. They have every confidence in our ability to make their teeth last to a good old age when they trust us to keep them in condition. When they come too late for us to save them we will make your mouth perfect by our scientific crown and bridge work, or by inserting natural looking plates at

Dr. Gagnon's
Obtundine System of Dentistry
468 Merrimack St., Opp. Tilden St.

MIDDLESEX COOPERATIVE BANK
Semi-Annual Dividend Just Declared at the Rate of
5% Per Annum
Shares in New Series Now on Sale at Office of the Bank,
88 Central Block
LOWELL, MASS.

REV. DR. CLARK

The third annual convention of the Lowell Christian Endeavor union was held Saturday afternoon and evening in the Paige Street F. B. church. The speaker was Rev. Francis E. Clark, D. D., founder and president of the United Society of Christian Endeavor. The societies of Lowell and suburban churches were well represented. The decorations were in the C. E. colors, red and white, and at the top of an arch was spelled the topic of the day, "Success."

"The Secret of Worldwide Success in Christian Endeavor" was the subject of Dr. Clark's address, and he was given a great ovation when he arose to speak. Dr. Clark said that coming to Lowell was like coming home, because here his mother was born and his grandfather lived all of his life, and here he used to come back to the ancestral home for Thanksgiving. And 25 years ago next month was held in Kirk Street church the third convention of the Christian Endeavor society. The officers of the Lowell Christian Endeavor society are as follows: Herbert J. Ball, vice president; Miss Ella M. Penn, secretary; Walter A. Chase, treasurer; James A. Grant, auditor; Miss Mildred M. McKnight, junior superintendent; Miss Annie M. Wylie, junior secretary; Rev. A. P. Wedge, counselor.

The following had charge of the arrangements for the convention: Reception, Walter A. Chase; registration, Miss Winifred L. Davis; supper committee, Mrs. W. O. Brown, Mrs. M. G. Batchelder, Mrs. W. H. Upham; director of music, Charles R. Thomas.

BELMONT PARK RACES
BELMONT PARK, N. Y., May 23.—First race: Lochiel, 109, Sculling, 4 to 1, even, out, first; Feather Duster, 111, Butwell, 2 to 1, 7 to 10, out, second; Towson Field, 112, Notter, 5 to 2, even, out, third. Time 58.
Second race: Barleythorpe, 108, Butwell, 3 to 5, 1 to 4, out, first; Candleberry, 108, Dugan, 7 to 5, 7 to 10, out, second; Davante, 127, Archibald, 20 to 1, 5 to 1, even, third. Time 1:20.

Close Game Played at Spalding Park

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
LOWELL	-	1	0	1	0	0	0	0	2	3---7
LAWRENCE	-	0	3	0	0	1	1	0	1	0---6

There were about five hundred fans at Spalding park this afternoon to witness the game between Lowell and Lawrence. Though the weather was threatening, the day was a good one for baseball. There was a new face in the local lineup in the person of Vance, a find from the Connecticut league. The Lowell team played Berkeley, R. L. at Rocky Point in Rhode Island yesterday, and Vance put up such a good proposition that Manager Gray immediately added him to the list of regulars.

Despite the fact that there have been rumors to the effect that several of the players signed by Lowell will not appear, the writer this afternoon saw a telegram sent to Manager Gray which positively stated that Blakely and McDonald were on their way to join the local team.

Umpire Lannigan was in the points and called the game at three o'clock, the batting order of the teams being as follows:

Lowell
Fitzpatrick, 2b
Vance, 3b
Conney, ss
Magee, lf
Fluharty, rf
Jones, cf
Hornell, c
Morse, 1b
Wolfgang, p

Lawrence
2b, Miller
Vance, 3b
Conney, ss
Magee, lf
Fluharty, rf
Jones, cf
Hornell, c
Morse, 1b
Wolfgang, p

First Inning
Lowell scored a run in the first inning while the visitors failed to send a man across the plate.

Miller was the first man up and he drew a base on balls. Catterson struck out and Miller went to second. Reynolds hit to Morse and Perrott fled to Jones.

In the latter half of the inning Fitz drew a base on balls and went to second on Vance's sacrifice. Conney singled and Fitz scored. Conney going to second on the throw home. Magee then drew a base on balls. Fluharty hit to Miller forcing Magee. Jones drew a base on balls filling the bases, but Hornell closed the inning by striking out.

Score—Lowell 1, Lawrence 0.

Second Inning

In the second inning Finlayson, the pitcher of the Lawrence team, cracked the ball out over the left fence for a home run, scoring three runs. Lowell was not so fortunate, however, and had to be contented with a goose egg.

Crisham opened the inning by hitting to Fitz and being retired at first.

Kruger hit to Conney, who stopped the ball, but threw bad to first and Kruger went to second on the play. Noyes drew a base on balls and Almsmith fled to Jones. Kruger going to third on the play. Finlayson sent the ball over the left field fence for a home run, scoring Kruger, Noyes and himself. Miller closed the inning by hitting to Vance and going out at first.

In Lowell's half Morse foul fled to Almsmith. Wolfgang struck out and Fitz foul fled to Noyes.

Score—Lowell 1, Lawrence 3.

Third Inning

The visitors went out in quick order in the third inning. Catterson bunted to Wolfgang and was out at first while Reynolds and Perrott struck out.

Lowell scored a run in the latter half of the inning as a result of two of the visiting fielders colliding with each other. Vance hit to Finlayson and was out at first. Conney knocked a fly to deep left centre field and Reynolds and Perrott started on the run for the ball. Owing to the fact that each had his eyes on the ball they collided with such force that both men were knocked out and Conney came all the way around and scored. When Reynolds and Perrott were picked up, it was found that both were in bad condition. Reynolds having a bruise over the eye and they were retired from the game. Myers going to centre field and Capt. Hannan to left field. After the game was restarted, Magee foul fled to Noyes. Fluharty drew a base on balls and Jones closed the inning by striking out.

Score—Lowell 2, Lawrence 3.

Fourth Inning

In the fourth inning Crisham hit to Wolfgang and was out at first. Kruger hit to the centre field fence for a three bagger. Noyes hit to Conney and the latter threw Kruger out at the plate. Almsmith hit to Morse and was out at first.

In Lowell's half Hornell drew a base on balls, but a few minutes later Almsmith caught him napping at first and threw him out. Morse struck out. Wolfgang singled by short stop, but he failed to get beyond first for Fitzpatrick struck out.

Score—Lowell 2, Lawrence 3.

Fifth Inning

Finlayson, the home run hitter, sent the ball over Jones' head for a clean three bagger, but Jones threw bad to Magee and Finlayson scored. Miller hit to Conney and was out at first. Catterson fled to Magee and Bannan drew a base on balls, but the latter was caught off first by Wolfgang.

Vance fled to Noyes. Conney foul fled to Almsmith and Magee fled to Bannan.

Score—Lowell 2, Lawrence 4.

Sixth Inning

Lawrence scored another in the sixth inning. Myers bunted to Wolfgang for a single and the latter threw bad to first and the runner went to third. Crisham hit to Vance and the latter held the ball a little too long in order to keep Myers on third and Crisham reached first. Crisham and Myers then worked a double steal, the latter scoring. Kruger and Noyes struck out and Almsmith hit to Fitz and was out at first.

In the latter half of the inning Fluharty struck out. Jones followed with a single to centre field, but Hornell hit to Bannan and the latter tagged Jones and then threw to first for a double play.

Score—Lowell 2, Lawrence 5.

Seventh Inning

Finlayson made his third hit in this inning, making a single to right field. He went to second on Miller's sacrifice. Catterson hit along the first base line and was second out. Bannan was third out on strikes.

Morse hit to Miller and was out at first and Wolfgang hit to Finlayson and was second out at first. Fitzpatrick singled to left field. Vance hit to Noyes forcing Fitz at second.

Score—Lowell 2, Lawrence 5.

Eighth Inning

Myers hit to Vance but Morse on first dropped the ball and the runner was safe. Crisham hit to Fitz who fumbled and the runner was safe at first while Myers went to third. Kruger hit to Wolfgang and was out at first. Noyes hit to Conney and was out at first, but Magee scored by slick base running. Almsmith hit to Vance and was out at first.

Conney struck out. Magee foul fled to Almsmith. Fluharty hit to Miller who fumbled and he got on first. Jones hit a fly to Myers who fumbled it and Fluharty scored. Jones going to second. Hornell hit to left field for two bases and Jones scored. Roy went to bat for Morse and striking at the first three balls was out.

Score—Lowell 4, Lawrence 6.

Ninth Inning

Finlayson hit to Vance and was out at first. Miller struck out. Catterson hit to centre field for three bases. Bannan fled to Magee.

Bonlies went to bat for Wolfgang and hit a grounder to Noyes which the latter could not handle and the runner reached first. Fitzpatrick hit to left field for a single, sending Bonlies to third. Vance struck out. Finlayson threw to third to get Bonlies and the ball went to the left field fence, Bonlies and Fitz scoring. Conney struck out. Magee drew a base on balls. Magee stole second and a bad throw by Almsmith sent him to third. Almsmith kicked that Fluharty had interfered with his throw and the visiting catcher got to obstructive that the umpire put him off the field. Almsmith rushed back to the field to strike the umpire and it took three men to hold him and attempt to lead him from the grounds. The effort of the players to get the Lawrence catcher off the grounds were unavailing and Umpire Lannigan said he would forfeit the game to the Lowell team if Almsmith did not leave the grounds. Almsmith was led from the grounds much against his will and Trotter took his place behind the bat while Grant took Finlayson's place. Fluharty got a single scoring Magee.

Score—Lowell 7, Lawrence 6.

Hits—Lowell 9, Lawrence 8.

Errors—Lowell 5, Lawrence 4.

GAME POSTPONED

National at Chicago: Philadelphia-Chicago game postponed wet grounds.

DEATHS

GODDARD—Mrs. Charles E. Goddard, daughter of the late Joel Knapp of this city, died this afternoon at her home, 7 Willow street, Southington, Conn., aged 65 years. Her husband and one child, her mother, Mrs. Eliza Knapp, one sister, Mrs. Paul Nichols, and four brothers, Harry, Fred, Walter and Arthur survive her.

THE TRAINING SCHOOL
Miss Edmund Resigns Principalship to Accept Position at $3500

She Met With an Accident in New York and Later Contracted a Severe Cold—She Will be at New York University

Miss Gertrude Edmund, principal of the training school, has sent to Superintendent of the school board a letter, tendering her resignation to take effect at once. Under present arrangements she would be principal during the year 1910-11.

On January 12 of this year, she fell in New York and sustained a severe fracture of the ankle, under which she was confined to a hospital for four months. After leaving the hospital she contracted a cold which developed into pleurisy. She has however received an appointment at the New York university at which she had been studying for a degree and as her subjoined letter will show at salary of $3500.

Her letter is as follows:

Cohasset, New York, May 14, 1910.

Supt. A. K. Whitcomb, Secretary Lowell School Committee, Lowell, Mass.

My Dear Sir: When the school board kindly gave me leave of absence last October it was with the understanding that I was to study for a Ph. D. degree in New York University. My plans were upset by an accident which was followed by a long and serious illness, and I find that I must take a longer rest than I anticipated when I left the hospital. I have been offered university and professional school positions in New York for the year 1910-11, with a salary of $2500 and have decided to accept the same.

I had hoped to return to Lowell to present my resignation as principal of the training school in person, but as I am unable to do so, will ask you to present it at the next meeting of the board, the same to take effect at once. Thanking you and the board for the many past favors, I am

Respectfully yours,
Gertrude Edmund.

LUNATIC ESCAPED NOTED PRIESTS
Dangerous Man Got Coming to St. Peter's
Away From Danvers This Week

Police authorities all over this part of the state are uniting their efforts to locate and capture Thomas Heffernan, a dangerous lunatic, who escaped from Danvers Saturday morning from the dangerous ward.

Heffernan formerly belonged in South Groveland and was arrested a year and a half ago for killing three men in Haverhill. At that time he was carefully examined by the physicians and adjudged dangerously insane. He was placed in Danvers and has been there up to Saturday morning, when he made his escape.

Following so quickly upon the escape of Ambrose Van Buskirk, the murderer of Mrs. Gray, and James Galloway, on May 3, the escape is quite sensational. The Danvers authorities have kept the lunatic under the strictest surveillance to prevent any more of the patients breaking away.

A strict investigation is sure to follow this latest escape. The police in the cities and towns of Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Vermont have been warned to be on the lookout for Heffernan, as he is a dangerous man. It is not known as yet how Heffernan effected his escape.

PASSED TO THIRD READING
BOSTON, May 23.—The bill permitting the New York, New Haven and Hartford to acquire direct control of the Berkshire St. Ry. Co. was passed to a third reading in the senate today without arousing comment.

LONGEST AEROPLANE FLIGHT
NEWBURYPORT, May 23.—The longest aeroplane flight thus far held in New England was made today by William Hilliard of Boston, who went a distance of a third of a mile at Plum Island. In another flight today Hilliard flew a distance of 700 feet. The machine worked smoothly and no mishap occurred.

HARVARD DEFEATED PRINCETON
BOSTON, May 23.—Harvard defeated Princeton at tennis at the Longwood Cricket club today, taking four out of six matches in singles and two out of three matches in doubles.

BOARD OF TRADE
Urges Legislature to Favor Bill

In response to a telegram received this morning by the board of trade from the Boston chamber of commerce, regarding house bill 1450, for constitutional amendment allowing classification of property for taxation, the following telegram was sent to all the Lowell representatives at the state house:

By vote of the directors of the Lowell board of trade passage of house bill 1450, for amendment allowing classification of property for taxation, was strongly urged. Please do what you can to urge passage of the bill.

Signed,
William Cogger,
Acting Secretary, state.

Interest
BEGINS
Wednesday, June 1
SAVINGS DEPT.
Traders National Bank
Hours: 8.30 a. m. to 3 p. m. Saturday, 8.30 a. m. to 12.30 p. m. and 7 to 9 p. m.

Mechanics Savings Bank
202 MERRIMACK ST.
Quarter Day
JUNE 4TH.

Poland Water
For Sale by
F. and E. BAILEY & CO.
GEO. A. WILLSON & CO.
JENNISON'S
Tooth Powder
ALL DRUGGISTS

The Mighty Blacksmith
The successful horse-shoer in these days is not the one who does most work, but the one who does the most paying work. Blowing forge fires by hand is not profitable work. Let an electric forge blower do it.
The Lowell Electric Light Corporation
60 CENTRAL STREET

MISS COULSON
GAVE LUNCHEON IN HONOR OF A LOWELL GIRL
A delightful little luncheon was served to a few guests yesterday afternoon by Miss Elizabeth Coulson of Cambridgeport, in honor of Miss Bessie Coulson of Lowell, who is attending the Boston Conservatory of Music.

Miss Coulson had as her guests the Misses Ruth Riley, Ruth Gay, and Pauline Sweet of Rochester, N. Y., who are classmates of Miss Coulson at the conservatory, and Messrs. Rowland Dow, and George Riley of Haverhill, and Mr. Thomas Riley of Lawrence.

BLACKSMITH
Seeks Place in United States Senate
ST. JOSEPH, Mo., May 23.—John F. Breckenridge, the blacksmith who announces himself a candidate for United States senator from Missouri and whose petition with the required number of names has been filed with the secretary of state at Jefferson City, in his early days followed the "trail" as a cowboy. He runs a horse-shoeing establishment at the stockyards south of St. Joseph. While with the wild west shows as a ropo and cattle thrower he visited Europe and every part of the United States. In Brussels five years ago he saved the lives of five persons in a hotel fire and again at Jacksonville, Fla. seven years ago he rescued two persons from suffocation by smoke. As a farmer in Jacksonville, Fla. six years ago he made a strenuous campaign for United States senator, visiting every county in the state.

6 O'CLOCK SECRETARY MEYER

Has Brought About Reorganization of the Navy

WASHINGTON, May 23.—A virtual reorganization of the navy has been made by Secy Meyer in the year during which he has held the portfolio of the navy department. He has brought about a saving of money in many directions. It is said. Many of the changes inaugurated by Secretary Meyer are the result, direct or indirect, of suggestions offered at his request by officers in all parts of the naval service.

Saving of coal has been accomplished by systematic firing, economy of steam replacing defective joints and journals and stopping leaky valves. On the Montana a saving of 15 tons of coal daily is due to systematic firing. With reference to all the saving has been as great. On the battleship Georgia improved evaporators have reduced the cost of making fresh water $5 p. c. A saving of thousands of dollars in repair work has been effected by having repair shops on shipboard. The establishment of a school of marine engineering at Annapolis is another means whereby Secretary Meyer hopes to train for special work engineer officers who show a likelihood of being of particular value in some part of his reorganization scheme.

DEPT. OF JUSTICE

Takes New Tack On Crusade Against Bucketshops

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The department of justice took a new tack today in its extensive crusade against bucketshops for in addition to the conspiracy charge that was made against 29 men in the cities of New York, Jersey City, Baltimore and Washington last April the department today lodged a charge of a direct violation of section 865 of the district code which forbids bucketing or setting up a gaming table in the district.

This charge is made against the persons who are said to constitute the Standard Stock & Grain Co. of Jersey City. Four additional persons are expected to be caught in the dragnet who were not mentioned in the previous indictment. These are Sam Alder and C. Lillis, known among his associates as "Cat" Lillis of New York and W. Fox and E. M. Browning of Baltimore. Two indictments were returned today charging conspiracy and the setting up of a gaming table against these four men in addition to Edward Altman of Jersey City, Louis and Angelo Cells of St. Louis, Robert Hall, Samuel Raymond, Oscar Rappell of Philadelphia, Henry Stumpf of Philadelphia, Henry Duryea and Charles Alley of Washington. Four additional persons are ex-

WOMAN ON TRIAL

Is Charged With Murder of William J. Erder

ST. LOUIS, May 23.—Mrs. Dora Elizabeth Doney, who with her husband, Dr. Loren Doney, is under indictment on the charge of murdering William J. Erder, whom it is alleged she married, was placed on trial here today. The defense asked a severance of the trials and the state elected to try the woman first. It is charged that while she was the wife of Erder and also that of Doney she poisoned Erder with arsenic.

Shortly after his death it is charged Mrs. Doney sent Erder's furniture to the home of Doney in Columbus, Neb. She collected Erder's life insurance. Mrs. Doney now admits he married Erder while she was the wife of Doney. She says she was not responsible for her acts as she was under the influence of morphine which her husband sent her. The defense will claim that Erder took patent medicines.

NO INFORMATION SPITZER PARDON

From Balloonists Who Left Pittsfield

PITTSFIELD, May 23.—Up to a late hour this forenoon no information as to the landing place of the balloon Pittsfield in the heart of the Berkshires had been received here. As William F. Whitehouse, who piloted the balloon from Pittsfield Saturday, was in New York yesterday, it is presumed the flight was not a long one. Mr. Whitehouse does not usually notify this city of his landing place.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—At the pardon division of the department of justice today it was said that the papers having to do with the pardon of Oliver Spitzer, convicted in connection with sugar frauds, had been handled entirely by Atty. Gen. Wickensham and that no one in the division knew anything about the case except instructions received by them to keep the matter quiet.

At the White House it was said that there was no statement to be made as to the pardon.

MRS. MARY NILAN

MOTHER OF BISHOP NILAN IS DEAD

HARTFORD, Conn., May 23.—Mrs. Mary Nilan, mother of Right Rev. John J. Nilan, Roman Catholic bishop of Hartford, died here today in her 84th year. She had become infirm in her old age. Mrs. Nilan came here from America, where her son was a member of the bishopric last month. She had made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Jeremiah H. Coffey. She leaves five children.

SPITZER TO TESTIFY

NEW YORK, May 23.—When Oliver Spitzer some months ago, convicted of underweighing in the sugar fraud cases and sentenced to two years in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta was called as a witness in the Helke trial today, it was announced that Spitzer had been pardoned by President Taft.

PROTEST AGAINST RATES

BOSTON, May 23.—The manufacturers of granite and marble monuments in New England were well represented today in their protest before C. A. Prentiss of the interstate commerce commission against the recent 100 per cent. advance in freight rates on southern railroads. The railroads answered the protest by stating that the advance was necessary on account of the heavy damages demanded because of stone injured in transit. The granite men claimed that this rule was made in order to favor southern quarries which they said do not have the same facilities for dressing stone as do those in New England.

FUNERALS

WALSH—The funeral of Mrs. Ellen Walsh took place yesterday afternoon from the rooms of Undertaker C. H. Molloy & Sons. Burial was in the Catholic cemetery, where Rev. Timothy Callahan read the committal prayers. Undertakers C. H. Molloy & Sons had charge.

STACKPOLE—The funeral of Mrs. Minnie F. Stackpole took place yesterday afternoon from her late residence, 835 Chelmsford street. The services were conducted by Rev. James E. Gregg, pastor of the Kirk Street Congregational church. Appropriate selections were sung by the First Universalist church choir. The hearers were David H. Nelson, D. Keables, George W. Tucke and Charles T. Tule. A delegation was present representing the Women's auxiliary to the Y. M. C. A. Burial was in the family lot in the Edison cemetery. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Mr. William A. Mitchell, under the direction of Undertaker George W. Healey.

HOLT—The funeral of Mrs. Sarah M. C. Holt took place Saturday afternoon from the residence in North Chelmsford. Rev. Mr. Bartlett officiated and there was singing by Mrs. Horace Hanson and Mrs. Duncan. The bearers were Messrs. Hale, Blodgett, Jesselyn and Dunn. Burial was in the Riverside cemetery, North Chelmsford, under the direction of Undertaker C. M. Young.

NBS—Mary Nels, aged 7 months, died Sunday morning at the home of her parents, Ernest and Rose Nels, 109 Charles street. The funeral took place this morning at 9 o'clock from the home of her parents. Burial was in the Catholic cemetery. Undertakers M. H. McDonough & Sons had charge.

DEATHS

FLYNN—John T. Flynn died yesterday at his home, rear of 102 Adams street, aged 38 years. He is survived by his wife, Mary, and four children. He was a well known resident of St. Patrick's parish and was a member of Division I. A. D. H. and of Court Gen. Dimon, A. O. F.

ASHWORTH—Mrs. Julia E. Ashworth, wife of Albion S. Ashworth, died yesterday at her home, 28 South Walker street, aged 53 years and two months. She leaves, besides her husband, one daughter, Mrs. Harold R. Maxson, two grandchildren, Carlotta and Virginia Maxson, one brother, Warren P. Smith and five sisters, Mrs. Charles H. Hanson, Mrs. Clara E. Cain of Springfield, Mrs. Frances M. Blood of Nashua, N. H., Mrs. Bertha Richmond of Springfield, Vt., and Mrs. Leo Grand M. Anway of Los Angeles, Cal.

HEALEY—Miss Catherine Healey died yesterday at the home of her niece, Mrs. Mary Tierney, 3 Dewey avenue, off Cornhill street. She was a well known resident of Centralville.

WORK—Augustus A. Work died Sunday morning at his home, 12 Middlesex park, aged 71 years, 9 months. He leaves besides his wife, one daughter, Mrs. Annie Davis of this city, and three grandchildren. He was a member of Grand Union lodge, I. O. O. F., and for 30 years was an employee of the Bigelow Carpet Co.

FANNING—Alexander Fanning, aged 62 years, private 15th Regt. Mass Infantry, died today at his home, 139 Colburn street. The body was removed to Saunders' undertaking rooms. He leaves a sister, Mrs. Annie Damon of Holden, Mass.

PARKER—The death of Willard S. Parker, a lifelong resident of Chelmsford, occurred suddenly at his home on the Boston road, Friday evening, as the result of a stroke, aged 51 years. Although not having enjoyed robust health for several years, Mr. Parker was about as usual on Monday of last week, a severe cold contracted on Monday evening resulting in conditions. He was unable to withstand. He had for several years been a member of the O. O. F. belonging to the Lowell lodge, and was at the time of his death a member of Chelmsford Grange. Besides his wife, he is survived by a son, Leon H. Parker, a daughter, Ethel P. Parker, and a brother, Dr. Elmer Parker of Salem, Mass., and a sister, Mrs. B. S. Adams of Nantucket.

CHENEY—LaRoy Arthur Cheney, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur A. Cheney, died at the home of his parents on the Lowell road, Saturday, aged 23 years, a carload of stones. He had been a sufferer from a heart difficulty, but in spite of this handicap was most optimistic and full of courage, entering with a wholeheartedness into whatever came in his way to do, in a manner that won for him the admiration and friendship of all with whom he came in contact. He was born in Lowell August 20, 1887, his parents removing to Chelmsford the following year. He attended the public schools of Chelmsford, graduating from the high school in the class of 1906, of which he was valedictorian and was also president of the class. In the following September he passed the preliminary examinations to the Institute of Technology at Boston, but was prevented by ill health from continuing. In the winter of 1906 he began work in the foreman's office at the Lowell Machine shop, making during his stay an excellent record for himself, and winning many friends by his cheerfulness. For several years he had been a constant attendant at the Chelmsford Street Baptist church and Sunday school. He was secretary of the tennis club of the school.

HEALEY—Joseph C. Healey, aged 61 years, died yesterday at his home, East Bridgewater, Mass. The deceased was a member of Oberlin lodge, I. O. O. F., and Pilgrim commandery. The remains will be brought to this city for burial Wednesday by Undertaker J. A. Weinbeck.

RECEIVERS APPOINTED

CHICAGO, May 23.—Judge Groszup in the United States circuit court today appointed receivers for the Chicago Railway Co., which operates the west and north side street cars. The company is not solvent and the receivership is believed to be a prelude to a reorganization.

CHICAGO, May 23.—The manufacturers of granite and marble monuments in New England were well represented today in their protest before C. A. Prentiss of the interstate commerce commission against the recent 100 per cent. advance in freight rates on southern railroads. The railroads answered the protest by stating that the advance was necessary on account of the heavy damages demanded because of stone injured in transit. The granite men claimed that this rule was made in order to favor southern quarries which they said do not have the same facilities for dressing stone as do those in New England.

BOTH LEGS AMPUTATED

Man Either Fell or Jumped From Train

LYNN, May 23.—When Mrs. Jonathan Eldredge started to leave the train in Boston today she found that her husband, who had boarded the train with her at Lynn and had sat in a seat directly opposite his wife, was missing. After a search through the train and station had proved unsuccessful, she called the Lynn railroad station on the telephone and found that her husband had been picked up on the track a little distance from the station with both legs amputated. He was taken to the Lynn hospital, where he is not expected to live. Eldredge, a former department store owner of this city and lately in business on Summer street, Boston, had been acting queerly but it is not known whether he jumped or fell from the train. He is 56 years old.

POPULATION OF NEW BEDFORD

NEW BEDFORD, May 23.—Based on the assessors' returns which are complete for all but two of the city's 18 precincts, the population of New Bedford is 106,914. According to the last census figures, a special enumeration made in 1906, the population was 79,078, showing a gain in four years of 27,836.

BANKS INVOLVED

In Alleged Troubles of Big Grain Firm

ALBANY, N. Y., May 23.—Through the alleged manipulation of warehouse receipts the firm of Durant & Elmore, grain merchants, with offices in Albany, Chicago, Buffalo and Boston, has become involved in a financial tangle which promises sensational developments. The National Commercial bank of Albany holds the company's paper for $200,000, the First National bank has $17,200 and many thousands more are said to have been secured from out of town institutions. According to a statement by Vice President James H. Perkins of the National Commercial bank, his bank is hopelessly involved. "We are informed," says Mr. Perkins, "that eight or nine banks hold the firm's paper besides grain commission brokers with whom the firm has dealt and a number of individuals." The exact condition of the firm's affairs is not known, but an examination is under way. Gibson Oliver, the treasurer of the company, had charge of the affairs of its Albany office according to members of the firm, but no statement from him as to the alleged shortage has been forthcoming.

Edwin Elmore, a member of the firm who was summoned from Chicago, is assisting in the examination. The scheme by which the money is alleged to have been secured was a simple one. As soon as a carload of grain was shipped from Chicago for the local firm the manager received a warehouse receipt. This was in the regular course of business. Later on the warehouse receipts are said to have been so manipulated as to make possible the heavy loans from the banks upon the bills as security. The men whose duty is said to have been to take up the warehouse receipts when the grain was actually delivered by the railroad company, it is alleged, did not do so and hence the genuine bills were used over again. President Mead of the First National bank said today that his bank holds $17,200 of the Durant & Elmore paper bearing the personal endorsement of Messrs. Durant, Elmore and Oliver and secured by original bill of lading drafts deposited as collateral security for the loans. The company, he said, had been gradually withdrawing its business from the bank for some time past. Careful investigation led him to believe that the bank would be amply protected from any loss.

"I do not believe the banks will lose any money," said Mr. Mead. "They will hold the railroads responsible. We look to the railroad officials to take the initiative."

NO AGENT IN BOSTON

BOSTON, May 23.—The grain firm of Durant & Elmore of Albany, whose accounts are under examination, has no agent in this city, but other grain firms stated today that the Albany merchants had curtailed their business in this part of the country considerably during the past year.

FUNERAL NOTICES

WALSH—The funeral of Mrs. Johanna Walsh will take place on Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock from her late home, 5 Watson street. Solemn high mass at the Sacred Heart church at 9 o'clock. Undertakers Higgins Bros. in charge.

ASHWORTH—Died, in this city, May 22, at 25 South Walker street, Mrs. Julia E., wife of Albion S. Ashworth, aged 53 years, 2 months. Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from 23 South Walker street. Friends invited. Undertaker Weinbeck, in charge.

FLYNN—The funeral of John F. Flynn will take place Tuesday morning from his late home, rear 102 Adams street, at 9 o'clock. High mass of requiem at St. Patrick's church at 9.45. Funeral arrangements in charge of Undertaker Peter H. Savage.

HEALEY—The funeral of Miss Catherine Healey will take place Tuesday evening at 8.30 from the home of her niece, Mrs. Mary Tierney, 3 Dewey avenue, off Cornhill street. A funeral high mass will be celebrated in St. Michael's church at 9 o'clock. The funeral will be in charge of C. H. Molloy & Sons.

HICKSON—The funeral of the late Thomas Hickson will take place tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock from his home, No. 785 Broadway. At 9 o'clock a mass of requiem will be sung at St. Patrick's church. Undertakers J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

WINTON—Died in this city, May 21, Miss Susan E. Winton, aged 75 years. Funeral services will be held from the residence of her sister, Mrs. Anna M. Sheppard, 16 Elliot street, on Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. Friends invited. The funeral arrangements are in charge of Undertakers J. R. Currier Co.

LIQUOR SEIZED

TETREAULT WILL BE CALLED INTO COURT

Sergeant Alexander Duncan and Inspector William H. Grady of the liquor squad paid a visit to the home of Adolphus Tetreault at 9 Fulton place yesterday and seized six cases of beer. Tetreault will be summoned into court during the week to answer to a complaint charging him with illegally keeping liquor.

PRICE OF LUMBER

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The department of justice is investigating the subject of the price of the lumber in the United States with a view of determining whether or not the so-called lumber trust may be prosecuted under the Sherman anti-trust law on the ground that it is a combination in restraint of trade.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY

Lawrence Man is Charged With Conspiracy to Bribe

NEWBURYPORT, May 23.—"Not guilty," was the plea entered today by Samuel Kres, of Lawrence, when arraigned in the Essex county superior court here on four indictments with a total of 21 counts charging bribery and conspiracy to bribe. Kres' case is one of the many in connection with the alleged bribery of public officials of Lawrence and in which connection Mayor White of Lawrence is under indictment. Kres, who is a manufacturer of Lawrence, gave himself up to the police of this city last night.

AFTER WESTON'S RECORD

NEW YORK, May 23.—John Ennis, the Stamford, Conn., pedestrian, who aspires to break Weston's record of 105 days from New York to San Francisco, left the city hall at 10.15 this morning, armed with letters from Mayor Gaynor to the mayors of Chicago and San Francisco. Ennis will be 68 years old on June 4, about three years younger than Weston.

"I got stirred up by a reported statement from Mr. Weston that no one except a person born in America could do such a walk," said Mr. Ennis. "I've got a pair of good Irish legs and I think they'll turn out as good or better a stunt."

$25,000 ESTATE

Goes to a Man Was Thought to be Dead

WORCESTER, May 23.—Although he had not seen his sister, who supposed him dead, for 33 years, William Venna, a hostler of San Mateo, Cal., before the Civil war, was able to prove himself the only heir of her $25,000 estate and today Judge William T. Forbes of the probate court New York, where he last saw her in allowed his claim. The sister was Mrs. 1872. Venna removed to California. Jennie S. Miller of Alhoh, who died on July 2, 1908, leaving no known heirs. The court appointed a public administrator to take charge of the estate at for many years she supposed he was the time but recently Venna appeared dead.

MEN HAD NARROW ESCAPE

CRANSTON, R. I., May 23.—The hissing of steam probably saved the lives of three men who were in the engine room of the Charles Brickley Novelty Works in this city a few moments before the boiler exploded, wrecking that portion of the factory and entailing a loss estimated at $3000. One of the men heard the noise of the escaping steam and fearing that something was wrong related his fears to his companions who retreated from the building in time. No one was injured as the explosion occurred before the factory help had arrived.

GENERAL DRAPER'S ESTATE

HOPEDALE, May 23.—An estate of $6,358,487 was left by the late General William F. Draper of Hopedale who died at Washington last February. The inventory of the estate was filed in the probate court at Worcester today by the executors under the will, Oliver Lane, the secretary of the deceased, and Attorney W. K. Richardson of Nahant. The inventory shows personal property of the value of $6,334,087 and real estate $24,400.

COOK, TAYLOR & CO.

231-233 Central Street

Special Biggest Bargain in Towels Ever Offered . . .

6c Each

In Basement at Low Prices

Mosquito Netting
For 5 Yard Piece, Any Color
55c
Bed Spreads
Sheetings
Pillow Cases
Sheets
Ticking
Brown Cotton
Table Oil Cloth
Light Percales
Light Outing
Heavy Outing
Drillings
Prints
Ginghams
Crash
Towels
Curtain Muslin
Table Padding
Table Linens
Napkins

COOK, TAYLOR & CO.
231-233 Central Street

LATEST

KRESS SURRENDERS

Lawrence Man Charged With Conspiracy to Bribe

LAWRENCE, May 23.—Samuel Kress, who was one of the 12 against whom indictments were found by the grand jury in connection with the so-called municipal "graft" cases and was out of town when capias were served upon the other defendants last week, gave himself up to the police last evening and was released upon bail of $2500, furnished by his father, Herman Kress.

Kress is charged with conspiracy to bribe. It is alleged that he was involved with Mayor White, George E. Smart, ex-Aldermen Burns and LeGendre, Ernest Dube and Thomas A. Keegan in an alleged conspiracy to effect the removal of James A. Hamilton, chief engineer of the fire department, by offering a bribe to ex-Alderman Moss.

MILL OFFICIALS CHURCH PEOPLE

Refuse to Take Back Want Officials to Prevent Bouts

FRANKLIN, N. H., May 23.—Although the strike of the International Brotherhood of Papermakers was formally declared off Saturday night when the striking union men attempted to return to work at the International Paper company's mill here today they were told that the mill officials here had received no instructions to take them back. The mill has been running in full for some time with the aid of a large crew of strike-breakers. When many of the strikers reported for work this morning, it was stated by the superintendent that he did not require them and would only employ them when needed.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—Resolutions condemning prize fighting as "dangerous, degrading and demoralizing" were adopted at a meeting of the congregation of the Grace Methodist Episcopal church last night. An appeal will be made to Gov. Gillett, Mayor McCarthy and Chief of Police Martin to use their influence to prevent further prize fights in this city. Rev. Leslie B. Riggs, pastor of the Grace Methodist church, in his sermon last night declared that boxing contests as conducted in England were fair sport, but he denounced the manner in which glove matches are held in California. He said that every effort would be made to stop the Johnson-Jeffries fight.

ONE MAN KILLED

AND ANOTHER WAS PROBABLY FATALY INJURED

PLAINFIELD, Conn., May 23.—Daniel Sullivan, aged 42, killed at the New Haven railroad crossing yesterday and his father-in-law, Timothy Shea, aged 60, were probably fatally injured. They were driving across the track and were struck by the 7 o'clock train from Williamstown.

JEFF IN FINE SHAPE

BEN LOMOND, May 23.—Promoter Gleason, who yesterday paid his first visit to Jeffries' training camp here, returned to "Frisco," extolling the condition in which he found the big fellow. "I was thunderstruck at the change I noticed in Jeff," Gleason declared. "I saw him strip at Los Angeles a year ago and I think he must have weighed fully 250 pounds that time. Now he is clean of all surplus flesh and he looks to be in as good shape as ever. His improvement, I think, is marvelous. He told me he would like to take on Johnson in two weeks. The only thing that can possibly spoil him is over-training."

THREE ASLEEP

Boys Were Found in a Freezer

NEW YORK, May 23.—Three sleepy youngsters received free lodgings from the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, Saturday night after being found asleep in an ice cream freezer at Coney Island. They accepted their fate stoically, after politely pointing out to Policeman Connelley of the Coney Island station that he had interrupted a dream in which they were for once eating all the ice cream they wanted. They gave their names as Charles, Frederick and Joseph Leland, aged, respectively, 9, 13 and 12.

TERMS SERVED

But Prisoners Are Still Detained

ALFRED, Me., May 23.—Four prisoners at the York county jail here, whose terms have expired, are still barred from freedom by a quarantine put on the jail on account of the illness of Sheriff Charles O. Emery, who has a mild attack of diphtheria. Despite their anguished wails the four prisoners, whose time is up, must remain in confinement until the quarantine is lifted.

SEEKS DIVORCE

MAN CHARGES HIS WIFE WITH CRUELTY

RENO, Nev., May 23.—Declaring that his wife, Margaret T. Boyden, continued harsh and tyrannical abuse toward him until he could endure it no longer, George I. Boyden, a business man of Attleboro, Mass., has filed a bill for divorce here in which he makes startling accusations against her.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT

BOSTON, May 23.—The tennis courts of the Longwood Cricket club were lively with collegians today with the opening matches in the New England college championships and the postponed meet between Harvard and Princeton.

AN EARTHQUAKE

AGED, France, May 23.—An earthquake was felt here at dawn. The movement continued for two seconds.

INDIAN LANDED

PHILADELPHIA, May 23.—It took the immigration officers at the Philadelphia port several hours yesterday to decide whether John Gensh, a Pennsylvanian of pure blood, should be admitted to the United States. They finally allowed him to land and new Gensh is on his way home.

FELL 2000 FEET

Aeronaut Escaped With Broken Leg

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 23.—Five thousand persons saw Oscar Leroy of Percy, Okla., fall two thousand or more feet through the air yesterday at Ellwood, Pa., near here, and escape with his life, his only injury being a broken leg. Leroy, who is an aeronaut, attached to a circus, had made a balloon ascent and when he lost his parachute, the latter soaked with the rain of the past 48 hours, refused to open until the aeronaut had almost reached the ground.

An hour later which the performance was in progress, the grand stand section of seats collapsed, carrying down women and children. The seats fell over the struggling people, but while many were thrown into hysterics, none sustained serious injury. The fire department and people of the community with canvasmen and other circus attendants rescued those buried beneath the water-soaked canvas.

KILLED HIMSELF

After His Bride Had Left Him

SYRACUSE, N. Y., May 23.—John May of Springfield, Mass., committed suicide yesterday morning at a rooming house in this city, where he and his wife had been living. The wife, Mrs. Kific May, told Coroner George R. Kings that she came from Springfield three weeks ago, and she said it was a runaway marriage. Three days ago the couple quarreled and Mrs. May left her husband. She found employment as a waitress.

Jealousy caused the murder and it was because his wife had left him that May drank carbolic acid some time during the night. He was found dead in his room yesterday morning. Mrs. May refuses to tell anything concerning her husband or herself. She is making arrangements for the funeral.

JUDGE HARRIS

Had His Yard Planted With Bombs

TIPTONVILLE, Tenn., May 23.—

Feeling that his only hope of protection is in fighting his enemies with their own weapons, Judge Harris of Tiptonville has planted bombs about his home here, connected with an electric battery inside the house and which can be exploded by pressing one of many buttons in different parts of the house.

Judge Harris has also appealed to the federal authorities, asking for their assistance against his enemies. The enemies in question are the friends of the eight men convicted of the murder of Capt. Quentin Rankin, who was killed at his summer home at Reel Foot Lake by night riders two years ago. Judge Harris presided at the trial when the eight men were convicted of murder. Later the supreme court of Tennessee reversed his decision and committed the men to jail.

His friends, however, warning him to take care and saying that they are going to kill him. He returned here from Memphis last evening and found that many outrages had been committed about his home during his short absence. The men who have warned him say that they have bombs which will blow him to eternity.

MAN WAS FINED

BECAUSE OF ARGUMENT WITH TICKET SELLER

NEW YORK, May 23.—Joseph M. Adams, a public accountant, went up to the ticket office of the Third avenue elevated at 42nd street Saturday night and asked for one ticket, offering a $20 bill.

"I can't change that," said the ticket agent.

"Hurry up! I want to get home. Give me change," ordered Adams.

He was again told it could not be changed. Adams, in a fit of rage, was held up for 15 minutes while he argued with the ticket seller. A policeman was called and Adams was arrested.

"Why didn't you get away and get your bill changed somewhere else?" asked the magistrate.

"I didn't have time to offer this bill," good legal tender, and he should have changed it according to law."

"But we will change it for you," said the magistrate. "Two dollars fine."

OLD RESIDENT

MRS. JOHANNAH WALSH PASSED AWAY TODAY

Mrs. Johannah Walsh, aged 69 and a resident of Lowell for 50 years, and a prominent member of the Methodist Episcopal church, died at her home, 5 Watson street, today at her home, 5 Watson street. Her death had been expected for several days and she passed away thoroughly resigned and fortified with the last rites of the church of which she had been a faithful and devoted attendant throughout her life. She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Michael Carey, and Misses Margaret, Catherine and Maria Walsh; three sons, Anthony, John and Michael Walsh.

GREAT EVENT

IN AID OF ST. MARY'S CHURCH OF COLLINSVILLE

At Associate hall on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings of this week a bazaar and festival will be run under the direction of the Rev. Thomas Walsh and a committee of his parishioners of St. Mary's church, Collinsville. The affair is the first of its kind held in this city for some time, and offering as it does an unusually large number of attractions, it is the confident expectation of its promoters that the bazaar will prove to be a great success. One of the principal features of the festival will be a dance which will be run on each evening. Kirtland's orchestra has been secured to furnish the music. Admission has been fixed at 25 cents, while season tickets for the three evenings of entertainment may be secured for 60 cents.

ONE LIFE LOST

N. Y. Firemen Made Sensational Rescues From Burning Building

NEW YORK, May 23.—Sensational rescues by firemen prevented more than one death in a tenement fire on East 70th street today. As it was, Mrs. Mary Miller died in a fireman's arms from the effects of smoke inhalation after she had been dragged to the roof, while her husband, William Miller, clutching their 11 months old son, unconscious and suffering from burns, was rescued just in time by another fire fighter.

Meanwhile, numbers of tenants were being carried down ladders and dropped into lifelines. Fully forty persons were taken in this way from the burning structures where members of sixteen families had been trapped.

HE HAD FOUR ACES

Man in Police Court Today Was Charged With Gambling

There was a quiet little game of cards being held on the South common yesterday afternoon when Patrolman Daniel Cogger put in an appearance. He reached the group before any of the members were warned of his approach and though there was a general rush to get away he succeeded in grabbing Joseph Nuno. Joseph denied that he had anything to do with the game, but when taken to the police station and searched four aces were found in one of the pockets of his clothing. In court this morning he pleaded guilty to a complaint charging him with taking part in a game on the Lord's day and was fined $15.

and James Mone, who was on parole from that institution, will be returned there.

Eight Women in Court

There were eight women who were brought before the court after the majority of the men prisoners had been arraigned. Four of the women were taken out of a house in Fenwick street yesterday afternoon by Patrolmen Ganley and Castles.

Josephine St. Sauveur, Catherine E. Forbes and Mary Gagnon were each fined $5.

Stole a Milk Bottle

Moise Houle, employed by J. Champagne, a milk dealer, was charged with the larceny of a milk bottle valued at five cents, the property of Theophile Chant, another milkman.

Patrolman Fenwick testified that he had received numerous complaints of milk bottles being taken from the O'Hallavan block in Moosy street and this morning marked a bottle. A little later he saw Houle leaving the building and questioned him about bottles being taken from that building. A further investigation resulted in the finding of the marked bottle in Houle's possession.

Milkman Claremont said that he had missed bottles from the same building every morning for the past several weeks.

Houle said that somebody had been taking his bottles and as both his bottles and the bottle which he took this morning did not bear any mark he thought that the bottle was his.

The court found him guilty and ordered him to pay a fine of $5.

Neglected His Wife

In the case of Philip Snider charged with non-support of his wife, Ida, the court after considering the evidence in the case placed the man on probation.

Sunday Drunks

Alexander Sherbinski, Patrick Keenan, Thomas P. Monahan, Patrick Riley and Louis Stouris, Sunday drunks, were each fined $5.

Other Offenders

Frank J. Hursey, Charles Tessier, Henry Trepanier, Stephen E. Blodgett, George Stephenson and Henry Crumery, charged with being drunk, were fined $5 each.

Assault and Battery

Thomas Gonias was charged with assault and battery on John W. Mahan, a special officer of the Tremont & Suffolk mills, but at the request of Major Hayes, corporation officer, the case went over until tomorrow morning.

Visitor From Bedford

Frank P. Clifford, who claimed Bedford, N. H., as his home, entered a plea of not guilty when asked to plead to a complaint of drunkenness. He said that he had not drunk a drop of liquor for a year. Patrolman Francis H. Moore said that the man entered the police station about 4:30 o'clock Saturday night and asked for lodging and would not leave until he had secured a lodging. For the fact that he was staggering drunk, Clifford said that if he were given a chance he would go right back to the little burgh above Manchester and never come to Lowell again, and Judge Hadley decided to give the man the chance to make his "get away."

Direct Sentences

John J. Donlon, charged with drunkenness, was sentenced to three months in jail, and Thomas Keating was given a four month sentence to the same place. Peter Lane's condition warranted his being sent away for a while and he will spend the next 20 days in jail.

GREAT EVENT

IN AID OF ST. MARY'S CHURCH OF COLLINSVILLE

The committee on fire department wants $10,000 to make improvements and alterations in various fire houses, one of the principal items in the list being an amount of money for the improvement of the Warren street house. At the present time, the company having been enlarged, it is necessary for two of the members to sleep in the attic.

HIGH COST OF LIVING

State Commission Says Fires Are Partly Responsible

BOSTON, May 23.—The state commission on the cost of living, pursuing further afield the elusive causes of the prevailing high prices, has fastened on two new ones.

"The excessive waste from fire in the United States," or, locally applied, "a fire department cost in Boston of $35.10 per capita," is one.

The cost of maintaining the insurance companies, which the commission indicted for not paying back to the insured one-half of the money received in premiums, is the other.

The discussion of these causes forms the basis of supplementary report the commission issued yesterday.

The report points out that while Boston's fire department is maintained at a cost of $25.10 per capita, those in the seven largest cities of Europe are supported at an average cost of but 20 cents per capita.

Boston's annual fire loss is $3.33 per capita, as compared with the Massachusetts average of $2.50 per capita and the average of the United States of $2.23 per capita.

"In other words," the report sums up, "our fire loss varies from eight to ten times as great as in Europe. Boston has an average annual fire loss of about $2,000,000. Glasgow, with 140,000 more population than Boston, had in 1908 a fire loss of $225,000."

"The belief is not uncommon that the insurance companies pay the loss. It happily is the loser is fully insured, which is a false idea."

"The loss from every fire comes back to the people, and they pay for it every cent in rent and taxes, in the food they buy and the clothes they wear."

The remedy the report proposes is wholly with the people themselves.

This is the strict enforcement of the building laws, education on the subject of fire prevention, and the performance of that operation by which policies may be removed from the fire department.

"Of the cost of maintaining the insurance companies, the report says: 'If the total income of insurance companies is considered, the return to policy holders is less than one-half of their income. In March, 1909, the insurance committee of the Boston Merchants association called the attention of the association to what was characterized as an 'unfair' increase of the insurance rates in the business district of Boston, and presented figures to substantiate their claim.'

"From these figures it appeared that in the ten years prior to this report the premium income of the various companies doing business in Boston on Boston risks was $35,000,000, and that during this time there had been paid in fire losses to Boston risks $16,431,225, leaving $18,568,775 to the companies to be applied to expenses, surplus and dividends."

"The report for the whole number of fire insurance companies doing business in 1909, referred to previously, shows that losses take about half of the receipts."

"The explanation of the insurance companies that losses should be averaged over a long series of years, and that the exceptional losses like those of San Francisco, Baltimore and Chelsea in recent years must be considered, does not explain."

"The glaring disproportion between what the public pays, and what it receives in return, is unnecessary and burdensome."

COMMON COUNCIL

Will Try to Elect Principal Assessor Tomorrow Night

City Solicitor Engaged on Several Opinions—Committee on Appropriations to Meet Tonight—Order for $600 for Medical Inspection in Private Schools Signed

SIXTH STREET STATION, TO TAKE THE PLACE OF THE MORRIS PUMP. THE BOARD PETITIONED THE COMMON COUNCIL ON APPROPRIATIONS FOR ITS APPROVAL OF A JOINT RESOLUTION, BUT THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN RECOMMENDED THE MATTER TO THE COMMITTEE ON APPROPRIATIONS FOR FURTHER INFORMATION, AND IT IS EXPECTED THAT THE COMMITTEE AT TONIGHT'S MEETING WILL LOOK INTO THE MATTER MORE THOROUGHLY AND GIVE THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN THE REQUIRED INFORMATION.

GREENLEAF QUALIFIES

Roy W. Greenleaf, who was recently appointed smoke inspector, qualified this morning.

Loan Order Signed

Mayor Meehan this morning signed the joint loan order, providing for $800 for medical inspection in private schools.

Fireworks for Fourth

The Boston agent of the Paine Fireworks Co. has written the clerk of committees relative to a display of fireworks for the Fourth of July. At the present time there is an order providing for the expenditure of $1500 for the observance of the Fourth lying on the table and there does not seem to be much indication of it being taken out and acted upon.

CITY SOLICITOR BUSY

City Solicitor William W. Duncan is busily engaged preparing opinions for different departments and committees. One of the opinions is the request of the street committee relative to the petition of the Lowell Shoe company and Fred R. Brookings for the acceptance of that portion of Stockbridge street between East Merrimack and Brown streets. The committee wants to know what the city's rights are in that portion of the street. That strip was formerly known as the property of the Whittier cotton mills.

There has been a petition for the acceptance of Christian street in Centralville and the committee on streets wants to know if the city can obligate abutters to remove fences which are in the proposed street.

COMMITTEE ON APPROPRIATIONS

The committee on appropriations will meet in special session at 7:30 o'clock tonight for the purpose of considering numerous loans which have been recommended.

The committee on fire department wants $10,000 to make improvements and alterations in various fire houses, one of the principal items in the list being an amount of money for the improvement of the Warren street house.

At the present time, the company having been enlarged, it is necessary for two of the members to sleep in the attic.

The bill of $4000 alleged to be due the Massachusetts Institution for the Feeble Minded will also be considered and Edward Maynard, former superintendent of the charity department, and Mayor Meehan will be present to speak on the matter.

There is also a petition from the street department that $4,000 be recommended for the street department in order that the pay of the city laborers may be increased.

Recently the water board voted to purchase a new pump for the West

Sixth street station, to take the place of the Morris pump. The board petitioned the common council on appropriations for its approval of a joint resolution, but the board of aldermen recommended the matter to the committee on appropriations for further information, and it is expected that the committee at tonight's meeting will look into the matter more thoroughly and give the board of aldermen the required information.

Greenleaf Qualifies
Roy W. Greenleaf, who was recently appointed smoke inspector, qualified this morning.

Loan Order Signed
Mayor Meehan this morning signed the joint loan order, providing for $800 for medical inspection in private schools.

Fireworks for Fourth
The Boston agent of the Paine Fireworks Co. has written the clerk of committees relative to a display of fireworks for the Fourth of July. At the present time there is an order providing for the expenditure of $1500 for the observance of the Fourth lying on the table and there does not seem to be much indication of it being taken out and acted upon.

City Solicitor Busy
City Solicitor William W. Duncan is busily engaged preparing opinions for different departments and committees. One of the opinions is the request of the street committee relative to the petition of the Lowell Shoe company and Fred R. Brookings for the acceptance of that portion of Stockbridge street between East Merrimack and Brown streets. The committee wants to know what the city's rights are in that portion of the street. That strip was formerly known as the property of the Whittier cotton mills.

There has been a petition for the acceptance of Christian street in Centralville and the committee on streets wants to know if the city can obligate abutters to remove fences which are in the proposed street.

Committee on Appropriations
The committee on appropriations will meet in special session at 7:30 o'clock tonight for the purpose of considering numerous loans which have been recommended.

The committee on fire department wants $10,000 to make improvements and alterations in various fire houses, one of the principal items in the list being an amount of money for the improvement of the Warren street house.

At the present time, the company having been enlarged, it is necessary for two of the members to sleep in the attic.

The bill of $4000 alleged to be due the Massachusetts Institution for the Feeble Minded will also be considered and Edward Maynard, former superintendent of the charity department, and Mayor Meehan will be present to speak on the matter.

There is also a petition from the street department that $4,000 be recommended for the street department in order that the pay of the city laborers may be increased.

Recently the water board voted to purchase a new pump for the West

Sixth street station, to take the place of the Morris pump. The board petitioned the common council on appropriations for its approval of a joint resolution, but the board of aldermen recommended the matter to the committee on appropriations for further information, and it is expected that the committee at tonight's meeting will look into the matter more thoroughly and give the board of aldermen the required information.

Greenleaf Qualifies
Roy W. Greenleaf, who was recently appointed smoke inspector, qualified this morning.

Loan Order Signed
Mayor Meehan this morning signed the joint loan order, providing for $800 for medical inspection in private schools.

Fireworks for Fourth
The Boston agent of the Paine Fireworks Co. has written the clerk of committees relative to a display of fireworks for the Fourth of July. At the present time there is an order providing for the expenditure of $1500 for the observance of the Fourth lying on the table and there does not seem to be much indication of it being taken out and acted upon.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

By virtue of its unequalled blood-purifying, nerve-strengthening, stomach-toning, appetite-restoring properties, is the one Great Spring Medicine.

Get it today in liquid form or in tablets known as Sarsatabs. 100 doses $1.

FORGERS' GANG

Was Rounded up by the Pinkerton Men

NEW YORK, May 23.—Pinkerton detectives yesterday rounded up all that was left of the "Rough Ocean" gang of forgers who have operated, it is said, all over the United States during the past half-dozen years, getting many thousands of dollars in small amounts from not over-careful banks by a simple method of raising checks stolen from mail boxes.

The gang gets its name from its leader, William Ford, who was nicknamed "Rough Ocean" and who was sentenced to six years in the penitentiary last spring. After his conviction many of the gang went into other kinds of work, but a new leader arose in the persons of William Gordon, alias "William Gordon," and Joseph Zinner, alias "Joe Zinner," who were also partners in the gang.

There is also a petition from the street department that $4,000 be recommended for the street department in order that the pay of the city laborers may be increased.

Recently the water board voted to purchase a new pump for the West

TWO LOWELL MEN

Chosen On Jury to Try Mrs. Richmond Accused of Murder

CAMBRIDGE, May 23.—For the first time in seventeen years in the Massachusetts court a woman, Mrs. Elizabeth Richmond of Cambridge, was placed on trial for her life today in the Middlesex county superior court. The indictment charges Mrs. Richmond with the murder on July 23, 1909, of Stewart McTavish, a boarder who was found with his head crushed in a little back bedroom in Hotel Florence in Cambridge, conducted by Mrs. Richmond. The police stated at the time that Mrs. Richmond, who is an unusually large and strong woman became involved in a quarrel with McTavish after both had been drinking, shot him and then beat him to death.

The woman seemed under the influence of liquor when arrested and shortly after her indictment she was placed in a cell within a few feet of the one in which her husband was serving a term for drunkenness.
The murder took place within a stone's throw of the scene of today's trial.
Lowell Men Chosen
The jury in the trial of Elizabeth J. Richmond of Cambridge, charged with murder, which opened in the superior court at Cambridge today was completed at one o'clock this afternoon after 89 names out of a total list of 97 had been called. There are two Lowell men on the jury, John C. Gordon of this city was the second juror accepted. He was the seventh man called, John J. O'Brien, a slater of Lowell was the third juror being the tenth called, 52 of the list were excused on the ground that they were opposed to capital punishment. The defendant challenged 9, and the government 3.

A THIRD DUEL

Was Fought Between
French Counts

PARIS, May 23.—Count Ismael De Lesseps and Count Just De Poligny fought their third duel today and this time each received a bullet wound. At the second exchange De Lesseps' bullet struck the barrel on De Poligny's pistol and caused a flesh wound in the latter's arm. At the same moment De Lesseps fell, shot through the thigh. He was removed to a hospital where it was found that the ball had just missed the femoral artery. The wound is not fatal. De Lesseps is a son of Count Ferdinand De Lesseps and an officer of a cavalry regiment. Some weeks ago he quarreled with De Poligny at the circus and blows were exchanged. On May 2 they met in an encounter with swords in the Parc des Princes, the scene of today's duel. De Poligny is lame and after a round of sword play, during which neither was injured, the seconds called a halt. Subsequently pistols were substituted for the swords, and six shots were exchanged. None of the bullets found its mark and the antagonists left the field without a reconciliation.

MOTORBOAT RACE

Loantaka Probably Has
Abandoned Contest

PHILADELPHIA, May 23.—A report from Delaware Breakwater, Del., this morning says the motor boat Loantaka, one of the starters in the Philadelphia-Havana race, is passing up the Delaware river. This would indicate that the owner has abandoned the race on account of the engine trouble which developed soon after the start Saturday and is returning to Philadelphia. This leaves four boats in the race. A tug arriving at the breakwater today reports that when the little racers passed to sea Saturday night the Bernero was leading with the Caliph second and the Ilyas and Caroline close behind. The boats rounded Cape Hatteras during last night but no report regarding them has been received here. The weather reports indicate that conditions of wind and sea today are favorable to the racers.

TRAIN REPORTED WRECKED
FORT SMITH, Ark., May 23.—A St. Louis & San Francisco train is reported wrecked at Rogers, Ark. Three coaches are said to have been demolished, one person killed and several injured.

103 YEARS OLD

Mrs. Burnham Passed
Away at Essex

ESSEX, May 23.—Mrs. Zacheus Burnham, aged 103 years, 4 months and 15 days, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sarah A. Lufkin, yesterday. Mrs. Burnham was the oldest resident of this section and one of the oldest women in the state.
Mrs. Burnham up to a very short time before her death enjoyed exceptional health for one so aged, and took great pleasure in the reunions of her family, which were always held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lufkin, with whom Mrs. Burnham made her home for the past 77 years.

STAR THEATRE
An all new program consisting of talking pictures, motion pictures and illustrated songs, was presented at the Star theatre this afternoon. Large audiences, in which women and children were well represented, witnessed both shows. The illustrated songs are always the latest. A good seat is included with the admission of five cents.

STRIKERS RETURN TO WORK

GLENS FALLS, N. Y., May 23.—As a result of the settlement of the strike at the mills of the International Paper Co. many of the union men returned to work today and others were informed that positions would be given them as soon as there are any vacant. Many of the strike-breakers will continue in the employ of the company. The military guard has been removed from the mills at Fort Edward and Cornish.

Within the past 48 hours nearly 500 strike-breakers have been discharged. The promised increase of five per cent. in wages is nothing more than the fulfillment of its promise of 1908, the company says, when the five per cent. was taken from the wages to be returned in August, 1908.

The chief victory of the union is the elimination of Sunday work. The union men here are not all satisfied with the agreement and some of them say they will not return to work.

THE KAISER LEAVES LONDON

LONDON, May 23.—Emperor William left today for Port Victoria where he was to board the imperial yacht Hohenzollern for his return to Germany.

King George accompanied his royal cousin to the railroad station. To the lord mayor of London, the German monarch sent a message expressing the warm appreciation which he felt for the sincere sympathy exhibited toward him in his sad bereavement by the people of London.

The duke of Cornwall, the duke of Connaught and the members of the Germany embassy were also at the station to bid his majesty farewell.

MISS TOWNSEND FATALLY SHOT

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The marriage of Miss Madeleine M. Townsend to Peter Goolet Gerry will be the fashionable event of the season in Washington. Miss Katherine Elkins will be

Three Boys Were "Playing Suicide"

PITTSBURGH, May 23.—John Klein, 11 years old, was fatally shot yesterday and John Allen, aged 17, who admits having shot his companion, and another boy who witnessed the shooting, declare that the three were "playing suicide." Allen placed the revolver at Klein's head, instructing him how to commit suicide and the weapon was accidentally discharged. The bullet passed through Klein's head and he died soon after being carried by his mother to their home nearby.

LIVES IN PERIL

Women Flee From Fire in Brockton

BROCKTON, May 23.—Fire of mysterious origin, discovered in the attic of a tenement house at 63 East Elm street, near police headquarters, imperiled the lives of four women late yesterday afternoon. The firemen confined the flames to a bedroom occupied by James R. McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Randall McDonald.

McDonald, when questioned by the assistant fire chief, Wm. F. Daley, declared that the fire caught from a lighted cigar. Miss Gertrude Krickstein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Krickstein, who occupies a room in the house, told the firemen and police that she saw three different fires in an upper bedroom before the flying squadron was summoned.
Other women who fled from the house when the fire broke out were Miss Ida R. Boyer, a demonstrator, Mrs. Krickstein and Mrs. McDonald. The stairs were choked with smoke when two of the women, who had been asleep, were awakened and succeeded in making their escape to the street. A quantity of furniture was destroyed in the attic, but the damage was not large.

MAN WAS KILLED

As Result of Companion's Joke

NEW YORK, May 23.—Arthur Davarus of Manhattan was killed Saturday night by a needle used in sewing up floor bags, which was suspended by a cord around his neck. The accident occurred in the freight yards at Westchester.
Davarus and Nicholas Dlicher were sewing up bags holding flour, which had been broken in the course of handling in the transmission of freight. Dlicher was having fun with Davarus and, as the latter stooped to pick up a bag, Dlicher playfully tickled him in the ribs.
Davarus straightened up suddenly and in some manner, as he came in contact with Dlicher, the three-inch packing needle was forced against his body and penetrated through to his heart, the man falling dead instantly.

EMPIRE THEATRE

A new show is given at the Empire today. The two vaudeville numbers are new and clever. Carl Statzer, the black faced comedian, presents his comedy sketch in line style and is sure to please. Rala & Lewis also make up a good team showing a fine travesty entertainment.
The moving pictures are the newest and are sure to please as have so many programs heretofore seen at the Empire.

Mr. Charles Rogers has another one of these ballads when he can render so finely.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

Commencing this afternoon and for the first three days of the current week, another of the excellent vaudeville and motion picture programs that are being given of this theatre will be seen. The vaudeville part of the program will include Grace LaVillie and company in the singing and dancing novelty sketch entitled "The Electric Doll," in which Miss LaVillie, who is an operatic soprano of wonderful voice, will be seen as the doll. Miss LaVillie sings high F with ease and is said to have a voice whose notes are sweet and pure as those of a bird. A member of Miss LaVillie's company is the well known Lowell comedian, James A. Callahan. Others on the bill are Germain and Langley, sensational the bride's only attendant, the ceremony being at noon of May 26. While the wedding is to be a simple one, diplomatic Washington has been invited to attend. The bride is one of the wealthiest young girls in the United States, while the groom is a millionaire. At one time Miss Townsend was said to have been engaged to Duke d'Alba.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

Today at the Academy there will be an entire change of vaudeville, pictures and songs. Heading the vaudeville will be the American cowboy song, considered one of the best quartets in vaudeville, and Winifred Green, a dainty singing comedienne.
The latest and best pictures are always to be seen at the Academy and a fine biograph feature picture is always shown. Miss Claudia Bessette will sing the latest illustrated songs and views of the different countries will be shown.
Amateurs every Wednesday night.

STAR Theatre

TALKING PICTURES, MOTION PICTURES AND SONGS
Admission 5c. Seats Free

BULL TERRIER lost, stub tail, all brown, white spot on head. Reward at 88 Barlett st.

EZRA E. MANSUR, Auctioneer
Room 24, Chaffin Building

PUBLIC AUCTION
By order from the bankruptcy court, will be sold at public auction at the office of Ezra E. Mansur, Room 24, 26 Central street, Lowell, Mass., on Tuesday, May 31, 1910, at 2 o'clock p. m. the books of accounts of the bankrupt estate of W. A. Stearns of Billerica, Mass.

CHARLES T. ROWLAND, Trustee.
Lowell, Mass., May 23, 1910.

MR. MAN

That buys the coal, did it ever occur to you that to be a successful coal man, in the full sense of the word, you must have practical experience? Let us understand one another. The money that started me in the coal business I earned myself—scraping, shoveling and teaming coal right here in your own city. Today my coal yard and facilities for handling coal are second to none in this city. I know what coal is, and what coal is not; I know what to buy, and what not to buy; that means my customers do not have to suffer for my coalstoves. I do not tell my men, go and do it, I say, come and do it; that means you hire your own foreman in place of the coal dealer hiring him for you. When you are about to place your coal orders, think this matter over.
Mail and telephone orders will receive immediate attention.

JOHN P. QUINN

Office and Yards, Gorham and Dix Sts.
Take any Gorham street car; telephone 1180 and 2480. When one is busy, call the other.

The Bon Marche

DRY GOODS CO.

NEW BUYER'S INTRODUCTORY SALE OF

Kitchen Furnishings

Our new buyer in again calling attention to his Introductory Sale of Kitchen Furnishings wishes to state that after Saturday's extraordinary selling all the different lots as advertised have been replenished and the same remarkable and attractive values in Enamel Ware, Tinware and Glassware will be found on the counters today and all through the week. We are making this an occasion of great saving, which thrifty housewives will certainly appreciate.

Particular Attention Is Called to the Counter of 25c Enameled Ware for . . .

Today and This Evening

EVERY PIECE GUARANTEED PERFECT

Take Note of The Large Sizes

25c

Notice The Large Variety of Articles

EVERY PIECE IS FIRST QUALITY PRIME ENAMEL WARE

We do not hesitate to say that these are values that cannot be duplicated anywhere at anything near this price.

OTHER LOTS, EQUALLY AS GOOD VALUES, AT 39c AND 49c.

SEE WINDOW

The Bon Marche

DRY GOODS CO.

Monday Evening Sale

FROM 6 TO 9.30 O'CLOCK ONLY

MEN'S HANDKERCHIEFS (Near Door) Full size, hemmed cambric handkerchiefs, tape border, red and blue lines. Regularly 5c each.	MONDAY EVENING 2 For 5c
SHIRT WAISTS (Waist Dept.) A sheer muslin waist with colored cross bars of blue, black or lavender, side ruffle, button front, sizes 34 to 44. Regularly 98c.	MONDAY EVENING 49c
CHILDREN'S HOSE (Street Floor) The Athletic brand stocking, a good sturdy serviceable stocking for boys and girls, sizes 8 to 9; fast black, narrow rib. Regularly 15c.	MONDAY EVENING 10c pr.
TOOTH POWDER (Toilet Goods Dept.) Dr. Lyons' Tooth Powder, in glass bottles, sprinkler tops, a standard preparation, always sold at 25c.	MONDAY EVENING 14c
BAREFOOT SANDALS Children's Sandals, sewed soles, leather counters, all sizes 5 to 11. Regularly 49c and 59c.	MONDAY EVENING 39c
MESSALINE SILK. All pure silk, light and dark colors, in lengths of one to four yards. Regularly selling at 49c and 59c.	MONDAY EVENING 29c
CHATELAINE BAGS (Near Elevator) A variety of Chatelaine Bags in black, brown and gray leather. Regular prices are 25c, 50c and $1.00. Your choice on	MONDAY EVENING 10c
COLLAR PINS (Jewelry Dept.) Many patterns, in gilt only. Regularly 10c pair.	MONDAY EVENING 3c Pr.
LINEN CRASH APRONS (Art Dept.) Stamped patterns for embroidery on natural linen, two patterns, all made up, needing only the embroidery to finish. Regularly 25c.	MONDAY EVENING 15c
WRAPPERS AND KIMONAS (Second Floor) Long Challie Kimonas, floral patterns, faced with band of solid color in contrasting shades, also Percale Wrappers in indigo blue, cadet and silver gray, full skirt, shirt waist style, sizes to 46. Both regularly $1.00 and $1.25.	MONDAY EVENING 79c
WHITE AND COLORED MUSLINS (Basement) Small lot of Silk Muslins, in plain and fancy weaves also fancy muslins in embroidered dots, stripes and checks. Regularly 25c to 50c.	MONDAY EVENING 15c
MEN'S HOSE (Men's Furnishing) Black and tan hose, our well known Bon Marche's Special—fast color, high spliced heel and toe, absolutely perfect in every way. Regularly 12 1-2c.	MONDAY EVENING 7c

KITCHEN FURNISHINGS.

There never was such a grand chance to buy first quality glassware and enamelware at such low prices as you are having in this week's sale in the Basement.

See our Big Window for samples and prices. It's a snap. Real live bargains in everyday articles.

acrobats; Mora & Richards, clever singers and dancers; Helen Hampton, pleasing vocalist, and a series of the latest and best of motion pictures. Matinees are given every day from 2 to 5 and two full shows at night, starting at 7 and 8.30. Tuesday night will be amateur night and the usual big list of amateurs has been booked. Prices at the Opera House are five and ten cents.

THEATRE VOYONS

Recently the Edison company sent a company of its best actors to Cuba

that the motion picture patrons might be given a greater variety of scenic setting for their pictures. Cuba, one of the most beautiful of lands is especially suitable for motion picture photography and the first picture taken there will be shown at the Theatre Voyons today. "The Princess and the Peasant" is a notable production in many ways, its story is novel and combines both sentiment and adventure and the acting is the equal of any. The accompanying bill will be a strong one with a clever comedy and a beautiful scenic subject as other features. The musical selections are unapproachable.

BUSINESS ESTABLISHED 1828

WM. E. LIVINGSTON CO.

A Good Ton of Good

COAL

At Lowest Price

15 THORNDIKE ST.

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1909 was

16,828

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilote, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1910. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

The tone of the auto "honk" is the bone of contention between the Massachusetts senate and house. There is opposition to the horns known as the "siren" and the "elephant cough."

GIFT TO THE CITY.

No citizen can have a better monument than a liberal gift to the city whether in the shape of a public park, a public hall or a system of public baths. Lowell has not been so favored with such gifts as some other cities. There is a splendid opportunity for patriotic citizens to leave a monument that will remain as proof of their benevolence to future ages.

A LESSON IN SMUGGLING

The lesson which Ex-Governor Rollins of New Hampshire has learned will probably prevent others from attempting anything of the kind. The sum of $2000 in a fine and $1500 additional in duties, will probably take all the profit out of the purchases abroad, said to amount in all to $4736.14, only $800 of which was acknowledged to the customs inspector. It is strange that the ex-governor would attempt anything of the kind.

HAVERHILL GETS CHEAPER GAS

After a fight of eleven years the city of Haverhill has succeeded in getting better terms from the gas company of that city. The company has conditionally agreed to give 80 cent gas in the near future. Companies in other places have long ago given 80 cent gas without any "ifs" or "buts" of any kind.

THE AUTOS ARE HERE TO STAY

Automobiles are becoming so very numerous that greater precautions against accidents are necessary. The autoists should be more careful in passing through the public streets and they probably will be so for some time, on account of the recent enforcement of the law by the police. It is equally incumbent upon the drivers of other vehicles also to exercise greater care to avoid collisions. The auto craze is on; the people are bound to have autos and the new conditions must be met without a murmur.

THE HOMESTEAD BILL

The house of representatives is apparently determined to push the Homestead bill, the object of which is to purchase land in the vicinity of cities and build houses thereon to be sold on easy terms to people from the congested districts.

A movement of this kind has great possibilities for good if properly conducted. It will help to utilize some of the vacant land, to enable more of the people to own their houses and to relieve congestion. Each and all of these aims are calculated to do good, to give the purchasers of the houses an incentive to work and to make them better citizens. It will show a good many people how to help themselves and cannot fail to benefit the cities in which the new buildings are located. It is to be hoped the senate will not kill the measure as it is accustomed to do with many bills calculated to benefit the people.

THE SOUTHBIDGE BANK CASE.

Treasurer Hall of the Southbridge bank has been sentenced to from twelve to fifteen years in prison for embezzling hundreds of thousands of dollars from the bank funds.

There has been no punishment meted out to the negligent trustees, to the kindly bank inspectors who took so much for granted in regard to this bank and the supposed honesty of the treasurer. Bank Commissioner Chapin, no doubt, assumes that the ends of justice have been met by the conviction of Treasurer Hall; but this does not restore to the depositors the money stolen and for which the system directed by Mr. Chapin is directly responsible. Had the inspectors done their duty on their visits to the bank, had they shown even average ability, they would have detected the fraud soon after its beginning. Commissioner Chapin, apparently with a view to exonerating himself, has suggested a lot of new remedies, some of them quite expensive to the banks. Had he used the forces placed at his command with tact and discretion no officer of the bank could have successfully carried on systematic robbery for a number of years. Until the punishment for crimes of this kind reach men higher up there will not be real security for the depositors in savings banks.

ABOLISH THE SUPPLY DEPARTMENT

It is a common complaint from city departments that the purchasing department pays more than is necessary for supplies purchased, and in order to put a stop to such objections, the opinion of the city solicitor is sought in order to ascertain what can be done about it. The answer is in effect "nothing." The departments have no right to kick. Neither the water board nor the charity board has any right to object if supplies be purchased at a price far above what the departments would have to pay for them.

This is a nice state of affairs. The city solicitor is called upon apparently to show that it is entirely legal to buy supplies at an excessive price. Yet it is neither new nor strange. Anybody conversant with the workings of the supply department can easily see that economy is a stranger there. The department was established to reduce expenses, to prevent grafting in the purchase of supplies and to buy everything needed at the lowest market prices. Several departments have protested at the high prices paid, but it is of no use; they must accept the goods and the city must pay. Thus a city department like the water board is compelled to pay two prices for any consignment of goods if the purchasing agent says it is all right. That may be law but it is certainly not justice either to the departments or the taxpayers. As the department has been run for some time past, it is a source of expense and extravagance rather than of saving and economy.

SEEN AND HEARD

The open-work season will soon be extended from porous plasters to shirt-waists.

Always make sure that there isn't a hole in the toe of your stocking. Madam, when you go down to the cobbler's to get your shoes stretched while you wait.

In ordinary times it is hard enough for the average man to make both ends meet. At the present cost of living, it is hard enough for him to make one end vegetable.

In another month or two most of us will be earning our bread by the sweat of our brows, no matter how cold we were last winter.

The reason some men work so hard that they can't get home to dinner is that they talk so much in business hours.

A great many people who know perfectly well that it is wrong to gamble are inconsistent enough to plant congressional garden-seeds.

People who have bad dispositions are sure to do great injustices to the weather.

A SILENT CALL
Oh, do not wait till in the earth I lie
Before thou givest me my rightful need;
Oh, do not now in coldness pass me by,
And then cry praises which I cannot heed.

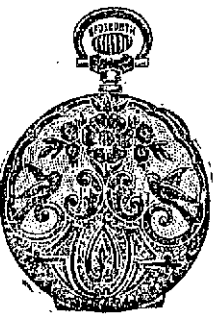

If I have helped thee on thy weary way,
Or lightened in the least thy burden's load,
Haste with love's token, ere another day
Shall pierce thee with the fatal word, "Too late."
The present moment is thy time to live;
The past is gone, the future may not be.

If thou hast treasure of thy heart to give,
To hungry souls, bestow it speedily;
For sweet love's sake let not tomorrow's sun
Tempt thee to wait before thou see it done.

Probably it is true that most of the things we worry about never come to pass, as the optimistic philosophers

NOTICE!

There will be a meeting of Div. 1, A. O. H. tonight, to take action on the death of our late brother John P. Flynn. Per order,
MICHAEL McMULLEN, Pres.
JAMES SHEEHAN, Fin. Secy.

Perfect Time All Your Life For $30

Every one wants perfect time nowadays. You can't expect it from the ordinary watch costing a few dollars.

We are offering a watch that will give perfect time at a price within your reach. If you don't want a fancy case we can sell you a good silver watch case fitted with a Hamilton railroad grade 21 jeweled movement for $30, or in a neat plain 20-year filled case for $35. These watches are carried on every railroad in the country and must run with a variation not to exceed 15 seconds a month, and most of them run much closer.

Call and see these great watches and let us explain them fully to you.

"The Home of Quality."

Frank Ricard

636-638 MERRIMACK ST.

WHY WRITE TO BOSTON For Catalogues of Eddy Refrigerators

Don't You Know That A. E. O'HEIR & CO. MERRIMACK SQUARE

are the local agents for the Eddy, and you can get catalogue and see the refrigerators there?

COAL

Bright, Clear and Clean

HORNE COAL CO.

COAL

THE LOWELL SUN MONDAY MAY 23 1910

keep telling us, but enough of them do to keep us in a pickle.

The girl of twenty-seven, almost inevitably begins to wonder how the girl of thirty-seven feels.

The man who takes pride in being an expert at carving is foolish to boast of it when he sits down to a nicely-roasted turkey with thirteen at the table.

It is not judicious for a woman to blame her husband for being short-tempered, for fear that he may work a little reprieve on her at being that when he got married.

There appeared in this column a day or two ago the story of a complaint that had been made by a baby and its mother. The man responsible for the story said there was a baby in his house and that a neighbor complained because the baby cried as early as three o'clock in the morning. The man with the baby said that the baby would postpone its vocal effort but for the fact that they were inspired at an early hour by the crowing of the complainant's roosters. Now, the man with roosters has been heard from. This is what he says: "In referring to the item in the Seen and Heard column of The Sun the complainant says that the baby of one baby would not be so bad, but when the twins start a duet at 2 o'clock (not 3 o'clock) the only relief is the baritone voice of the father singing 'Middle,iddle, the cat and the fiddle, the cow jumped over the moon, etc., and so disturbs the old rooster that he starts scolding.'"

THE WORLD GOES ON

We can do but a part of the work to be done.
We can cheer but a few of the souls that are sad;
We can win but a few of the fights that are lost;
And make but a few of the troubled hearts glad.
We may toll as we will, by night and by day,
We may study and delve into science and art,
But when the end comes and friends lay us away,
Another will follow and take up our part.

We can learn but a few of the things to be learned,
And solve but a few of the problems of earth;
And the world will go on, when the roadway we've turned,
As it did in the days before we had our birth.
We can make ourselves great but we cannot be great all;
And be of some service to our fellowmen,
But the moment Death carries us out through the hall
The world moves along just as bravely again.

What we have done one who follows can do.
The place we are filling another can fill!
Death cuts off the man and takes him out of view,
But the work he was doing is carried on still.
And so as we journey along and press on,
Performing the tasks that are ours, day by day,
Let none of us think that when he shall have gone
The wide world will suffer. That isn't God's way.

—Edgar A. Guest,
Detroit Free Press.

MEDICAL BOARD

SAYS COLORED UNDERCLOTHING ADDS TO BURDEN OF HEAT

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Fantastic theories regarding the use of colored underclothing to repel the heat in the tropics have been dispelled by a report made by the army board for the study of tropical diseases in the Philippines. About 18 months ago five thousand suits of orange red underclothes and a corresponding number of orange red hat bands were sent to the Philippines. These were distributed so that one-half of the men should be clad in the new garments and the other in the ordinary white underclothes. The army surgeons kept close watch upon the men, but they failed to find that the colored underclothes brought any relief from the tropical heat, although British army officers in India reported that such clothing was more comfortable in hot weather than white.

The medical board found that the colored underclothing, which by the way was unpopular, added materially to the burden of heat upon the system, which is a great cause of tropical diseases. It is admitted that the orange red is a protective against the chemical rays of the sun, but the same result is obtained by the khaki uniform and the tan-colored campaign hat of the American soldier.

The experiments were conducted with the greatest care, tropical diseases being made of blood pressure, loss of weight and of general condition. The results were the same in the case of either the white American or brown Filipino.

60,000 PILGRIMS

ATTENDED SERVICE AT WHICH CROWN WAS CONSECRATED
CZENSTOCHOWA, Russian Poland, May 23.—Sixty thousand pilgrims from Russian and Austrian Poland attended the services yesterday in connection with the consecration of the jeweled crown presented to the Pauline Fathers by the pope, to replace the crown which was stolen from the chapel of the Pauline convent on Oct. 22 last. Special trains brought pilgrims from Warsaw and various other points, but the majority of the pilgrims came on foot. The day was observed as a general holiday throughout Poland.

FIVE CHAMPIONS

Defeated at Vendome Club Games

NEW YORK, May 23.—Five athletic champions were again to defeat yesterday in the games of the Vendome Athletic club at Newark, N. J. Robert Edgren of the New York A. C. hurled the discus 2 inches farther than the best Martin Sheridan could do—123 feet. Melvin Sheppard finished fourth in a 300 yard handicap, and Harry Glahling, his rival, fifth.
John Flanagan hurled the hammer more than 160 feet, but was beaten by Simon Ghills of the New York A. C. Jack Eller was third in the hurdles.

IMPORTED COTTON

THE COUNTRIES WHERE IT ORIGINATES

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The cotton manufacturers of the United States are drawing upon every part of the world for raw material for use in their domestic industries. Notwithstanding the fact that the United States produces three-fourths of the world's cotton, her manufacturers have drawn raw cotton from every grand division and nearly a score of countries and islands during the current fiscal year. Asia, Africa, and the islands of the Pacific; South America, North America, and the islands of the Caribbean have contributed from their cotton fields, while Europe has forwarded its fiber contributions imported from various parts of the world and re-exported thence to the United States. India, Java, China, Ecuador, Peru, Brazil, Venezuela, Panama, Mexico, British West Africa, British East Africa, Egypt, Porto Rico, Haiti, Santo Domingo, and the British West Indies have contributed from the product of their own cotton fields in greater or less quantities, while England, Germany and Canada have sent large quantities drawn to their own markets from Asia, Africa and South America, and thence re-shipped to the United States.

Of the 42 million pounds of cotton of foreign production imported into the United States in the first four months of the current year, 30 million, or about three-fourths, came from Egypt, 5 million from India, 3.1 million from China, 2 million from Peru, and $2,648 pounds from Haiti; while smaller quantities were imported from other countries thus: Mexico, 73,830 lbs.; Ecuador, 72,495 lbs.; the Dutch East Indies, 25,447 pounds; the British West Indies, 14,147 pounds; Venezuela, 6,669 pounds; Brazil, 5,884 pounds; Panama, 5,233 pounds; and Santo Domingo, 618 pounds. In addition to this, 14,501 pounds of sea island cotton was brought into the country from Porto Rico, where the growing of sea island cotton is a recently established industry. While these countries in fact produced the foreign grown cotton, the imported during the period named, other countries appear as sources of supply in the monthly statements received by the bureau of statistics of the department of commerce and labor. Thus, of the 30,243,426 pounds of cotton of Egyptian production imported into the United States, 21,123,485 pounds came via England, 32,303 pounds via India, and the remainder direct. Of the 4,954,503 pounds of imported cotton originating in India, 1,235,105 pounds came via England, 33,155 pounds via Germany, and the remainder direct. Of China's contribution of 3,483,593 pounds of cotton to the mills of the United States, all except 289,692 pounds shipped via England and 37,693 pounds via Germany entered the country direct from the place of production. From Peru the imports in the four months of 1910 amounted to 2,183,190 pounds, of which 15,666 pounds came to the mills of the United States via Germany. Brazil's 5,884 pounds all went to England whence it was re-shipped to the United States. All the imports of cotton from Mexico, the British West Indies, Venezuela, Panama, Ecuador and the Dutch East Indies entered the United States direct from the country of origin.

The cotton imported into the United States from the various countries differs greatly in quality and price. The collector of customs at New York reports that of the cotton imported at that port in March of the present year, the originating in Egypt was valued at 30c per pound; Peru, 18c; Haiti, 15c; Ecuador, 14c; the Dutch East Indies and China, each about 11c and India, 9c. The higher value of the Egyptian cotton is due to the fact that it is of unusually long and fine staple, making it especially useful in the manufacture of cotton and silk mixed goods, as well as cotton goods of a superior grade. The cotton entering the country from Porto Rico is of the grade known as sea island and the price of that brought into the United States since January 1, 1910, averaged 25c per pound, compared with 23c per pound for the sea island cotton exported from the United States during the current year.

Domestic industries are steadily increasing their consumption of imported cotton. From 1880 to 1870 the annual importations of raw cotton were valued at $1,211,000, or an average of 156c-66, when 122 million pounds were imported—averaged less than one million pounds annually. In 1870 the imports aggregated 1,693,133 pounds; in 1880, 2,547,792 pounds; in 1890, 3,606,049 pounds; in 1899, 67,335,521 pounds, and in the fiscal year ending April 30, 1910, the figures are available, 70,730,876 pounds, indicating for the full fiscal year a total importation of approximately 100,000,000 pounds. The import value of the foreign cotton brought into the United States in the last twenty years was $156,252,855.

Measured by the ratio of domestic cotton has grown from 513 million

"THINK OF WORMS FIRST"

This is sound advice, when children are sick. Three-fourths of childhood's sickness comes from worms in stomach or bowels.

Fessenden's Worm Expeller

Is the medicine to give children who seem to be troubled with worms. The price is only 25c. Would you deny your little one the sunshine of health, for a few cents a sum?

SAVE TIME AND MUSCLE Goodale's Wash Clean

will do it. We have customers who have used it for years and say it does not injure the clothes and saves 50 per cent. of the labor on wash day.
GOODALE'S DRUG STORE,
217 CENTRAL STREET

PUTNAM & SON CO.
166 CENTRAL STREET

Ready Today

A Full Supply of Grass Hats
For Women
19c

TWO LIVES LOST

Bopp Tried to Rescue Drowning Man

SECRETARY NAGEL

Unable to Address Meeting

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 23.—Over 10,000 persons filled the big auditorium of the million dollar pier yesterday to attend the mass meeting for the rescue of a sailor in the harbor. The president of the meeting, Charles F. Nagel, secretary of commerce and labor, did not appear to deliver his scheduled address on the conservation of national life. A slight illness caused his non-appearance. Congressman Bennett of New York created a sensation in the number of the meeting. He had forwarded a message in which he expressed his inability to be present to express his views. Mr. Bennett said that he was speaking for the cabinet officer when he said that the national turmoil over the discussion of the conservation of human life was not nearly as important as the conservation of human life throughout the country. Mr. Bennett hinted that the "coming report of the committee on immigration, which has been studying conditions in American factories, is likely to create a sensation in the number of preventable deaths caused in factories, especially where workmen and workwomen are not organized into unions to force protective measures."

Rev. Charles Stedee, superintendent of the department of commerce and labor of the Presbyterian church, made the state of the church and more about building up the church and more about building up the church. The Protestant churches of America have a membership of 15,000,000, with a constituency of 40,000,000. It is the most powerful agency in America today for the solution of the social problem.

Rev. Warren H. Wilson, assistant to Stedee, speaking of "the conservation of country life," said that the church holds a great responsibility in preventing the rush for the city that is threatening the power of the country. Dr. Wilson insisted that country ministers must take up both the financial and social work to keep enough young people in the country to obviate the danger of the country being forced to import its foodstuffs within a few years. Officials of the Atlantic City Central union led a delegation of 2000 mechanics and laborers who attended the meeting.

Moderator Charles Little preached his annual sermon at the men's religious meeting held on the steel pier and appealed for the return to the simple life as a panacea for modern ills in both industrial and social life. He included ex-President Roosevelt for his stand for simple living as opposed to the modern race for wealth and position.

LEASES A PALACE

VIENNA, May 23.—In acquiring a lease of Kolovrat palace, Richard C. Kerner, the American ambassador, will be more sumptuously housed than any former representative at this court. The palace was built by Baron Albert Rothschild for his son, Baron Oscar Rothschild, who committed suicide last July because of an alleged love affair with a Chicago girl. The palace has spacious state apartments and occupies a commanding position.

CAPT. RUGGLES DEAD

ROCHESTER, N. Y., May 23.—Capt. George W. Ruggles, who invented the Ruggles rotary snow plow and made notable improvements in the methods of constructing canals, died at Charlotte village, near this city last night.

ST. THOMAS' SALVE

—FOR—
Piles, Old Sores and Skin Diseases
—FOR SALE—
At All Up-to-Date Drug Stores
THIRTY-FIVE CENTS

SPECIALS

Lobster salad, 85c; plain lobster, 50c; steamed clams, 20c; fried oysters and French fries, 25c; fried clams and French fries, 10c. Call and see us. Lowell Inn. Busiest place on Central street.

ACT OF CLEMENCY

Marks Beginning of the Reign of King George

LONDON, May 23.—King George has commended his reign with an act of clemency, granting remission of other sentences and reduction of other sentences.

tion of the affection and loving devotion the nation has shown in the face of "a sorrow so sudden and unlooked for that it might well have been overwhelming."

"But the sentiment it has invoked," continues the king, "has made me realize that it is a loss common to me and my people. They share it with me; I do not stand alone. With such thoughts I take courage and hopefully look to the future, strong in my faith in God, trusting my people and cherishing the laws and constitution of my beloved country."

It is announced that King George intends to maintain a royal racing stable at Newmarket and a breeding stud at Sandringham, and that he will patronize racing on the same extensive scale as his father.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

GREATEST CIRCUS

BARNUM & BAILEY'S SHOW ANNOUNCED FOR JUNE 10

The Barnum & Bailey greatest show on earth is announced for two performances in Lowell on Friday, June 10. The day is awaited with great interest. A new and brilliant street parade, a new menagerie and a large company of European artists are promised.

This circus has stood at the head of the amusement business for more than fifty years. The policy of P. T. Barnum and James A. Bailey is still active in its management. These are the two greatest names in the history of the world's circus affairs. Their show is the source of perfect satisfaction. It is recognized in every country on earth as the leading spirit of amusement enterprises. It has traveled in every land where the sun shines. It has entertained millions upon millions of the

NOW THEN—WHO SAID BISCUITS?

SOUTHERN BISCUITS
NORTHERN BISCUITS
EASTERN BISCUITS
WESTERN BISCUITS

MADE BEST EVERYWHERE WITH

GOLD MEDAL FLOUR

WASHBURN-CROSBY CO.

COPYRIGHT 1910, WASHBURN-CROSBY CO., MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.

$1 Leather Lined Bags 79c

Gilbride's

10c Wash Belts 5c

JOHN S. BACKMAN, Pres. JOHN J. BURNS, Sec'y. PATRICK GILBRIDE, Treas.

NOW FOR THE LAST WEEK OF THE GREATEST Anniversary Sale EVER HELD IN LOWELL

We acknowledge with thanks, the overwhelming response accorded our Second Anniversary Sale Announcement by the public of this city and surrounding towns. Your flattering expression of confidence in our advertising and merchandizing is the best token of your appreciation of our efforts and methods of doing business.

We have nearly doubled our business of a year ago, and if you knew as we know, the great opportunities for saving in the SECOND ANNIVERSARY SALE, you would be one of the first here today.

Last Week of Lowell's Greatest Sale

Watch Our Windows

Read Our Announcements

LOWELL'S BEST VALUES ARE HERE IN

Women's Summer Dresses

The newest and prettiest fashions and materials.

Gingham Dresses $1.98, $2.98, $3.98 to $5.98
Chambray Dresses $1.98, $2.98, $3.98 to $5.98
Linen Dresses $3.98 to $9.98
Batiste Dresses $2.98, $3.98, $4.98 to $7.98
Crash Suits $5.98 to $12.50
The Prettiest Lingerie Dresses for confirmation and graduation seen in Lowell. We show some very handsome dresses in Point D'Esprit, net and Hamburg $3.98 to $25

ANNIVERSARY SALE OF

Muslin Underwear

SAVE MONEY ON THIS CLEAN MERCHANDISE

Women's Drawers, made of good cambric with tucked ruffle, regular price 25c 19c pair
Women's Drawers, made of fine quality cambric with ruffle of deep embroidery, regular price 39c 25c pair
High neck, fitted covers, special 12 1-2c
Fine Nainsook Corset Covers with deep lace yoke and four rows of ribbon run, regular price 29c 19c
Long White Skirts of good cambric, with 18 in. flounce of embroidery, heading and ribbon run, former price $1.50 $1
Low Neck, Short Sleeve Gowns, made of fine Nainsook, handsomely trimmed with three medallions, regular price $1.50, for $1.00

SAVE TODAY

On Useful Notions

THE LAST WEEK OF THE ANNIVERSARY SALE

John J. Clark's Spool Cotton, regular price 5c Anniversary Sale Price 2c Spool
Basting Cotton, regular price 3c Anniversary Sale Price 1c Spool
Sewing Silk, all colors, regular price 8c Anniversary Sale Price 4c Spool
Safety Pins, regular price 5c Anniversary Sale Price 2c Card
Hooks and Eyes with Peets Eyes, 2 dozen on card, regular price 5c Anniversary Sale Price 2c
Pins, regular price 3c paper Anniversary Sale Price 1c
Pearl Buttons, regular price 7c Anniversary Sale Price 4c Doz.
Darning Cotton, regular price 3c Anniversary Sale Price 1c
Black and White Threaded Pins, regular price 5c Sale Price 2c
Tape, regular price 3c Sale Price 3c a Roll
Dress Shields, regular price 15c and 19c Sale Price 10c
Spring Ball and Socket Fasteners, regular price 10c Sale Price 7c
Feather Stitched Braid, regular price 7c Sale Price 5c
Collar Supporters, regular price 5c Sale Price 3c

LAST WEEK OF THE ANNIVERSARY SALE OF

GLOVES

12-Button Silk Lisle Gloves in black and tan, regular $1.00 and $1.25 quality 49c a Pair
2-Clasp Fine Mercerized Lisle Gloves in tan, brown and black, never sold less than 50c a pair, down to 29c a Pair
Milanese Lisle Gloves in black, white and gray, 25c quality, 14c a Pair

ANNIVERSARY SALE OF

HOSIERY

Women's Black Silk Lisle Hose, double heel and toe, "Seconds of the 25c quality" 12 1-2c a Pair
Women's Black Gaze Lisle Hose, double soles, good elastic tops, 25c quality 17c a Pair
Children's Black Cotton Hose, 1x1 rib, double knee, double soles, 19c quality 12 1-2c a Pair

ROOM SIZE RUGS

Saturday evening we took an inventory of our large rug stock, and we had then just 21 large rugs. In order to make our rug sale during the last week of the anniversary sale the greatest talked of rug values ever offered in this city, we have marked them to make a quick sale at the lowest prices ever quoted for similar goods.

1 only, 8 1-4 ft.x10 1-2 ft. Tapestry Brussels, value $15 $9.50
6 only, 8 1-4 ft.x10 1-2 ft. Royal Axminster, value $17.89
5 only, 9 ft.x12 ft. Royal Axminster, value $27.50 $18.89
1 only, 9 ft.x12 ft. One Piece Rug, value $20 $14.89
3 only, 9 ft.x12 ft. One Piece, no seams Brussels, value $28.50 $18.89

Unmatched and Panel Rugs

1 only, 6 3-4 ft.x13 1-2 ft. Bigelow Axminster, worth $20 $7.95
2 only, 9 ft.x13 1-2 ft. Bigelow Axminster, worth $25 $9.95
1 only, 9 ft.x12 ft. Bigelow Axminster, worth $30 $14.95
Every one of the above rugs guaranteed absolutely perfect.

Small Size Rugs—At Less Than Half Price

36x36 Fibre Rugs 9c Each
36x72 Fibre Rugs 29c Each
18x36 Fibre and Wool Rugs 49c Each
27x54 Fibre and Wool Rugs 59c Each
30x60 Fibre and Wool Rugs 79c Each
36x72 Fibre and Wool Rugs 89c Each
Cocoa Door Mats with red border 39c Each
1 Lot, 27x72 Bigelow Wilton Rugs $1.98 Each
1 Lot, 30x60 Double Face Smyrna Rugs 79c Each
The prices on Rugs for this last week of our Anniversary Sale are the lowest ever quoted.

Sheets and Pillow Cases Much Cheaper Than the Cotton by the Yard

12 1-2c Armorside, 42x36 Pillow Cases, real good, heavy cotton, 9c Each, $1.00 a Dozen
69c 81x90 Armorside Sheets, slightly damaged, only 39c
69c 81x90 Armorside Sheets, perfect, only 49c
75c 81x90 Armorside Sheets, perfect, only 59c
89c 81x90 Extra Heavy Sampson Sheets, made from 33c sheeting, 2 1-2 yards long, cotton costing in each sheet 82 1-2c, sale price, only 69c Each

Remnants of Table Linen at Less Than Half Price

69c Bleached Table Damask in lengths from 1 3-4 to 3 yards long, extra good and heavy, only 49c
$1.00 to $1.50 Bleached Table Damask in lengths from 1 3-4 to 3 1-4 yards long, extra fine, only 79c

Anniversary Sale of

DRESS GOODS

44 inch German Novelty Suitings.
42 inch Wool Taffeta Suitings.
43 inch Brunella Cloth in navy, brown, green, gray, raisin, wistaria, old rose, reseda and black, regular price $1.00 yard. Anniversary Sale Price 59c Yard

SALE OF SILKS

27 in. All Silk Shantung in all the new shades, regular 79c value, for 59c Yard
27 in. All Silk Shantung, made of selected yarns, strong and desirable, will give splendid wear; we have it in all the latest shades, real value $1.25, sale price, only 79c

earth's peoples. Its world-wide tours have given it many advantages over other tented shows. They have kept it in constant touch with remote corners of the globe whence come all wonders. Nearly all great artistic novelties originate in Europe and Asia. No sooner have they been exploited in foreign audience rooms than they are secured by Barnum & Bailey's agents. Invariably novelties are introduced to America by this circus. When they come to be novelties, they are passed down to other shows and another reported budget of wonders takes their places. This year's program is particularly abundant. It is a purely foreign bill. Over 100 startling acts are presented by 400 of the leading artists of the world. The show employs 1,289 people. It has 700 horses. In its menagerie are 102 cages, pens, tanks and dens in which are displayed 1,200 wild and semi-domestic animals. Among them are forty elephants and thirty camels. There are four giraffes. One of them is a baby, just reaching to its mother's knee. It is the first giraffe baby ever born or exhibited in this country.

The main performance is given in three rings, on two stages, on an immense hippodrome track and in a dome 400 feet long. The climax of the program is the death-dive of Desperado. He leaps from the dome of the tent and lands on his chest on a small skid three feet from the ground.

None of the less thrilling is the spectacular act of Jupiter. This magnificent horse goes up in a balloon and comes down amid a shower of fireworks. These acts reach the utter extreme of sensationalism. Another wonderful feature is added by the performance on one of the stages of an unhumanly human-like chimpanzee. Charles the First, who is the greatest bicycle rider and juggler on earth.

The circus has a newly built equipment. It was devised and executed in the foreign workshops of the show in England. Five long railroad trains are needed to haul it from city to city. It cost the management $5,500,000. With all these added improvements and expenses, the Barnum and Bailey show now stands in the zenith of glory. Never before in its history of splendid achievements has it been so attractive as now. It opened its spring engagement in Madison Square Garden, New York City, before the most distinguished audience that ever assembled in a circus arena. It made the biggest hit in all its career.

$20,000 DAMAGE

Three Waltham Firemen Were Injured

WALTHAM, May 23.—While fighting a fire that did $20,000 damage to the Lincoln block, Moody street, late last night, three firemen—Assistant Chief George H. Strauch and Hosemen Roy Caswell and Ernest Balcom fell two stories when the metal ceiling of the third story gave way beneath them, hurling them into perilous proximity to the fire. Chief Strauch had his face and hands severely cut. Caswell's left leg was severely injured and Balcom received multiple contusions.

The fire, which started from an unknown cause, made its way rapidly up to the upper stories, where it did most of the damage.

Several firemen, among them Chief Johnson and Captain Edward F. Sibley, were overcome by smoke.

ESTRADA FORCES

Lost 14 Killed and Had 24 Wounded

WASHINGTON, May 22.—Two days fighting near Batangay, Luzon, has cost the Estrada forces 14 in killed and 24 wounded, according to a report to the state department from Consul Moffat, at Bluefields. The casualties of the Madriz forces, he adds, were not learned. Gen. Menz retired after the fight to his entrenchments. Large quantities of ammunition and provisions said to be the entire stores of the Madriz forces at Bluefields, he reports, were said to have been captured by Gen. Monarda of the Estrada faction.

GAS COOKING DEMONSTRATION LECTURE TONIGHT

Carolyn Putnam Webber will give this evening in Fair hall, Gorham street, demonstrate. She will demonstrate a "Meal." What is it? "Just enough of food so that with lightened spirits and with strength renewed we turn with willingness to work again." The lecture will begin at 8 o'clock, doors open at 7.30. All are welcome. All is free. Menu: Baked Bluefish, Breasted Style, Panned Chicken, Clover Hollis, Scalloped Corn, Egg Timbale, French Macaroni, Tapioca Cream.

THEIR FIRST MASS

Newly Ordained Priests Officiated Yesterday

Rev. John Riordan, who was ordained a priest last Friday, celebrated his first mass yesterday at the church of the Sacred Heart in Moore street. Inasmuch as Father Riordan's parents reside in Moore street, there was a large attendance of parishioners at the high mass yesterday.

Father Riordan was born in Lowell, but when quite young was sent to Ireland to be educated. He made his classical course in St. Munchin's college, Limerick, and later entered Thurles Ecclesiastical seminary for his philosophical studies. He was subsequently adopted into the Boston diocese and entered the Boston diocesan seminary where for five years he pursued with honor and distinction the study of theology. He was ordained to the priesthood Friday of last week, coming yesterday to the Sacred Heart to celebrate his first mass.

Rev. E. J. Cornell, O. M. I., preached an eloquent sermon appropriate to the occasion and the musical program as on the previous Sunday was carried out, Mrs. Adeline A. Muldoon presiding at the organ.

At St. Michael's

Rev. Thomas Reynolds, a resident of St. Michael's parish, who was ordained at Boston Friday, sang his first high mass at St. Michael's church, yesterday. He was assisted by Rev. John J. Shaw, deacon, and Rev. Daniel Desmond, sub-deacon. The sermon was preached by Rev. Francis J. Mullin.

Fr. Chaput Officiates

Rev. Fr. Edmond Chaput, O. M. I., who was ordained Saturday, May 14, sang his first high mass yesterday at St. Joseph's church, where a large congregation, including many of his relatives, was present. Assisting the young priest were Rev. Fr. Baron, O. M. I., rector of St. Joseph's, as deacon, and Rev. Brother Anthony of the Tewksbury novitiate, as sub-deacon. Rev. Fr. Wattle, O. M. I., superior of St. Joseph's parish, preached the sermon of the occasion.

Rev. Fr. Chaput said his first mass Sunday, May 15, at Notre-Dame de Lourdes church.

The Y. M. C. I. held quarterly communion yesterday with a large attendance. Breakfast was served in Y. M. C. I. hall after mass.

BOUNDARY LINE

BETWEEN CANADA AND UNITED STATES HAS BEEN FIXED

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The international boundary between the United States and Canada, along the southeast coast of Maine, has been fixed, according to a treaty signed Saturday by Ambassador Bryce and Secretary of State Knox, as running from a point in Passamaquoddy bay between Treat Island and Friar Head and extending through the bay to the middle of Grand Manan channel. The treaty, it is expected, will be submitted to the senate today for approval. The line was located without resort to the arbitration provided for in the treaty of 1903 between Great Britain and the United States.

The true location of the line has been a subject of contention for more than a century. The treaty is expected to be accepted as final.

JOHNNY HAYES DEFEATED

OTTAWA, Ont., May 22.—J. B. Hayes was today beaten by Lunstrom, in a five mile race by five yards. The time was 23 minutes. Saturday Lunstrom beat Hayes in a 15 mile race by 120 yards in 1:30.55.

SAW THE COMET

Young Woman Then Fell Dead

TALLADEGA, Ala., May 23.—The appearance of the comet last evening caused intense excitement here. Congregations of several churches left their pews and hundreds of persons stood excited in the square and gazed at the celestial visitor. Miss Ruth Jordan, daughter of a farmer living two miles from here, was called to the door of her home to see the comet and immediately fell dead. Physicians give heart failure as the cause. An unknown negro on the depot platform was shown the comet and instantly dropped dead.

CHILDREN DEAD

As Result of Drinking Tonic Compound

ELIZABETH, N. J., May 23.—While playing "threes" while their mother went to market, Louise Crouch, six years old, and her brother Johnnie, three years young, went to the ice chest and drank freely from a bottle of tonic compound which they had seen their elders use. Both died in convulsions yesterday.

For Chaps and Cracked Lips

VASELINE CAMPHOR ICE

Winter comfort for tender skins. Vaseline Camphor Ice corrects effects of snow and wind. Soothes and heals roughness, irritations, cold-sores, fever blisters. It combines the comfort of Camphor and Vaseline and relieves all but the most serious of skin troubles.

12 REMEDIES each with special uses, all based on

On Bottle, Box or Tube the name guarantees highest refinement and protects you against nameless "petroleum jellies" of less purity.

CHESEBROUGH MFG. CO. Proprietors of Every "Vaseline" Product New York

NO PAIN

Full Set $5

Our $5 sets are the most lifelike and most fitting plates that dental science can procure. Unless you require a substantial plate, $5 is all you need pay in this office for the best set. We have the reputation of making the most natural looking, the most fitting and the best wearing teeth. No set ever leaves our office until the patron is perfectly satisfied as to fit and appearance. We give our personal guarantee FOR 10 YEARS with each set.

Lady Attendant—French Spoken

$4 This is the only office in Lowell where gold crowns and teeth without plates (under natural ones) are inserted positively without pain.

THE NEW SUBSTITUTE FOR TEETH

PAINLESS EXTRACTION FREE

Dr. Thomas Jefferson King
Dr. King's "Natural Gum" sets of teeth absolutely defy detection.
Gold Fillings $1—Others $50
Painless Extraction Free
King Dental Parlors,
65 MERRIMACK STREET
(Over Hall & Lyons)
Hours: 9 to 8; Sun. 10 to 2.
Tel. 1374-2.

THE GILBRIDE CO. On The Corner

PITTSBURG PIRATES AND DETROIT TIGERS LOOK LIKE REPEATERS

By TOMMY CLARK.

ALTHOUGH the baseball season of 1910 is still very young, the fans have been afforded a chance to get a good line on the two strongest teams in the National and American leagues. Judging by present indications in the Junior organization, it looks as if Detroit will about cop the banner for the fourth time and equal the record made by Comiskey way back in the eighties. In the older organization Fred Clarke and his Pittsburgh world's champions are plowing their way through the other teams in a manner that indicates that unless something unforeseen happens the Pirates will carry off the much coveted prize for the second time.

Looking over the Pittsburgh team carefully one can easily see that the Pirates are the ones who will have to be defeated by any team that seeks to win the National league pennant this year, and it is hard to see what team is to accomplish the task.

There appears to be just one point where the Pirates may be weak, and they have shown the ability to carry a weak man in this one. This position is at first base, and it is a notable fact that Fred Clarke has had more trouble keeping a good man on the initial corner than he has at any other point on the team. Abstein did fine work there for the greater part of the season last year, but he fell off badly after that, and the Pirates had to carry him through the world's series.

This year Clarke has a good looking youngster in Flynn at first base, but it is hardly probable that he will measure up to the ability of the other players on the team. On the other hand, he will undoubtedly be able to do his share of the work in at least fairly efficient style. If he does the team will have little trouble in preventing a fatal weakness at first, as Miller, Wagner and Byrne are men who are in the habit of throwing with more than average accuracy and helping the man on first along in fielding.

So far as batting is concerned Pittsburgh has plenty of strength to overcome any weakness caused by the failure of the man covering first to find the ball hard. In fact, it is in the batting end of the game that Pittsburgh has enough the edge to give the Pirates the championship. The combination made up of Leach, Clarke and Wagner is one of the greatest on the attack that the game has ever seen, and Byrne up at the top ahead of this trio in the batting list is working well with it. Gibson is another slashing hitter, and Miller and Wilson are both good batters.

Unless first base is weak there is but one point on the team where the batting is not of the exceptional order, and that is in pitching. Even here several of the Pirates' twirlers are decidedly handy with the stick. With the Pittsburgh attack more than making up for any advantage the Chicago Cubs may have in the pitching line, there appears to be just one thing that can prevent the Pirates from winning the pennant, and that is the enforced absence of Wagner from the game through illness or injuries.

Now for another look at the Tigers. Hughey Jennings' club seems set for its very best year. Its hitters are going splendidly early in the season, and all pitchers look alike to the Tiger men. Of course a better line will be given on them after they have tackled the strong eastern clubs. With the Boston team rapping the ball like mad and the Philadelphia pitchers by the guns despite old Father Time, there will be a great three cornered battle in the American. But the Tiger one for me. There's more ginger and "pep" in that bunch than enough to make up for the weakness in pitching strength.

Wrong to Bar Picture Men.

There is no use disputing the point made by President Tom Lynch of the National league that the newspaper photographers assigned to obtain action pictures at baseball games mar the landscape somewhat and occasionally, although rarely, interfere with a possible play on a foul fly. The fact that action pictures of actual incidents of the game can no longer be secured is a direct blow to the patrons of the game who love to read about baseball, and it is also a relief to those who had grown tired of seeing a battery of cameras collected at the home plate, first or third base every time something interesting seemed likely to be about to come off.

There is no doubt that a few particularly nervy photographers have interfered by friends of Cobb to prove that Tyrus had not spitefully and willfully gone out of his way to injure the Athletics' third baseman, as some reports made it appear. Under the present ruling it will be impossible to take such a photograph except with a telescope camera of a different pattern than any that are now on the market.

While President Lynch is seeing that the photographers are kept off the field

could be disposed of advantageously to spectators willing to pay to see a ball game instead of being paid to do so. President Lynch would not think of issuing orders that no spectators be admitted to the playing field.

That would reduce the revenues of the club owners who pay his annual stipend and might contract the latter. If the newspapers should all discontinue printing pictures of ball players

New Golf Game Called Loop Hits Now Very Popular In England

LOOP-GOLF-HITS is a miniature golf game or device for receiving instruction in and practicing golf, with the object of driving the ball in a straight or direct line. The device consists of an inverted U shaped hoop. The hoops are bent or formed into five loops and a crossbar is fitted to the two sides, on which is suspended a ring to which is attached a slip hook. To this hook is connected a cord attached to a spiral spring, and in this case the cord passes through the latter, the cord being slack to allow of stretching, and swiveling connections are also provided to permit of the spinning action of the ball. At the other end of the cord is fixed a golf ball, the cord being of a length sufficient to drive over the surface and engage with the loops. The two outer loops of the device each count one, the second loops count two and the center loop counts three, and for this purpose the loops are marked with the numbers. Two mats may be employed, one for each side, for the players to stand upon to tee the ball and to play from, thus preventing the cutting up of the lawn, or of carpets or linoleum if for indoor practice or game.

the past overstepped the bounds of decency in taking pictures during the progress of games, and for their misdeeds others must suffer.

Pictures Have Great Value.

It has often happened that newspaper photographs have been of great value in deciding disputed points in regard to plays during the progress of games. A snapshot of the play in which Cobb spiked Baker at Detroit last season was sent all over the coun-

after the game starts, the rule is not being fully enforced. Whenever the stands prove too small to accommodate all the paying patrons, however, it is the practice to herd some out in the inclosure. This overflow seriously interferes with the scenery and also with the work of the players both on fair and foul territory, often deciding the results of games.

The scribbles who report the game sometimes, although not always, are assigned space in the stands which

and games their circulations would not be affected seriously, but a strong stimulant to the public's interest in baseball would be withdrawn and would be felt at the gates.

There have been instances where club owners have begrudged baseball reporters the space they are compelled by their occupation to occupy, because each seat might be sold for one bone or possibly more. But the club owner could not buy with the revenue from ten times the space occupied by the press box at any ball park one hundredth part of the free advertising given him by any one of the working occupants of the deadhead seats. It is well to remind baseball men occasionally of what the game owes the publicity it could not possibly get in any other way than gratis.

Boxing Game Claiming Terrible Toll.

The death of Tommy McCarthy, who never regained consciousness after being knocked out by Owen Moran in San Francisco recently, has caused no end of talk. In fact, several clergymen are using this case as a pretext for opposing the Jeffries-Johnson bout. The McCarthy case is a sorrowful one and may hurt the game considerably throughout the country. Still, nature collects tolls from every other sport.

The weak, of course, must yield more and often against spirited relaxations. Even golf has its fatalities in addition to numerous mishaps to devotee and patron. Within the last month pugilism was compelled to give up three lives as its debt to nature. This cycle of fatal accidents in the prize ring is most singular, but that's the way matters run. For years despite the fact that hundreds of bouts were held weekly no serious consequences occurred. Then came a spell of deaths in the ring.

Fighting is perilous action, and one must expect a serious outcome now and then. One thing most impressive in the trio of tragic events charged up to Astoria recently is the absence of a hue and cry from the populace for a stoppage of the sport. In the old days, when a poor fellow went to the floor and never recovered consciousness, the authorities at once banned the game. Even powerful fighting clubs credited with being influential in politics and civic manipulations were forced to close their doors. In many cities this ban held for years. In fact, such drastic laws were enacted against boxing in Texas after a fatality that the Lone Star State was a fine place for a fighter to pass around. Local authorities didn't dare wink at boxing bouts. Chances are that none of the three fatal frays will check the mitt art in their respective localities. It's an age of sports. Thousands favor them, and constituted peace officers are not so quick to give ticket of leave to fighters as under the old state of affairs.

Ernest Barry, Who Seeks World's Sculling Title.

Ernest Barry, the champion sculler of England, has been matched to meet Richard Arnet of New Zealand, the world's title holder, for the championship and a purse of £1,000, which is equivalent to $5,000 in Uncle Sam's money. The two hardy athletes will strive for the coveted honor and prize on the Zambezi river, near Victoria falls, in the southern part of Africa.

Harry Hebner, New Star Among the Swimmers.

Followers of athletics rejoiced at the establishment of the world's record of 1 minute 58 2-5 seconds for 150 yards by Harry Hebner of the Illinois Athletic club of Chicago in the national back stroke championship in St. Louis recently. But probably not one in a hundred knew of the peculiar circumstances that led to the occurrence or realized its full significance.

Hebner swam his first 100 yard trial with the back stroke less than one week before the day he broke the world's record. It was the former champion, H. J. Handy, his clubmate, who induced him to do it, for he wanted to use him as a pacemaker while in training. The surprise of every one concerned, including Hebner himself, may well be imagined when at the end of the 100 yard test he found that he had not only beaten Handy, but covered the distance under record figures. Later he went 100 yards in 1 minute 13 seconds, but the greatest surprise of the lot was the boy's time trial in 1 minute 58 seconds for the 150 yard distance.

When it is considered that the world's record by F. Unwin of England stands at 1 minute 57 4-5 seconds it will be seen what wonderful possibilities are before the young westerner, who after a couple of weeks of a new stroke is able to show performances vastly superior to any ever seen in any country. There is absolutely no doubt that Hebner is the fastest back stroke swimmer the world has yet seen.

HARRY HEBNER.

CLEVER TALES ABOUT PEOPLE WHO PLAY FOR A LIVING

By FRANK H. BROOKS.

WHAT is so rare as a rattling musical comedy on a roof garden on a night in June? And what is a visit to the city in summer that does not include such an entertainment? One of the first of its kind to open in New York will be Frederic Thompson's, entitled "The Comic Supplement." The site will be the top of the New Amsterdam theater. They say that Mr. Thompson had a hand in writing the book. Be this as it may, Mr. Thompson will manage the show. The company has been trying out the production for several weeks. All roof garden stage girls are "bewitching." In the Thompson galaxy the word "bewitching" calls for big type. Among those who "bewitch" are Ethel Hamlin, Thelma Belmont and Julia Mills, whose pictures are in the group.

Henry Miller and his players are favorably known from coast to coast. Henry Miller is really a great character actor, in addition to which he is a methodical manager who is as careful of the details of his productions as were Irving and Mansfield, and Mr. Miller could expect no one to say more. His play that is closing the season at the Garrick theater in New York, under the direction of Klaw & Erlanger, is entitled "Her Husband's Wife." It is the kind of play that one can see more than once, and that is saying a heap. The people in the play, as pictured in the above cut, are Laura Hope Crews, Robert Warwick, Henry Miller, Orme Caldara, Grace Elliston and Mabel Bert.

DRAWING FOR THE STAR'S ROOM.

We are not all alone unhappy.—One of Bill's Plays.

In the days when rollers for a hand press were molded out of a combination of glue and molasses printers had a pastime which they called "jelling." It was a species of harmless gambling. Even now there are men who match for various things where the cost of the article is comparatively trifling. Some throw dice. Toys pitch pennies. Actors draw cuts.

Just before the revival by the Shuberts of "Jim the Penman" William Lackaye, John Mason, Theodore Roberts, George Barnum, Frederic Paulding, Louis Masson, Marguerite Clark, Grace Leeds and Jeffries Lewis drew marked slips from a hat in the hand of William A. Brady to see which one would occupy the star's dressing room during the engagement. Florence Roberts had not yet arrived—she plays the principal female part—but some one gallantly drew for her. It is supposed that a rabbit's foot is secreted in the star's dressing room, so the desire to occupy that room is active. Outdoors need he told that this room is the one most convenient to the stage. At the drawing the lucky man was Glendenning, the youngest player in the cast. Lackaye and Miss Roberts drew the meanest rooms of the house. After the fun was over Glendenning gave up his prize and insisted that Lackaye take the winner, which Lackaye did reluctantly. In like manner Masson, who had drawn the next best room, relinquished it in favor of Miss Roberts. The drawing and its incidents caused so much fun that the rehearsal was behind time. As the press agent would put it, fate and courtesy beat argument several necks.

portable study they put up for him next to his dressing room in a Chicago theater and spoke as follows: "I would rather fill a theater at $1 a seat than claim the honor of playing to high prices and have some seats vacant. It is the makes that support Miss Marlowe and myself in our Shakespearean productions, and it is the masses to whom we cater."

His grand stand play for the dollar-flood! But if it were not for those "high prices" would "Miss Marlowe and myself" get the high salaries they command (and which they deserve)?

SOTHERN'S DOLLAR SHAKE-SPARE.

Mr. Sothern, that sterling actor who knows and plays "Hamlet" as few, if any, in this country know it or play it, who, in speaking of his repertory, gallantly says "Miss Marlowe and myself," was come upon unawares in the

FREDERIC THOMPSON'S ROOF GARDEN BEAUTIES AND HENRY MILLER AND HIS PLAYERS

North, who had become white chief of the Pawnees, died Major Lillie succeeded him as the white leader of the nation from which he gets his sobriquet. In Oklahoma, Major Lillie's home, he has been a leading spirit in the creation of public edifices, establishment of schools, including railroad connections, building electric plants, waterworks and the completion of a prosperous municipality. He is president of the Arkansas Valley National bank of Pawnee City, where he has a beautiful country residence. Near by is his buffalo ranch, where he is doing all he can to preserve, through a large band of thoroughbreds, the American bison. Major Lillie's business qualities make him an example of what can be accomplished by energy and push and also make him a valuable associate and successor in preserving the historic lines of the wild west exhibitions.

COLONEL CODY (TOP) AND PAWNEE BILL, THE WILD WEST HEROES.

BEAUTIFUL PAGEANT

Annual May Procession at St. Michael's Church

Outshone in Splendor All of Its Predecessors—Over 1200 in Line—The Procession Attracted Over 10,000 People

The annual May procession of the societies and sodalities of St. Michael's church was held in the open yesterday afternoon and in splendor and magnificence outshone all of its beautiful predecessors.

In years gone by, thousands annually made pilgrimages to Lawrence to witness the May procession in that city. The Lawrence procession was also held yesterday but the crowd that went down to the city was by no means as large as in former years for the procession at St. Michael's now equals if not eclipses the other in size and beauty, and hence it was not surprising to find the streets along the line of march in Centralville literally choked with people, over 10,000 spectators being present. There were some 1200 adults and children in line and an idea of the length of the pageant may be gained by the fact that it took the line 23 minutes to pass a given point. The procession was given the direction of Rev. Denis F. Murphy, who was assisted by the clergymen of the parish who also appeared in the line, and the Dominican sisters, the latter being responsible for the exquisite costuming of the children and the artistic manner in which they were lined up, the color effects produced being most captivating to the eye. The procession formed at 3 o'clock and passed through Read street, to Third, to Bridge, to Sixth, to the church. It was with difficulty that the police made a path of sufficient size for the procession to pass so dense was the multitude. All classes

A. G. THOMPSON ANNUAL REUNION

Postmaster Guest of Of the Richardson Light Postal Employees Infantry

A testimonial banquet and entertainment was tendered to A. G. Thompson by the postal employees at Elks hall on Saturday evening on his fourth anniversary as postmaster of Lowell, an honor which very few postmasters of the country have ever received. The affair was in every way the most successful and largest ever held by the postal employees.

At 9 o'clock a reception was held in the parlor, the postmaster being assisted by Assistant Postmaster Edward Cheney, Ex-Postmaster Gardner W. Pearson, Sup't of Mailing Division Edwin A. Cooke, State Treasurer of Letter Carriers George L. Adams and President John J. Dillon of Lowell Letter Carriers. At the conclusion of the reception, all were escorted to the banquet hall to the strains of "Hail to the Chief" by the Calumet orchestra, which also rendered selections during the dinner. A splendid dinner was provided by the committee in charge.

Handsome menu cards with a true likeness of the postmaster and the Latin inscription, "Ad Multos Annos," were distributed. During the dinner the boys all sang topical songs with great enthusiasm. After the cigars were lighted, Joseph J. Ward, chairman of the committee, read a telegram from Congressman Butler Ames, who was unable to be present. He then introduced Joseph J. Dillon, president of Lowell Letter Carriers, who made a few brief remarks. President Dillon then called on Postmaster A. G. Thompson. The mere mention of his name was the signal for the entire assemblage to rise and greet him with cheers and applause which were long continued and ended by the singing of "Hail to Our Chief." The postmaster spoke in his usual happy vein, after expressing his thanks for the co-operation of all his

The 36th annual reunion and banquet of the Richardson Light Infantry was held at the New American house Saturday night. There were 22 members, members' sons and guests present and the affair proved to be one of the most enjoyable ever conducted by the well known organization.

The business meeting was held at 8 o'clock and the banquet at 8:30 o'clock. The feature of the business meeting was the re-election of the old officers for the ensuing year. They were: President, George F. Richardson, of Lowell; vice-president, Francis T. Wilson, of Lowell; secretary and treasurer, Charles R. Brigham, of Lowell, and board of government, W. N. Goodell, of Lowell; Morton N. Peabody, Lowell, and S. W. Benson of Charleston. Next year the 50th anniversary of the organization of the company will be observed with exercises of a more formal character than heretofore.

Twenty-two persons sat down to the banquet table at 6:30 o'clock. They were: W. E. Farrar, Lowell; W. H. Worcester, Lowell; C. H. Filisetti, Boston; James W. Bean, Somerville; Charles H. Frost, Lowell; H. C. Gardner, Springfield; M. N. Peabody, Lowell; James Schenck, North Andover; Z. B. Stewart, Manchester, N. H.; George N. Thissell, Methuen; N. W. Storer, Dorchester and Francis T. Wilson, Lowell, members of the association; Hamilton Gardner, Lowell; W. A. Baton, Lawrence, and Mr. Dodge, Boston, guests and W. N. Goodell, Lowell; N. P. Wilson, Boston; Foster H. Peabody, Lowell; E. W. Brigham, Lowell; Charles R. Brigham, Lowell and A. G. McCurdy, Lowell, sons of members.

Handsome bouquets of flowers were sent for the banquet and occupied prominent places on the table. They were the gifts of Mrs. Mary E. Jefferson, of this city, who was known as "the daughter of the company"; Mrs. Belle Chase Johnson, George E. Edwards and family and Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Goodell of this city. The Richardson Light Infantry was recognized officially from this city and was mustered into the United States service on May 21, 1861.

During the past year one member of the association has died. He was Silas Cowdry of Chelmsford. There are 33 members of the Richardson Light Infantry still living, 32 of whom are members of the association.

BOXING GOSSIP

MONDAY

Al Delmont vs. Bobby Tickle, New Bedford.
Morris Harris vs. Jim Johnson, Joe Heffernan vs. Kid Tracy, Philadelphia.
Kid Henry vs. J. Stein, Watervliet, N. Y.
Billy Ryan vs. Bant Dorsey, Syracuse.
Charley Griffin vs. K. O. Brown, New York.
Dixie Kid vs. Bill Hurley, Glens Falls, N. Y.
Johnny Daly vs. Tom Houck, Albany.
Pat Downey vs. Pat Moriarty and Al Groves vs. J. Kennedy, North Adams.

TUESDAY

Joe Jeannette vs. Andrew Morris, Eddie Carr vs. Kid Belts, Henry Hall vs. The Sullivan and Tony Lorenzo vs. Tom Egan, New York.
Sammy Keller vs. Monte Attell and Young McDonough vs. Joe Hyland, New York.
Adam Ryan vs. Johnny Willetta, Philadelphia.

WEDNESDAY

Pat Moore vs. Jim Driscoll, Philadelphia.
Tommy Murphy vs. Leach Cross, New York.
Johnny Glover vs. Bunny Ford and Jeff Doherty vs. Paddy Sullivan, New Haven.
Maurice Sayers vs. J. Murphy and Hugh McGinn vs. O. Brecklove, Indianapolis.
Al Schumacher vs. Kid Dobert, Baltimore.

THURSDAY

Jimmy Moriarty vs. unknown, Lowell.
Eddie Walsh vs. Joe Hyland, New York.
Kid Henry vs. Bill Hurley, Montreal.
Ted Young vs. Young O'Neill and for preliminaries, American A. A. Eddie Doyle vs. Toland and Charley Harvey vs. Louisiana, Philadelphia.

FRIDAY

Stanley Ketchel vs. Willie Lewis, New York.

SATURDAY

Billy Rolfe vs. Tom Sawyer, Portland, Me.
Young Ernie vs. Joe Hirst, Reading, Pa.
Young Ernie vs. Tammy O'Keefe.

Banner Bargains

FOR

Today and Tomorrow

TOO MANY COATS

We Will Offer 50 at

$5.95 Each

Navy, black, gray. Long and short length coats. We must reduce the coat stock.

See the Beautiful Silk Coats.....$10.00

See the Long Serge Coats.....$12.75

See the Snappy Mixture.....$9.75

We Are Going to Sell

100 Tailored Suits

Today and tomorrow. You never have had such values offered you before.

Skinner Satin Lined Suits at $13.75	40 Suits selling at $15.00 and $18.00	25 Odd Suits, stripes and plain goods.....$7.97
Navy, black, tan and green. $22.50 values.....$13.75	Monday and Tuesday.....$9.67	Here is a chance for 25 lucky people.
A good assortment.

Every Suit In Stock Reduced. Come Today and Tomorrow.

400 Voile, Panama and Serge SKIRTS

At less than cost to make. A manufacturer retiring from business on account of ill health.

$10.50 VOILE SKIRTS AT $5.95

In heavy all wool voile, new scarf flounce effect, trimmed with silk and braid.

$7.50 Chiffon Panama at $3.98

Navy and black in handsome styles, bottom plaited effects. Labor alone on this skirt for price asked.

VERY SPECIAL $3.95

We are going to sell 200 Gingham and Wash Dresses. New dresses that sell to $6.00. All colors and sizes, at one price.....

75 Skirts in Stock and Panama, $4 skirts $2.95

New York Cloak and Suit Co.

12-18 JOHN STREET

WEAK BATTING

Has Caused Slump of the Lowell Team

No Pinch Hitters on the Team—Manager Gray Gets Busy and Signs Three More Players

Never before in history has there been such a general interest and enthusiasm over baseball in Lowell than is evident this year. Men, women and children have caught the "bug" and all they talk about is the great national game. In the shops, mills and on the street corners it is baseball from morn till eve and even after bedtime.

In order to meet that great enthusiasm and profit by it Lowell must necessarily produce a winning team. The fans don't look for a pennant winner, nor do they demand one; all they desire is a team that will hold its end up and make the first division. Give them that kind of a team and they will flock to Spaulding park whenever there is a home game.

Lowell started out like the traditional race horse, but after a week's play or more turned around and started downward. The men who appeared to be heavy hitters began to slump, and defeat followed defeat. Then after time with three on base and none or one out Lowell has failed to score, or with a man on third and one out, they have been blanked, for the next batsmen couldn't even hit a fly to the outfield. When none is on base they would come up and crack out the ball, but invariably when a hit meant a run the ball couldn't get by the infield.

And it isn't poor management or direction that is responsible either, for cut, who will play third base today: Decker, an outfielder from the Brockton Nationals, and Cy McDonald, an infielder.

The Baseball Magazine says of Cy McDonald: "A boy named Cy McDonald, who lives at Whitechester, Va., and incidentally can hit 'em a few, threw a great scare into Dartmouth, when the New Hampshire collegians were in Washington on their southern trip. Cy McDonald entered Georgetown in 1908, and was a terror with the stick from the word go. He made first base in a walk, and could have made most anything else he wanted on account of his hitting."

"When Dartmouth and Georgetown met he pulled out a stunt that was not equaled by another player all season. In the first inning the Georgetown lads batted around the batting order, and McDonald, out of two appearances at bat, hit out two home runs. The Catholic lads beat the Dartmouth bunch easily, and to this day the baseballists from New Hampshire have not recovered from those two long drives in the very first spasm of play."

STRUCK BY TRAIN

BOSTON, May 23.—Just before 3 o'clock yesterday morning Leo Darrington, a sailor on the U. S. S. Dixie, is said to have attempted suicide at the Beach street elevated station. Just as a train came in he is said to have tried to jump to the track. The first car of the train struck him and knocked him back to the platform.

Special Officer Dier of the elevated company ran to his assistance. Darrington sustained a cut on the chin and one on the left temple. He was not seriously hurt.

The division 4 police were called and Darrington, who is only 15 years old, was sent to the Langrange street station in the patrol wagon. Deputy St. Cain then sent him in the wagon to the Charleston navy yard.

Darrington's parents live at 44 Mal-street, Dorchester.

VERIFICATION OF SAVINGS BANK BOOK

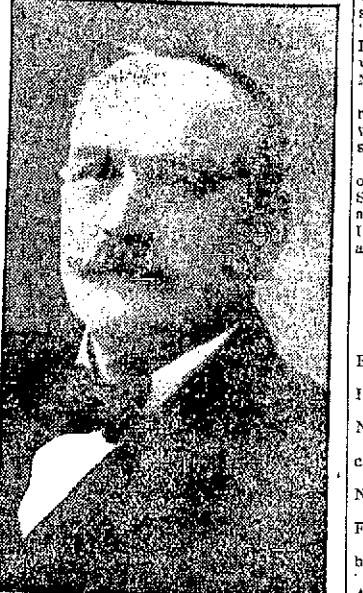

To Depositors In Savings Banks:

Acting under the provisions of the public statutes, section 43, chapter 500, acts of 1905, the banks whose names appear below request their respective depositors to bring in their bank books for verification during the month of June, 1910.

Central Savings Bank, Lowell Institution for Savings, Lowell Five Cent Savings Bank, (July and August), Lowell Institution for Savings, Mechanics Savings Bank, Northbrook River Savings Bank, Washington Savings Institution.

REV. DENIS F. MURPHY.

MR. A. G. THOMPSON, Postmaster.

and crowds were represented in the motley throng that watched with reverence and respect the inspiring spectacle as it moved along.

Along the line of march appropriate hymns were sung by the Young Ladies' society and the Sanctuary choir. Many houses along the line of march were decorated with the national colors, the paper colors of gold and white and the blue and white of the Blessed Virgin.

Upon entering the church the children gathered about the statue of the Blessed Virgin for the crowning ceremony. With the congregation and the three choirs singing the crowning hymn in unison, little Misses Helen Haviland and Rose Courtney, crowned in the colors of the Blessed Virgin, crowned the statue. The service then closed with solemn benediction by Rev. Fr. Reynolds, assisted by Rev. John J. Shaw, deacon, Rev. Francis J. Mullin, deacon of exposition, and Rev. Fr. Murphy, master of ceremonies.

The complete roster of the procession appeared in Saturday's edition, and lack of space forbids its repetition at this time.

Notes of Procession

This year's parade abounded in new and striking features, among which were the Roman soldiers represented by Messrs. Thomas Egan, Herbert McNeeley, John McCann, Frank McLaughlin and Leo Emond.

Among the new features also were the beautiful and varicolored pennants bearing inscriptions from the Litany of the Blessed Virgin.

In the publication of the list of children in attendance upon the statue of the Blessed Virgin the name of Miss Grace Cawley was inadvertently omitted.

The Sacred Heart and King David features were both new and impressive.

The Dominican sisters deserved the many compliments paid them along the line for the exquisite appearance of the children.

A squad of soldiers from Company C, in charge of Sergeant Powers, led the procession.

REST AND HEALTH TO MOTHER AND CHILD.

Mrs. WISLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP has been used for over SIXTY YEARS by MILLIONS of MOTHERS for their CHILDREN WILL BRING THEM WITH PERFECT SUCCESS. IT SOOTHES THE CHILD, SOFTENS THE GUMS, ALLAYS ALL PAIN, CURES WIND COLIC, and is the best remedy for DIARRHOEA. It is absolutely harmless. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. WISLOW'S Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

By order from the bankruptcy court, will be sold at public auction at the office of Ezra E. Mansur, Room 24, Chaffin Building, 22 Central street, Lowell, Mass., Tuesday, May 24, 1910, at 2 o'clock p.m., the books and accounts of the bankrupt estate of D. A. Hendry, of Lowell, Mass. CHAULES T. ROWLAND, Trustee, Lowell, Mass., May 23, 1910.

EZRA E. MANSUR, Auctioneer

Room 24, Chaffin Building

PUBLIC AUCTION

By order from the bankruptcy court, will be sold at public auction at the office of Ezra E. Mansur, Room 24, Chaffin Building, 22 Central street, Lowell, Mass., Tuesday, May 24, 1910, at 2 o'clock p.m., the books and accounts of the bankrupt estate of D. A. Hendry, of Lowell, Mass. CHAULES T. ROWLAND, Trustee, Lowell, Mass., May 23, 1910.

Frank J. Campbell, 255 Central St.

Falls & Burkinshaw, 418 & Middlesex St.

Houle's Pharmacy, 462 Moody St. R.

J. Lang & Co., 374 Merrimack St.

Wm. H. Noonan & Co., 305 Bridge St.

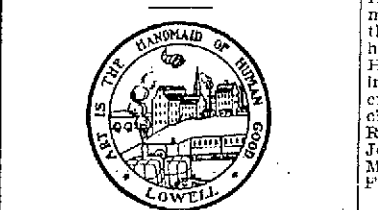

John H. O'Neill, Lawrence St. cor. Wamsott; Routhier & Delais, 632 Merrimack St.; Charles W. Tromblay, 415 Bridge St.; Fred Howard, 197 Central St.; John T. Sparks & Co., 747 Lakeview Ave.

HEARING

Boston & Northern Street Railway

To the Honorable the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the City of Lowell: Respectfully represents your petitioner, the Boston & Northern Street Railway Company, that by the terms of grants of location in Middlesex, Branch and Merrimack streets in the City of Lowell, the space between the inner rails of the two tracks is fixed at not less than three feet six inches, nor more than four feet, and that public convenience and necessity require that such space should be fixed at four feet, six inches, and a greater distance at connecting and other curves as safety may require, and to the satisfaction of the City Engineer and Superintendent of Streets, and approval of the Board of Railroad Commissioners; all substantially as shown on plan to be filed at the hearing to be held hereon.

Boston & Northern St. Ry. Co.
By P. F. SULLIVAN, President,
Lowell, Mass., May 12, 1910.

CITY OF LOWELL

In Board of Aldermen.

Order for a hearing on petition of the Boston & Northern Street Railway Company that the requirements as to space between inner rails of tracks in locations granted in Merrimack, Middlesex and Branch streets be changed.

Ordered by the Board of Aldermen of the City of Lowell, assembled, as follows:

That on the petition of the Boston & Northern Street Railway Company that the requirements as to space between the inner rails of tracks in locations granted in Merrimack, Middlesex and Branch streets be changed, a hearing be given by the Board of Aldermen at their room, City Hall, Tuesday evening, June 7, 1910, at eight o'clock. And that all persons may have due notice of such hearing that they may be heard a copy of said petition and of this order thereon be published in the Lowell Courier-Citizen and The Lowell Sun, newspapers published in said Lowell, said publication to be fourteen days before said hearing.

In Board of Aldermen, May 17, 1910.

Read and adopted.

GIRARD P. DADMAN, City Clerk.

Approved, May 18, 1910.

JOHN F. MEEHAN, Mayor.

A true copy.

Attest:

GIRARD P. DADMAN, City Clerk.

Lowell, Mass., May 21, 1910.

SMALL STORE wanted with tenement, in good locality. Address T. S. Sullivan.

DRUG CLERK, 10 years' experience, registered, desires position. All references. Address R. D. Sullivan.

TWO LARGE LIGHT ROOMS to let at 101 Dutton St. Lowell, said publication to be fourteen days before said hearing.

Lowell, Mass., May 21, 1910.

SMALL STORE wanted with tenement, in good locality. Address T. S. Sullivan.

DRUG CLERK, 10 years' experience, registered, desires position. All references. Address R. D. Sullivan.

TWO LARGE LIGHT ROOMS to let at 101 Dutton St. Lowell, said publication to be fourteen days before said hearing.

Lowell, Mass., May 21, 1910.

SMALL STORE wanted with tenement, in good locality. Address T. S. Sullivan.

DRUG CLERK, 10 years' experience, registered, desires position. All references. Address R. D. Sullivan.

TWO LARGE LIGHT ROOMS to let at 101 Dutton St. Lowell, said publication to be fourteen days before said hearing.

Lowell, Mass., May 21, 1910.

SMALL STORE wanted with tenement, in good locality. Address T. S. Sullivan.

DRUG CLERK, 10 years' experience, registered, desires position. All references. Address R. D. Sullivan.

TWO LARGE LIGHT ROOMS to let at 101 Dutton St. Lowell, said publication to be fourteen days before said hearing.

Lowell, Mass., May 21, 1910.

SMALL STORE wanted with tenement, in good locality. Address T. S. Sullivan.

DRUG CLERK, 10 years' experience, registered, desires position. All references. Address R. D. Sullivan.

TWO LARGE LIGHT ROOMS to let at 101 Dutton St. Lowell, said publication to be fourteen days before said hearing.

Lowell, Mass., May 21, 1910.

SMALL STORE wanted with tenement, in good locality. Address T. S. Sullivan.

DRUG CLERK, 10 years' experience, registered, desires position. All references. Address R. D. Sullivan.

TWO LARGE LIGHT ROOMS to let at 101 Dutton St. Lowell, said publication to be fourteen days before said hearing.

Lowell, Mass., May 21, 1910.

SMALL STORE wanted with tenement, in good locality. Address T. S. Sullivan.

DRUG CLERK, 10 years' experience, registered, desires position. All references. Address R. D. Sullivan.

TWO LARGE LIGHT ROOMS to let at 101 Dutton St. Lowell, said publication to be fourteen days before said hearing.

Lowell, Mass., May 21, 1910.

SMALL STORE wanted with tenement, in good locality. Address T. S. Sullivan.

DRUG CLERK, 10 years' experience, registered, desires position. All references. Address R. D. Sullivan.

TWO LARGE LIGHT ROOMS to let at 101 Dutton St. Lowell, said publication to be fourteen days before said hearing.

Lowell, Mass., May 21, 1910.

SMALL STORE wanted with tenement, in good locality. Address T. S. Sullivan.

DRUG CLERK, 10 years' experience, registered, desires position. All references. Address R. D. Sullivan.

TWO LARGE LIGHT ROOMS to let at 101 Dutton St. Lowell, said publication to be fourteen days before said hearing.

Lowell, Mass., May 21, 1910.

SMALL STORE wanted with tenement, in good locality. Address T. S. Sullivan.

DRUG CLERK, 10 years' experience, registered, desires position. All references. Address R. D. Sullivan.

TWO LARGE LIGHT ROOMS to let at 101 Dutton St. Lowell, said publication to be fourteen days before said hearing.

Lowell, Mass., May 21, 1910.

SMALL STORE wanted with tenement, in good locality. Address T. S. Sullivan.

DRUG CLERK, 10 years' experience, registered, desires position. All references. Address R. D. Sullivan.

TWO LARGE LIGHT ROOMS to let at 101 Dutton St. Lowell, said publication to be fourteen days before said hearing.

Lowell, Mass., May 21, 1910.

SMALL STORE wanted with tenement, in good locality. Address T. S. Sullivan.

DRUG CLERK, 10 years' experience, registered, desires position. All references. Address R. D. Sullivan.

TWO LARGE LIGHT ROOMS to let at 101 Dutton St. Lowell, said publication to be fourteen days before said hearing.

Lowell, Mass., May 21, 1910.

REV. DR. BLACKBURN

Greeted by Old Friends at First Baptist Church

Rev. J. M. Craig Back Again in Pulpit—Rev. James Bancroft Begins His Pastorate at St. John's Episcopal Church

Rev. Alexander Blackburn, D. D., former pastor of the First Baptist church, occupied the pulpit of that church yesterday and there was a large attendance of his former congregation to welcome him.

In the morning his subject was "The Incarnation and Prayer." The central thought of the sermon was the deity of Jesus Christ and the power of prayer, which he said were closely linked together. The evening discourse was on the subject of "Life's Overhaul." His text was taken from the sayings of Jesus to the woman of Samaria at Jacob's well, and said if present plans are carried out, he expected within three months to stand at the spot where those words were spoken. At the close of a day's labor one man goes towards his home, picks a few flowers, buys some fruit and smilingly is welcomed by his children. You would trust such a man with all you have. Another man leaves his work, and grumpy and dull he pays no attention to flowers and fruit, but does patronize the saloon, and his arrival home is attended by the children in tears and wife. The overflow of his life shows what he is. The overflow of your life is the index of your character. A rich man in New York, whom I once visited, told me he would cut 50,000 lacquerminut roses in one season, that would be sent to New York and freely given through the tenement house district. I found out the overflow of that man's life. Finding it out, I could love and trust him. Not only is it an index, but the overflow makes your character. What you do in your hours of labor has not so much influence upon your character as what you do in your hours of recreation. Just so sure as you rightly use the "off" hours, you will grow in strength and integrity. Jesus came to fix the overflow of life in the right direction. He came not to take pleasure out of life, but to give life to life. Pure, sweet pleasure is a blessing. Bear a smile with you in the world. Laugh at the proper time, be sober at the proper time. When we reach the judgment seat of the Master we are not going to be asked how we wove or wrought at our daily labor, but if the overflow of our lives has given cheer and comfort to the sick and poor. The overflow of Helen Gould's life, and of Miss Frick does good to hundreds and thousands of young men and women. Jesus' life has an overflow that gives joy and blessing and salvation to all who accept it.

Rev. Mr. Craig Returns

Rev. J. M. Craig, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, received a warm welcome from his parishioners yesterday after his six weeks' visit in Kansas City. The members of the church turned out in large numbers.

In a prelude to the sermon Rev. Mr. Craig spoke of the changes which occurred since he left this city and mentioned the fact that one member of the church had passed away, another, he said, was stricken down from health to a bed of sickness, reminding us of the uncertainty and brevity of this life, the need of living the Christian life. Rev. J. M. Craig preached from Gal. 6:14, "God forbid that I should glory in the cross of Jesus Christ by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world."

New Pastor Preached

There was a large congregation at St. John's Episcopal church in Gorham street yesterday, the occasion being the first time that Rev. James Bancroft occupied the pulpit as rector. His sermon was based on John 12:21. "The same (the Greeks) came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus."

Rev. Mr. Bancroft spoke of the context and of the Greeks desiring to come into touch with Jesus Christ and his religion. They desired to meet and know those who were so placed as to act as intermediaries between the Christ and themselves.

He likened the action of the Greeks to the attitude of the Christian world today. He said that men today believe in Christ, the son of God, and in his teachings, and they also believe in those who are the church as his ministers, the intermediaries. They know them to represent God and his religion, and they have faith in them.

There was a large attendance at the evening service when there was special music by the choir, and when Rev. Mr. Bancroft also spoke.

MURDER SUSPECT

Returns to New York After Nine Years' Absence

NEW YORK, May 23.—Homesteaders besetting him for nine years, during which time he roamed through the west a free and unsuspected man, finally drove William Whiteway, 36, "wanted" as one of three men who murdered Theodore Johanson here in 1901—back like a homing pigeon to New York, to fall yesterday into the clutches of the police, who for the nine years have been on the lookout for him.

"Please give me some money. I must eat," he pleaded.

"Hello, Whiteway," he said. It was Detective Hart, who nine years ago looked high and low for the man. A few minutes later Whiteway was a prisoner in the Harlem detective bureau. At first he resolutely denied his identity. Later he broke down and admitted it.

Theodore Johanson was wounded in Leggett's lane, Oak Point, Bronx, in the early morning hours of July 7, 1901. It is charged that Whiteway, John Fisher and Massey Schofield held Johanson up. Fisher, convicted of firing the fatal shot, is serving a life sentence. Schofield confessed and named Whiteway as the third man in the case. Schofield got six years for his part in the crime. In his confession he told how he, Whiteway and Fisher, being "broke," held up Johanson and a man called Harner, and how Fisher, when Johanson made off, fired twice, bringing him down. Johanson died three days later.

ever held by the association. A most elaborate program includes addresses by many noted speakers and ministers, among them Gov. Draper, Lieut. Gov. Frothingham and President Emeritus Charles W. Eliot of Harvard university.

STEAMER VENUS

Has Gone Back to Bluefields

NEW ORLEANS, May 23.—Representatives of the titular government of Nicaragua stated last night that they had received advice to the effect that the Venus had gone to Bluefields to await orders from Madrid, that such orders had been received and that the steamer then put back to Bluefields Saturday. It is asserted the Venus will attack the steamer Marietta di Giorgio if it can meet the latter at a point where the town of Bluefields will not be threatened or under circumstances which the Madrid government does not construe as a violation of the dictum of Commander Gilmer in charge of the United States gunboats Palanca and Dubuque regarding the safety of American citizens in Bluefields.

AMERICAN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION

BOSTON, May 23.—Morning prayer in King's chapel, Tremont street, conducted by Rev. Dr. Roy Freeman of Braintree, opened the regular meeting of the 33rd anniversary of the American Unitarian Association today. Two preliminary sessions were held later. Later in the forenoon Rev. J. T. Sutherland of Hartford, Conn., addressed the annual meeting of the Ministerial Union in Channing hall. The subject was "Theodore Parker." Other meetings were held in the afternoon.

Daily sessions will be held during the week and the anniversary is expected to be one of the most memorable

HOMES WRECKED

Cairo, Ill., Visited by a Tornado

CAIRO, Ill., May 23.—A tornado which struck Cairo at 5:40 p. m. yesterday demolished four homes, damaged a dozen more and destroyed several barns, besides tearing large trees up by the roots. No fatalities were reported, but one woman was severely bruised and several persons were slightly injured.

The house occupied by Henry Smith was lifted bodily from its foundation, carried about 50 feet northward and landed bottom side up. Mrs. Smith and three children were in the house and the former was painfully bruised, while the children were slightly injured.

The home of Arthur Lingquist was carried by the wind 100 feet away and landed right side up, but badly twisted. The occupants escaped with slight injuries.

While members of the family of William Wise were at supper the storm lifted the roof so suddenly they did not realize what was happening. A large barn was carried 200 feet and landed on a coal shed.

This tornado appeared to be about 100 feet wide.

NORMAL SCHOOL

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION HELD ANNUAL REUNION

The annual reunion and banquet of the Lowell Normal School Alumni association was held Saturday afternoon at the school. A business meeting preceded the banquet.

The principal business of the meeting was the election of officers for the ensuing year, as follows: Miss Anna McCarron, '05, president; Miss Winifred McEvoy, '06, vice-president; Miss Alice Ramsey, '03, secretary; John E. Barr, '09, treasurer.

After the business meeting luncheon was served. The Germania Ladies' orchestra furnished music. At the close of the banquet Miss Beattie E. Knappton presided as toastmistress. The following program was carried out: Address of welcome, toastmistress; "The Alumni Association and the Future of the School," Miss Mabel Hill; extracts from letters written by an L. N. S. alumna, Miss Lillian C. Burbank, '09; remarks, Cyrus A. Durbin; "Just a Word," Miss Martha R. Taylor, '09; "Our Opportunities Today,"

Miss Mabel F. Laughton, '04; "The Intangible Factor in Education," Dr. Lyman C. Newell of Boston university.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

A. G. POLLARD CO.

THE STORE FOR THRIFTY PEOPLE

THIS MORNING BEGAN AN UNEX-AMPLED SALE OF LADIES'

Tailored Linen Suits

AT PRICES NEVER BEFORE APPROACHED IN LOWNESS AT THIS SEASON SECURED BY TAKING ADVANTAGE OF PRESENT TOPSY-TURVY MARKET CONDITIONS

LADIES' $11.98 LINEN SUITS $7.98

LINEN SUITS For Decoration Day

Made of pure natural linen, linen crash, Siberian linen and heavy basket weave linen. Notch and shawl collars, plain or trimmed with black Skinner satin. Sizes 14, 16 and 18 years and 34 to 44. These suits are sold regularly at $11.98.

THE LINEN COATS WOMEN ARE BUYING

For journeys, for automobiling, for general street wear and hot weather. The long linen coat proves such a good friend that it is not surprising people are already buying them. We have a greater variety of such coats than usual in May—prices between $3.98 and $10.00, also inobairs at $5.98 and $7.50. During this sale all linen and motor coats will be altered free.

Cloak Dept.

See Window Display.

Second Floor

SHEETS AND PILLOW CASES

A special selling began this morning of a large purchase made last month, when sheets and pillow cases took a big drop in prices. You'll find each item less than the cotton can be bought for today. A few odd things also very cheap.

PILLOW CASES

Odd Pillow Cases, different widths and different lengths, made of brown and bleached cotton, good heavy quality, worth 12 1-2c, only 9c Each
250 dozen Pillow Cases, sizes 45x36, with 3 inch hem, made of good heavy popular make of cotton, but liable to be a little imperfect, worth 15c, only 11c Each
175 dozen Pillow Cases, made of tubing, no seams to give way, 45x38 1-2, with 3 inch hem, made of soft, heavy, perfect white cotton, worth 22c, only 15c Each

SHEETS

One lot good heavy sheets, full size and well made, with 3 inch hem at top and one at bottom, worth 40c 39c Each
One lot Unbleached Sheets, size 81x90, made of extra heavy cotton; will bleach out soft and white, well made, no center seams, worth 50c, only 49c

Palmer Street

SHEETS

One lot marked A. G. Pollard Co. "Perfection." The way this sheet sold at our last sale influenced us to secure more; we have them at the same prices as before.

Size 72x90, worth 65c, at only 55c Each
Size 72x90, worth 69c, at only 59c Each
Size 81x90, worth 69c, at only 59c Each
Size 81x90, worth 75c, at only 65c Each

Two numbers of celebrated "Dwight Anchor" cotton. Compare these prices with what you have to pay for it by the yard.

Size 63x90, worth 75c, at only 59c Each
Size 81x90, worth 85c, at only 69c Each

If you want to buy sheets for your camp, cottage, bungalow, summer home or city residence, take advantage of this sale.

Left Aisle

IN OUR UNDERPRICE BASEMENT

The most successful of all our Annual 6 1-4c Sales comes to an end tonight. A big majority of the magnificent special values have already been closed out, but the following new offerings should attract prudent shoppers here today.

PLAID GINGHAM—One case of fine Plaid Gingham, nice fine quality, in handsome patterns for summer dresses, but being slightly imperfect on the selvedge, we offer them at Sale Price 6 1-4c Yard

BLEACHED COTTON—2000 yards of fine quality bleached cotton, in remnants, good soft finish, 10c value Sale Price 6 1-4c Yard

WHITE MADRAS—One case of fine white madras, full yard wide, nice fine quality, for shirts, shirt waists and dresses, 12 1-2c value Sale Price 6 1-4c Yard

BLACK SATEEN—Heavy black sateen remnants, fast color, good strong quality, for mill aprons, skirts and working shirts, 12 1-2c value Sale Price 6 1-4c Yard

MERCERIZED NAPKINS—50 dozen fine Mercerized Napkins, 20 inches wide, very fine quality, in very handsome design, 10c value Sale Price 6 1-4c Each

WHITE CREPE—32 inches wide, White Crepe, nice and fine quality, for summer dresses, easily washed, 12 1-2c value Sale Price 6 1-4c Yard

Great Bargains in Fine Embroideries Tomorrow at Our Sale of Sample Pieces

13,000 Yards

Fresh from the importers, all new goods, including edgings, insertions and flouncings, in all widths, all hand machine work on fine nainsook and cambrics, at 1-2 to 1-3 less than regular prices.

10v EDGINGS AND INSERTIONS, ONLY 5c a yard

19c EDGINGS AND INSERTIONS, ONLY 12 1-2c a yard

12 1-2c EDGINGS AND INSERTIONS, ONLY 7 1-2c a yard

25c AND 39c EDGINGS AND INSERTIONS, ONLY 19c a yard

15c EDGINGS AND INSERTIONS 10c a yard

50c AND 75c EDGINGS AND INSERTIONS, ONLY 35c a yard

ON SALE TOMORROW, TUESDAY A. M., IN OUR UNDER-PRICE BASEMENT

We Need Two Experienced Dry Goods Salesmen—See Mr. Fortin in Palmer Street Basement

Special Notice

We shall make every effort to deliver promptly, but cannot guarantee delivery inside of one week. Kindly take small parcels with you if possible.

MURDEROUS ATTACK

Braintree Man Was Assaulted and Then Robbed

BRAINTREE, May 23.—While waiting for a street car in the lonely Haverhill district, between South Braintree and Randolph, Oscar Smith, aged 58, was assaulted and robbed just after dusk last night by two men.

Smith made his way back to South Braintree with great difficulty. Officers Shea and Hunt went to the Haverhill district and searched the vicinity in an effort to find the highwaymen.

The men attacked Smith so suddenly that he was unable to give much of a description of them. He was taken to Hotel Brunswick at South Braintree, where he resides, and his wounds were dressed by Dr. C. A. Sullivan. Smith is in a serious condition.

The spot where he was waiting for an electric car, several miles from here, is one of the loneliest in the town. He saw two men walking along the street, but took no particular notice of them until one accosted him.

"Give us some money," exclaimed one of the men. Both stepped up to Smith in a threatening manner.

"I haven't any," said he, calmly.

Both men then suddenly turned upon him, knocked him down and kicked and beat him, inflicting severe cuts and bruises to his face and body.

While one of the men held Smith down and continued to strike him, the other went through his clothing and took less than $1 in change, all the money that Smith happened to have in his pockets. The highwaymen then made a hasty retreat.

In great pain, his face bleeding freely, Smith with much difficulty walked back to South Braintree.

THE TARIFF ISSUE

Will Defeat the Republican Party, Says Congressman Foss

BOSTON, May 23.—"Tariff reform, or rather an equitable tariff law, will undoubtedly furnish the issue this fall, no matter how hard the republican leaders try to divert the public mind. There is a great opportunity ahead for the democratic party in both state and nation and, if the campaign is properly handled, I see nothing to prevent a complete victory."—Eugene N. Foss.

The representative from the 14th district returned from Washington yesterday morning more confident than ever that the people will this fall register at the polls a protest against the Payne-Aldrich tariff which it will be too late for the republican party to head.

Incidentally Mr. Foss sees a bright prospect ahead for his pet hobby—reciprocity with Canada.

These views Mr. Foss enthusiastically explained to a press reporter as they journeyed together by train from Washington to Boston.

"The republican party is a seething mass of dissatisfaction at the present time," said Mr. Foss. "All this is evident on the surface in Washington, where it comes naturally to the top, and you can rest assured that there is plenty of trouble further down that will come out at the polls next November."

"That independence that some of us manifested when we advocated reciprocal relations with Canada is manifest in both houses of congress. I tell you it is both widespread and growing."

"I refer not only to the tariff issue, but on political questions generally. On every side you see manifestations of disloyalty to the republican leaders, what can almost be described as a general tendency among progressive men to think and act for themselves in their own way."

"This spirit, which is the same that actuated our forefathers to reject the government of George III and adopt one of their own along lines more in keeping with true democracy, will, I am confident, become more open and evident as the campaign progresses."

"The tariff issue will be the issue on which the fight will be made, and the temper of the people will not permit any 'made' questions of the comers' tail to be cast in their eyes to blind them to the real point at issue. They have had an object lesson in tariff making that they will be slow to forget. The chaotic conditions in the very republican stronghold of the nation tell their own story."

"Is it all tariff?" Mr. Foss was asked.

"Primarily yes," he replied, "but the party itself is becoming an issue. On all sides I hear men discussing the republican organization. Many of them have been loyal through the years, but now they are in revolt. They are not in conflict with the principles of the founders, but rather the methods of the leaders. They are becoming charged with a disloyalty who is true to the fundamentals."

"What do you think of the situation at home?" asked the reporter.

"Well," said Mr. Foss, "the majority party in Massachusetts is in bad shape. Disaffection is not confined to the 14th district. Republicans are dissatisfied with their leaders and especially with Senator Lodge. That was proved only the other day by the vote of the Massachusetts house in demanding the popular election of U. S. senators."

"Congressman Ames is a fighter and will create quite a stir this fall. He is not a man to quit when he gets into a fight and from what I know of him and what I have been told I look forward to a heated battle, which cannot fail to help the democrats providing they are shown enough to embrace the opportunity presented. The republican party will, of course, be somewhat divided in this impending fight and the leaders will have hard work keeping Ames back."

"When questioned regarding the democratic nomination for governor next fall, Mr. Foss declined to commit himself beyond the following:

"Mr. Vahey made a good run last year and he may be given the opportunity to run. I feel that this being the opportunity of the party, personal ambitions should be subordinated for the party good and that the ticket presented by the democratic party to the voters should be the strongest available. It is the duty of every patriot to come out and help to restore normal prices and prosperity, which can only exist when the people are satisfied and happy. I myself have no plans for the fall campaign."

Dr. Temple's Treatment Free to the Sick

THIS IS THE OFFER

Anyone applying for treatment at the office, 97 Central street, Mansur block, rooms 10, 11, 12, will be treated one week free, that is, without charge or compensation whatsoever for services, office treatment or advice. No money will be asked or accepted under any circumstances. This is absolutely and positively free to all sufferers with any form of a nervous or chronic disease of the stomach, liver, kidneys, bladder, blood or rectum. Who offer to limit in time only. You must come this week.

THIS FREE TREATMENT PLAN

is not a philanthropic or charity offer, but simply a business proposition, made for the purpose of becoming quickly acquainted with the sick, to introduce a new and progressive method of treatment and to prove this wonderful system of healing; therefore, all may call—the high, the low, the rich, the poor, without fear or favor. The doctor believes that the generous endorsements of the many who will be relieved and cured will attract public attention and bring sufficient patronage to repay for the great outlay and expense entailed by this offer.

Observe the days and hours which the Free Treatment is given: Mondays and Wednesdays, 10 a. m. to 12 p. m., to 6 p. m.; Sundays, 10 to 12. Other days by appointment only.

Here's an Investment

LORD MANOR, No. 60,852

One of the best bred young horses in the country. This horse stands 16.1, weighs 1210, and is safe and clever under all conditions. He is a superior driver, has splendid action, and is a horse of great nerve and style. He was driven an exhibition mile as a three year old in 2:25. Full details for Lady Kate, record 2:15.1 on a half mile track, won every race she started in, riding six times in 18 days. She was sold under the hammer in the New York sale ring for $2275 last January. With his rich breeding and his splendid individual qualities, this horse is a good winner. He will be sold only because the owner is unable to give the time necessary to handle a station standing for service. Hugh Cameron, can be seen at Humphrey's stables, 1000 Main st., until Wednesday night.

JEWELS STOLEN

While Husband and Wife Slept Soundly

NEWARK, N. J., May 23.—While Samuel Vogel and his wife, of Newark, N. J., slept soundly, burglars entered their home early yesterday morning and stole a handbag containing jewelry worth $10,000 from under the pillow beneath Mrs. Vogel's head and $600 in cash from her husband's pockets. The pair did not discover their loss until they woke.

Vogel, who is a middle aged shopkeeper, had put the savings of his lifetime into diamonds.

MAY PROVE FATAL

Two Were Injured in Auto Accident

CATSKILL, N. Y., May 23.—To avoid running down two children near Glasco, below Saugerties, a touring car containing the owner, Fred Lewis, driver, manufacturer of Saugerties; Mrs. Nellie Naylor, Louis B. Decker, a druggist, and Miss Abner Van Valkenburg, all of this village, was sent down an embankment last evening by the chauffeur, Frank Kerbert. The big machine turned turtle and Mrs. Naylor and Lewis were pinned beneath it. Both, it is feared, will die of their injuries.

DRACUT

The board of selectmen of the town of Dracut, which also constitutes the

MONEY

Learned to Housekeepers and Workingmen. $10 AND UPWARDS.

Come to us for confidential dealings, low rates, and payments to suit your income. Our business was established to assist those who need money, and therefore we can serve you best.

AMERICAN LOAN CO. 45 Merrimack St. Room 10, third floor. LOWELL, MASS. Tel. 2494. Mon., Fri. & Sat. until 9 p. m.

If you need money fill out blank below and mail it to us and our agent will call and see you.

Name.....
Street.....
Town.....
Amount wanted.....

town board of health, and Chairman Huntley of the school committee, have decided to close the Collinsville school until May 31 because of the scarlet fever epidemic. Present indications point to an early recovery of the children now confined, and in the meantime the selectmen are doing everything in their power to prevent the spread of the disease.

LEGAL NOTICES

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS. Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all persons claiming an interest in the estate of Abel Wheeler, late of Lowell, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court for Probate, by Nellie L. Wheeler, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to her, the executrix therein named, without giving a surety on her official bond.

And on being cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Lowell, in said County of Middlesex, on the twenty-first day of June, A. D. 1910, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, in said County, to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing post-paid, or delivering a copy of this citation at least seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this fifth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS. Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To all persons claiming an interest in the estate of James Fairleigh, late of Tewksbury, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court for Probate, by Penelope Fairleigh, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to her, the executrix therein named, without giving a surety on her official bond.

And on being cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the twenty-first day of June, A. D. 1910, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, in said County, to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing post-paid, a copy of this citation at least seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this fifth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

MISCELLANEOUS

FISHERMEN take notice, fresh picked worms and the best fishing tackle for sale at Harry Gonzales, 123 Gorham st., Tel. 562-2.

DRINK GLORIA for health; sold everywhere.

MOTHERS—Bent's Destroyer kills dandruff and itching scalp; prevents falling hair; harmless, 25c only at Fells & Burdick's, 418 Middlesex st.

LOST AND FOUND

$5.00 BELL lost Thursday evening between Market and Middle sts. Reward at 44 Coburn st.

FOR SALE

SQUARE WAGON for sale. A three spring square wagon newly painted and varnished, as good as new. Will sell at a bargain or would exchange for a new demure wagon. Inquire at The Sun office.

AUTOMOBILE for sale—Buick Model F, good condition. Call 15 Palmer st., room 5.

THREE LADIES' BICYCLES for sale. Beautiful, to suit child, also uprigt steam engine, five horse power. Price $15. Call at 80 Plain st.

I HAVE A NATIONAL CASH REGISTER for sale; registers 10 to 150; prints on acid entry and check. Will sell for cash or on time. Address X, Sun Office.

CHILD'S CRIB and spring, nearly new, for sale; also Webster's Dictionary with metal stand; would exchange for a new large ice box. Apply 156 Broadway st.

SAILBOAT for sale—A sailing dory, decked over 21 feet long with copper air tanks, extra good sailer and in good condition. Complete with sails, spars, etc. Anchor. Apply to Edward M. Abbott, Westford, Mass.

SEVERAL SECOND-HAND HUGGIES, surreys and harnesses for sale at bargain prices. Sparks' stable.

ORDER FOR DECORATION DAY

We have been in the decoration business at the same old stand for more than 20 years and we have the best and latest plants in the city; also cut flowers. We do cemetery work, and all kinds of special designs for funerals, weddings and parties, at lowest prices. All orders promptly attended to. Call or telephone 100 Greenhouses, Hynes, Florist and Gardener, 1828 Gorham st.

LADIES' AND GENTLEMEN'S GARMENTS

Cleaned and Made to Look Like New

J. F. McLAUGHLIN,
Office, 15 Palmer St., Room 3
Tel. 1000-2. We will do the rest.

BAKER

We furnish the wall paper and border to match, and send a first class paperhanger to hang the same, for $2 per room. Free samples of wall paper on request. Painting in all its branches, and whitewashing.

THE NEW BAKER Phone 1072-4
203 MIDDLESEX STREET

We Loan MONEY

To Housekeepers and Salaried Employees

Confident of being able to supply cash help in a more satisfactory manner than heretofore offered by loan companies, the Household Loan Company begins business with methods a little more elastic and a good bit more considerate than can be found elsewhere, and with a desire to be a helpful institution to anyone needing its kind of service.

HOUSEHOLD LOAN CO., Wynn's Exchange, Cor. Merrick and Central Sts. Fifth Floor. Take Elevator. Rooms 503 and 605.
LOANS MADE IN ALL SUBURBAN TOWNS

OPEN EVENINGS UNTIL 9 O'CLOCK
MONDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY EVENINGS UNTIL 9 O'CLOCK

SITUATIONS WANTED

SITUATION WANTED—Refined Danish gentleman of good family, speaking English, wishes any advancing position in city or country. Address William Terndrup, General Delivery, City.

HELP WANTED

NOGGER, HEAD OPERATOR wanted on men's and children's shoes. Apply Andrews Wascott Co. Tanner and Lincoln st.

JOIRYMEN MOULDERS wanted on green sand floor work. Steady work, good pay, shop handy to Boston. State age and experience. Address Engine Box 167, Boston.

YOUNG MAN wanted who has had some experience in the most of the vision business. Must be honest and willing to work. Address letter, stating experience and name of last employer, to H. O. Sun Office.

GIRL WANTED for housework. Apply 1111 North St., Lowell, Mass. Bag of car hire, Gilson.

FLOOR MOULDERS and helpers wanted. Apply in person at Chelmsford Foundry Co., North Chelmsford.

EXPERIENCED BAKERS wanted at once, at 620 School st.

GIRL WANTED to work in restaurant from 12 to 1 o'clock daily. Apply Blood's Restaurant, Prescott st.

FARM HAND WANTED, call on Frank E. Bailey, near Hood farm.

MAN WANTED to collect lenses Saturday afternoon and evenings; state age, employment, married, P. J. Finnegan, Jamaica Plain, Mass.

EXPERIENCED KITCHEN GIRL wanted at once. Apply 5 Dutton st.

GIRL WANTED for general housework. Inquire at 47 Tyler st.

COMPETENT GIRL wanted to do cooking and general housework. Call day evenings at 100 Hollywood ave. for four minutes' walk from Oakland car.

AGENTS WANTED for franchise proposition which sells at sight. Particulars free. In almost every home. Particulars free. The Woodruff Merchandising Co., Main st., Bennington, Vt.

GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES wanted. Write for Lowell examination schedule. Preparation free. Franklin Institute, Dept. 1480, Rochester, N. Y.

WANTED

GIRL to work in store. Must speak French and English. Apply between 8.30 and 8.40 Tuesday morning. The Sperry & Hutchinson Co., 25 John st.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

FINE INVESTMENT PROPERTY for sale. Near Cady st. 3 tenement house, best of repair, never vacant, 5, 6 and 7 rooms. Yearly rental of $300. Low at $3000. Abel R. Campbell, 417 Middlesex st., cor. Thorndike.

ABSOLUTELY BEST BARGAIN in Pawtucketville, near Fifth ave. 5 fine rooms, steam heat, bath, hot and cold water, pantry, corner, 4 bedrooms, for sale. $2500. Abel R. Campbell, 417 Middlesex st., cor. Thorndike.

FARM AND ACRES with buildings, for sale. There are 19 acres of land fronting on streets. I will sell by lot or the whole farm. Call and see me. John A. Croft, 145 Tenth st.

HOUSE LOTS bordering on Long Pond, at Rocky Point, for sale or lease for a term of years. Particulars S. C. Cummings, R. F. D. No. 3, Lowell.

HOUSES FOR SALE

To settle estate will sell houses on Second and Third sts. Inquire of M. I. Howe, 84 Methuen st.

LAND FOR SALE
Two acre high dry and tuberculosis situation; two minutes from Center st. Inquire of M. I. Howe, 84 Methuen st.

FOR SALE
Belvidere House Lots
Also a Few Choice Lots in the Highlands.
A new 10-room house with all modern conveniences for sale.

D. W. DEWAR
Room 4, 13 Merrimack Sq.

WANTED

WASHING WANTED to do by the hour. Apply 337 Gorham st.

WANTED TO BUY a good horse for grocery delivery, weight about 1000 lbs. Must be sound and not afraid of anything. Apply 354 High st., Tel. 1151-2.

COUNTRY WEEK boarding place wanted for children. Apply by mail only to Mrs. A. M. Faxon, 64 Oak st.

OLD FEATHER BEDS wanted, guaranteed to pay double the amount for other dealer; also old fashioned furniture. Send orders to L. David, Gen. Delivery, Lowell.

SECOND HAND FURNITURE of all kinds wanted. Highest cash prices paid. P. J. Cusky, 435 Central st. Telephone 1835-1.

CHILDREN WANTED to board at 51 Concord st.

MEN BOARDERS wanted at 75 Tremont st. bell 1. Board $3. M. R. Miller, Prop.

LEGAL NOTICES

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS. Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of Honora Riley, otherwise known by the name of Hannah Riley, Nan Riley and Nannie S. Brown, late of Lowell, in said County, deceased, intestate.

Whereas a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Mary A. Ryan, of Lowell, in said County, or to some other suitable person.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the 15th day of June, A. D. 1910, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, in said County, to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing post-paid, a copy of this citation at least seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this eighth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS. Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the next of kin and all others interested in the estate of Rosannah Hodgson, late of Carlisle, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, Frank H. Blightman, the administrator of the estate of said deceased, has presented to said Court for allowance the account of his administration on said estate and application has been made for distribution of the balance in his hands among the next of kin of said deceased.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the twenty-fifth day of May, A. D. 1910, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be allowed and distribution made according to said application.

And the petitioner is ordered to serve this citation by publishing the same once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, in said County, to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing post-paid, a copy of this citation at least seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this fifth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ten.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS. Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To all persons interested in the estate of Clara H. Adams, of Lowell, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, Eunice H. Blanchard, conservator of the property of said Clara H. Adams, has presented for allowance, her account as such conservator, and you are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the twenty-fifth day of May, A. D. 1910, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be allowed.

And said conservator is ordered to serve this citation by delivering a copy thereof to all persons interested in the estate of said Clara H. Adams, and by publishing the same once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, in said County, to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing post-paid, a copy of this citation at least seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this fifth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS. Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To all persons interested in the estate of James Fairleigh, late of Tewksbury, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court for Probate, by Penelope Fairleigh, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to her, the executrix therein named, without giving a surety on her official bond.

And on being cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the twenty-first day of June, A. D. 1910, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, in said County, to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing post-paid, a copy of this citation at least seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this fifth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS. Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of Honora Riley, otherwise known by the name of Hannah Riley, Nan Riley and Nannie S. Brown, late of Lowell, in said County, deceased, intestate.

Whereas a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Mary A. Ryan, of Lowell, in said County, or to some other suitable person.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the 15th day of June, A. D. 1910, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, in said County, to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing post-paid, a copy of this citation at least seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this eighth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS. Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the next of kin and all others interested in the estate of Rosannah Hodgson, late of Carlisle, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, Frank H. Blightman, the administrator of the estate of said deceased, has presented to said Court for allowance the account of his administration on said estate and application has been made for distribution of the balance in his hands among the next of kin of said deceased.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the twenty-fifth day of May, A. D. 1910, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be allowed and distribution made according to said application.

And the petitioner is ordered to serve this citation by publishing the same once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, in said County, to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing post-paid, a copy of this citation at least seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this fifth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ten.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS. Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To all persons interested in the estate of Clara H. Adams, of Lowell, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, Eunice H. Blanchard, conservator of the property of said Clara H. Adams, has presented for allowance, her account as such conservator, and you are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the twenty-fifth day of May, A. D. 1910, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be allowed.

And said conservator is ordered to serve this citation by delivering a copy thereof to all persons interested in the estate of said Clara H. Adams, and by publishing the same once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, in said County, to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing post-paid, a copy of this citation at least seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this fifth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS. Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of Honora Riley, otherwise known by the name of Hannah Riley, Nan Riley and Nannie S. Brown, late of Lowell, in said County, deceased, intestate.

Whereas a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Mary A. Ryan, of Lowell, in said County, or to some other suitable person.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the 15th day of June, A. D. 1910, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, in said County, to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing post-paid, a copy of this citation at least seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this eighth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS. Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the next of kin and all others interested in the estate of Rosannah Hodgson, late of Carlisle, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, Frank H. Blightman, the administrator of the estate of said deceased, has presented to said Court for allowance the account of his administration on said estate and application has been made for distribution of the balance in his hands among the next of kin of said deceased.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the twenty-fifth day of May, A. D. 1910, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be allowed and distribution made according to said application.

And the petitioner is ordered to serve this citation by publishing the same once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, in said County, to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing post-paid, a copy of this citation at least seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this fifth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ten.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS. Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To all persons interested in the estate of Clara H. Adams, of Lowell, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, Eunice H. Blanchard, conservator of the property of said Clara H. Adams, has presented for allowance, her account as such conservator, and you are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the twenty-fifth day of May, A. D. 1910, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be allowed.

And said conservator is ordered to serve this citation by delivering a copy thereof to all persons interested in the estate of said Clara H. Adams, and by publishing the same once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, in said County, to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing post-paid, a copy of this citation at least seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this fifth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS. Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of Honora Riley, otherwise known by the name of Hannah Riley, Nan Riley and Nannie S. Brown, late of Lowell, in said County, deceased, intestate.

Whereas a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Mary A. Ryan, of Lowell, in said County, or to some other suitable person.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the 15th day of June, A. D. 1910, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, in said County, to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing post-paid, a copy of this citation at least seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this eighth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS. Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the next of kin and all others interested in the estate of Rosannah Hodgson, late of Carlisle, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, Frank H. Blightman, the administrator of the estate of said deceased, has presented to said Court for allowance the account of his administration on said estate and application has been made for distribution of the balance in his hands among the next of kin of said deceased.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the twenty-fifth day of May, A. D. 1910, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be allowed and distribution made according to said application.

And the petitioner is ordered to serve this citation by publishing the same once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, in said County, to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing post-paid, a copy of this citation at least seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this fifth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ten.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS. Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To all persons interested in the estate of Clara H. Adams, of Lowell, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, Eunice H. Blanchard, conservator of the property

TRAINS TO AND FROM BOSTON

SOUTHERN DIV.				WESTERN DIV.
To Boston	From Boston	To Boston	From Boston	To Boston	From Boston	To Boston	From Boston
Live. 6.30	6.15	7.15	7.00	Live. 6.30	6.15	7.15	7.00
6.45	6.30	7.30	7.15	6.45	6.30	7.30	7.15
6.55	6.40	7.40	7.25	6.55	6.40	7.40	7.25
7.05	6.50	7.50	7.35	7.05	6.50	7.50	7.35
7.15	7.00	8.00	7.45	7.15	7.00	8.00	7.45
7.25	7.10	8.10	7.55	7.25	7.10	8.10	7.55
7.35	7.20	8.20	8.05	7.35	7.20	8.20	8.05
7.45	7.30	8.30	8.15	7.45	7.30	8.30	8.15
7.55	7.40	8.40	8.25	7.55	7.40	8.40	8.25
8.05	7.50	8.50	8.35	8.05	7.50	8.50	8.35
8.15	8.00	9.00	8.45	8.15	8.00	9.00	8.45
8.25	8.10	9.10	8.55	8.25	8.10	9.10	8.55
8.35	8.20	9.20	9.05	8.35	8.20	9.20	9.05
8.45	8.30	9.30	9.15	8.45	8.30	9.30	9.15
8.55	8.40	9.40	9.25	8.55	8.40	9.40	9.25
9.05	8.50	9.50	9.35	9.05	8.50	9.50	9.35
9.15	9.00	10.00	9.45	9.15	9.00	10.00	9.45
9.25	9.10	10.10	9.55	9.25	9.10	10.10	9.55
9.35	9.20	10.20	10.05	9.35	9.20	10.20	10.05
9.45	9.30	10.30	10.15	9.45	9.30	10.30	10.15
9.55	9.40	10.40	10.25	9.55	9.40	10.40	10.25
10.05	9.50	10.50	10.35	10.05	9.50	10.50	10.35
10.15	10.00	11.00	10.45	10.15	10.00	11.00	10.45
10.25	10.10	11.10	10.55	10.25	10.10	11.10	10.55
10.35	10.20	11.20	11.05	10.35	10.20	11.20	11.05
10.45	10.30	11.30	11.15	10.45	10.30	11.30	11.15
10.55	10.40	11.40	11.25	10.55	10.40	11.40	11.25
11.05	10.50	11.50	11.35	11.05	10.50	11.50	11.35
11.15	11.00	12.00	11.45	11.15	11.00	12.00	11.45
11.25	11.10	12.10	11.55	11.25	11.10	12.10	11.55
11.35	11.20	12.20	12.05	11.35	11.20	12.20	12.05
11.45	11.30	12.30	12.15	11.45	11.30	12.30	12.15
11.55	11.40	12.40	12.25	11.55	11.40	12.40	12.25
12.05	11.50	12.50	12.35	12.05	11.50	12.50	12.35
12.15	12.00	13.00	12.45	12.15	12.00	13.00	12.45
12.25	12.10	13.10	12.55	12.25	12.10	13.10	12.55
12.35	12.20	13.20	13.05	12.35	12.20	13.20	13.05
12.45	12.30	13.30	13.15	12.45	12.30	13.30	13.15
12.55	12.40	13.40	13.25	12.55	12.40	13.40	13.25
13.05	12.50	13.50	13.35	13.05	12.50	13.50	13.35
13.15	13.00	14.00	13.45	13.15	13.00	14.00	13.45
13.25	13.10	14.10	13.55	13.25	13.10	14.10	13.55
13.35	13.20	14.20	14.05	13.35	13.20	14.20	14.05
13.45	13.30	14.30	14.15	13.45	13.30	14.30	14.15
13.55	13.40	14.40	14.25	13.55	13.40	14.40	14.25
14.05	13.50	14.50	14.35	14.05	13.50	14.50	14.35
14.15	14.00	15.00	14.45	14.15	14.00	15.00	14.45
14.25	14.10	15.10	14.55	14.25	14.10	15.10	14.55
14.35	14.20	15.20	15.05	14.35	14.20	15.20	15.05
14.45	14.30	15.30	15.15	14.45	14.30	15.30	15.15
14.55	14.40	15.40	15.25	14.55	14.40	15.40	15.25
15.05	14.50	15.50	15.35	15.05	14.50	15.50	15.35
15.15	15.00	16.00	15.45	15.15	15.00	16.00	15.45
15.25	15.10	16.10	15.55	15.25	15.10	16.10	15.55
15.35	15.20	16.20	16.05	15.35	15.20	16.20	16.05
15.45	15.30	16.30	16.15	15.45	15.30	16.30	16.15
15.55	15.40	16.40	16.25	15.55	15.40	16.40	16.25
16.05	15.50	16.50	16.35	16.05	15.50	16.50	16.35
16.15	16.00	17.00	16.45	16.15	16.00	17.00	16.45
16.25	16.10	17.10	16.55	16.25	16.10	17.10	16.55
16.35	16.20	17.20	17.05	16.35	16.20	17.20	17.05
16.45	16.30	17.30	17.15	16.45	16.30	17.30	17.15
16.55	16.40	17.40	17.25	16.55	16.40	17.40	17.25
17.05	16.50	17.50	17.35	17.05	16.50	17.50	17.35
17.15	17.00	18.00	17.45	17.15	17.00	18.00	17.45
17.25	17.10	18.10	17.55	17.25	17.10	18.10	17.55
17.35	17.20	18.20	18.05	17.35	17.20	18.20	18.05
17.45	17.30	18.30	18.15	17.45	17.30	18.30	18.15
17.55	17.40	18.40	18.25	17.55	17.40	18.40	18.25
18.05	17.50	18.50	18.35	18.05	17.50	18.50	18.35
18.15	18.00	19.00	18.45	18.15	18.00	19.00	18.45
18.25	18.10	19.10	18.55	18.25	18.10	19.10	18.55
18.35	18.20	19.20	19.05	18.35	18.20	19.20	19.05
18.45	18.30	19.30	19.15	18.45	18.30	19.30	19.15
18.55	18.40	19.40	19.25	18.55	18.40	19.40	19.25
19.05	18.50	19.50	19.35	19.05	18.50	19.50	19.35
19.15	19.00	20.00	19.45	19.15	19.00	20.00	19.45
19.25	19.10	20.10	19.55	19.25	19.10	20.10	19.55
19.35	19.20	20.20	20.05	19.35	19.20	20.20	20.05
19.45	19.30	20.30	20.15	19.45	19.30	20.30	20.15
19.55	19.40	20.40	20.25	19.55	19.40	20.40	20.25
20.05	19.50	20.50	20.35	20.05	19.50	20.50	20.35
20.15	20.00	21.00	20.45	20.15	20.00	21.00	20.45
20.25	20.10	21.10	20.55	20.25	20.10	21.10	20.55
20.35	20.20	21.20	21.05	20.35	20.20	21.20	21.05
20.45	20.30	21.30	21.15	20.45	20.30	21.30	21.15
20.55	20.40	21.40	21.25	20.55	20.40	21.40	21.25
21.05	20.50	21.50	21.35	21.05	20.50	21.50	21.35
21.15	21.00	22.00	21.45	21.15	21.00	22.00	21.45
21.25	21.10	22.10	21.55	21.25	21.10	22.10	21.55
21.35	21.20	22.20	22.05	21.35	21.20	22.20	22.05
21.45	21.30	22.30	22.15	21.45	21.30	22.30	22.15
21.55	21.40	22.40	22.25	21.55	21.40	22.40	22.25
22.05	21.50	22.50	22.35	22.05	21.50	22.50	22.35
22.15	22.00	23.00	22.45	22.15	22.00	23.00	22.45
22.25	22.10	23.10	22.55	22.25	22.10	23.10	22.55
22.35	22.20	23.20	23.05	22.35	22.20	23.20	23.05
22.45	22.30	23.30	23.15	22.45	22.30	23.30	23.15
22.55	22.40	23.40	23.25	22.55	22.40	23.40	23.25
23.05	22.50	23.50	23.35	23.05	22.50	23.50	23.35
23.15	23.00	24.00	23.45	23.15	23.00	24.00	23.45
23.25	23.10	24.10	23.55	23.25	23.10	24.10	23.55
23.35	23.20	24.20	24.05	23.35	23.20	24.20	24.05
23.45	23.30	24.30	24.15	23.45	23.30	24.30	24.15
23.55	23.40	24.40	24.25	23.55	23.40	24.40	24.25
24.05	23.50	24.50	24.35	24.05	23.50	24.50	24.35
24.15	24.00	25.00	24.45	24.15	24.00	25.00	24.45
24.25	24.10	25.10	24.55	24.25	24.10	25.10	24.55
24.35	24.20	25.20	25.05	24.35	24.20	25.20	25.05
24.45	24.30	25.30	25.15	24.45	24.30	25.30	25.15
24.55	24.40	25.40	25.25	24.55	24.40	25.40	25.25
25.05	24.50	25.50	25.35	25.05	24.50	25.50	25.35
25.15	25.00	26.00	25.45	25.15	25.00	26.00	25.45
25.25	25.10	26.10	25.55	25.25	25.10	26.10	25.55
25.35	25.20	26.20	26.05	25.35	25.20	26.20	26.05
25.45	25.30	26.30	26.15	25.45	25.30	26.30	26.15
25.55	25.40	26.40	26.25	25.55	25.40	26.40	26.25
26.05	25.50	26.50	26.35	26.05	25.50	26.50	26.35
26.15	26.00	27.00	26.45	26.15	26.00	27.00	26.45
26.25	26.10	27.10	26.55	26.25	26.10	27.10	26.55
26.35	26.20	27.20	27.05	26.35	26.20	27.20	27.05
26.45	26.30	27.30	27.15	26.45	26.30	27.30	27.15
26.55	26.40	27.40	27.25	26.55	26.40	27.40	27.25
27.05	26.50	27.50	27.35	27.05	26.50	27.50	27.35
27.15	27.00	28.00	27.45	27.15	27.00	28.00	27.45
27.25	27.10	28.10	27.55	27.25	27.10	28.10	27.55
27.35	27.20	28.20	28.05	27.35	27.20	28.20	28.05
27.45	27.30	28.30	28.15	27.45	27.30	28.30	28.15
27.55	27.40	28.40	28.25	27.55	27.40	28.40	28.25
28.05	27.50	28.50	28.35	28.05	27.50	28.50	28.35
28.15	28.00	29.00	28.45	28.15	28.00	29.00	28.45
28.25	28.10	29.10	28.55	28.25	28.10	29.10	28.55
28.35	28.20	29.20	29.05	28.35	28.20	29.20	29.05
28.45	28.30	29.30	29.15	28.45	28.30	29.30	29.15
28.55	28.40	29.40	29.25	28.55	28.40	29.40	29.25
29.05	28.50	29.50	29.35	29.05	28.50	29.50	29.35
29.15	29.00	30.00	29.45	29.15	29.00	30.00	29.45
29.25	29.10	30.10	29.55	29.25	29.10	30.10	29.55
29.35	29.20	30.20	30.05	29.35	29.20	30.20	30.05
29.45	29.30	30.30	30.15	29.45	29.30	30.30	30.15
29.55	29.40	30.40	30.25	29.55	29.40	30.40	30.25
30.05	29.50	30.50	30.35	30.05	29.50	30.50	30.35